Mr. and Mrs. David Gerth of Pleasant Ridge, Ohio, spent Saturday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gerth, of Verona Road, and attended the alumni dinner in the evening.

At the Walton-Verona alumni dinner Saturday evening, a special effort was made by the 1924 class to have members get together after being graduates 40 years. Those present were Adolph Edwards of Chicago, Ill., Charles Johnson of Lansing, Ill., Mrs. Helen Percival McCammon of Louisville, and Lloyd Johnson of Hamilton, Ohio, joined Mrs. Fay Metcalf Conner, Miss Louise Conrad, and Mrs. Ethaline Burris Whitson, all of Walton, in a pleasant evening of visiting and reminiscing. Some of these classmates had not seen one another during this period of time.

Mrs. Sarah Hedges of Grant County, mother of Mrs. H. P. Gouge of U. S. 25, Walton, is a patient at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. The condition of R. M. Callender is improved. He has been very ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Guth, High School Court.

How come you see a woman with an odd-looking hat on and you say, "Did you notice that lady's hat?" She answers, yes, that's the latest style. Then you go in church where there are probably 200 other women and no one has a hat like that. Are the others all out of style? We have got our first time to see two hats just alike. Also, one woman says

20 YEARS AGO

MAY 14, 1944

The Walton Christian Church paid tribute to Granny Cleek, 85, the oldest mother, by presenting her with a beautiful potted plant during the church service Sunday.

Word has been received from Pvt. Donald Stephenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stephenson, and husband of Mrs. Dora Stephenson that he has safely arrived on an island in the South Pacific.

Mrs. Ray Gullion and two daughters of Louisville, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsh, and family.

Mrs. George Baker and sons, G. W. and Johnny, and Miss Norma Jean Stephenson, have returned from Florida.

Mrs. L. A. Gardiner of Lexington, spent the weekend here with her daughter, Helen Ruth Gardiner, returning home Sunday evening.

A letter received from our local mail carrier, Ward R. Rice, who is serving his time for Uncle Sam, says he is stationed at Camp Blanding, Fla.

Rev. W. E. Garriott, pastor of the Erlanger Methodist Church, will assist Rev. C. G. Dearing, pastor of the Walton Methodist Church, in a two-weeks revival at the local church.

Rural Life Sunday will be observed in Kentucky on Sunday,

May 21. This is being sponsored and promoted by Rural Church Council and the State College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

There's one thing this house doesn't have!

What a pity! A beautiful, modern home with an old-fashion heating system.

Had it been built on our lines, the owner could have installed safe, modern Electric Heat. And he would have saved money doing it, too!

Electric Heat costs less to install because there are no expensive ducts and chimneys. No need to buy storage tanks, either. But the real savings come later... savings in heating bills and maintenance costs.

More important, Electric Heat is the superior heating system. Gives even, healthful heat. Temperature is controlled to "just right" warmth in each room. And Electric Heat is as safe as a light bulb because it's flameless!

ELECTRIC HEAT

Now's the time to install Electric Heat in your home. Whether you build or remodel, you can earn a $75.00 bonus by installing Electric Heat. A limited offer; call us for details today.

Wendell Butler, Commissioner of Agriculture, will be the principal speaker at the annual Livestock Improvement Association Banquet at 7:30 p. m. this (Thursday) evening, at the Christian Church in Florence. Beef growers of the county are urged to be in attendance. The banquet is co-sponsored by the Boone County Livestock Improvement Association and the Northern Kentucky Production Credit Association.

Only 50 percent of the green portion of a blade of grass should be removed each time you mow the lawn. The green blades of grass manufacture food for the plant... if 90 percent of the blade is removed, root growth stops for several days or even weeks. A rule to remember is: Mow when the grass doubles in height. Set your mower at 2 to 3 inches for bluegrass and fescue.

Why do termites swarm? As the weather gets warmer, the temperature and humidity changes which termites colonies in the soil. Some of the winged reproductive termites in each colony leave in swarms to seek living quarters elsewhere. The reproducers swarm over homes and in a short time lose their wings, mate, and establish new colonies if they can find a suitable soil-moisture-wood relationship. Fortunately, many termites never live to establish colonies. Termites live in the soil and the workers leave the colonies by way of earthen tubes, to feed on wood. They get essential moisture from the soil, to which they return constantly. For this reason poisoning the soil is the most effective control measure. Termites are often mistaken for winged ants. Ants, however, have thin waistlines and two pairs of unequal size wings, while termites have thick waists and their wings are all of equal size.

—What does it cost?— is probably the first question asked when buying seed for your lawn or garden. But be sure to read the label as well as the price tag. A "bargain buy" in seed may not be a bargain at all. Usually the only way to tell the difference between high and low priced seed fixtures is to check the label. Such factors as kind and variety, purity and germination rate are often more important than price... and the label must give information about these. Comparing information given on the labels of seeds priced at different levels will be well worth your time.

KENTON COUNTY PTA COUNCIL TO MEET

Kenton County Council PTA will meet at 10 o'clock on May 18, at the Covington YMCA. This will be a luncheon meeting and reservations should be made to Mrs. James Thomas by Thursday, May 14th. At this meeting we will have the installation of the following officers: President, Mrs. Frank Palmer, Jr.; first vice-president, Mrs. Vincent Hartje; second vice-president, Mrs. James Thomas; recording secretary, Mrs. M. P. Fletcher; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. C. Adams; and treasurer, Mrs. Wesley Hall.

The Peggy Kinney Award will be presented at this meeting. The president will also give the awards won by the units in the Kenton County Council during the past year. Mrs. Palmer requests that chairmen have their written reports in at this time.

Plans are being formulated for Kenton County Day at Coney Island to be held on June 4th.

When choosing rhubarb, look for firm, crisp, tender stalks, free from handling damage.

TAYLOR MILL PTA INSTALLATION MAY 18

Installation of officers will take place at the meeting of the Taylor Mill PTA on Monday, May 18 at 8:00 p. m., in the school auditorium. These officers will be installed: Mrs. Luell Hollar, president; Mrs. Arthur Bingham, vice president; Mrs. Everett Egan, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles Kelly, treasurer; Mrs. Walter Simmons, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. R. B. Daugherty, study group chairman, will present Miss Irene Reynolds, a representative of Scott-Fore Book Company, who will discuss the "New Arithmetic Method." Parents are urged to avail themselves of the opportunity to become informed on this important subject.

There will be a 4-H exhibit of work completed this year.

In advance of this meeting, the executive board will meet Thursday, May 14, at 1:30 p. m., at the school.

Veterans Administration Questions and Answers

Q—Several years ago I received a widow's pension under the "old" law. Later, I started to work and my income exceeded the limitations allowed. I plan to retire soon and will reapply for benefits. Will I still be entitled to them under the "old" law?

A—if you were receiving the pension on or before July 1, 1960, and are otherwise eligible, you will resume payments under the "old" law automatically, unless you elect the current pension system.

Q—Is there a special provision on eligibility for VA hospitalization for mental illness?

A—For purposes of hospitalization, veterans with service during World War II or the Korean Conflict, who developed an active psychosis within two years from the date of their separation from such active service, and before July 26, 1949, in the case of a veteran of World War II, or February 1, 1957, in the case of a veteran of the Korean Conflict, are deemed to have incurred this disability in active service and hence are admitted to VA hospitals under the first priority group.

Q—Since the Civil War is now 100 years ago and all the veterans on both sides are dead, how come more than 1,000 widows are still alive to collect pensions?

A—Many of these veterans married women many years their junior.

Q—Is a World War II veteran who is 100 percent disabled eligible for a GI loan to buy a home?

A—Yes, if he is otherwise qualified and can meet the credit requirements of the lender.

Q—Does a veteran with dependents receive an extra allowance when attending school under the GI Bill?

A—Yes. A veteran in full time training receives $110 a month; with one dependent he receives $135 a month; and with more than one dependent he receives $150 a month.

Q—Under what conditions can a veteran with National Service Life Insurance file an application for a waiver of premiums?

A—The insured must have an impairment of mind or body which continuously renders it impossible for the insured to follow any substantially gainful occupation for 6 or more consecutive months.

WHITES TOWER

Mrs. Ralph Howard, Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leonard of the Tower, spent the weekend in Lexington, where they attended the wedding of Miss Pat Krolick.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Binder and son and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Nunnery of Roselawn Drive, had Mother's Day dinner at the Cherokee Lounge.

I am very sorry to say our neighbor, Gil Eckerle, of Decoursey Road, passed away Thursday evening. We extend our deepest sympathy to his family.

Little Bruce Binder is on the sick list...looks like measles.

Staffordsburg

Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Reporter

Mrs. Caroline Armstrong was honored on Mother's Day by visits from her children and some of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Among those calling were Mr. and Mrs. Petrie, Mr. and Mrs. James Leisure and children, and Mrs. David Irvine.

This community was shocked by the death of Gilmore Eckerle, on Thursday evening at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Our sympathy is with his family.

We had a good number out for Sunday School. Mrs. Nunery's class gave the devotional in quite an interesting manner. A flower was presented to each mother in attendance, thanks to the M.Y.F. John Klein and his brother, Chas. Klein, returned on Wednesday after having spent the winter in Florida. They visited their sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Riggs, Thursday.

Mrs. Dora House is still not improving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shaw called on Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rector on Sunday afternoon.

Earl Hanna, enroute home from Florida, is visiting his sister in Lexington.

Forum to be conducted by specialist in the electric home heating field. These experts will be available to answer questions you may have and to council with you on heating your home the FLAMELESS way.

BOONE PTA COUNCIL

A Ribbon Ceremony-Installation was the highlight of a recent meeting of the Boone County PTA Council.

After Rev. Don Nunnally read the devotion, Mrs. Kenny, a former first vice-president of the 8th District PTA Council, conducted the installation.

Officers for the coming year are Mrs. Harry Henson, president; Mrs. Russell Jackson, vice-president; Mrs. William Scroggins, secretary and treasurer.

All presidents and principals in attendance were recognized and

Mr. Arnold Marshall, principal of Florence Grade School was given a special recognition for attending all but one council meeting during the year.

Mrs. William Foote invited those attending to a meeting for the proposed library for Boone Co.

V.F.W. Auxiliary Officers

Newly-elected officers of Boone County Memorial Ladies Auxiliary Veterans of Foreign Wars, 6099, Florence, were elected recently at the home of the president, Mrs. Wanda Smith.

Those named were: Mrs. Betty

Hyland, president; Mrs. Virginia Wuellner, senior vice president; Mrs. Shirley Ferguson, junior vice president; Mrs. Ada Horton, treasurer; Mrs. Wanda Smith, chaplain and Mrs. Dorothy Hughes, secretary.

Installation will be held May 24 at 2:00 p. m. in the Florence Community Center.

Boone Republicans to Meet

The Boone County Republican Club will hold its regular monthly meeting at 8 p. m. on Thursday, May 14, at Republican Headquarters, Florence. Since this is the final meeting prior to the Republican Primary May 26, all members are urged to attend. Those interested in the activities of the Republican Party are always cordially welcomed at the meetings.

Piner Busy Bee 4-H Club Program

April 28 at 9:00 a. m., the Piner Busy Bee 4-H Club presented their annual show. Wm. R. Brown, the principal, appointed an officer from each room to preside at the meeting.

President, Sally Rust of Mrs. Wolfe's 5th and 6th grades; vice president, Ada Spegal of Mrs. Bailey's 4th grade; secretary, Linda Whaley of Mrs. Brown's 6th grade; reporter, Rhonda LaFollette of Mrs. Steinhauer's 5th grade; pledge leader, Debbie Swango of Mrs. Stevenson's 4th grade. Each room had a part in the program.

Mrs. Stevenson's 4th grade read the devotional, followed by prayer. Mrs. Steinhauer's 5th grade act was called "Smiles and Cheers." Doty Robinson, a 4th grade student from Mrs. Stevenson's room, sang "Sad Movies." Mrs. Bailey's 4th grade presented "Six Little Mothers." Mrs. Brown's 6th grade played two songs on the bells and had a play called "The Troublesome Ford." Rhonda LaFollette, a 5th grade student from Mrs. Steinhauer's room, did a song and dance, "Bill Bailey." Mrs. Wolfe's 5th and 6th grade sang and acted the "Crooked Little House."

The president then turned the program over to Mr. Maddox, who talked about 4-H camp and 4-H projects.

The same program will be presented at the May 21 meeting of the Piner PTA.

High-Producing Holstein

Star View Walker Burke, 4443-601, a 5-year-old registered Holstein cow owned by Frank E. Jackson, Independence, has produced a noteworthy record of 19,100 lbs. of milk and 655 lbs. of butterfat in 305 days.

The University of Kentucky supervised the production, weighing, and testing operations, in cooperation with the official breed improvement programs of The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

This level of production may be compared with the average U. S. dairy cow's annual output of 7500 lbs. milk, containing 275 lbs. of butterfat.

CARD OF THANKS—

I would like to express my thanks to all my friends and neighbors for the many cards and flowers I received while in the hospital and at home. I would like to thank, also, the ministers from the different churches that came to see me while I was in the hospital, for their prayers, and the many kindnesses shown me. They will always be appreciated and remembered by me.

Take A Stand

Lesson for May 17, 1964

Background Scripture: Proverbs 31:30-31; Matthew 12:10-14; Romans 12:11 through 14:12.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 46:1-6.

THE BIBLE was written in a simpler era than ours. Many people would think the Bible world ideal. At least it would seem like a world which lacked many of what are now often considered sources of human evils. It was a rural world; in Palestine there were comparatively few cities and none that would be regarded as such today. It was a world where alcoholic drinks were everywhere used.

Dr. Foreman even by the best people. It was a time before the invention of whiskey and other beverages high in alcoholic content. Drinking was confined to wines and beer or their equivalent. It was an age without motor cars or machinery, a leisurely hand-crafting age. Yet even in that world, the writers of the Bible had something to say about drinking. The point of all this is: If alcoholic drinks were known to be dangerous in a simple rural world, how much more dangerous it can be in our complex civilization!

The speed of the problem

There was once a stage magician who used to say over and over as he was doing his stuff, "It's the speed of the problem and not the problem itself." Something like that is true of the world we live in. This has a great deal to do with the alcohol problem. For instance: Time was when men would gather in taverns or at parties, just as they do today; and some of them would get drunk, as many do today. But when the party was over, in the good old days the friends of the man who had had too much would dump him into his wagon and get the horses started. That animal knew his way home and (being sober) knew enough not to speed. (Did you ever hear of horses organizing a race meet by themselves?) But nowadays—whoo! If that noise you heard was the sound of our friend who was just telling us that one more drink couldn't do any harm. He took off in his high-powered car and he's likely to be a statistic by morning. There's nothing funny about this. It happens. Now the stories reported don't always tell the whole truth; but the police will tell you if you ask them that alcohol figures in many smash-ups on the highways.

Why men drink

It is said often that the real problem is not drinking itself, but in the question: What drives men to create for themselves a drinking problem? Again the speed of our civilization has something to do with it. The intensity of competition, tension on the highways, tensions at home, the sense of being pushed all the time, get on a man's nerves and he starts to drink just a little more and a little oftener than he would have otherwise; and the first thing he knows, he not only has all the worries that pushed him at the outset, but he has the alcohol problem besides. Every problem drinker you find is (perhaps unconsciously) expressing hate and contempt for the kind of civilization he is forced to live in. Rather than contribute to it or to work for a better kind of life, he tells the world a rude, crude farewell, all he thinks of is to get out. So he takes the route of temporary suicide. There's no essential difference between a man who seeks refuge in alcohol and one who seeks refuge in opium or marijuana.

Well, somebody says, you are talking about alcoholics. Yes, and more besides. Alcoholism—if we call it a disease—is a disease more widely spread than any other disease in America except three and the number of alcoholics is increasing yearly.

Notes of Servicemen

Marine Private Paul G. Eckert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glimora W. Eckert of 572 Decoursey Road, Independence, completed a week of testing and screening recently at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tenn. During the week he received a battery of aptitude tests and was interviewed to determine his eligibility for technical training to prepare him for duties in the aviation field of the Marine Corps.

NO Pictures?

Don't be sad, sweetheart. The book has no pictures, but it's a wonderful story... the most wonderful story in the world! You'll hear about it in Sunday School, and when you're older you'll be able to read it for yourself.

Her eager young mind is ready to learn, and she'll find it easy to understand the glorious truths of the Bible if they are presented to her in pictures, stories and songs. The happy hours she spends in Sunday School could be the beginning of an unshakable Christian faith that will sustain her all her life.

You feel that your children deserve the best. Give them an early introduction to the beauty of the Christian religion... give them the security of a loving Christian home... and know that these are the greatest gifts you could provide.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

A Look At
Education—by—
Eugene Robinson

Two weeks of school remain on the agenda. After this many high school graduates will be seeking either a permanent job or in some cases part-time or summer employment. Many teenagers who lack a year or so of getting out of high school will be seeking summer work. These young people have been advised by school officials, parents and friends as to how they go about landing a job. I would like to take the negative approach and give some ways that a teenager or an adult for that matter might not land a job. These are reasons that are most frequently given by employers for turning down job applicants. If you are a parent of a young person seeking a job be sure that he is aware of these points. If you still have a stretch of schooling ahead of you, it will give you time to work on any negative traits that may hinder you later in getting a job or being promoted. I would like to suggest that you clip this and paste it in the back of your notebook and keep it as a constant reminder. If you are able to correct only two or three of these items that might be a problem for you it could be the difference in a happy, successful career and the inability to even get a local job. Read the following carefully and ask yourself how you would rate in relation to each:

1. Poor personal appearance.
2. Overbearing, overaggressive, conceited, superiority complex, or "know it all."
3. Inability to express himself clearly, poor voice, diction, grammar.
4. Lack of planning for career...no purpose and goals.
5. Lack of confidence and poise, nervousness, ill at ease.
6. Failure to participate in activities.
7. Overemphasis on money...interested only in best dollar offer.
8. Poor attendance record, poor scholastic record...just got by.
9. Unwilling to start at the bottom...expects too much too soon.
10. Makes excuses, evasiveness, hedges on unfavorable facts in record.
11. Lack of maturity.
12. Lack of courtesy...ill mannered.
14. Condemnation of past employers.
15. Lack of social understanding.
16. Marked dislikes for school work.

New Walton-Verona Coach

During a recent meeting the Walton-Verona Board of Education employed Mr. Lando Lockard as coach of the Walton-Verona Schools. Mr. Lockard is a native of Wolfe County and has been employed as Head Coach of the Wolfe County High School for the past six years.

Mr. Lockard is a graduate of Lincoln Memorial University of Harrogate, Tennessee, and as his 6' 5", 205 pound size would indicate, he played basketball at the school. He has also done some work at Morehead State College. The father of three children, Mr. Lockard is 28 years old and is a member of the Methodist Church.

Coach Lockard and his family want to move as soon as possible after June 1st. They need a three bedroom house in the Walton or Verona Community. Anyone knowing of a house this size for rent after June 1st please contact Mr. Eugene Robinson at the Walton School Building.

WALTON-VERONA PTA

The Walton-Verona P. T. A. will hold its last meeting of this school year at the Walton school, Monday, May 25, at 7:30 p. m.

Installation of new officers, Mrs. John Webster, as president, and Mrs. Walt Ryan as treasurer will be conducted by Eugene Robinson, superintendent of the Walton-Verona schools.

A style show, presented by the local Home Economics Department and the 4-H Clubs, and a display of the Industrial Arts Department will serve as the program.

Members are encouraged to attend this final meeting of the school year.

Baccalaureate Speaker

Rev. William R. Moore

The Rev. William R. Moore of the Walton Christian Church is to deliver the Walton-Verona Baccalaureate Sermon in a community service in the school auditorium Sunday, May 24 at 8:00 p. m. The Walton-Verona Chorus and Christian Choir will present special selections including "Alma Mater," the new Walton-Verona school song.

Commencement exercises will be held at the school on Friday, May 29 at 8:00 p. m.

Local Scrapbook Winners

BOY'S STATE DELEGATES

The following students have been selected to serve as delegates to Boy's State at Eastern State College, Richmond, June 7-13: Bobby Jones, Harry Sleet and Dennis Rich.

The purpose of Boy's State is to provide Kentucky youth with an understanding of good citizenship and governmental operations. As active citizens of Bluegrass Boy's State, the student citizens receive training in the practical aspects of city, county and the state government. The boys are divided into two parties, the "Federalists" and the "Nationalists" and plan party platforms, campaigns and elections.

The American Legion is sponsor of the program. Any interested organization or person may provide the $30 fee required for a delegate. Delegates must be Jrs. in high school showing leadership, character, and scholarship. In school, Bobby Jones is the president of the Future Teachers of America, vice-president of the Junior Class, and a member of the French Club. In his church, he is president of the Christian Youth Fellowship. Bobby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Jones of North Main Street, Walton.

Harry Sleet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sleet, is president of the Walton-Verona Student Council and has participated in basketball and baseball this year. He is a member of the Beta Club, and French Club and was in the Junior Play. In addition to being in the school band, he played in the Northern Kentucky Select Band. Harry is also active in church, being assistant organist. He has been a member of the Boy Scouts for several years. The Sleet's make their home on North Main Street in Walton.

Dennis Rich is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rich of Verona. In addition to being active in baseball and basketball, he is editor of the school paper, and is a member of the Beta Club and Chorus. Mike Kacaba, Dale Chapman, Mike Simpson, and Allen Rust are to serve as alternates if any of the delegates are unable to attend.

Carpenter For Magistrate

A well known Boone Countyan, Charlie Carpenter, of Devon, is running for Magistrate of the 2nd District in the primary election, which will be held next Tuesday. He has an ad in this issue of the Advertiser and he solicits your support.

As a Waltonian, we can't vote for Mr. Carpenter, but we have known him for many years and think he would do a good job.

Miniature Circus Displayed

A complete miniature three-ring circus, made by R. H. Goodpaster, is now on display at the Bell Bar in Walton. There is no charge and it may be seen from 8:00 a. m. to 10:00 p. m.

The circus, constructed of wood, was made by Mr. Goodpaster in his "spare" time, and is complete in every detail. It would be worth your time to stop in and see it.

When buying flower seeds look for new varieties listed as F1 hybrids...they produce more and better flowers.

Wa-Na Scholarship

The Wa-Na Club of Walton will present a $100.00 scholarship award to help a senior girl from the Walton-Verona school to further her education in a professional field of teaching or nursing.

The committee, Mrs. Maryalice Conrad, Mrs. Jack Rouse, and Mrs. Clayton Jones, met in the Conrad home last Friday evening to make the selection of the recipient of the award this year.

The award will be presented on May 28 during the Awards Night program at the school by the president of the Wa-Na Club.

The selection of this scholarship is based on scholastic standing, personal need, profession to be attained, and character references. The girls were asked to fill out an application giving personal information, and John Shoemaker, principal of the school, and teachers gave other necessary reference. Seven girls applied for this scholarship award.

OFFICE OPEN MAY 23

Charles Benson, Boone County Circuit Court Clerk, announces that his office in the Courthouse in Burlington, will be open Saturday, May 23, from 8:30 a. m. to Noon for anyone needing drivers' licenses or boat licenses.

The office, which is normally open the last Saturday of each month, will be closed May 30 due to Memorial Day.

Junior Class Car Wash

The junior class of the Walton-Verona High School will sponsor a car wash on Saturday, May 23, behind the Walton Christian Church from 8:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Cars will be thoroughly cleaned inside and out for $1.50, with pick-up and delivery service. For pick-up service, call Bob Jones, 485-4571.

Tax Commissioner of Month

Wilton Stephens

Wilton Stephens, Boone County tax commissioner for the past 31 years, was named "Kentucky Tax Commissioner of the Month" for April, according to an announcement from the State Revenue Department.

Mr. Stephens, a native of Boone County, resides at 621 Burlington Pike, with his wife, Lucille.

Gets Midway Scholarship

Miss Marilyn Scott, a senior at Walton-Verona High School, has received a $1200 college scholarship at Midway College, Midway, Kentucky, for her freshman year. The award was based on Marilyn's grades and extra-curricular activities in high school. This year she was selected as DAR Good Citizen of the year. Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, Sr., of Verona.

Model Car Show

The annual Walton-Verona model car show will be held Friday night, May 22 at the Walton school gymnasium.

There will be six official classes of cars. Custom, competition, hot rod, antique, big scale, and late model stock.

Any student is eligible to enter any number of cars in the above classes. However, no boats or planes will be shown this year.

Bring your entries, starting at 4:30 p. m., to the Walton gym, and the judging will start at approximately 6:00 p. m.

First, second and third place ribbons will be awarded in each of the above classes. First, second and third place trophies will be awarded for the top three cars of the show.

This affair is open to the public and everyone is invited to see this hobby display.

REGISTER AND VOTE

The principles of a primary election are the basic weapon the little man has for molding his political future. So, why don't more people get out and vote in the primaries? And who does actually get out and vote? The answer is discouraging on both points.

Obviously most people do not get out and vote because they, deep down, either do not care or do not understand the power they have in their vote.

Here are a few figures on voting: In 1962 3,210,972 voters went to the polls in November to vote for candidates for state offices, but only 1,328,563 voted in the nomination of those candidates in May. Of these, 616,677 voted in the Republican primary, and 692,285 voted in the Democratic primary. These figures do not total the vote given because some people voted only on the questions and issues which were on the ballot at that election.

It is thus apparent that not nearly all the people who were qualified to vote in the primaries actually do so. Yet the primary is a vital part of our election system. Some people consider it more important than the general election.

Vote in the primary for the candidate of your choice. Let your voice be heard.—Boone County Democrat Club

Married at Independence

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Johnson

St. Cecilia Church, Independence, Kentucky, was the scene of the recent marriage of Miss Donna Gruen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gruen, of that city, to Mr. Gerald Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Johnson, of Forestville, Ohio.

The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents following the nuptial mass and an evening reception was held at St. Cecilia school hall, Independence.

The bride had her sister, Mrs. Ray Tackett, as her matron of honor, and Miss Virgie Hogan and Jeanine Johnson, sister of the groom were her other attendants.

The groom had his brother, Mr. Tim Johnson as his best man, and Mr. Ray Tackett and Dan Mann, of Forestville, were his ushers.

Following their honeymoon in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, the couple will be at home to their friends in their apartment at 6246 Corby Road, Mt. Washington.

Air Conditioning?

Depends on you. If you can sit before fans all day, you'll probably be comfortable most of the summer.

But, if you're active and got things to do, you should air condition your home. You'll get more done... and feel a lot better doing it!

Air conditioning is now within everyone's budget. Costs only pennies to operate, thanks to low-cost rural electric power.

Sleep like a baby... even on the hottest, muggiest night. Gives welcome relief to those who suffer from hay fever or asthma. Live better with modern air conditioning!

Ryland Heights PTA

The Ryland Heights Elementary PTA, April 28 saw a program on Physical Education demonstrated by six boys and girls from the Mildred Dean School in Newport, Kentucky. Mr. Charles True, director of Physical Education in the Newport Schools, with the aid of these youngsters, proved what can be done in fifteen minutes a day. He stressed how important this program is to mental education. The program is a very simple but effective one.

Mr. Hayes Wilcox, principal, spoke on the trip he made to the Principal Convention at Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Mrs. CharlesPrunk, president of the Newport High PTA, installed the new officers with a lovely rendition on flowers and their place in the garden. Installed were Mrs. Alfred Wilson, president; Mrs. David Necamp, vice-president; Mrs. John Wetland, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Leistner, secretary; Mrs. Don Frank, treasurer. Mrs. Wilson then presented the outgoing president, Mrs. Paul Dorman, with a past president's pin.

School Music Program

A musical program will be presented at the final meeting at the Ryland Heights PTA in the auditorium, Tuesday, May 26th at 7:30 p. m.

The fourth, fifth and sixth grade students under the direction of Mrs. Edythe Owens, choral instructor, will perform as will the band under its director, Mr. Wm. George.

Hickory Grove WMS Meets

The Hickory Grove Baptist W. M. S. met May 5 at the home of Mrs. Ralph Jump, 668 Bowman Road. Members present were: Mrs. Jessie Fisk, Mrs. Ella Mae B'Hymer, Mrs. Lillian Fennell, Mrs. Rachel Farrell, Mrs. Flossie Snedegar, Mrs. Martha Maddox, Mrs. Martha Licklighter, Mrs. Alex Ritchie, and Mrs. Jump.

The meeting opened with a roll call, each member answering with a Bible verse. The treasurer's report was given and committee reports were heard. Mrs. Snedegar reported on community missions. A Day Circle was started by Mrs. Georgia Brown. They have been meeting at the church in the afternoon, with eight present at the last meeting. It has been named the Mary Gould Circle. Two ladies from this circle, Mrs. Jessie Bass and Mrs. Martha Carter, went to the Goodwill Center and helped with the children. All ladies of the church are urged to attend one of these meetings... the day or night... both are looking for new members.

All have enjoyed meeting in the homes the past four times: Mrs. B'Hymer's in February, Mrs. Fennell's in March, Mrs. Fisk's in April, and Mrs. Jump's in May.

After the program, "Encouraging Friends In Missions," a study on South American mission work, refreshments were enjoyed. A new minister is coming to the Hickory Grove Church... Bro. Colburn Hooten has accepted a call to be pastor. He will hold his first service May 31. He will move to the church field May 29. He is from the Long Ridge Baptist Church in Owen County.

FIRST GRADE TO REGISTER MAY 28

On May 28, at 1:30 p. m., all children that will attend the Walton-Verona School next year as a first grader will register. This is necessary in order for the school officials to do some planning. Also, it will be most beneficial for parents to know what is expected of them, and they too can do some planning.

Parents will be asked to fill out information sheets and will be given instructions as to health examination, vaccination, fees, etc. Any child who will be six years old before January 1, 1965 may enter school this fall.

It is very important that all children who will be entering the first grade in September be present on this day. If parents cannot bring them, please have a neighbor or an older child, who will be out of school on this day, bring the child.

Notes of Servicemen

Pvt. Ralph C. Jump, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jump, 668 Bowman Road, Independence, is home on a 14-day leave. He entered the Army, March 3, and received basic training at Ft. Knox. He is to leave May 24 for Fairbanks, Alaska. He is a graduate of Simon High School, and was formerly employed by Liberty Cherry in Latonia.

His older brother, Harry S. Jump, returned home last August from England. He served four years in the Air Force. A younger brother, Howard Jump, just got out of the Navy after 3½ years on the USS Valley Forge.

Army Specialist Four Marvin C. Lovelace, 23, son of Melvin Lovelace, 220 Center St., Florence, participated in Exercise Springboard, a two-week command post training exercise with the Seventh U. S. Army in Germany, which ended April 30.

Lovelace is a teletype operator in the 440th Signal Battalion's Company C, near Baumholder. He entered the Army in July of 1958 and arrived overseas in April of 1959.

Shirley Tallent, Reporter

Charles Hingler, Sr. is still a patient at Bethesda Hospital. He has been undergoing tests for over three weeks now, and the doctors are unable to find out exactly what is wrong with him.

Little Jerry Chapman of Latonia Lakes, is at St. Elizabeth Hospital in isolation because of an infection in his arm. It is had enough to be a child in a hospital but to be in isolation is even worse. He would appreciate cards from friends. Jerry is in Mrs. Miller's third grade at Taylor Mill school and a member of the G&L Lanes baseball team.

Several of the Sunday School Department at Oak Ridge Baptist Church expect to move into the new Sunday School rooms next Sunday. The church will hold a dedication service for the new church on June 28.

Bill Kenner is at Booth Hospital undergoing tests. We were sorry to learn of the sudden death of Hoba Watson of Nicholson.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rider of Lipscomb Road, on the birth of a baby son last Wednesday.

Richards Nominated For An Achievement Award

Kawanna Richards, Walton-Verona School Junior, has been nominated for the annual Achievement Award Program, sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English.

For the seventh year, the Council is conducting the national Awards competition to grant recognition to outstanding high school seniors for excellence in English. NCTE will announce the winners in December, 1964, and will send their names to every U. S. college and university.

Kawanna, a Junior at Walton-Verona School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Richards of Verona. She is active in many school organizations including Y-Teens of which she is president, and Annual Staff. Recently she received a National Science Foundation scholarship and was selected as a member of Girl's State.

McNeely Circle Meets

The McNeely Circle met at First Baptist Church, Walton, at 1:30 p. m., last Thursday afternoon with 11 members present.

The program, For Liberty and Light, was nicely planned by the program chairman, Mrs. Maxine McCubbin. Mrs. Tackett led in prayer after the program. Mrs. Knox read a letter from the McNeelys, and the business was carried out. The prayer chairman had prayer for the missionaries on our prayer calendar for the day.

The next meeting will be held the second Thursday, same time, same place. All members please come, and visitors welcome.

WALTON-VERONA SCHOOL NEWS*Awards To Be Given

The fourth annual Awards Night program is to be given in the Walton-Verona High School Auditorium on May 28 at 8:00 p. m. Outstanding students from all high school classes and activities are to be honored.

One of the greatest honors given is the D. A. R. Good Citizenship Award to be presented by Mrs. Ashlie Logan to Marilyn Scott and Frankie Parker, seniors selected by their class and the faculty. Mrs. Clinton Shields, sponsor of the Beta Club, will present the Beta Award to the most outstanding senior Beta member. The Robert W. Jones scholarship awards go to the student with the best grade averages in the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes. Superintendent Eugene Robinson is to give this award. The Salutatorian and Valedictorian addresses are given at this program. The Home Economics Department is planning to serve refreshments at the rear of the gymnasium. The public is cordially invited.

Model Car Show May 22

Walton School is sponsoring a Model Car Show Friday May 22, under the direction of Dave Jarman. Entrants should bring their cars to the school gym at 4:30; judging is to start at 6:00. The entry classes include Custom, Competition, Hot Rod, Big Scale, Antique, and Late Model Stock Cars; with first, second and third place ribbons given for each class. Three trophies will be given for the best all-around entries in the show. For additional details contact Dave Jarman.

Something New In Erlanger

A Small Business Center was recently inaugurated at 4219 Dixie Highway, Erlanger, by Louis B. Von Lehmen. The purpose of the center is to give the small merchant and businessman a key source of information that will aid him in the operation of his particular business. This is true also for the man who is considering going into business for himself. There is literature here that can't be found in the local library, and there are no fees attached.

You are invited to visit the center and browse around. It may give you a few new ideas on your business.

PROTECT YOUR MOTOR... HAVE YOUR RADIATOR CLEANED AND REPAIRED WHEN MAJOR MOTOR WORK IS DONE!

Eight out of ten radiators in service are DANGEROUSLY (25% or more) clogged! Over-hauled motors need 100% cooling to protect against heat damage. Protect your investment! Radiators MUST be serviced at the time of major motor work.

Janet Arnett Granted Eastern Scholarship

Janet Arnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cesar Arnett of Verona, has received a music scholarship from Eastern State College, Richmond. The scholarship starts in the fall and is to be renewed every semester for four years. Janet is to play her clarinet in the college band or orchestra and is to take a college music workshop, earning one college credit per semester. She plans to major in elementary education and minor in music.

During her high school years, Janet has been outstanding in music. She was a member of All-State Band this year, and for the last three years, she participated in the Northern Kentucky Select Band. Last year she received the John Philip Sousa Band Award. In the state music festival this year, she received "Superior" for her clarinet solo, and the quartet of which she is a member received "Superior." Janet is also a member of the school paper staff, chorus, and the Future Teachers of America.

Lesson for May 24, 1964

Background Scriptures: Judges 9:53-55; Luke 21:18-21; Romans 12:17-21; 1 Peter 4:12-16.
Devotional Reading: 1 Timothy 3:1-2.

"THANK GOD for the policemen!" "Thank God for the soldiers!" you might not expect to hear such remarks, but they have been uttered, with the deepest sincerity, by many desperate people. A city in China, deserted by the government's troops, and not yet within reach of the rebel army, might for two or three dreadful days be without government of any kind. Mobs did what they pleased.

Dr. Foreman Likewise in America, citizens of certain southern towns have had to live through nights of terror when the state police were nowhere and again mobs did what they pleased. So people who never even noticed policemen or soldiers, before, thank God for them once they have had the experience of living without any government at all.

The Government
Whoever human beings live in settled communities, there you will find government of some kind. Historically there have been all kinds, and we can see all kinds in the world today at the same time. At the time the New Testament was being written, all of its writers lived under the Roman Empire, though no Bible writer was a citizen except Saint Paul. Now the absolute monarchy which was the form of the Empire at that time, was not what an American would like. There was no possibility of changing the Emperor.

Then and Now
So there was nothing much then that an individual could do about the Roman government. For the common man, politics did not exist. The only thing he could do was to accept the government, obey the laws, pay the taxes, and live as much of a Christian life as the situation permitted. Paul in speaking about government did not speak to government. That would have been of no use. His advice was intended to be practical. He counseled people in Rome to obey the Roman authorities and pay their taxes and be glad the government had a big sword to keep down mobs and criminals.

Does this advice, given under a government harsher than that of East Germany today, have anything to say to us today? It certainly has much to say to Christians living under dictatorships today. But what about free America? Here the government is you, you and the officials you elect. If you get a Tiberius by mistake you can correct that mistake at the next election. You can write to your representatives in government, you can get attention if not immediate action. And of course you, like the ancient Romans can pay taxes cheerfully and obey the laws and respect the law-enforcing arm of government. In a short sentence: As a Christian, you have a responsibility to your community to do all in your power to see that your city, county, state and nation are well and effectively governed.

What about Tyrants?
Almost ever since the days of Paul, his words about obeying the "powers that be" have been used to defend tyrants from criticism and attack. Kings in the Middle Ages thought they had a divine right to be kings. Political bosses today are less religious than ancient kings, but just as greedy for power, to get and to keep it, as any Roman Caesar or any modern dictator. Did Paul mean, by his exhortation to obedience, that we take money from the pockets of a poleon or Hitler or Mao who comes along? Does Christianity support tyranny? No; said the early Christian martyrs, who died horrible deaths rather than obey the government's demands that they burn incense to Caesar or to pagan gods. No, said the Puritans to King Charles I. No, say the Hungarian freedom fighters. A tyrant is one who by his tyranny has lost the right to be considered a power "ordained of God."

Night WMS Meeting

The Night W. M. S. of the First Baptist Church, Walton, met last Wednesday night with 19 members and three new members present. Those taking part on the program were Mrs. Helen Chance, Mrs. Carol Burden, Della Perkins, Juliana Shields, Iverna Schmidt.

A MATTER OF DEGREE*THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Doctor? Lawyer? Merchant? Already Bobbie's parents are planning for his future. They're saving to give him the best education obtainable, because they want him to be happy and successful... a son to be proud of.

It would be splendid if a good education automatically led to happiness and success, but unfortunately it doesn't. Many well-educated men and women have failed utterly when it came to living a stable and worthwhile life, because they lacked the strength of character that would have sustained them.

There is no better training ground for the building of character than the Christian Church. There children are encouraged to follow a way of life that will not fail them, and to respect themselves and their fellows.

Give your child every chance to succeed. Make sure that his education includes a thorough knowledge of the time-tested Christian truths.

A Look At
Education—by—
Eugene Robinson

From the last of May until the 15th of July there are a multitude of reports to be filled out and approved by the local board, fiscal court, and the state board of education. This period of time and the month of October will catch almost all of the annual reports that have to be made by a local school district. There are a few other annual reports mixed in with the monthly attendance reports, lunch reports, transportation reports, etc. that have to be made monthly. Because of this being the beginning of the report season I shall devote a few weeks to describing these reports and explaining how we go about filling them out.

Before I start the discussion on the reports to Frankfort, I would like to make mention of a contract that the local board enters annually with the Boone County Health Department. The Walton-Verona Board of Education agrees to pay $500.00 for the following services: examination of teachers, bus drivers and other school employees, TB skin test for all students, hearing test for grades two, four and six, dental health program, supervise vision screening, give immunizations, schedule routine visits to the schools, inspect the schools at least twice a year, assist in health education and any other service that the schools might need or request. The board feels that this is money well spent.

At the next board meeting, the board will have to select a depositary, school board treasurer, textbook custodian, approve the 1964-1965 general budget. For several years now the Dixie State Bank has been the depositary for all funds handled by the Walton-Verona Board of Education. Any bank that is selected by a board of education as its depositary has to furnish security in the amount that would be equal to the largest amount that the board would have on deposit at any one time. The amount of protection for each school district is established by the Division of Finance in the State Department of Education. F.D.I.C. protection is taken into consideration when this amount is established. For the 1963-1964 school year the amount of protection, or depositary bond as it is called, must be for $53,000.00. The Dixie State Bank has presented $53,000.00 worth of U. S. Treasurer notes as security. This bond does not cost the board of education.

The school board treasurer has been Asa M. Rouse for several years now and I have been serving as custodian of the three textbooks. Of course, because of the nature of both responsibilities, Mr. Rouse and I are both bonded and the board pays for the bond. At the present time the treasurer is bonded for $16,500 at a cost of $82.50 to the school board, while I am bonded for $3,000 at a cost of $10.50.

In addition to these bonds, the school board has purchased an Honesty Blanket Bond in the amount of $5,000.00 to cover all school employees that handle funds or property.

One of the most important pieces of legal work that the board does is the adopting of the General Budget and requesting the fiscal court to levy the tax for the 1964-1965 school year. The General Budget is an estimate of all expenditures and receipts for the year. Also, as the General Budget is presented to the fiscal court a request to levy the tax is presented. In our case, the request calls for $1.50 for general school purposes and a 50c levy for Special Voted School Building Fund; also a levy of 40c on the one hundred dollars valuation of all bank shares.

There are some guide lines on estimating expenditures and receipts and I will discuss these in next week's article.

Parents do not forget to bring all children entering the first grade next September to the Walton school building for registration and orientation at 1:30 p. m., Thursday, May 28. The school needs certain information to work with this summer. Also, it will be beneficial to parents in getting their first graders ready for school. Please notify friends that may not have access to this news media.

When cooking a turkey, one of May's good food buys, make up an extra supply of dressing, bake in greased loaf pan, refrigerate until next day, then cut into slices

Literary Club to Meet

The Walton Woman's Literary Club will meet on Wednesday, June 3, at 2:00 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Heinz Wahrenburg, Verona, with Mrs. J. L. Hamilton as co-hostess.

Spiritual guidance, Mrs. L. M. Gabriel; club history, Mrs. W. W. Rouse. Everyone must bring something of her own: art, handicraft or hobby.

This is the club's first meeting with Mrs. Wahrenburg. It is to be a most unusual and interesting affair, so let's everyone be there.

4-H's Present
Program to PTA

The May 4 meeting of the Simon Kenton PTA was held in the school cafeteria at 8:00 p. m., with Mrs. Howard Fredericks, president, presiding.

Salute to American flag was led by Kenny McIntosh and Tommy Ash, Scouts from Troop 8 of Independence. Rush Dillon, devotional chairman, gave a very good talk. After the business was conducted, Mrs. Frank Palmer, Jr., president of the Kenton County Council, installed the following officers for the coming year: Mrs. Wesley Hall, president; Mrs. Harold Buxton, vice president; Mrs. William Campbell, secretary; Mrs. Charles W. Adams, treasurer; Mrs. Wynelle Northcutt's home room won the award for having the most parents present. A book will be placed in the library in their honor.

The program of the evening was given by Tel-Star Teen 4-H Club, a very talented group of young people. They have won in the county and district, and have been invited to Lexington to participate in the State 4-H Club talent contest. This is quite an honor for the following group: Mary Thomas, Vicki Works, Conny Fields, Donna Flak, Freida Wainscott, Linda Napier, Roy Durr, David Knox, Rodney Flak, Wayne Fields, John Gabbard, Dan Straw, Jerry Burns, Gary Overpeck, and Dan Overpeck. The leaders of this club are Mrs. Herbert Works, Mrs. William Straw and Mrs. Leslie Fields. Don't forget Coney Island Day, June 4, sponsored by Kenton Co. Council in which Simon Kenton PTA and the students from Simon Kenton, Twenhofe and Kenton Elementary schools have a pleasant day together.

Fish Fry at Beaverlick

There will be a fish fry at the Beaverlick Christian Church, U. S. Highway 42, one mile West of Beaverlick, on Friday, May 29, with service beginning at 5:00 p. m. On the menu are fish, french fries, slaw, pie, coffee and soft drinks. Chef Busch Huff will be in charge of the fish fry and the pies are baked by ladies of the church. You are invited.

Local Woman Heads
Boone Library Group

Mrs. Edward Lay of High St., Walton, was elected permanent chairman of Friends of the Boone County Library at a meeting held recently at the Conner School in Hebron. Mrs. Lay is also county chairman of reading for Home-makers Clubs.

The meeting was well attended and it was decided to start the work of establishing a Boone County Library District, under the provisions of House Bill 325. Under this law, which is effective on June 19, a county Fiscal Court may establish a county library district merely through the signing of petitions of 51% of the number of voters which voted in the last general election.

The Walton PTA was represented by Mrs. Robert Elmschmidt, and the Walton Club by Mrs. John M. Taylor. Eugene Robinson, local school superintendent, also attended in the interest of the Walton and Verona schools.

There will be a meeting on June 1 in Florence.

If the library is established, there will be a mobile unit that will serve every school and every community as well as a permanent location somewhere in the county.

W-V Graduation
Thursday, May 29

Thirty-two seniors are to receive diplomas at the Commencement program which will be held in the Walton-Verona High School auditorium May 29 at 8:00 p. m.

The commencement speaker is to be Dr. J. M. Boswell, president of Cumberland College, Williamsburg, Ky. A native of Cynthiana, Dr. Boswell is a graduate of Georgetown College. He holds a Master's degree in Mathematics from the University of Kentucky. He also attended the University of Michigan, and in 1949 received the Doctor of Laws degree from Georgetown College.

Other highlights of the program include the processional and recessional by the W-V Band, under the direction of James Layne; the presentation of the class by Principal John Shoemaker, and the presentation of diplomas by Arthur Doggett, Chairman of the Board of Education.

American Legion
Memorial Services

Johnson-McElroy Post, No. 277, American Legion, of Walton, will sponsor the Memorial Day services here on Saturday, May 30, Post Commander James Wethington has announced.

In extending an invitation to the residents of Walton to attend these rites, Commander Wethington reported that the services would be given at 9:00 a. m. at the Christian Church.

Principal speaker at the traditional commemorative ceremony will be County Judge Charles E. Niblack.

In addition to the formal services, the Legionnaires of Post No. 277 will see to the decoration of the graves of all known veterans with flags.

In urging the widest possible participation by local residents in the Memorial Day rites, Commander Wethington referred to the following excerpt from General Logan's original order for the observance of Memorial Day: "Let no aversion or neglect, no ravages of time, testify to the present of coming generations that we have forgotten as a people the cost of a free and undivided republic."

Commander Wethington reminded that the observance of Memorial Day in Walton should include the display of a United States flag by every home and business firm.

Two Local Girls
Injured In Crash

Last Saturday afternoon two Walton girls were injured seriously in a head-on collision with a truck on Ky. Route 358, near Big Bone State Park, West of Walton.

Miss Joann Houston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Houston of Route 2, and driver of the car, was most seriously injured. She is in the intensive care ward at St. Elizabeth Hospital, with internal injuries, broken collar bone, and lacerations.

Miss Debbie Afterkirk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Afterkirk of High Street, who was in the front seat with the driver, received severe cuts about the face and throat, more than 100 stitches were needed to close the wounds. She is in also in St. Elizabeth Hospital and her condition is listed as satisfactory.

Both girls are seniors at Walton-Verona High School and were to graduate this week.

To Attend State Meeting

The State FHA meeting will be held June 9-11 at the University of Kentucky, Lexington. Members of the Simon Kenton chapter who will attend the meeting are: Rita Trapp, June Wagner, and Linda Lunsford. Mrs. Gayle McElroy will be attending the meeting with the delegates.

Miss Trapp is attending because she will receive her state home-making degree; Miss Wagner is a candidate for the state office of reporter, and Miss Lunsford will be the representative from the Simon Kenton chapter.

PLAN "SPLASHION SHOW"

The Merry Mermaids of Taylor Mill Swim Club will present the "Splashion Show" May 28 at 1:00 p. m., at the Taylor Mill Swim Club. Latest styles of summer for men, women and children will be featured by the Parision of Covington.

Mrs. Ray Hayes will be the commentator. The chairmen pictured above (standing) Mrs. Joe Bishop and Mrs. James Feagan; (standing) Mrs. George Vogelsang and Mrs. Jack Kaiser. Refreshments and door prizes, all for fifty cents...for tickets, call Mrs. Kaiser, 291-1417.

Cemetery Assn. to Meet

The annual meeting of the Richmond Cemetery Association will be held at the cemetery on Memorial Day, Saturday, May 30, at 10:00 a. m. All members of the association are cordially urged to attend this meeting.

Tom Jones Joins WCPO

Tom Jones, formerly of Crittenden, who now resides in Fort Thomas with his wife and two children, recently joined WCPO as a member of the news staff. This is his first television assignment and he will be with Jack Fogarty on "Tri-State Newstime."

BOB &amp; GENE WINNERS

In the Northern Kentucky Amateur Baseball League, Bob & Gene of Florence, defeated Riverview in the season opener Sunday by the score of 10-1. The game was played at the Florence Elementary School grounds.

Lynn Ray and John Martin combined in hurling a three-hitter with Ray being the winning pitcher. Paul Steffen led the winner's attack by handing out four hits. Ned Eades connected for two home runs, and Gary Sprague also hit for the circuit. J. Sandoff obtained two of the loser's three hits.

Bob & Gene will meet the Dayton Merchants next Sunday, May 31, at 2:00 p. m. at the Florence Elementary School field.

Kindergarten
Commencement

On Tuesday evening of last week in the main auditorium of the Walton Baptist Church, Mrs. Mae Mattingly presented the afternoon class of the 1963-64 Walton Kindergarten for their commencement. Parents and friends enjoyed the program done in "Seasons" of fall, winter and spring during their kindergarten year. There were 13 in this class...look for their picture in next week's paper.

Thursday evening, the morning class (picture appears in this paper last week) held their commencement at the church with 12 members and 13 girls being presented by their teacher, Mrs. Queenie Webster. "Kindergarten Memories," was the theme of games, songs of holidays, and the rhythm band were included as the group looked forward to going to school.

The boys were Kentucky Colonels with their special ties presented as a gift from Mrs. Evelyn Hays. They played "My Old Kentucky Home" on the rhythm band instruments.

This was the eleventh year for the Walton Kindergarten, sponsored by the Wa-Na Club. However, this was the first year for two sessions because of the large enrollment. The club will be sponsoring the Kindergarten again this fall.

Distributing New Telephone Books

New 1964 telephone directories are now being distributed to Boone County telephone customers, it was announced by Consolidated Telephone Company. The new book, the largest in the history of Consolidated, is a three-column book for the first time.

The attractive cover, an orange-beige herringbone design, has pictures of various telephone employees at their job and a typical family. The information pages in the front of the book have been revised and are designed to assist customers in the use of their telephone. Listings for the five Boone County exchanges are in the book. Smith is the most popular name in the directory with 75 listings. There are 45 classified yellow pages in the book which list every product and service in the area. These yellow page listings make shopping by phone easy.

The new, large three-column design is another indication of the growth of Boone County and the policy of Consolidated Telephone Company to provide the best in modern communication facilities. Telephone company officials advised all customers to discard their old books after receiving the new directories.

4-H Style Show
Given May 15th

By Mary Cummins

On May 15, the Kenton County Courthouse in Independence, was the scene of the annual 4-H style show. The theme of "Fashions on the Flowers" was carried out beautifully with the stage being decorated in lovely flowers. Mrs. Geneva Campbell appropriately accompanied the show with selections on the organ.

Miss Ann Weikund and Miss Sue Rollo served as nauties for the event. Ann is a member of the Trail Blazers Teen Club, and Sue belongs to the Buffington Springers 4-H Club.

After every girl had had the opportunity to model her garment, the champions in each unit were named.

The first champion to be named was Miss Donna Richter of the St. Cecilia Club. Donna received a purple ribbon for her print apron.

The next, the skirt unit, was in three divisions. In the division where the blouse was bought and the skirt made, Miss Rhonda LaFollette of the Piner Busy Bee Club was champion. Rhonda selected a print of pink and tan on a background of white for her skirt and she selected a simple white blouse to add the finishing touches to her outfit.

Miss Judy Reggle was named winner in the division where the skirt and blouse both were made. Judy's skirt was made of a very deep red color in a wrap-around style. The blouse was red and white striped with the red stripe matching the skirt. She belongs to the Taylor Mill 4-H Club.

The last division was a skirt exhibited alone and Miss Paula Rink of the Lucky Clover Club was named champion. Paula's skirt was made from a rust-colored cotton print.

As we move up the ladder, we come to the first dress unit. The pink and white skirt dress made by Miss Peggy Justice of the St. Cecilia Club won top honors.

Another member of the St. Cecilia Club was awarded the championship in the play clothes unit. She was Miss Jacqueline Behler. Her short and jacket were pink and were offset by a pink and white striped blouse.

Pink seemed to be a prominent color among the champions of the fashion parade. In the Mix n' Match honors in the Advanced Dress Unit, she is a member of the St. Cecilia Club.

The next unit, the Semi-Formal, was won by Miss Laine Marshall of the Lucky Clover Club. The dress was made of a crepe material called Powder Puff, which was a blue and green design on a white background. The dress had spaghetti straps and a full gathered skirt.

Just right for any prom, Kay Cummins won the championship with her semi-bell skirted formal. The gown was floor length and was made of white taffeta and chiffon. The chiffon smartly set the dress off with its blue, pink and lavender flowers. Kay is a member of the Piner Teen Bee 4-H Club.

In the tailored unit, Miss Mary Cummins of the Piner Teen Bees was recipient of the champion ribbon. She wore a dress of a simple white wool spring coat and a turquoise dress made of wool. The dress had three-quarter length sleeves and could be worn with or without a belt. It was fully lined.

After each champion was named, Robert Maddox, Kenton County 4-H Agent, revealed the name of the girl to represent the county in the State Style Revue, to be held in Lexington, May 31 through June 1. Miss Laine Ellen Marshall will have the honor of participating in her semi-formal dress.

This year the style revue consisted of 87 entries from all over the county. There were 147 people in attendance.

Dark brown, hard-shell beetles now found in and around houses are adults of the grubworms that feed on bluegrass roots. These beetles feed on shade tree foliage at night and hide in grass during the day. They are attracted at night by house lights and frequently can be heard banging against screens or windows. They also make a distinct humming or buzzing during flight.

Control: Spray trees with 50 percent strength wettable powder of Sevin. Use three tablespoons for each gallon of water. Spray once a week during May. The 50 to 57 percent strength liquid formulation of Malathion, at one tablespoon per gallon of water can be used, or the 50 percent strength of DDT wettable powder at 2 to 4 tablespoons per gallon of water. The DDT treatment will last about two weeks.

Adults of this beetle will lay eggs in lawns and grub forms of the pest will live in grass root areas all summer before changing to the hard-shelled brown flying beetle.

Scarcely an hour of your day goes by without a product of agricultural research touching your life. You may even have bought this glass with just such a product... a glass or orange juice from frozen concentrate. Here are a few examples of agricultural research that benefit you as a consumer, and which you encounter every day. As you head for the ball park on a relaxed Saturday afternoon, for example, you might be wearing a wash-and-wear shirt made from drip-dry cotton. Or you might have on a pair of wash-and-wear wool slacks.

Out in the yard, you control weeds and insects and plant grass and flowers based on recommendations... and often products... that are an outgrowth of research. You can paint your house with a linseed-oil paint that has all the convenience of a water-based paint.

Results of agricultural research are at hand whether you are cooking or shopping. At mealtime, those leaner pork chops or loins may be traced to meat-type hogs. Or, if you charcoal-grill a steak or chicken, you enjoy improved tenderness due largely to better feeding and management of livestock.

On your vacation, while you and your family swim, boat, and fish, crop producers upstream are applying scientific land-use practices to their lands. Their actions help preserve and improve recreation by reducing the flow of silt into streams, rivers and lakes. Some of the same land-use measures are being applied by urban developers in preparing large tracts of land for the construction of new homes. The developers are using soil conservation practices to prevent soil from being carried away to clog our rivers, hamper navigation and spoil recreation. Even when you are sick, you may benefit from agricultural research. Your physician might prescribe penicillin, for example, a product that is reasonably priced because agricultural research first developed a method for mass producing the drug.

Folks...

We have for sale several pieces of property that the owners are highly interested in moving for the following reasons: To settle estates, house vacant and owner doesn't want to rent, and owners being transferred.

Now this doesn't mean that you can buy these properties for next to nothing but it does mean that they are priced under actual market value.

SEVEN ROOMS with full basement, oil heat, nice bath, three-car garage, and double lot. Located in Walton and priced at $10,500.00

TEN ROOMS, divided into three apartments, a large lot, two-car garage, city water in front of the house. Located in Verona, and priced at $7,500.00 but open to offer.

A REAL nice older home, located on North Main, having five nice rooms, closed-in porch, new oil furnace, bath, nice level lot. To settle estate the party in charge is reasonable to deal with and her asking price is $8,900.00

LOCATED on U. S. 42, South of Union, containing five rooms, breezeway, attached garage, oil heat, bath, and a 100x500 lot. Priced at $12,750.00 but owner doesn't want to rent, so is open to offer.

THIS NEW listing of six acres plus in Walton, improved with five room residence, bath, space heater, barn, and the best of all, 61 acre tobacco base. The tobacco brought over $800.00 last year. Priced at $12,750.00

SIX ROOM BRICK with 1 1/2 baths, full basement, oil furnace, two fireplaces, hardwood floors, large corner lot, North of Walton, on U. S. 25. This house is vacant and can be purchased under the true market value.

WE HAVE for sale the DeMoisey residence located on South Main Street in Walton. This is truly a fine family home with nine rooms, full basement, hot water heat, fireplaces on both floors. There are so many nice features as a dish washer, enclosed back porch, a truly good barn that will serve as garage or stable if the children want a pony. This place has a new roof, gutters and downspouts, recently installed. Having sold his local gas distribution business and moving his entire operation to Virginia, Frank is interested in moving this property.

DON'T FORGET my elaborate estate at Hebron. This is for the family that wants several acres, nice lake, fine six room brick residence, and handy to downtown area.

WE HAVE a nice place on Percival Road with several acres of land and a good residence and barn. The owner wants to sell as she has purchased another residence.

COMPARE THIS brand new residence, located near Walton and I-75, and note these features: Hot water heat, Formica bath, built-in range, exhaust fan, range light, hardwood floors, five full rooms, poured concrete foundation, recreation room finished in basement, built-in garage, and a large lot for $14,500.00

SIX ROOM fine residence on Walton-Nicholson Road with seven closets, tile bath, tile kitchen, full basement, oil furnace, storm doors and windows, awnings, lot 100x300. Owner moving to Cincy and the price is right.

OAK RIDGE

Shirley Tallent, Reporter

Mrs. Mary Ellen Wells and children, Charlotte and John, have returned to their home in Norfolk, Va., after spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bruce.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Estill Webster has finally had running water put into her house on Wayman Branch Road. Most of the young people these days have always had running water and do not realize what a blessing it is for a person who has raised their family and had to carry in all the water they used. When we first moved to this community in 1929 none had running water, and very few even had electricity. There weren't any water haulers in those days either, and when our cisterns ran dry during the summer, you carried your drinking water home in milk cans from town and used pond or creek water for washing. So let's all be thankful for the blessings of modern-day living.

Paul Whalen of San Antonio, Texas, paid a surprise visit to his brother, Herman Whalen, of Lipscomb, on Sunday. He flew in on business and was able to spend a few hours with relatives here.

Edgar Roulette is home on leave from the Air Force, and expects to be home until the middle of June. He and Perry Tallent attended the band concert at Simon Kenton High School, on Sunday afternoon.

We were sorry to hear that Ray McAllister cut his foot badly on Sunday afternoon when the blade came off the lawn mower while he was cutting grass. The Taylor Mill and Community Life Squad took him to the hospital where several stitches were required.

It was good to see Charles Hunger, Sr. at church Sunday. He had been in the hospital three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bailey and children went to Beattyville, Ky., for the weekend.

Bill Kenner has returned home from the hospital. The Ladies Auxiliary of the Taylor Mill and Community Volunteer Fire Department will hold a housewares social on Thursday, May 28, at 8:00 p. m., in the firehouse. Mrs. Ann Vogelpohl, chairman, is to be assisted by her committee. Mrs. Betty Zwosta will be in charge of refreshments. Proceeds will be used for the betterment of the fire department. The public is cordially invited to attend.

CONCORD

Mrs. Lindsey Webster, Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey E. Webster visited Mr. and Mrs. Russell Webster, son, William, and daughter, Carol.

Mrs. Webster called on Mrs. Floyd Chapman recently. She is feeling better.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Webster visited Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lawson, Wednesday.

Mrs. Mamie Chapman's funeral was held at the Concord Baptist Church, and burial was in the Chapman cemetery.

Mrs. Carol Webster and Mrs. Ollie Robinson spent from Friday until Sunday night in Madison, O., with his mother.

Mrs. Ollie Simpson has been visiting her son, Robert Simpson, in Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Webster went to Verona, Friday, and Mrs. Webster called on Mrs. Clemens and her sister. On Friday, the Websters went to Dry Ridge to see Mrs. Carrie Morgan, and Mr. and Mrs. Art Kennedy. They also visited Mrs. McManama at Verona.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster called to see Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Frank and children. On Sunday, the Websters had company: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Webster and little son, Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Jones and two children, and Mrs. Johnny Ryan.

The W. M. S. of the Baptist churches met at Glencoe, Thursday night.

Ralph West and mother visited Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Webster last Wednesday.

NAPOLEON

Mrs. Virgie Aitha, Reporter

Our deepest sympathy is extended to relatives of John Barnes in their bereavement.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cook on the arrival of a little daughter. Mrs. Cook is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Glacken.

We were sorry to hear that Mrs. Raymond Spencer fell and broke her arm. We wish her a speedy recovery.

"THE people's business must come first." You said it, Mr. President, and we agree. The people of this country, and you and your Administration, are entitled to have a vote on several important measures during this session of Congress.

One of these measures worthy of attention now because it is truly in the public interest is H.R. 9903, presently blocked by the House Rules Committee's recent refusal to clear the measure for consideration by the full House. This is a crying shame - because if this bill ends up on the legislative scrap heap, American consumers will go on being cheated out of several billion dollars annually from freight rates kept artificially high by regulation which kills off real competition.

Selfish interests which are profiting at the expense of the public are working against this legislation. But, it is basically the same legislation recommended to Congress by President Kennedy and by you, Mr. President, to substitute competition for unnecessary regulation of reductions in freight rates on agricultural and bulk commodities.

This public-interest legislation will save American consumers billions of dollars a year. It will stimulate the Nation's economy. It will improve the competitiveness of American products against foreign products, at home and abroad. For the public good, we urge its passage and respectfully request that you repeat once again your prior appeal for favorable action by the lawmakers in this session of Congress.

Arthur M. Schlesinger, Jr.
PRESIDENT

WHAT IS POLITICS?

Politics is 190,000,000 people trying to run a government of the people and by the people. Politics is not a dirty word because politics is you and me and our families.

The more people who realize that this is a basic truth the more good people we will have in politics helping to mold the future of their city, state and Federal government.

Government starts at the city level and that is when you should show your special interest...all too often people pay little or no attention to their city government until they start making decisions contrary to the people's beliefs.

Join the Boone County Democratic Club now and help to shape the future of our government. Contact Virginia Grant, secretary, 586-0066. She will be glad to hear from you.

Willing Workers Meeting

The Willing Workers Class of the Walton Christian Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Rouse for a cooperative dinner on Tuesday evening, May 19.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Forest Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Whitson, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Grubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Rouse, Mrs. John Gault, Mrs. Ben Doan, Mrs. Jane Sleet, Mrs. Marie Berkshire, Mrs. Lillian Acree, Mrs. Martha Jane Carpenter, Miss Mary West, Miss Rachel Acree, Miss Mary Rensler, and Miss Mary Beth Allen.

The president, Mrs. Berkshire, presided, and Mrs. Rouse was in charge of the program.

4-H JUNIOR COUNCIL

On May 11, the Kenton County 4-H Junior Council met at the Courthouse in Independence. Bill Lawler, president, called the session to order.

The Tri-County Recreation Committee report was given by Ann Wicklund and Charlotte Richardson. A Summer Swing is to be given by the Campbell-Kenton-Boone 4-H's, July 11 at 7:30 p. m. at Independence Courthouse patio. A report on County Rally Day was given and it was mentioned that speech events should be stressed more.

Members of the Council are to tell their individual clubs about the Memorial Day parade and see if 4-H members are going to participate this year.

RYLAND HOMEMAKERS

Fifteen members of the Ryland Homemakers Club were favored with a book review by Miss Ruth Schmidt, "Missionary Mama," by Ruth Seamounts, when the club met recently at the home of Mrs. A. R. Hicks.

Mrs. Harold Halfhill presided and urged the group to attend the 27th annual National Folk Festival at Latonia Race Course, Florence, June 5-7. Mrs. Hugh Craigmye was co-hostess and assisted in the yearly flower and bulb exchange. Miss Schmidt will be hostess for the June meeting at the RECC Building on Walton-Nicholson Rd., and members are asked to bring their baby picture for the recreational period.

He who forges calamities suffers them twice over.

-DEATHS-

JOHN T. BARNES

John T. Barnes, 75, of near Warsaw, died May 15 at Carroll County Memorial Hospital, Carrollton. He was a member of Paint Lick Baptist Church, chairman of the Board of Deacons, and sexton of the cemetery for 35 years.

Services were held at 2:00 p. m. May 17 at the Paint Lick Baptist Church, with William Wilson presiding. Arrangements were by the Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona.

CHARLES COPE

Charles Cope, 55, Eads Road, Verona, died last Friday morning at St. Elizabeth Hospital, after a long illness. He had been an operator for Acme-Newport Steel for several years.

Surviving are his wife, Rose; a stepdaughter, Miss Barbara Novell at home; one stepson, Marine Lance Corporal James Lovell of Jacksonville, N. C.; two brothers, Robert Cope of Hamilton, Ohio, and Coleman Cope of Manchester, Ky., and three sisters, Mrs. Mollie Longton of Detroit, Mrs. Fanny Setser of Macomb, Ill., and Mrs. Dora Philip of Manchester.

Services were held at 2:00 p. m., Monday at the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton.

MONO LILLARD

Mono Lillard, 43, Valley Drive, Florence, was pronounced dead at 12:13 last Wednesday at General Hospital, Cincinnati, after collapsing on the job as relief assembler at the Fisher Body Plant, Norwood. He had suffered coronary attacks, it is said. A native of Napoleon, he had lived in Florence for 10 years, and was a member of Erlanger Church of Christ.

Survivors include his wife, Agnes, operator of Lillard's Beauty Salon at the Valley Drive address; a daughter, Beverly, and a son, Philip, at home; six brothers, William of Covington, Arthur of Amelia, Ohio, Noble of Jefferson, and Wilson, Menefee and Joe Lillard of Gallatin County, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Bradley of Muncie, Ind.

Services were held at 2:00 p. m., last Saturday at Ten Mile Baptist Church, Napoleon, with burial in the Odd Fellows Cemetery at Napoleon. Slith Funeral Home, Florence, had charge of arrangements.

PINER BUSY BEES MEET

Two Piner Busy Bee 4-H Club members participated in the Kenton County Rally Day, which was held at the Independence Courthouse, May 2. The members were Rhonda LaFollette and Eddie Cummins.

Rhonda was awarded a blue ribbon and champion in her division for her demonstration, "Peace on the World Today," which she was awarded a white ribbon. She is a fifth grade student of Mrs. Roberta Steinhauser at Piner Elementary School, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond LaFollette of Piner.

Eddie Cummins was awarded a blue ribbon and champion in his division for his demonstration, "How to Make a Rope Halter." He also gave a speech, "How to Attract Birds," for which he was awarded a red ribbon. Eddie is a sixth grade student of Mrs. Mildred Lee Wolfe at Piner Elementary School, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cummins of Crittenden.

Oak Island Homemakers

The Oak Island Homemakers held their May meeting at the Oak Island Baptist Church. The theme of the devotional, given by Mrs. Donald Russell, was "The Story of Ruth." Mrs. Donald Riddell gave a book review, "Missionary Mama," by Ruth Seamounts, which was in keeping with the devotional, as Mrs. Seamounts likened herself to the Biblical Ruth when she followed her husband into the missionary field.

Mrs. Robert Wainwright reported on a recent Advisory Council meeting and encouraged members to prepare for the "white elephant" auction, which will be held at 7:00 p. m., Monday, June 1 at the home of Mrs. Wainwright, 8 Apple Drive, Independence.

Present were: Mrs. Frank E. Jackson, Mrs. C. C. Northcutt, Mrs. Don Dressman, Mrs. Robert Wainwright, Mrs. Donald Riddell, Mrs. Gaylon Sipple, Mrs. Donald Russell, Mrs. Frank B. Jackson, Mrs. Sherman Barberick, Mrs. Edward Cram, and Mrs. William Krueger.

TEL-STAR 4-H CLUB

Tel-Star Teen Club held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Frieda Wainwright, with the session being called to order by the president, Connie Fields.

The club is proud to announce that on Rally Day, Vicky Workman and Linda Napier received blue ribbons on their speeches, and Mary Thomas received a red ribbon. The club is having a picnic and hayride June 5 and afterwards will go to the Folk Festival at Latonia Raceway.

Mrs. Maddox told the club it was ahead in the 4-H candy sale and had a good chance of winning. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Ryland Heights PTA Tea

Tea in honor of past board members was given by the Ryland Heights Elementary PTA Executive Board on Tuesday, May 12.

Mrs. Earl Wilson presented Mrs. Paul Dorman, past president, with a silver pitcher and a book of poems as a token of thanks on behalf of the past executive board members.

The next executive board members were introduced by the presiding president, Mrs. Alfred Wilson. Members of the newly-named board are: Devotional, William Barnard; civil defense, Mrs. Davey Parsons; congress publications, Mrs. Allen Ellison; founders' day, Mrs. T. A. Deaton; membership, Mrs. Carroll Johnston; program, Mrs. David NeCamp; publicity, Mrs. W. A. Fox; historian, Mrs. John Travis; budget and finance, Mrs. Paul McKinley; ways and means, Mrs. John Ferguson; cultural arts, Mrs. W. L. ## Maxine Lindsey Circle

The Maxine Lindsey Circle of Walton Baptist W.M.S. met at the church May 14 with the circle chairman, Barbara Simpson, in charge.

The meeting was opened with a Scripture reading, followed by missionary information, and a prayer for missionaries. Mrs. Moberly presented the program, "For Liberty and Light," with several taking part. The meeting closed with prayer, and thanks for the refreshments, Mrs. Helen Breeden being the hostess.

The next meeting will be held on June 18.

Few 4-H Camp Openings

There are a few openings left for 4-H Camp this spring, according to Assistant County Agent Wayne Slinger. Boone County 4-H members go to Camp Ernst, near Burlington, June 8-12.

Cost of the camp is $14.00, and any 4-H member is eligible to attend. Mr. Slinger also said that a deposit of $5.00 would hold a place open for the member. If members want to go to camp and have not sent in their application, they should send it to Mr. Slinger at Burlington. If parents or members have questions, he can be reached at 598-6412.

Attention, Girl Scouts

The Walton Girl Scouts have a new time, date and day for meetings during the summer. The first meeting, at the home of Stevie Stephenson, will be held on June 1, at 1:00 p. m.

PINER TEEN BEES MEET

Four members of the Piner Teen Bee 4-H Club participated in the Kenton County Rally Day. They were Sandy LaFollette, with her demonstration, "Cherry Pudding," which brought her a blue ribbon; Kay Cummins gave two demonstrations and was awarded a red on each...one was "Buttons Get You Down," and the other was "Raisin Bran Muffins"...she was the only one in this division and will go to the District Rally...her other demonstration was, "Soil—the American Life"; Mary Cummins gave a demonstration on dairy foods, "Soup 'n' Sandwich," and she was awarded a blue ribbon...her speech was "Peace on the World Today," and this got her a blue ribbon; Tommy Cummins gave a demonstration, "How to Make a Killing Jar for Insects" and he was awarded a blue ribbon and champion in his division...he gave a speech, "Pest Control," and was awarded a blue ribbon and chosen champion in the boys' Junior speech. He was also judged best Junior boy demonstrator and awarded a free trip to 4-H Camp.

Tommy will also compete in speech and demonstration at the District 4-H Rally at Campbellsburg, Ky.

Sandy, Mary and Kay are students at Simon Kenton High and Tommy attends Twenhef Junior High.

Once, when the Czar visited Count Paul Stroganov, he served a dish of beef chunks in sour cream-wine sauce. Since then, sour cream sauces over beef chunks have been called "Stroganovs"—dishes fit for royalty.

Wa-Na to Install Officers

At the regular meeting of the Wa-Na Club, to be held Monday, June 1, at the home of Mrs. Clayton Jones, new officers will be installed by Past State President, Mrs. Howard Bary. Mrs. Helms Wahrenburg will give a history of the club's activities this past year. Mrs. Clayton Jones will serve the second term as president, and will appoint committees to carry on the work of the club next year.

All members are urged to attend this meeting as plans will be completed for a picnic, to be held at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Helms Wahrenburg, when the husbands of club members will be guests.

School Day at Coney Island

Mrs. A. L. Stone, Council Chairman of Kenton County School Day at Coney Island, and her co-chairmen, Mrs. J. P. Hicks of Dixie Heights PTA, and Mrs. Harold Buxton of Simon Kenton PTA, announce all is ready for a big day at Coney, Thursday, June 4.

At the Kenton County schools wishing to participate are invited to join in the fun. Reduced rate ride tickets can be purchased at Kenton County Headquarters near Lake Como at Coney Island up until 3:00 p. m. on that day. See you at Coney...June 4!

Band Boosters Meeting

Nationalism

Lesson for May 31, 1964

Background Scriptures: Isaiah 10:15-17, 30; 11:1; Amos 1 and 31; Acts 17:22-31.
Devotional Reading: Acts 17:22-31.

AS OF October 25, 1962, there were 110 nations in the United Nations. Organisms. (How many can you name?) Nations are there which did not exist when World War II ended. Nations are there whose very territory was marked on maps UN- KNOWN or UN- EXPLORED just a few generations ago, when the writer's father was a boy. People all over the world who never gave much thought to Dr. Foreman it before, now want to belong to a nation, able to take its place, perhaps a small place but a real one all the same, among the nations of the world. Great nations that used to take themselves more or less for granted, now are keenly aware of their role in the world of nations.

The good in nationalism
Nationalism is a state of mind. It is no more visible than the "Spirit of Old Siwash" on the college campus; yet as with the college, so with the nation; the kind of spirit it is, the kind of national outlook and outlook that prevails, determines what Siwash College or the nation itself shall be. Like all states of mind, nationalism is not just one thing but a combination of things. At base it is patriotism, the love of one's own country, a wish to work for its welfare; it is pride in the achievements of the pioneers, a sense of the living reality of the history of the nation; it can be a sense of national idealism, an "image" of what one's country wants to be; an awareness of her resources, a sympathy with one's fellow-citizens, a proud and happy sense of belonging.

The bad in nationalism
Like all good things, nationalism can be spoiled. It is like family feeling in some respects. It is good to be pleased with one's family, even to be proud of it and to uphold its standards; but the very words "family pride" have a bad sound, because in practice it means, too often, nothing but snobishness, family conceit. So nationalism can degenerate. It can take the form of bragging. American tourists are in many places unpopular. They go to poorer countries and keep complaining all the time about the food and the language and the people; they never see anything abroad without telling you how much better they do or make things back in good old Siwash, U.S.A. They are like rich people going on a trip through the slums and making loud unfunny remarks about the way the people in the slums live. But when a slum clearance program comes up, these same people don't want any part of it. They are willing to tour around and make fun of the way those who are miserable have to live; but they aren't on hand to help when something is being done to make the slum more livable. Likewise nationalism can easily become simple conceit, unwillingness to co-operate in progress.

"Man's other religion"
Nationalism has been called "man's other religion." This is the greatest danger in it; no imaginary danger, as history plainly shows. Nationalism becomes a religion when the citizens think of their nation as beyond criticism; when devotion to it becomes fanaticism; when many forms of anti-social behavior are tolerated in society sooner than brave and intelligent criticism of elements in national life that call for criticism. It becomes a religion when its commands are taken to be the highest authority on earth.

The prophets of the Old Testament had a good deal to say about nationalism. They were not heeded. It might be truly said that the Hebrew nation perished of repeated attacks of nationalism. One thing, however, the prophets made perfectly clear: God has no pet nations. Some nations acknowledge him, some pretend to honor him, some perhaps really do. But every nation is "under God." What will be his verdict on us?

Graduates from Western
Among the 626 candidates who will be graduated from Western State College, Bowling Green, Ky., on June 5, will be one Boone Countyman, Sandra Sue Weaver, Union, who will receive the B. S. degree.

STATELY MANSIONS

Recognize this building? Whether you live in Yuma or Butte — or Concord or Dallas you know that this is the dome of the Capitol in Washington. And what is more, you would be able to identify the Eiffel Tower or the Taj Mahal without a second glance. All of us are attracted to and enticed by faraway places. And yet we tend to ignore and take for granted things and places of interest and beauty at our very "back door."

Our lives, too, have lofty domes and towers that we may be unaware of. We develop our physical bodies, our personalities, our talents, and we think we've done everything necessary for happy living. Yet it is a fact that unless the higher, spiritual life of man is developed also, lasting happiness is impossible. And when we live entirely on the materialistic level, we are only half alive.

Open your eyes and look to the Light. Discover your full potential by joining and supporting the church of your choice.

Eddie Neumeister

Valedictorian of the senior class was Eddie Neumeister and the second place honor of salutatorian went to Dorothy Dixon. Two scholarships to a beauty culture school were awarded to Joyce Rice and Polly Cook.

The Wa-Na Club award for a senior girl, who plans a profession in teaching or nursing, was presented to Janet Arnett. The American Legion scholarship went to Joe Norris, and the American Legion Auxiliary scholarship was given to Steve Collins. These last three were for $100.00.

Dorothy Dixon

The Robert W. Jones award, presented by Supt. Robinson, goes to the student making the highest average in the four high school grades. Bernie Spencer was the winner in the freshman class; Mary Jo Ryan, the sophomore class winner; Kawanna Richards had the high average for the junior class, and Eddie Neumeister had the top grade in the senior class.

All the teachers presented individual awards to students making the highest average for the year in grades nine through twelve. The Band Sweetheart was Stella Chipman, and the Phillip Sousa award for the band member doing outstanding work went to Kathleen Flynn.

It is impossible to give a complete list of all those winning awards and recognition. The Home Economics Department served refreshments following the program.

To Attend State Meeting

"Future Homemakers... This Is Your Life," is the theme of the 19th annual State meeting of FHA to be held June 8-11 at U. K. in Lexington. Sandy Spillman and Judy Watson will attend from the Walton-Verona High School, and they will be accompanied by Mrs. Shirley Frost, advisor.

Miss Spillman is the Northern Kentucky District first vice president and is president of the local chapter. Miss Watson is Northern Kentucky District reporter and first vice president of the Walton chapter. Both girls will serve as Buzz Group leaders at the State meeting.

The Walton-Verona Chapter with 23 members is among the 253 chapters of 17,000 Future Homemakers in Kentucky.

Bradford OES To Meet

Bradford Star Chapter, No. 493, of Independence, will hold its regular stated meeting on Tuesday, June 9, at 7:45 p. m.

Falcon Band at Teen Dance

The Falcon Band will play for the Teen Dance at the Florence Fire House, June 12, from 8:00 to 12:00 p. m. Sponsors are Boone County Memorial VFW, 6095.

The Falcons are a group of junior and senior boys from Boone County High, who are Dennis Horton, Pat Mardis, Toland Tongret, Bill Moore, Arlie Cave and Nathan Miller. They have played for many school activities and appeared recently on WCPO-TV. They won first place in a Beale contest at Pee Wee Valley, and are to appear at Devou Park, June 9 to compete in the "Battle of The Bands."

Tickets for the dance may be purchased in advance from any of the boys in the band for 50c per person.

When the going seems easy, check to make sure you are not going down hill.

TO WED JUNE 13th

Miss Patsy Young

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Young of Verona Road, Walton, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Patsy Franklin, to Mr. Raymond Lee Pennington, son of Mrs. Dora Pennington of Alta Vista Drive, Walton, and Mr. Raymond Pennington of Florence.

The wedding will be solemnized on Saturday, June 13, at the hour of 7:30 in the evening at the Walton Christian Church with the Rev. William R. Moore officiating.

A reception will follow the wedding ceremony in Fellowship Hall of the church.

An open invitation is extended to all their friends.

CARPENTER WINS MAGISTRATE POST

Charles M. Carpenter, a retired steelworker, defeated his opponent last Tuesday in the race for magistrate from the Second District in Boone County in the Democratic primary.

Mr. Carpenter, who lives on U. S. Highway 23 at Devon, defeated James Shaffer, 14 Woodland Ave., Florence, by a vote of 692 to 332.

A lifelong resident of this county, Mr. Carpenter was named earlier this year to fill the unexpired term of the late Joe Hogan.

Charlie said, "I'm tickled to death and very happy and grateful, and I have no disrespect for those who voted against me."

Middleton-Cheff Winners

Clyde Middleton, Covington, defeated his opponent, Fred Whitehead, Lebanon Junction, by an astounding 87% of the vote in the Fourth District Republican Primary, last Tuesday. Middleton carried all 19 counties in the district.

Middleton will oppose Frank Cheff, incumbent Congressman, who garnered 74% of the vote in the Democratic Primary, in the regular election November 3. Mr. Cheff defeated Middleton in a close race in the 1962 Congressional race.

Following his primary victory Middleton resigned his business position and will devote full time to his campaign.

Taylor Mill PTA Feles Teachers

The Executive Board of Taylor Mill PTA recently entertained the teachers and staff with a Teacher Appreciation Dinner at the school. Mrs. James Dorman, program chairman for the year, was in charge of the event and carried out the theme, "Orchids to You," in both decorations and program. She read a poem which was dedicated to the teachers individually, which was followed by several selected readings by Mrs. Gillis Sipple. Mrs. Richard Williams presented a vocal solo, and conducted a "Sing-Along." She was joined by Miss Geraldine Sherrard and Mrs. James Ostendorf in several trio selections. Two teachers, Mrs. Bonnie Smith and Mrs. Jean Shettler, presented a clever specialty called, "Teachers-or-Kids?"

Taylor Mill PTA closed its year of activities with the May 18th meeting at which time these new officers were installed by Mrs. James Feagan, immediate past-president: Mrs. Luell Hollar, president; Mrs. Everett Bolen, vice-president; Mrs. Walter Simmons, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Charles Kelly, treasurer.

Speaker of the evening was Miss Irene Reynolds, who spoke on the "New Arithmetic Method," using an overhead projector to make illustrations. There was a 4-H exhibit of work, and Bob Maddox, assistant county agent, spoke briefly on the projects. Room count was won by Bruce Clark's sixth grade. Refreshments were served by the sixth grade room mothers.

184 GRADUATE FROM SIMON KENTON HIGH

Simon Kenton High School of Independence, had 184 graduating seniors this year. Diplomas were presented to 73 boys and 111 girls at commencement exercises on Tuesday evening of this week.

Class night exercises were held May 29, and baccalaureate was on May 31.

Barbara June Carlisle, 299 Decoursey Road, Independence, was the class valedictorian. Her twin sister, Beverly Jean, was one of the graduates.

Edith Vance, 309 Pleasure Isle Drive, South Ft. Mitchell, was salutatorian. Edward Hoffman of 6123 Club House Drive, Covington, was president of the senior class.

TO GET 50-YR. AWARD

D. Hess Vest

On June 12, at 8:00 p. m., the Verona Lodge, No. 876, F&AM, will honor D. Hess Vest of Walton, as the lodge's first 50-year member.

A Fellowcraft Degree will be conferred. All Master Masons are invited to attend this meeting, to be held at the Lodge Hall, Verona.

Awarded $25,400 Damages

A Boone County farmer was awarded $25,400 by a jury in Boone Circuit Court, last Wednesday, as a result of a highway crash on March 4, 1963.

Decision of the jury went to Charles C. Robinson, Richwood Road, whose suit for damages alleged that he received a skull fracture and back injuries when the tractor he was driving was torn in two when struck by an auto.

Defendants in the suit were Frederick Plaga, owner of the auto involved, and his son, Paul, who was driving. The collision occurred on U. S. Highway 42 at Richwood Road.

Asa M. Rowe, Walton attorney, represented Mr. Robinson, and the defendants were represented by James C. Ware, Covington.

Local Girl On Dean's List

Miss Betsy Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Jones of North Main, Walton, made the Dean's List for the Spring term at the University of Kentucky, where she completed her junior year in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

According to a letter from Stanley Wall, Associate Dean, this list is composed of those students making a 3.4 or better academic standing for the term (A is an A and 3.0 a B). Approximately nine percent of the students in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics made a standing of 3.4 or better.

Miss Jones is a Home Ec major and was graduated from Walton-Verona High School in 1961. Her standing was 3.62.

Pictured above is the afternoon session of the Walton Kindergarten. Homeowners report newly set tomato plants in gardens being attacked by cutworms. The cool, wet spring has been ideal for development of 10 species of cutworms that attack such young plants.

Control measures: (1) Cut the top and bottom from a quart-size cardboard milk carton. Then cut the carton in half. Set out the tomato plant and slip the half of the milk quart over the plant. This will give good protection against cutworms. (2) Use DDT dust or a spray from DDT wettable powder on the stems, and soil around the plant. This will protect most plants.

One of these control methods is sufficient; using both is not necessary.

Three insect pests are attacking tobacco plant beds now. They are flea beetles, cutworms and grubworms.

FLEA BEETLES: Use DDT 50 percent strength wettable powder spray, or a 10 percent strength DDT dust. Treat immediately, if many beetles are in plant beds, and again in 14 days if flea beetles are still present. One day before transplanting to field, make the third application. Sevin dust or wettable may be used but plants must be in at least the sixteenth stage. Thorough coverage of plants is essential; plant bed covers should be raised in spraying operations to obtain the best control.

CUTWORMS: When plants are observed cut off near the ground, dust beds with the 10 percent DDT dust, or mix a spray of the 50 percent strength DDT wettable powder. Treat grassy fence rows around the plant-bed site; cutworms live there in day hours, invade plant beds at night.

GRUBWORMS: These are the larvae from the June beetle. They frequently are in plant beds high in organic matter; the grubs feed on this matter and in so doing, uproot young seedlings. Use Dylux 50 percent wettable powder in a spray of one pound of the wettable powder in 100 gallons of water for each 100 square yards of bed.

County agents have a large cardboard sheet (listed as Miscellaneous No. 251-A) giving instructions and recommendations on control of plant bed insects.

A Concert was performed Sunday, May 24 in the Simon Kenton High School Gymnasium with the combined bands of Simon Kenton and Trenchard Junior High Band. The program was mainly composed of Latin American numbers. The entire gym was full. Everyone had an enjoyable time.

Commencement exercises at Simon Kenton High School will begin with Class Night, May 29 followed by a special Sunday evening service May 31 and graduation on June 2.

We were sorry to hear that Mrs. Florence Beagle had to go back to the hospital for another operation. We wish her a speedy recovery.

We are glad to report that Mr. Jim Kanstler is getting along fine after being operated on for cancer of the throat. He is still in St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Those from Banklick Baptist Church to be installed in Jobs Daughters are Miss Joan Wagner, honored queen; Linda McKinley, senior princess. Others from our church are Susan Shadler, Judy Wagner Patsy McKinley, Darlene Tomlin, Bonnie Ledford, and Connie Perry.

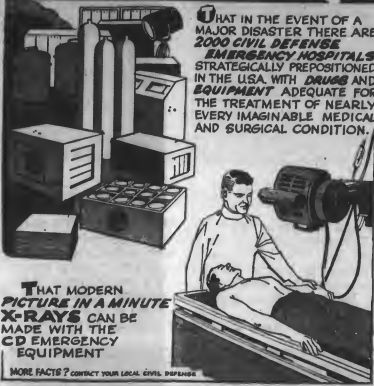

We are sorry that the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgie Henzley was destroyed by fire May 18. They wish to thank everyone that has been so nice to them and for the many nice gifts they received at a shower that was held at Banklick Baptist Church.

NOTICE—

Mrs. Charles Banks has returned home from the hospital where she was treated for back trouble.

We were real sorry to hear that our old friend, Joe Maus, Sr., was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital with heart trouble, last week. He would appreciate cards from his many friends.

Mrs. Marguerite Feld returned from Florida, and died a few days later at Booth Hospital. She had been ill for several months. Her daughter, Mrs. Jane Horton, graduated from the University of Miami, and has returned to Kentucky. She will teach at Taylor Mill School again next year.

We see in the morning paper that John E. Turner of Old Taylor Mill Road, graduated from Morehead State College, Monday.

T/Sgt. and Mrs. Jack Stocker, of Columbus, Ohio, visited Mr. and Mrs. Chester Tallent over the weekend.

Gene Kelly won third place with his Tennessee walking horse at a horse show in Nicholasville, Ky., last Saturday. Tommy Kelly won fifth place with his five-gaited horse.

Oral Dorman, who is graduating from Simon Kenton High School, and Jackie Miller, who is graduating from Dixie Heights, are leaving for the Air Force Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thompson went to Lexington, on Saturday to see her brother, Harry Wiley, who is seriously ill in a Lexington Hospital.

Mrs. Tommy Dorman, the former Barbara Tenney, flew to Anchorage, Alaska, a few days ago to join her husband, who is stationed there with the Army.

Sarah Jones of Lipscomb Road, had her tonsils removed last Thursday and is getting along fine.

Ashland Sales Promotion

Local Ashland Oil dealers will launch a major sales promotion June 1 featuring free Early American Precut crystal bowls with purchase of seven or more gallons of gasoline. It was announced by Area Supervisor Walter Gooch, of Elsmere.

The bowls—authentic antique reproductions—are similar in style to glassware items offered in previous Ashland Oil promotions. Consumer demand resulted in the decision to continue the series, Mr. Gooch said.

Customers will be able to obtain a large serving bowl in a matching design at a special price with an oil change or lubrication.

New Shop Building at School for Deaf

SLATED FOR DEDICATION and occupancy this spring, the new $320,000 vocational arts building on the Danville campus of the Kentucky School for the Deaf (above) is nearing completion. The 17,500 square foot structure at the State institution will provide space for instruction in graphic arts, typing, mechanical drawing, electronics, woodworking, tailoring, cleaning and pressing of clothes, leather working, auto body and paint work, and general shop work. Workmen (below) begin the interior finishing of the mechanical drawing room. The new building will replace 75-year old Argo Hall which will be torn down.

Young Dems To Organize June 5th at Hebron Lions

Bruce Ferguson, Union, president of the Boone County Young Dems Club, has announced there will be a recruiting program started to instill interest in the Young Democrats of Boone County to join his organization.

A meeting will be held at the Hebron Lions Club building on Friday, June 5, at 8:00 p. m.

All young people interested in the Democratic party, between the ages of 18 and 40 are urged to attend and to bring their friends.

A spokesman said, "Make the Young Democratic Club of Boone County a source of pride in the county and the envy of the state... why not have the state Young Dems look to Boone County for leadership, after all, Boone County has been Democratic for 170 years... why change now?"

Beechgrove Homemakers

A lovely luncheon was enjoyed by members of the Beechgrove Homemakers of Kenton County at the Lookout House, near Covington, during their May meeting. Clinkenbeard, Mrs. Raymond McHale, Mrs. Frank Afterkirk, Mrs. Raymond Dickson, Mrs. Erwin Dewald, Mrs. R. R. Quick, Mrs. Bryan Armstrong, Mrs. Stanley Parker, and Mrs. Gus Schadler.

David Egan Fund Is Organized Here

Interested friends met Monday evening to organize a David Egan Fund to assist the family of this young man who recently underwent open heart surgery.

A benefit fish fry and social will be held at the Firemen's grounds in Walton, on Saturday, June 20, starting at 5:00 p. m.

Any person, group or organization wishing to make a donation may do so by sending check, payable to the David Egan Fund, P. O. Box 62, Walton, Ky.

When our friends need assistance, now is the time to give them our support.

CARD OF THANKS

Thanks a million for your support in last Tuesday's election. I really appreciate every act of kindness shown me.

I wish to congratulate my opponent, Mr. Shaffer, for the clean campaign he led against me.

Let's all join hands, as Democrats, for the November election. Thanks again... everyone.

LIBRARY MEET TONIGHT

Chairmen and their helpers are urged to attend a meeting at the Walton City Bldg., Thursday, June 4, at 7:30 p. m., to complete plans for the Boone County Library and Book Mobile Unit.

Mrs. Edward Lay, Chairman of Friends of Boone County Library, said "We plan to get under the provisions of House Bill 325."

WALTON BOWL ENTERED

Thieves broke into Walton Bowl on North Main Street, Sunday night and took $60.00 in money and several pairs of bowling shoes.

They also took a pay telephone, according to Sheriff Melvin Collins, who was investigating.

Independence Bible School

A Vacation Bible School will be held at the Independence Christian Church, June 8 through 19, from 9:30 to 11:30 each morning, five days per week. Mrs. Ethel Williams is director and may be contacted at 356-2879.

Bradford Lodge To Meet

Bradford Lodge, F&AM, will hold its regular stated meeting on Thursday, June 11 at 7:30 p. m., in the Lodge Hall at Independence.

PINER BUSY BEES

On Thursday, May 21, at Piner School, the Piner Busy Bees held their achievement day program. Robert Maddox and Miss Nannay judged all the finished projects. There was a fine display of articles in the school library. There were many ribbons and prizes awarded in the sixth grade.

The grand champion in cooking was Dwight Menefee; apron, Marcia Cook; grooming kit, Cheryl Huffman; pottery, Brenda Simpson; home furnishings, Teresa Jackson, Jerry Younger, Becky Mann, Lois Saylor; jewelry, Brenda Simpson and Linda Mann.

The packed lunch judged best was by Terry Ashcraft; first-year electric was won by Paul Duncan, and second-year electric by Jimmy Mullins, and third-year by Jerry Bray.

On Thursday night at the PTA meeting, the 4-H Clubs presented a style show and modeled their garments. The 4-H Clubs were in charge of the program.

PRE-SCHOOL CLINICS

Pre-school clinics will be held at the Boone County Health Department, 266 Main St., Florence, on the following dates: Wednesday, June 10, Wednesday, June 17 and Wednesday, June 24.

Those families who are medically indigent may bring their pre-school children on the above dates for physical examination and immunizations required for entering school in September. Hours for the clinics will be 9:00 to 12:00 noon, and 1:00 to 4:00 p. m.

Those children who will need their physical examination should come in between the hours of 1:00 and 4:00 p. m. on the above dates.

PLAN BROOM-MOP SALE

Kenco Jaycees will conduct a broom and mop sale on Saturday, June 6, in the Independence and Southern Kenton County area. This project is to raise funds for community projects.

Classified ads pay big dividends.

CHURCH OF GOD REVIVAL

A revival starts Sunday, June 7 at 7:30 p. m., at Walton Church of God, 88 South Main Street. The evangelist will be Ronald Drown of Muncie, Ind., who will preach nightly. Everybody welcome.

Ryland Heights PTA Meets

The Ryland Heights PTA concluded their year May 26 with a meeting in the school. The devotional was given by the sixth grade teacher, Mrs. Estelle Crouch, "Our Children."

Mrs. John Ferguson, chairman of Ways and Means, reported that plans were under way for the Fall Festival.

The banner was awarded to the fourth grade room of Mrs. Beryl Covington for the highest attendance of parents present.

A sixth grade ventriloquist, Bruce McChure, gave a delightful performance with his puppet, Jerry.

Highlight of the evening was the music program under the direction of Mrs. Edythe Owens. A telephone concert was given by the fourth grade students, and Mrs. Owens presented pins and awards to those who completed the course. The fifth and sixth grade choral group sang several selections and closed the program with "Now the Day Is Over."

Kenton Elementary PTA

At a recent meeting of the Kenton Elementary P.T.A., Teacher Appreciation Week was observed. Each teacher in the school was presented an African violet by a representative member of his class.

Randall Wagner, program chairman and past president, gave the devotional.

The program was under the direction of Dandridge Murdaugh, director of the Northern Kentucky Mental Health Center. A film, "Fears of Children," was shown.

The only successful substitute for work is a miracle.

—DEATHS—

JAMES LAMN

Services for James Lamn, retired Verona farmer, were held at 2:00 p. m., last Thursday at the Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona. Burial was in New Bethel Cemetery, Verona.

Mr. Lamn, 86, died May 26 at Booth Hospital, Covington. He was an elder in the South Fork Christian Church.

Survivors include his wife, Pearl, and two daughters, Mrs. Grace Nation of Prospect, and Mrs. Elmer Reffett of Erlanger.

MRS. HETTIE RENAKER

Mrs. Henrietta (Hettie) Renaker, a lifelong resident of Boone County, died at 5:00 a. m., May 28, at Booth Hospital, Covington. She had been in ill health for several years, and was 84 years old.

Her husband, A. B. Renaker, retired recently as president of Peoples Deposit Bank, Burlington. Mrs. Renaker was the sister of the late Boone County Judge N. E. Riddell, and she lived all her life in the house where she was born in Burlington. She was a member of Burlington Chapter, Order of Eastern Star.

Services were held at 2:00 p. m., last Friday at the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

MRS. NAN C. RANSON

Mrs. Nan Chambers Ranson, a retired teacher and president of the Women's Club of Northern Kentucky Presbyterian Churches, died Sunday at St. Elizabeth Hospital. She was stricken Saturday at her home on Chambers Road, Walton.

Mrs. Ranson taught in the Boone County and Beechwood school systems.

Surviving her are a sister, Miss Jean Chambers, and one brother, Charles L. Chambers, both of the Chambers Road address, and two stepsons, Steve B. Ranson of Walton, and William Ranson of Woodstown, Del.

Services were held Tuesday at 2:00 p. m. at the Richmond Presbyterian Church, with Dr. J. Russell Cross officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery. Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton, had charge of arrangements.

Fleance Edgington, Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hooper of North Dakota, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chapman, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edgington and daughter, Mrs. Iris Hughes, attended the funeral of Mr. Edgington's nephew, who was killed near Harrison, Ohio, Wednesday, in an auto wreck. His funeral was held Saturday at 2 o'clock at the Detmer Funeral Home in Rising Sun, Ind.

We are glad Wendell Webster is back home from the hospital and doing as well as can be expected. We wish him a speedy recovery.

We extend our sympathy to the Jim Lamn family in the passing of Mr. Lamn last week. His funeral was held at the Hamilton Funeral Home, Thursday afternoon.

Roy B. Webster of Reading, Mich., was here last week to visit his son, Wendell, who was operated on.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Robinson and family spent Saturday and Sunday in Berea, Ky., visiting her mother, Mrs. Tilda Hocker.

Veterans Administration Questions and Answers

Q—When a veteran is to be admitted to a VA domiciliary, will the VA pay his travel there?

A—Yes, as a rule, for the initial admission.

Q—Is it true that those servicemen who hold on to their GI insurance in-service premium waiver may be depriving their dependents of certain benefits?

A—In some cases, keeping the in-service premium waiver could be detrimental to the interests of dependents should they become beneficiaries. They would be unable to receive Dependency and Indemnity Compensation under the law if the insured died with the waiver in effect. Since it differs for individual cases, each serviceman should check to see how his family will be affected.

Q—Has World War II entitlement expired for GI home loans?

A—Not for all World War II veterans. Entitlement may be used for ten years after discharge plus one additional year for each 90 days of active wartime duty. However, all World War II entitlement does expire July 25, 1967.

The best place for a man to look for a helping hand is at the end of his own good arm.

Boone County DAR Chapter Meeting

Mrs. Charles Goodridge opened her lovely home in Hebron for the meeting of the Boone County Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Ashlin Logan, Regent presided and welcomed members and guests. She led the D. A. R. Ritual which was followed by roll call. Mrs. Logan had attended the D. A. R. State Conference in Lexington and reported on this meeting as did Mrs. Clifford Coyle, Mrs. Davis Gaines, Mrs. Samuel Denham, Jr., Mrs. Floyd Roberts, and Mrs. William Conrad all of whom had also attended. Mrs. Walter Ferguson, Chairman of National Defense discussed the stand which the D. A. R. has always taken of the United Nations in that the D. A. R. has publicly gone on record as being opposed to the United Nations since it's beginning in 1946 to the present time.

The Regent announced the death of Martha Randall, in California, former member of the Boone Co. Chapter who had requested that the chapter participate at her funeral. Mrs. William Conrad, former Chapter Chaplain, was elected to present a prayer at the Cemetery.

Mrs. Logan announced that the Chapter was on the D. A. R. Silver Honor Roll and thanked members for their support in making this possible. The Chapter was also awarded a certificate from Mrs. Robert Hume, State Regent, for a 15 percent increase in participation.

Mrs. Coyle noted that the National D. A. R. Library in Washington was the foremost genealogical library in the United States and that plans had been made for its renovation. The National Society is requesting that each member contribute .80c each toward this renovation. The chapter will pursue this in September.

In making her report on the American Indian Committee, Mrs. Conrad read a beautiful Indian Prayer.

Mrs. Logan read her annual report and announced that the fifth and sixth Districts would be held for the next State D. A. R.

A Look At Education

—by—
Eugene Robinson

During the latter part of April each year the Division of Finance of the State Department mails each school district four copies of the General Budget, Form F-1, for the following school year. This form is divided into three major parts; namely, estimated expenditures, estimated receipts, and the portion on request for tax levy. After these have been filled out, they have to be approved by the Walton-Verona Board of Education, Boone County Clerk, and the State Board of Education.

As was mentioned in last week's article, the local tax is $1.50 for general purposes, 50 cents for Special Voted School Building Fund, and 40 cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of all bank shares. This tax rate is then applied to the assessed valuation of all property in the school district and all the assessment data is available at the County Tax Commissioner's office. The assessed property times the tax rate, less cost of collection, discounts, delinquencies and exonerations, is the estimated local receipts. After this figure has been established the amount of money that is received from Frankfort through the Foundation Program is added to arrive at the total amount of revenue a school district can expect to receive for the year. However, in the final calculation the district may receive more or less and I will devote some time to explaining how the final calculation is figured in a future article. The next step in working up the General Budget is to estimate expenditures in the following areas: administration, instruction, attendance and health services, transportation maintenance, and operation of plants, fix charges, debt service, etc. Of course the budget must balance by expenditures being equal to receipts.

Sometimes a school district can experience some problems with their budget because there are some unknown factors that arise during the school year. For example, if a district has a very close budget by figuring maximum on receipts and minimum on expenditures and any one of several things happen during the school term, it could cause a deficit at the close of the year. This is very much like a family that works up a budget with an attempt to keep their expenses less than their income. Some months expenses get the best of us and we are in the hole. Of course this is not good for a family, business, school or anyone, and if it happened over and over they might be in trouble.

For years now the Walton-Verona District has finished the year with a $1,000 to $2,000 balance; however, this year our expenses have overcome us and we will have a deficit at the close of June. The district has not received all of the local taxes or all the foundation money at this date, but from all indications, we will have about a $4,500 to $5,000 deficit. This means that in working up the budget for 1964-65 this deficit will be considered as an expenditure and will leave us less money to budget for expenses. This is not good and I regret it very much; however, I see no difficulty in overcoming it next year because our expenditures will not be as great in some areas of the budget. In working up the budget last year, it was my desire to do the most possible for the school in the way of services and equipment and as a result it was a very close budget. We had more teachers employed than the Foundation allowed. Of course these extra teachers' salaries were to be paid out of local money. This is common practice in many school districts with the thought that it provides a better program which is very true and we have had some three teachers over for several years now. (I will devote some future article to pointing out how teachers are allotted). We employed a full-time school secretary and this was a service needed and never had before. There were a number of areas that we attempted to improve that cost money.

This stretching of the receipts might have worked except for some unexpected expenses that seemed to be excessive all year. There was an unusual amount of sick leave, more bus expense involving an accident, more spent on remodeling and painting than planned, more equipment and furniture for the new addition than we originally planned for, and on the first day of school there were some first graders that we expected. This meant another first grade teacher on an already over-stuffed faculty. As you can see much of the expensive expenditure was unavoidable. In addition to this, there was less franchise tax money this year than last.

The budget that will be presented to the local board and fiscal court will be around $208,000 for the 1964-65 school year. This is the largest budget in the history of the school district. I will give a breakdown and more explanation after the board has approved. The local board will hold its regular meeting at 7:30 p. m., on June 4. In addition to approving a depository and treasurer, the board will open sealed bids to supply milk, fuel, gas, etc. for next school year.

Summer Baton Classes

Summer group baton classes will be held for grades two-nine, starting June 8 and extending to August 21. These lessons will be taught by Carolyn Armstrong at her home on North Main, once a week for two hours. For those living in Verona, classes will be taught at the school on Friday. The fee will be 75c per lesson, and other costs will be for a baton, which is $5.00, and 50c for a baton book.

Private lessons will be given to those people who want extra help and who want to advance as quickly as possible. These will be given once a week for two hours at $1.00 per lesson.

Advanced classes will be taught to those who have had twirling before. These classes will consist of more twirls, stunts, tricks and principles of twirling.

If there are any questions, feel free to call 485-4682.

Social Security Notes

"School's out!" School's out!" These are words that have a meaning for young and old alike. The older folk reminisce about the carefree days gone by, while the young folks gaze expectantly into the future.

Many high school and college students will soon be getting summer jobs, and those who graduate are looking for their first full-time employment. This is the time to make sure you understand about your own personal social security account.

It is important that an accurate record be kept for you as these contributions may later be used to pay you and/or your family when you become disabled, retire or die. Yes, this may be far in the future, but get started right and it is so much easier. Follow a few simple steps and it all works without difficulty.

First, if you do not have a social security card, come to the social security office at 309 Gardner St., Covington, or at any post office you can get a form that you may complete and mail to the Social Security office to get your social security card.

Second, show this card to your employer and make sure he gets the name and number just the way it is on the card, because he is going to be sending in the contributions for you.

Yes, social security is always happy to start the new accounts for all you who are getting out of school. The number is to help us in our record keeping and is the only one you will need for the rest of your life.

20 YEARS AGO

JUNE 4, 1944

Ten Mile Baptist Church, in Gallatin County, which was destroyed by fire two years ago, has been completely rebuilt, and was dedicated June 4. Rev. Will Smith has been the pastor for seven years.

Miss Olive Kackley, women's commentator for WCKY, will be a guest speaker at the Walton Literary Club luncheon party on Thursday, June 8 in Cincinnati.

With our boys in service: Letters have been received from Pvt. Clifford E. Ryan, stationed in Glendale, Calif., and from Wm. C. Piner. Walter Brooks, stationed in Italy, has been promoted to sergeant. Cpl. Harry E. Waller is stationed in China. Malcolm Simpson, of the U. S. Navy, New York, is home on leave for ten days.

The Junior GA's of the Walton Baptist Church, met at the church on Wednesday. New officers were elected: President, Betty Northcutt; vice president, Patty Johnson; secretary, Jo Ann Elliott, and reporter, Alva Flynn. Those present were Jo Ann Elliott, Genevieve Marksberry, Patty Johnson, Mary Howard, Betty Northcutt, Jere Ann Powers, Alva Flynn, and the leader, Geraldine Harris.

Mrs. Albert Thomas and daughter of Owenton, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Vest.

Mrs. Bess Conrad entertained Mrs. Ora Fry and Mrs. Fannie Brittenhelm for Sunday dinner.

Bobby Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Smith, finished "boot" training at Great Lakes, and has been spending a nine-day leave here with his parents and grandmother, Mrs. Beach.

Miss Mary Surface had an eye operation performed at Booth Hospital. She is doing nicely at this time.

Misses Opal and Wilma Beach of Gallatin County, will leave for Georgetown College, Saturday. We will miss them but wish them success in their school work.

Boone County has excellent prospects for hay, pasture and a fruit crop this spring. The largest crop of peaches in years was seen on the farm of Mr. McGlasson and that of Liston and Charles Hemphing.

Miss Addie Norman was called to Liberty, Ind., due to the death of her brother, Albert Norman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Glacken of Concord, had as guests Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. G. Boleches and Misses Nina and Beulah Glacken of Erlanger. Miss Beulah is spending her vacation with her parents.

Clyde Chapman left for the Army last week. Their children are spending a few weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chapman of Verona.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stephenson spent last week with relatives in Walton.

Plans have been completed for

The folks living on Rich Road near Morning View were shocked Sunday morning when they learned of a terrible tragedy that had taken place some time during Saturday night when their neighbor, Calvin Peoples, Jr., 36, and his wife, 31, were found dead at their home on Rich Road in what looks like a murder and suicide although police are still investigating to find out what really happened.

Relatives say that Mr. Peoples had been very depressed for some weeks before the tragedy. Authorities say they are trying to determine whether Mrs. Peoples died of a heart attack or was choked to death.

This writer and wife were pleasantly surprised when Mrs. Ryles niece, Mrs. Wendell Jones, husband and children of Burlington, Ky., called on them Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Jones is on the Boone County Recorder staff.

Tom Brumback, wife and children of Covington and Mrs. Carl Mockbee and three children of Thomas St. were guests of the writer and wife.

Carlos Petty, the "Iron Man of Farway Drive" made a flying trip to the farm here Sunday and gave the writer some valuable tips on home gardening.

Dorsey and Glendon have the tobacco sifter going here Monday getting their tobacco crop set out. They had about the finest plants we have seen this year.

Mrs. Cecil Clay of the Tower is quite ill at this writing. Our wish for her is a quick recovery.

In a newscast this Monday just before mailing our news, authorities have decided that the tragedy on Rich Road was a murder and suicide.

This is one time of year when it's hard to get help and there are so many things to do on the farm it is hard to decide what to do first. What with garden to plant, hay to harvest, tobacco to set, and livestock to change around, the boys in the blue jeans are going around in circles thus finding themselves back where they started and no job completely finished.

Little things make a big difference!

Surprising how a few extra refinements can add so much to the enjoyment of your home!

Like an electric light in each closet. Costs so little yet means so much. Helps you locate clothing and stored items... encourages children to keep their things neat and shipshape.

This is only one of the many fine features of a Gold Medallion Home. Others include clean, modern, safe Electric Heat... electric range and refrigerator... adequate wiring... "light for living"... electric water heater and system. Add them all together and you have modern, convenient electrical living. That's why Gold Medallion Homes are "worth-more" homes... why they have greater value today and tomorrow!

'A Needy World'

Lesson for June 7, 1964

Background Scriptures: Deuteronomy 10:16-17; Matthew 23:23-24; James 2:14-17; 1 John 3:17-18.
Devotional Reading: 1 John 3:11, 14-15.

SHARP READERS will have noticed something about these columns since last April. They are all about "The Christian and..." even if there was no room for the whole title. First we thought about man-in-general in relation to the universe; then about the Christian in his family relations and with his neighbors; next about the Christian at work and at leisure. This was followed by the Christian in the government and to nationalism; and from now through June we consider our relation to the whole world.

Dr. Foreman relation to government and to nationalism; and from now through June we consider our relation to the whole world.

The top and the bottom

A large order? Yes, indeed, staggeringly large. But two points run through all of this. One is that we are related to all these things, Christian and non-Christian alike. The difference between the Christian and the irreligious man is not that one has responsibility for his relationships and the other does not. The difference is that the Christian recognizes, even if too dimly, what his responsibilities are, and tries to do something about it. The other point is that a man's character, indeed his very existence as a human being, is measured in terms of his relationships. You don't put a man into a solitary cell to find out whether he is a good man; you turn him loose in the world of other people.

If you think of the people of this world as a pyramid, the same thing is true as is true of the pyramids in Egypt: there are very few stones in the top layers, compared with the enormous number of stones in the bottom.

Never enough

People will say, Oh, why bother with the troubles of folks we can't see and can't help? People do seem to get on somehow, wherever they live. They grow up and have babies and they live to be old, don't they? Well, that's not quite true. Take the country people, millions of them in one country alone, India for example. The American who travels there is shocked by the large numbers of hungry-looking people he sees. Men and women do grow up, though infant mortality snips off the lives of many before they even get started. They grow up hungry, there is never quite enough food to go around. They wear clothes, yes, but such clothes as you wouldn't put down for a prize cow or cat to lie on. They eat food you would throw away.

How can we person help?

The world is so big, and there are so many needy people in it, that we often wonder, how can I possibly do any good? The answer is, to be sure you by yourself can't do much, and you wouldn't know what to do anyhow. But your government and your church are both working on this problem of a needy world. Every time you pay your taxes, you are helping to support such successful enterprises of good will as the Peace Corps and agricultural aid of many kinds in many nations. Every time you go to church, you are invited to share in what is being done by your denomination for the needy world. If you have a heart sympathetic enough to feel yourself neighbor and even brother to the multitudes at the bottom of the pyramid, the church has all sorts of suggestions. It has many groups going right now that need your help. If you don't know, ask your minister. It may surprise him—but it will give him a chance to surprise you. And if you still don't care to help, then read those Scripture passages again from Old Testament and New, and ask yourself: Can I honestly call myself a Bible-believing Christian?

Honored At Eastern

Among the Northern Kentucky students honored recently at Honors Day at Eastern Kentucky State College, Richmond, were Harold Douglas Rouse and Lynelle Flynn Ryan, juniors, with standings of 3.5. In the nominees for OWEN, national sophomore women's honorary group, was Lynda Worthington, also of Walton.

Education more than any other factor determines the quality of a community and of a nation.

Anzio... Okinawa... Two Jima? On which beachhead did they find it, that cross crudely drawn in the sand?

No doubt it appeared on every blood-stained shore where gallant men of Christian faith have fallen wounded or dying!

For the Cross on which Christ died has ever stood as the symbol of His Life and Truth. And often it has spoken eloquently what human lips could not frame.

Is it not too little simply to honor those who have fought and died for our freedom? Each generation must inscribe its own prayer on the beachhead of history.

Religious freedom is the heart of our heritage.

In a world in which liberty must be armed to endure, faith must be practiced to be preserved.

Pray for yourself, your family, your nation, your world... in the church of your choice next Sunday.

WHITES TOWER

Mrs. Ralph Howard, Reporter
Mr. and Mrs. George Binder of Decoursey Road, are expecting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Willoughby and children home for a vacation from Florida.

Don't forget the auction this Saturday, June 6, at St. Cecilia school basement in Independence. They have a large assortment of furniture, stoves, refrigerators, lamps, all sorts of things you might find just the thing you are looking for. Come and join the crowd, everyone welcome...starts at 11 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Schoborg of the Tower, have just returned home from a visit with relatives and friends in Alabama. Last week they enjoyed a lovely trip, but said it was sure hot there in comparison.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howard were pleasantly surprised last Thursday by a visit from his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Howard, of Walton, who had just returned from a trip to Arizona, where they were called by the illness of their son, Richard, Jr., who lives there. While there they also visited with two other sons, James and Sam, also of Arizona, a niece. Their stay lasted two months and they had a lovely trip.

Mrs. Mary Northcutt of Decour-sey Road, is spending some time in Louisville, at the home of her granddaughter, who has presented her with a great-granddaughter.

We are very sorry to hear that Jimmie Kavanaugh of Staffordburg, was in a hospital, and hope he soon will be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burke and daughter, Ruth, spent Decoration Day at Butler, where they visited the grave of her mother and then to her brother's, Shady Belew, and family.

Mrs. Wm. Binder of Roselawn, has had a siege of poison on her face, but is some better now.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Colcord of Hemphill Road, spent last weekend at her home in Jackson, Ky.

Literary Club Meets At Wahrenburgs

The Walton Women's Literary Club reached the last page in its program June 3 at the home of Mrs. Heinz Wahrenburg, Verona. It's a custom to keep the best until last, and this was true at this meeting.

Mrs. Grace Knox, president, asked that all recite the club colophon together, as well as the flag salute. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, and the treasurer reported $58.00 in the treasury. Birthdays, Mrs. J. R. Conrad and others, $5.00.

Mrs. W. W. Rouse, club historian, gave a very clear and interesting account of the work through her coworkers.

Mrs. Heinz Wahrenburg got a great thrill through her being a delegate to the State Convention in Lexington, May 21-22. There were 1,500 women present at one dinner in addition to an exciting style show.

Mrs. Alan Gaines and Mrs. Julia Rouse attended a club meeting at Florence, and were highly impressed by the way these women made money selling fruit cakes. All were so pleased with the report that they wanted to try the same project. Others suggesting money-making schemes were Miss Mary West, who suggested extended building the school library; Mrs. L. M. Gabriel, who suggested collecting books and magazines to send to those in distant lands.

Spiritual guidance was given by Mrs. L. M. Gabriel, who presented loving memory thoughts of Mrs. Nan Ranson to her family and friends, who for many long years rendered worthy service for social uplift. Mrs. Gabriel chose the third chapter of Luke for her guiding thoughts. It says, in a way, "We are always in a crisis." The little sins we commit were condemned by Jesus. He was firm against our leading others astray. "We are always in a crisis," we ourselves. We say our duty, and Christ condemns this. The prayer, "We thank you Lord for forgiveness of our many sins."

Members present: Miss Rachel Acee, Mrs. Dan Beall, Mrs. Willis Berkshire, Mrs. C. S. Chambers, Mrs. J. R. Conrad, Mrs. Robt. M. Daniels, Mrs. R. F. DeMolay, Mrs. A. H. Gaines, Mrs. L. M. Gabriel, Mrs. Wallace Grubbs, Mrs. L. Hamilton, Mrs. W. W. Hon, Mrs. George Knox, Mrs. Sallie Moore, Mrs. W. W. Rouse, Mrs. Sam Sleet, Mrs. R. W. Sturdivant, Mrs. Forest S. Thompson, Mrs. Hess Hess, Mrs. Heinz Wahrenburg, Mrs. Lloyd Watson, Mrs. Melvin Watson, Mrs. James Webster, and Miss Mary West.

Visitors were: Mrs. Mary Stevenson, Mrs. Gerth (presented by Mrs. R. M. Daniels, now a member), Mrs. Albert Powell, and Mrs. Wadsworth Latimer.

The hostesses, Mrs. J. L. Hamilton and Mrs. Wahrenburg, served delightful refreshments.

Officers Installed By the Wa-Na Club

Mrs. Howard Barry, past president of K. F. W. C. installed the new officers of the Wa-Na Club at their regular June meeting held Monday at the home of Mrs. Clayton Jones on North Main Street.

Mrs. Barry spoke on "Federation" and gave some incidents that have happened in the years she served as State President and in other capacities of the club work. She then installed the following officers: First vice-president, Mrs. Walt Ryan; second vice-president, Mrs. Louis Webster; secretary, Mrs. David Peebles; treasurer, Mrs. Nelson Popham; kindergarten teacher, Mrs. Wm. Moore; and historian, Mrs. Mike Ryan. Mrs. Clayton Jones will serve as president to complete a two year term in this office.

Mrs. William Moore gave the spiritual guidance. Mrs. Chester Sturgeon read the Club Collet and Mrs. Heinz Wahrenburg, historian, gave a resume of the work of the club during the year just past which completed the program for the evening.

During the business meeting the club voted to contribute to the David Egan Fund and to use the new RECC meeting room as a place to hold club meetings next year.

Members present were: Mrs. William Moore, Mrs. Walt Ryan, Mrs. Jack Rouse, Mrs. Mike Ryan, Mrs. Gayle McEroy, Mrs. Nelson Popham, Mrs. David Peebles, Mrs. George Black, Mrs. Robert Slayback, Mrs. Louis Webster, Mrs. Mary Alice Conrad, Mrs. Heinz Wahrenburg, Mrs. Asa M. Rouse, Mrs. Chester Sturgeon and Mrs. John Taylor.

Call Mrs. Nell Jean Thornton, 485-4463, president of the Band Boosters, for more details. This is also a reminder to Band Booster members to "get busy!"

Pretty Wedding Solemnized at Erlanger

Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Davis Miss Sarah Ruth Sexton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Sexton of Erlanger, and Mr. Richard Lewis Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis D. Davis of Richmond Road, were married in a candlelight service at 7:30 o'clock, May 23rd. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Townsend at the Erlanger Methodist Church. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a pearl de sole and silk organza gown elaborately trimmed with Alencon lace. The bodice was fashioned with a scalloped round neckline and three-quarter length sleeves; the A line skirt trimmed in the Alencon lace ended in a full chapel train. An Alencon lace covered pill box secured the three tier finger-ring length veil of silk bridal illusion.

Attending the bride were: Miss Elaine Bush, Maid-of-Honor; the Misses Kathy Craddock; Dottie Kiser; Betty Sexton, cousin of the bride; Jeanette Angel, cousin of the bride; and Mrs. Albert Schwonke, bridesmaids. ## 1964 National Wool Needlework Contest

Knitters and crocheters from Maine to California will be needing their way to fame against fellow needlework hobbyists this year as contestants in the 1964 National Wool Needlework Contest. To enable residents of this area to participate, entries for the nationwide competition, being held for its second successive year, will be submitted for judging locally at the Kenton County Fair, which will be held; August 6-7-8. No entries may be made directly to the contest's national headquarters.

Contestants must initially win a first prize in the judging being held at the Kenton County Fair before being eligible for the national judging, which is to be held in New York late this year. The blue ribbon award at the fair will be made in six different categories, three each for knitters and crocheters, with an engraved trophy awarded to the entry selected from all six first prize winners as "Best of Fair."

For further information regarding the 1964 National Wool Needlework Contest, its rules and how to submit entries, potential contestants should contact Mrs. George Wolstein, 325 Webster Road, Independence, secretary, Kenton County Fair.

County Agent's 1/2 Acre

—by—
Joe Claxon

Pythium soft rot of tobacco plants was found in Boone County last week. About a week after setting, tobacco plants suddenly wilt and die. When affected plants are removed from the ground they have a soft watery rot of the buried stem. In affected fields, dying may occur daily for a week or two. The disease is caused by a soil-borne species of Pythium, one of the fungi responsible for damping-off of seedlings or many different plants.

The disease is more prevalent and destructive when the weather is cool and damp following setting. It is more likely to occur in fields where the decay of cover crops or other organic matter has not been complete. These conditions appear favorable for the multiplication and buildup of Pythium in the soil.

Usually the loss of plants is not great, but fields have been seen where a third of the plants had died. Resetting in places where plants have rotted is rarely successful. If the number of diseased plants is high, possibly 10 to 15 percent, the field should be disked and reset. The new rows should be placed in the middles between the old, diseased ones. Hand-setting has not been very successful if the plants go in the same spot where a plant died. If it is possible to set the plants between dead ones the newly set plants might live.

Take care of burley plant beds after the 1964 crop has been set.

Here are some rules to follow: When setting out is over, and if neighbors don't need any of your surplus plants, destroy all plants left in the bed site...do this by plowing or disking; if this plant bed site will be used for the 1965 crop, seed it in to a heavy vegetative cover crop such as soybeans, cowpeas or others...this crop will protect the soil in the summer, cut weed content and reduce disease; in the fall, before the crop goes to seed, turn it under about two weeks before fall weed-control treatments is administered; don't overlook fall treatment of bed sites...this has been a very successful, useful practice over the years.

Peacemakers

Lesson for June 14, 1964

Background Scriptures: Micah 4:1-5; Matthew 26:46; Romans 12:14-21; 1 Timothy 2:1-2.
Devotional Reading: Isaiah 40:1-9.

WHAT CAN I DO for world peace? It is a question most serious-minded persons, young and old, have asked themselves. Too often the answer is, Nothing. I am only one of two hundred million American citizens, and very few of us have the authority or the power either to start a war or to stop it. And if we despair of influencing our own nation, what can we say of our individual influence on vast nations on vast nations?

Dr. Foreman like Russia and China? Faced with such simple arithmetic, most persons simply give up. To judge from the actions of the American public, it seems to be the general opinion that "Que sera, sera," what is to be will be, and if we just stop thinking about the problem of war, it will go away. And then some one we know is killed in Viet Nam or in a military base accident... and we realize that forgetting all about it never solved any problem yet.

War is one problem which has existed since long before the Bible began to be written. We might expect the Bible to say something about it, and so it does. For one thing, the Biblical pictures of an ideal world are invariably pictures of a world from which war has disappeared. Now perhaps war is inevitable, and so is death. But the inevitability of death does not keep doctors from doing all they can to save death off from their patients.

The Bible, moreover, makes some suggestions which may seem nonsense to non-Christians, but to Christians they carry more sense. First of these is a simple thing: Pray for kings, Paul says (and there wasn't a Christian king in the world when Paul wrote this)—and for all in high positions, "that we may live a peaceable and peaceable life..." If you believe in a real God, "King of Kings," and if you believe in prayer, of course the thing to do is to pray for those whose decisions make war or prevent it. Pray for congressmen (did you ever?), for the President, for the Premier of Russia, the Dictator of Albania, for men in authority all around the world. Don't object to praying for non-Christian leaders; remember that no ruler in Paul's time was a Christian, yet Paul knew it was worth while to pray for them.

Overcome evil with good
Governments of every kind reflect the character and the wills of their people, in the long run. A government has to do more or less what the people want and understand, even when a nation's leaders are a bad lot. Now if in every day life the citizens of a country are fond of fights, if human life is cheap, if revenge is the common attitude, then you may expect that country's actions to reflect the national character. This holds for America quite as much as for any other nation. So Paul's directive, to overcome evil with good, makes sense.

Peacemaking institutions
Blessed are the peacemakers, Jesus said. If this is right, then it is right to stand by and support peacemakers. There is space here only for a bare mention of two institutions which in different ways are working for peace, and deserve the support of all Christians. One is political, one religious. The political peace-making body—which has more successes to its credit than most Americans are aware of—is the United Nations Organization, founded with peace as its aim. The other organization is not one but many. It is the combined missionary efforts of all Christian churches. Alone among all the organizations of men, the churches exist for the purpose of winning all men to God's side, the side of peace. For the Christian, all wars are civil wars, between those who should be brothers.

Get Degrees From Xavier

Among Xavier University's 748 graduates, June 3, at the Xavier Fieldhouse, were John E. Hettelman, Route 2, Crittenden, M.Ed.; Lynda L. Wilson, U. S. 42, Florence, M.Ed.; Robert B. Barnes, Morning View, M.Ed.; Gayner G. Caldwell, Demossville, M.Ed.; A. Richard Rabe, Route 1, Verona, MEd; Thomas C. Fischer, East Bend Road, Burlington, MBA.

Free as a Bird

No worries, no responsibilities! A lot of us would gladly trade places with Wendy, just to share that wonderful "joy of living" that children feel so often, and adults experience so rarely.

"But what is there to be happy about?" you may be thinking. "Maybe Wendy has no worries, but I certainly have!"

Perhaps we forget that this world is in God's hands... and that, with God, nothing is impossible. We wear ourselves out seeking human solutions to our problems, when Divine help is always available if we will only ask.

Try it. Try bringing your worries and doubts to God this Sunday in your neighborhood Church. Hear God's promise of guidance and comfort for all who will give their lives to him in childlike trust. And let the Holy Spirit fill your troubled heart with lasting joy.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

20 YEARS AGO

JUNE 15, 1944

The Daily Vacation Bible School at the Walton Baptist Church will close June 15. The average attendance has been 102. There will be a picnic on Friday at the Albert Hunt farm, and the commencement will be Sunday night. Robert W. Chambers, Boone County farmer, was killed Friday, June 9 by a team of runaway horses which overturned a sled on him while he was hauling water to a tobacco setter on his farm near Walton.

A Gulf Service Station, located in South Walton, has been opened under the management of Robert Zapp.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Barnard of Vancouver, Wash., were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Kirtley Johnson and W. B. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Johnson of Erlanger, were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Martin Code and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kannady, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Littrell of Verona, received word from their son-in-law, Jesse T. McMillan, that he is now stationed in Italy; Malcolm Simpson, who has been here on furlough, received word to report for duty as he is being transferred; Pvt. Franklin Breeden is spending his furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Breeden, Sr.

News from servicemen: Kircher M. Johnson of South Walton, is at an advanced forward position on the Fifth Army front in Italy; Verne Colston Cox has been spending a seven-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Colston.

Foods still on ration and requiring stamps are processed foods, meats and fats, and sugar. Stamp A-11 is good for 3 gallons of gasoline through June 21.

Mrs. Hartsough of Chicago, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of South Walton.

Mrs. Glenna Cleek and son, Ronnie, of Batavia, Ohio, are visiting in Walton.

Edmond Johnson of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Elizabeth Mills of Covington, called on Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bush and W. B. Johnson, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. James L. Wherry and daughter, Linda, of Auburndale, Fla., and Mrs. Ivan Field and daughter, Martha, of Mt. Vernon, Ind., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Brakefield.

On June 8, the Walton Woman's Literary Club enjoyed a delightful day in Cincinnati, at the Netherland Plaza Restaurant Continental, where they had lunch and witnessed the ice revue. Following lunch the group assembled in the Julep Room for their regular meeting. Miss Olive Kackley of Radio Station WCKY, was the guest speaker. Mrs. Lydia S. Stephens of Covington, former member and the first president, installed the following officers: Mrs. H. F. Mann, president; Miss Emma Jane Miller, vice president; Mrs. Rose W. Hamilton, secretary, and Mrs. C. S. Chambers, treasurer. Club members and guests then went to the WCKY broadcasting studios for a tour of the station and witnessed Miss Olive Kackley's broadcast "Charm For You."

CONCORD

Mrs. Lindsey Webster, Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lawson had company for the holiday: Mrs. Raymond Needennan and children of Anchorage, Alaska, Mrs. Herman Mason and a friend of Covington, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Carty and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith visited her mother, Mrs. Chas. Lawson, one day recently.

Mrs. Lindsey Webster visited Mrs. Floyd Chapman, Monday. Mr. Webster helped Marion Martin set tobacco; also helped Price Webster and Floyd Chapman.

Dennis Chapman of Walton is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chapman.

Mrs. James Lamb is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chapman. James Beach is sick.

Bro. and Sister Spencer spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley

Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey E. Webster spent Friday with Mrs. Luther Wagner of Berry. Mr. and Mrs. Webster spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Harold McLoney and mother. Their son, Ernie, was also there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Webster spent Monday afternoon in Verona with Mr. and Mrs. Witt Edgington. Mrs. Vevie Webster is not doing much good with her arm; Mrs. Charles Lawson's arm is not doing so good either.

Mrs. Ralph West and mother visited Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chapman, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Webster visited his son, Ray Webster, in Walton, one day last week, and on Thursday, were in Warsaw. Mrs. Lillie Ryan is sick.

Experience is what keeps a man who makes the same mistake twice from admitting it the third time around.

Officers Installed by Kenton PTA Council

Miss Norma Neumeister

Miss Norma Neumeister, a senior at Georgetown College, from Walton, has been selected Lambda Chi Alpha Crescent Girl for next year.

Norma is active in B.S.U., secretary of Tri-Beta, Psychology Club, W.A.A., Pep Club, S.N.E.A., Sigma Kappa representative in the Student Government Association, and recording secretary of Sigma Kappa.

Miss Neumeister succeeds Sydney Hancock as Crescent Girl.

Annual Session of Job's Daughters

Mrs. Helen West, Roselawn Dr., Independence, Grand Guardian of Kentucky, International Order of Job's Daughters, will preside on Friday night, June 19, at the formal opening of the 16th annual session which will be held at the Masonic Temple, Graves Avenue, Erlanger.

With Mrs. West will be Harry Shrygh of Erlanger, Associate Grand Guardian of Job's Daughters.

The Friday night meeting will be highlighted by the presentation of all honored queens of the betheis in the state.

Also planned are a special memorial ceremony, greetings from the various Masonic bodies in the state, and a grand choir composed of members of all betheis in the state.

Immediately following the meeting will be a reception for the grand officers, grand betheis officers, and out-of-town visitors.

Saturday morning the five elected officers of each betheil will convene at Cherokee Bowl, Taylor Mill and Cox Road for a "high five" breakfast, while other Job's Daughters will enjoy a bowling party until they are joined by the "high five" group.

The adults will attend a business meeting at the Masonic Temple in Erlanger.

Grand Bethel officers will be selected after the Job's Daughter luncheon at Erlanger, and that installation will be held at 4:30 p. m. at the Temple.

Bristow Chapter, No. 31, O. E. S., will serve a banquet at 6:00 p. m. at the Temple, after which the newly-elected and appointed Grand Council officers will be installed at 7:45 p. m.

Visitors and dignitaries from all parts of Kentucky will be present. These include Dr. J. E. Dawson, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky; Mrs. Mary Dye, the Worthy Grand Matron, Order of Eastern Star of Kentucky, and Mrs. Dorothy Westphol, Grand Royal Matron, Order of the Amaranth of Kentucky.

All events except the business meeting are open to the public.

Liggett Circle Meets

Mrs. Robert Kellum and Mrs. Clayton Jones were hostesses to the Virginia Liggett Circle of the Walton Christian Church last Thursday evening in the Kellum home on Verona-Crittenden Road.

Mrs. Gaines Huey, president, presided during the business meeting. Mrs. Jack Rouse led the study lesson by giving a summary of the completed study of India, and Mrs. Layne Cheesman gave the devotional.

In a very inspiring and challenging installation service, Mrs. William Moore installed Mrs. Paul Simpson, president; Mrs. Ed Scott, vice president, and Mrs. Jack Rouse, treasurer, as new officers for the coming year. Mrs. Victor Huff, who is to be secretary, was absent.

The David Egan Story . . .

This is the story of a young man in our community, and his encounter and direct involvement, with the human heart. . . his own.

David Egan, Route 2, Walton, has been troubled with a heart condition for a long time. This condition gradually worsened until in the fall of 1963 he required the strictest of medical management. At this time he was having severe chest pains and shortness of breath, so severe at one time that the rescue squad of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department had to be called to administer oxygen. Despite this treatment it was decided something must be done. David underwent a cardiac workup, which included various heart studies including cardiac catheterization. On the basis of these tests it was decided that open heart surgery, using the heart-lung machine and the lowering of the body temperature, was necessary.

On Thursday, May 28, David's chest was opened, his heart exposed, a tube inserted into the large vein leading to the heart, and blood shunted through the heart-lung machine and back into an artery in his leg. In this way the blood was able to completely bypass the heart. The blood was cooled in the heart-lung machine eight degrees centigrade, thus lowering the body temperature to 29 degrees centigrade. The aorta was opened and the aortic valve inspected. It was discovered that David was suffering from a condition known as congenital defect. There were only two cusps, or leaflets, instead of three, in the valve of the aorta, or outflow vessel leading from the heart. Repair work was done on this valve.

But with this condition the heart has had to pump against undue pressure and it gradually weakened, wore down, resulting in a condition with decreased output of blood, rapid heart beat, heart enlargement, and accumulation of fluid in the lungs. In medical terms, David was suffering from "acute left ventricular heart failure." With this condition, the muscle of the left side of the heart has thickened to about one and one-half times its normal thickness.

Prior to this operation David received excellent medical care, and during his operation and hospitalization, has had some of the best doctors available, and has received the benefit of the latest techniques and equipment available. During the operation alone there were four surgeons in attendance, two anesthesiologists and six nurses and technicians assisting.

It is understandable that the expenses of such an operation and hospitalization are very great. At the present time the known costs will run well over $4,000.00.

Plan Benefit Fish Fry

On Saturday, June 20, there will be a benefit fish fry and social at the Firehouse Grounds on High School Court. The money raised from this benefit will help meet the medical expenses involved in this surgery and hospitalization. The menu for this fish fry will include fish sandwiches, coneys, lasagna, hot dogs, soft drinks, coffee, and homemade pie and cake.

Individuals or groups wishing to make donations to the David Egan Heart Fund may send their donations to Post Office Box 62, Walton, Kentucky.

We understand that David was able to come home last week. But even then he faces a long period of readjustment, recuperation and recovery, and will be under strict medical management for an unknown length of time. . . at least unknown at the present time. We wish for David the very best in this period of recovery.

Instrumental Music Program for Summer

The summer Instrumental Music program of the Walton-Verona schools will be held June 22 thru August 14. Registration will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, June 17-18, at the Music Building, Walton school, for Walton students. Verona students will have registration on Friday, June 19, in the lobby of the Verona school. Hours of registration are 9:00 to 12:00 and 1:00 to 5:00.

All instruction is free. The W-V schools will furnish some equipment and music. Classes include Beginning Band, Junior Band, High School Band, sectional rehearsals of like instruments, private lessons, and band camp at Butler State Park.

Beginning Band students may rent a band instrument for the summer period. Rental applications will be taken during the registration.

Over one hundred students will be enrolled, according to James Layne, director.

Sells Registered Cattle

Holy Ghost Revival

A Holy Ghost Revival is now in progress at the Walton Church of God, 88 South Main Street. Evangelist Ronald Drown of Muncie, Ind., is doing outstanding preaching.

Friday, June 19, is Fellowship meeting night with Bro. Drown ministering. Everybody welcome.

FISH FRY AND SOCIAL

A benefit social and fish fry, starting at 5:00 p. m., Saturday, June 20, on the Firemen's grounds in Walton (behind the old school, on High School Court), will be held for David Egan, a 15-year-old local youth who underwent open heart surgery in May.

For your supper and refreshments will be fish and hot dog sandwiches, pie and cake, Coffee and soft drinks.

Please come. Help support a worthy cause. . . if you can't attend and want to make a donation, it can be done by mailing a check to the David Egan Fund, P. O. Box 62, Walton. Thank you!

ROBBERIES IN WALTON

Thieves broke into the American Legion Hall on High Street, twice last week. Tuesday and Wednesday nights. According to Gilbert Glenn, they took money, cigarettes and candy. There are no clues at this time.

The Walton-Verona High School was also broken into one night the past week, according to Reuben Kirtley, deputy sheriff. Several rooms were ransacked, a telephone jerked off the wall, some cash was taken. Entrance was gained through a shower room window.

At Kenton V.F.D. Festival

Bob Braun

Bob Braun of WLV-T will entertain at the Kenton Community Volunteer Fire Department Festival, Friday night, June 26. The festival is for two nights, June 25-27. (See advertisement in this paper.) There will be rides, booths, fish fry, and dancing.

New Partnership At Funeral Home

Wallace K. Grubbs, Walton, has stepped down as manager of the Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home in Florence.

The new managers are a son, Wallace S. (Buddy) Grubbs, and Jerry W. Rouse, who worked at the Florence funeral home for the elder Mr. Grubbs from 1950 through 1956.

Although relinquishing control of the Florence business, Mr. Grubbs and his wife, Mary, will continue to operate the Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton. Another son, James D. Grubbs, manages a funeral home at Independence.

The father has been in the undertaking profession for the past 35 years.

His wife, Mary, is the daughter of the late C. Scott Chambers, who started the business 55 years ago in Walton. Mrs. Grubbs was one of the first women in Kentucky to receive an embalmer's license. She graduated from Embalming College in 1922.

Like his father, Buddy will be receiving an assist from his wife in the new Florence venture. She, the former Sharon Graff, has held a funeral director's license since 1963.

They live at the funeral home, 298 Main St., Florence, with their four children, Margo, Melodee, Scott and Terry.

Buddy is a graduate of Walton-Verona High School, and attended the University of Kentucky, and Cincinnati College of Embalming. He received his funeral director and embalmer's license in 1956.

The Florence business is now known as the Grubbs & Rouse Funeral Home. The transfer was effected June 1.

Mr. Rouse, who doubles as the Boone County coroner, lives at 193 Lloyd Ave., Florence, with his wife, the former June Abdon, and their four daughters, Marilyn, Sheila, Linda and Sandra.

Jerry, a graduate of Florence High School, attended Eastern Kentucky State College, Richmond, the University of Kentucky and the Cincinnati College of Embalming. He received his funeral director and embalmer's licenses in 1954.

The best education in the world is that gotten by struggling to get a living.

Radio Station For Erlanger

The Federal Communications Commission, by action June 1, authorized construction of a Class A, FM radio station in Erlanger, to Ken Thomas, Inc. The new station, expected to be on the air early in 1965, will operate on 100.9 megacycles during day and night hours on 3,000 watts of power.

Ken R. Thomas, Florence, said the station site is on Main Street at the Southern Railroad in Erlanger, with studios and office planned in the business district on the Dixie Highway.

WRONG PHONE NUMBER

Last week, we gave the wrong telephone number for calling the police, and we're sorry for this. Now, remember this number. In case you need the local police. . . 485-4383.

The number given last week was that of the Cecil Pence residence, and we trust Mr. Pence was not called at 3:00 a. m. to quell a quarrel somewhere.

Read the classified sections.

Graduates from Art School

Mrs. Heinz Wahrenburg, Route 1, Verona, has graduated from the Famous Artists Schools of Westport, Conn. Mrs. Wahrenburg specialized in fine arts painting during her three-year course with this home study school.

Directing the art-classes is a faculty of distinguished artists, among whom are Norman Rockwell, Ben Shahn and Dong Kingman.

OPEN HOUSE SUNDAY FOR OWEN COUNTY RURAL ELECTRIC

A modern new branch office on Walton-Nicholson Road, near Independence, in Kenton County, will be formally opened to the public during open house to be held Sunday by the Owen County Rural Electric Cooperative, from 2:00 to 6:00 p. m.

Customers in Boone, Kenton, Campbell and Pendleton counties receive complete service through this office. It includes installation, maintenance, and bill payments.

Facilities of the new structure include offices for the superintendent, director of public relations and member services, and home economist. There is a large meeting room with kitchen facilities, available to civic, agricultural and educational organizations.

Home office of the cooperative is at Owenton. Other counties served by the cooperative are Gallatin, Grant, Carroll, Owen, Scott.

PLYMOUTH

A short time ago, Plymouth beat Ford and Chevrolet in 9 out of 10 tests at Raceway Park in Indianapolis. These tests covered performance, braking and gas economy. In other words, "things you buy a car for!"

At Plymouth's request, Nationwide Consumer Testing Institute bought the comparably equipped V-8s directly from dealer showroom, hired the drivers, supplied the officials, made the rules and supervised the entire competition. See your Plymouth Dealer for details of "Test Track, U.S.A."

Right now, your Plymouth Dealer is making red-hot deals on the same red-hot car... Plymouth! If you'd like to own a get-up-and-go car and get a terrific deal at the same time, head for your Plymouth Dealer's!

Look for many promotions and attractive prices on dairy products this month, for June in Dairy Month. Since milk production reaches a peak in June, the dairy industry has selected this month for special promotion of its products. This is a good time to use plenty of fresh fluid milk; condensed, evaporated, and dry milk; cottage cheese and other cheeses; skim milk, cream, butter, and ice cream.

June is also National Barbecue Month, Kentucky Spring Lamb Month, and Let's Eat Outdoors Month.

The sod webworm still is damaging lawns. The small, dead patches about the size of baseballs scattered throughout the sunny portion of lawns probably are from this pest's feeding. Within the next two weeks another generation will be coming along. This may be the most damaging of the year's several broods. The pests doing the damage are larvae which feed on the blades of grass. They look like small caterpillars.

If you suspect the sod webworm first make sure you have them. Part the grass at the surface of the ground at the edge of suspected dying spots. If you see small spotted caterpillars in silken tunnels, you've got the pest. You may have to examine a half dozen or more spots to be sure you have them.

Control: Spray with 50 percent strength Sevin wettable powder. Mix two cupsful for each 1,000 square feet of lawn. Put into three gallons of water. Spray on to grass. After spraying, use a garden hose to give a fine, misty spray and wash the insecticide to the ground level. You may use a hose on sprayer also. Repeat in 14 days. Keep children and pets off the treated lawns until the insecticide has dried.

Summer days are happy days...unless you get a touch of that infamous weed, poison ivy. Then you are in for periods of discomfort until you cure the rash, or get it again!

Here's how to control this noxious pest: For poison ivy growing near such crops as tobacco, cotton, grapes, vegetables, ornamental shrubs and flowers, use ammate or amitrol; for poison ivy in areas other than those mentioned, brush killers containing 2,4-D, 2,4,5-T or silvex may also be used.

Use all materials as sprays. Put them on when poison ivy plants are in full leaf and actively growing. Follow label directions for safety and rate recommendations. Avoid drift of any of these herbicides onto desirable plants. All portions of the plant produce the poisonous material...it can be carried to humans by particles of soil, pet's tools or clothing, and immunity from poison ivy is not necessarily permanent. For positive identification, consult a weed book or have someone familiar inspect and identify it.

Veterans Administration Questions and Answers

Q—Where should I send a change of address notice for my compensation check? It comes from some place in Chicago.

A—You should mail your change of address notice for any VA payments to the VA regional office where your records are maintained. This is the VA office which authorized your payments. If you move to another regional office area, the VA will transfer your records to this new regional office after you report the move.

Q—How do you get a veteran who requires medical treatment into a VA hospital?

A—The veteran or his physician applies for admission which is forthcoming if he is eligible, needs hospital care and a bed is available. (In service-connected cases, a bed is always available.) In the case of a sudden emergency, the veteran may be taken directly to the hospital but someone acting for the veteran should communicate with the VA hospital by telephone or telegraph before hand to facilitate admission.

Q—Are women veterans eligible for VA benefits?

A—Yes. Women veterans are eligible for the same benefits and under the same conditions as men.

ORDINANCE NO. 1964-38

Ordinance prohibiting the parking of trailers in the City of Walton, Kentucky except in designated trailer park courts or other locations designated by the City Council, and providing penalty for such violation.

WHEREAS, it has come to the attention of the Walton City Council through various complaints of its citizens concerning the parking of trailers within the City limits of Walton, Kentucky without any consideration for the desires and rights of adjoining property owners, and an unsightly appearance which adversely affects property values in the community, and

WHEREAS, the health and general welfare of the citizens of the City of Walton, Kentucky, are a primary concern of the City Council.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF WALTON, KENTUCKY, DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

1. That hereafter all trailers parked within the city limits of Walton, Kentucky, shall be located in Trailer Park Courts designated as such, and/or except an acreage tract of land consisting of at least two (2) acres of land and limiting one trailer to each tract of at least two (2) acres under the terms of this ordinance shall remain on an acreage tract of land when the acreage has been reduced to less than two (2) acres. The right to park a trailer on an acreage tract of land is subject to the approval of the City Council.

2. Proper sanitation facilities which comply with the sanitation code of the Department of Health of the State of Kentucky, are required of all trailers parked within the City limits of the City of Walton, Kentucky.

3. That all persons found guilty of violating this ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not less than $5.00, and not more than $10.00, for each such offense. Each day a trailer is parked in an unauthorized area within the city limits shall constitute a separate offense.

4. That all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance shall be deemed to be repealed.

5. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect after its publication as by law required.

Passed and approved by the City Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky, on the 11th day of June, 1964.

ATTEST: DAISY HILL, Clerk, City of Walton, Kentucky 11-25c

ORDINANCE NO. 1964-40

An ordinance providing for a City License on automobile and truck owners for the privilege of using the streets of Walton, Kentucky, and the penalty for failure to pay same.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF WALTON, KENTUCKY:

Section 1. That it shall hereafter be unlawful for any person, or persons, individual or individuals, corporation or corporations, company or companies, residing in the City of Walton, Kentucky, to use and operate an automobile or motor vehicle for pleasure, hire or business within the limits of the City of Walton without first having obtained a license to use and operate the same and paid the necessary license fee therefor, as hereinafter provided. Such license shall also be required of all person or persons, individual or individuals, corporation or corporations, company or companies residing outside of the city limits and owning and operating and operating therefrom in the automobile or motor vehicle upon and over the streets thereof in connection with a business conducted, or regular occupation followed within the city limits or as a means of conveyance to and from a position, job or labor for which remuneration is received from such business or occupation in said city.

Section 2. Each and every such person, individual, corporation or company owning or operating a motor vehicle in the City of Walton, Kentucky, shall immediately upon requirement thereof, make application to the City Clerk of Walton, Kentucky, for licensing thereof, and shall furnish to City Clerk, the name and address of the owner thereof, and the name of the motor vehicle, the capacity or tonnage rating thereof, and the number of the license furnished said owner by the State of Kentucky.

All license fee imposed, levied and collected from both resident and non-resident operators of automobiles and motor vehicles under the provisions of this ordinance, shall be paid into and become a part of the General Fund, the same to be used for the purpose of paying the expense of maintaining the city government. Said license shall be for a period of one year from July 1 to June 30.

Section 3. The license tax required to be paid hereunder is $5.00 for each motor vehicle or passenger vehicle, or motor truck and trailer. The City Clerk of Walton, Kentucky, is authorized, empowered and directed to collect the license tax provided herein while tax shall be payable on and after the first day of July in each year. If such license tax be not paid before the first day of August in each year there shall be added thereto a penalty of 10% thereof and it shall be the duty of each and every person so applying for said license on or after the first day of August to pay the 10% penalty in addition to or tax and the City Clerk is directed and required hereby to collect the same except as provided in Section 4 hereof.

Section 4. If any person becomes the owner of a motor vehicle after August first of any year and for that reason the registration is only a part of the year, the registration shall be as many twelfths of the annual fee as there are unexpired months in the year, and if such license is not procured within thirty (30) days after acquiring such motor vehicle, there shall also be added to such license a penalty of 10% thereof and any and all persons, firms, corporations and companies paying or offering to pay such license tax after the same has been delinquent as herein provided, shall pay said 10% penalty thereon. Possession of a state license or license tag shall be conclusive evidence of ownership and operation of any motor vehicle under the provisions of this ordinance.

Section 5. The City Clerk of Walton, Kentucky, shall cause to be prepared suitable license stamps and to issue same to the owner of every motor vehicle and truck who makes application therefor upon the payment of the license fee hereinbefore provided. It shall be the duty of the owner or driver of said motor vehicle or truck to display said stamp at all times upon such motor vehicle or truck in the lower right hand corner of the windshield.

In the event said stamp should be lost, mutilated or destroyed, the owner to whom same was issued may, upon presentation to the City Clerk of Walton, his receipt for the original license, a sworn statement that said license was lost, mutilated or destroyed and payment of a fee of fifty (50c) cents, obtain a duplicate stamp. In the event the owner to whom any license hereunder was issued shall sell the motor vehicle license hereunder, the purchaser of said motor vehicle, if said City Clerk shall immediately transfer the license upon payment of a transfer fee of fifty (50c) cents; if said purchaser be not subject to the provisions of this ordinance, the seller upon affidavit to that effect be a license for the vehicle which replaced the one sold, said fee shall be replaced the vehicle sold shall not be used to a refund.

Section 6. The license provided for herein is to be used for the privilege of using the streets of the City of Walton, Kentucky, and the holder thereof from the obligation of the compliance with any and all the ordinances of the City, the laws of the State of Kentucky or of the United States of America. The first license under this ordinance shall be issued July 1, 1964 and expire June 30, 1965.

Section 7. If any section of this ordinance or any provision or exception contained in any section of this ordinance be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such section shall not effect the remaining portion of such section, it being the intent of the City Council to enact each section of this ordinance and each provision and exception thereto separately.

Section 8. Any person, corporation or company violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction in the police court of the City of Walton, Kentucky, shall be fined not less than $3.00 nor more than $25.00 and the costs of prosecution and each day said ordinance is violated shall be deemed to be a separate offense.

Section 9. All ordinances or parts of ordinances and in particular Ordinance No. 1962-5 in conflict herewith are to the extent of such conflict hereby repealed as of July 1, 1964.

Section 10. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect after its passage as law required and after July 1, 1964.

Passed and approved by the City Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky, this 11th day of June, 1964.

Third prize winners receive a complete Kodak "Fun Saver" movie camera and a Kodak Brownie, self-threading, 8 mm motion picture camera.

The grand sweepstakes prize winner, still to be selected, will receive a "World Fair Trip for himself, or herself, along with 25 friends," or $25,000 in hard cash.

If it is the truth, what does it matter who says it?

Social Security Notes

June is the end of another calendar quarter. At that time anyone who pays household employees over $50 between April 1 and June 30 is required by law to send the social security taxes which he has been withholding from the worker's pay to the Internal Revenue Service.

Reporting social security taxes for household employees is very important. The social security taxes submitted for the employee and total wages paid him may determine how much monthly social security he will later receive. Proper reporting now might even determine whether he will later receive monthly checks at all.

If a domestic employee is already receiving social security checks each month, the employer must still deduct the tax from his salary. If the employee's wages now exceed his average earnings for previous years, he may be eligible to have his benefit refigured.

For information about reporting social security taxes for employees, contact the Social Security Office at 309 Garrard St., Covington, for the free pamphlet, "Social Security and Your Household Employee."

Survivors include five daughters, Mrs. Etta Karver, Mrs. Cora Cain, Mrs. Lena Shields and Miss Nellie Tippet, all of Covington, and Mrs. Katherine Gilpin of Louisville; a son, John Tippet of Miami, Fla.; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Margaret Tomlinson of Walton, and two stepsons, Roy and Harley Tippet of Independence.

Services were held at 1:00 p. m. last Friday at the Swindler Funeral Home, Independence, with burial in Independence Cemetery.

ERNEST MARDIS

Ernest Mardis, 88, died June 10 at his home, 4965 Madison Pike, Independence, after a long illness. For 40 years he was an employee of ULI&P, having retired 19 years ago.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth McLain of Independence; two sisters, Mrs. Alice Felton of Miami, Fla., and Miss Mabel Mardis of Independence, and two brothers, James Mardis of Forest Hills, and Walter Mardis of Pearl River, La.

MRS. HAZEL McDANNOLD

Mrs. Hazel McDannold, 71, 118 Madison Pike, South Ft. Mitchell, died at her home June 7. She was a charter member of Bradford O.E.S. 493, Independence, and a member of the Banklick Christian Church.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Jeannette Beers at home; a son, Harvey McDannold of Morning View, and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Hand of Highland Heights.

Services were held June 9 at the Swindler Funeral Home, Independence, with burial in the Independence Cemetery.

CLARENCE RAY WEBSTER

Clarence Ray Webster, a native of Verona, died June 6th while working on the roof of a house in Butler. He was 53. He suffered a heart attack, according to a coroner's report.

Mr. Webster was working on the roof of the Philip Farris home. He was a yardmaster for the L&N Railroad, Covington.

Survivors include his wife, Viola; two sons, Ronald Webster of Alexandria, and Donald Webster of Butler; five daughters, Mrs. Connie Deatherage of Covington, and Bonnie, Lonnie, Connie and Monnie Webster all of Butler; two sisters, Mrs. Ora Belle Sturgeon of Covington, and Mrs. Blanche Rich of Verona, and three brothers, Ernest and Raymond Webster of Covington, and Ralph Webster of Hlaton.

Services were held at 2:00 p. m. June 9 at the Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, with burial in the New Bethel Cemetery.

You May Register Republican in Boone

The Republican party of Boone County is beginning its drive to persuade those eligible to vote to register if they have not done so, to consider the merits of the Republican party and to register Republican.

Many Republican voters registered as Democrats are now urged to change registration. This may be done either by calling at the county clerk's office, or more simply, by writing to the clerk's office requesting that his party affiliation be changed. Unless a special election is called, books will be open until 59 days prior to the November 3 general election.

Maxine Lindsey Circle

The Maxine Lindsey Circle of First Baptist Church, Walton, W. M. S., met at the church June 11 at 1:30 p. m., with nine members present.

Our Circle Chairman, Barbara Simpson, was in charge. After the business was carried out, our program chairman, Clela Moberly, presented a nice program, "To God Be the Glory," with six taking part, each with prayer for special mission endeavors. Our prayer chairman, Helen Breeden, had a period of 17 prayers by all. She closed with special prayer for missionaries on daily prayer list and for appointed couple to missions, and dismissal.

The next meeting on second Thursday in July. All members please come, and try to bring someone.—Pub. Chm.

To Speak at New Haven

Perle Whitehead

An unusual evening is in store for every man, woman and child of this area, Wednesday evening, June 24, on grounds of the New Haven School, U. S. Highway 42. Admission is free and there is adequate parking.

Cubs, Scouts, Explorers and their leaders from all parts of the county are working on this program, and are being aided by the Men of the Union Presbyterian Church. Special Scout ceremonies will open the program at 7:30, which will be followed by an address by Perle Whitehead, a gifted speaker and long-time worker with boys. He is appearing to encourage further interest in Scouting.

Youth Enjoy Boys' State

Saturday morning, Dennis Rich, Bob Jones and Harry Sleet returned from a week at Bluegrass Boys' State at Eastern Kentucky State College, Richmond.

These three boys wish to express their appreciation to John-son-McElroy Post, No. 277, American Legion, and to the other sponsors who made this week's experience possible.

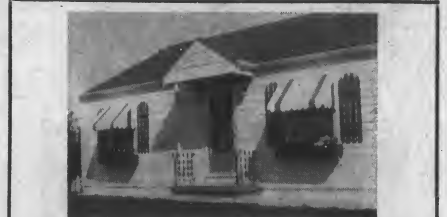

There were 325 boys from all parts of Kentucky registered, the largest attendance in the history of Boys' State. The boys attended classes conducted on the levels of city, state and national government and learned the functions of these. Besides the classes, there was recreation and entertainment for the boys to enjoy.

Attending Youth Assembly

David Jarman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Jarman, South Main Street, is attending the officer's council at the Youth Assembly at Sue Bennett College, London, Ky., this week. David is representing the M. Y. F. of the Walton Methodist Church.

Book Mobile To Be In Walton

Mrs. Edward Lay, chairman of the Friends of Boone County Library, has announced that a Book Mobile Unit, like the one this organization is trying to get for Boone County, will be in Walton, Tuesday, June 23, from 9:30 a. m. to 4:00 p. m., at the Walton City Building. The unit will also be at the Crossroads in Verona, from 5:00 to 7:00 p. m.

You are invited to see the Book Mobile and ask questions. Ray May, of Frankfort, will be driving the unit and Eugene Robinson or other local persons will be present while the unit is in Walton and Verona.

To Circulate Petition

Beginning June 20, there will be petitions circulated in Walton and Verona to try to secure a library and book mobile unit for Boone County. There are six counties in Kentucky without library facilities and Boone is one of these. Be ready when these workers call to explain the plan of financing a library. Some who are working are: Mrs. Mildred Cleek, Mrs. Vada Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elsenhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stephens, Mrs. John Webster, Mrs. John Hetterman, Mrs. Dora Stephenson, and Mrs. Maxine McCubbin. There are to be others. Mrs. Elizabeth Kemper is securing workers in Verona.

Attending Synod Sessions

While attending the sessions of the Synod of Kentucky, Presbyterian Church in the United States, at Centre College and the First Presbyterian Church of Danville, Ky., Dr. J. ## SPACIOUS ACRES—FIRST ADDITION OF 212 ACRES OPENED OFFICIALLY SPACIOUS ACRES, developed especially for people that want an acre or two. Located only 20 minutes from Cincinnati. First development for Boone County Zoning and Planning Commission.

FINANCING AVAILABLE! Next addition will cost more money due to high price of land and high standard of street. Ideally located not far from two cloverleafs. Some of my developments around this area are Forest Manor, Hollywood Drive, Shamrock Hill, and Paradise Acres.

SPACIOUS ACRES is close to all stores and conveniences. In an area where it will be impossible to buy in a few years. Close to churches of most all denominations and the Catholic Covington Diocese, also have purchased 130 acres directly across the highway from this property for future expansion.

Have no gimmicks, nothing to give away, but drive out and look! You don't have to buy; there will be no salesman; I live in this development myself and have my office here. Will gladly show you a plot of the property and furnish you with a copy of restrictions that will protect your investment; then shop around and see if you can buy this much for the money anywhere else.

The 25-foot blacktop street is completed according to the Boone County Zoning and Planning specifications which they accept and maintain with no cost to property owners. Will be glad to talk with you about utilities, where you can have as good or better than you have in town with less cost.

Lady Bird at Quicksand

MRS. LYNDON JOHNSON and Governor Edward T. Breathitt greeted the crowd at the University of Kentucky's Wood Utilization Center at Quicksand during the First Lady's recent trip to Eastern Kentucky. Mrs. Johnson lauded the center's program of seeking new uses for timber and predicted it will have a substantial impact on the area's economy. She made a complete tour of the center and was given a detailed explanation of the research projects under way.

WHITES TOWER

Mrs. Ralph Howard, Reporter

Mrs. Chester Hill of Ft. Thomas, left Thursday for a trip to the World's Fair and sight-seeing in New York.

Mrs. Harry Cooper of Inez Ave., is taking her vacation with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Perrin of Dayton, Ohio. They will go to Arizona, then to California, Mexico and pick up his parents and go on to Texas where they plan a family reunion.

Mrs. Howard Willoughby and children of Florida, are at present on her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Binder of Decoursey Road. Mr. Willoughby will join them the first of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger of Decoursey Road, have as guests their son and family, the Chester Ballingers of California.

Mrs. Dora House of Independence is still very sick at the home of her niece in Covington.

Little Patty Ann Barrow of Latonia, spent last week at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howard.

Mrs. Mabel Vanlandingham of Steep Creek, has been very sick with a heart condition, but is some better now.

Mrs. Stella Richardson, Visalia-Staffordsburg Road, is also on the sick list. We hope these ladies a speedy recovery.

Staffordsburg Homemakers

The Staffordsburg Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Inez Beall and her niece, Mrs. Nehring, of Erlanger. Mrs. Nehring is a member of the Green Hills Club. They graciously entertained both clubs with a lawn party after the meeting and with the presence of Miss Zelma E. Byerly, we enjoyed a very pleasant day. Members demonstrated rain hats, place mats, and tote bags, craft embroidery and art work pictures that they had made in the clubs this year. After a delicious chicken dinner and some games, we disbanded until next September with happy memories of the past year.

should appear on television but our grandson, Capt. Richard Dorsey, who was one of the graduates at exercises down in Alabama, where he is now stationed.

Our neighbor, Dykes Belew, and wife called the writer last Thursday when he saw a large snake about 3½ feet long in a large locust tree in back of the Dorsey residence eating the birds out of a nest located on one of the limbs. So we grabbed Mr. Dorsey's rifle and were lucky enough to bring him down with the first shot, almost severing his head and as he fell to the ground Dykes put on the finishing touches with a large club and there lay Mr. Snake with lumps all over his body where he had swalled the birds.

Jo Gross was seeing after things at her farm on Wehrman Road. Mr. Carmen is raising a crop of tobacco for her.

Richard Dorsey, his wife, Otie, and daughter, Sarah, are here for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dorsey of the Tower. The captain has been assigned to Germany and will leave shortly, while Otie and Sarah will follow as soon as Dick makes arrangements for a house or apartment for them. Meanwhile, they will stay with Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mockbee of Covington, visited her parents here Sunday.

Mrs. William Gower and daughter, Debbie, are visiting Mrs. Gower's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Ryle of Naples, Fla.

What do these houses have in common?

Plenty! Although there is 40 years difference in their ages, each has the very finest modern heating system... Electric Heat!

Proves a point, doesn't it? Regardless of how old or small a house may be, everybody can enjoy the same comfort and convenience. Electric Heat is an inexpensive system; it actually costs less to install than most of the old-fashion heating systems. The big difference is in safety and comfort. Electric Heat is flameless; as safe as a light bulb. It provides clean, dry heat. Temperature is controlled for each individual room. Remember how uncomfortable you were last winter? And those high heating bills? It's time you installed Electric Heat in your home. Probably costs less than you think!

ELECTRIC HEAT

BONUS

Install Electric Heat now and we'll help pay the bill! For a limited time, we'll pay a big $75.00 incentive to members who install Electric Heat. Call us for details today!

Missionary Must

Lesson for June 21, 1964

Background Scriptures: Matthew 28:16-20; Acts 1:8; Romans 1:8-16; 10:1-18; Devotional Reading: Romans 15:17-19.

IF A CHURCH is like a club, it is no true church. A club exists for the convenience, pleasure and benefit of its members. But a church is not chiefly for the benefit of its members, though they will receive many benefits by their being members.

Dr. Foreman "Go into all the world . . . make disciples of all peoples . . ." he opened the doors of the church once and for all, to every human being.

"The church is mission." Among the most memorable sayings of Jesus is this: "The Son of Man came not to be served but to serve." So the church exists to serve. When it forgets this, its days of usefulness are over. There are many forms of service in which the church can be active; but the basic, most vital service is winning souls, to use an old-fashioned but expressive slogan. The church exists for the transformation of the world through the transformation of lives from within. It is the only organization in the world with a purpose so profound and penetrating as this. Various words have been used to express this fundamental service of the church; too much used in our time are "evangelism" and "mission." It is often said that the church is mission, and this is true. The church as a whole, and every single person in it, is meant to be missionary in what he does and what it teaches. Christ's challenge is too plain for us to reject or neglect it.

Missionary here Where is the place for the church—including you, if you are one of that great host who are missionaries? Not in some room in the church where the "missionary society" meets once a month. The whole church is meant to be missionary the whole time. Missions cannot be and will not be shoved into a corner by a true church. We can illustrate what is meant by looking at the case of a church that ran away. It was in a large city, and the neighborhood changed, that is, the houses began to get run-down, and there were more people around than ever. But they were mostly people the church gentlemen and ladies did not care for. So they moved the church . . . and soon the neighborhood to which they moved started to run down, and so they moved . . . This went on for six moves, and finally one of the officers said sadly: "Seems there's no place that's safe." That church had been running away from people who needed help, poor people, displaced people, discouraged people.

Missionary there Every Christian, it can't be said too often, is called by God to be missionary—that is, to be a radiating Christian, where he is. But some people are specially called by God to be missionaries there—far off, overseas, in the Congo or in some great crowded city like Tokyo or Seoul. But how can I know whether God so calls me? Well, it's like this: Suppose you are a good swimmer and you are standing at the edge of a pool. You notice at one end of the pool a number of swimmers having trouble, but there's quite a flock of life-savers about; at the other end there are more swimmers in trouble and nobody noticing it or helping them. Now would you think you had to wait for a message from the skies to tell you what to do? Wouldn't your common sense tell you that if you can help where help is most needed, that's the place God wants you to be and to work? A need, and your ability to fill that need, is as good and plain a missionary call as you could ask for, to go there, from here. It may be that some are "sitting in darkness" this very day, waiting for you!

Skating Party June 18 The Kenton Cardinals A.H. Club will hold its last skating party of the season at Lloyd's Rink, Latonia, June 18, from 7:00 to 10:00 p. m. The public is invited and you may purchase tickets from any member or get in touch with Donna Grizzle, 534-9925.

JOYOUS BURDEN

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

There are men who carry the weight of the world on their shoulders—but this isn't one of them.

There is no burden so joyous as the responsibility of being DAD.

But—hold on there! Don't forget it is a burden. Someone's future is on your strong back.

And that someone's future involves soul as well as body.

If you want your boy to become a good ballplayer . . . well, you go out and catch with him.

And if you have hopes for his character, his courage, his commitment to things Right and True . . . yes, a boy loves to walk into HIS CHURCH with HIS DAD.

A Look At
Education—by—
Eugene Robinson

At its last regular meeting the Walton-Verona Board of Education accepted the following low bids:

1. Duplicating supplies including 500 reams of paper, 24 gallons of fluid and 1500 master units was purchased from Central School Supply of Louisville for $422.51. The next low bid was $427.21 presented by John R. Green.

2. The lowest milk bid was presented by Sealtest and was 5c per 1/2 pint. The next low bid was 5 1/2c presented by Lattini Springs.

3. All of the petroleum products will be furnished by Standard Oil on basis of the following bids. Fuel oil—10.5c per gallon, gasoline—23.4c per gallon and motor oil—80c per gallon. Carlie Oil bids were as follows: fuel oil—10.9c per gallon, gasoline—23c per gallon and motor oil—82c per gal.

4. Readmore Coal and Feed will supply coal at $10.86 per ton.

5. Nationwide Insurance Company will carry the bus insurance at a total cost of $23.40. This includes $10,000 Property Damage; $25,000 Bodily Liability on each person; $300,000 Bodily Liability on each accident; $1,000 Medical Payment on each person and Comprehensive Insurance on each of the four buses.

Additional business transacted by the board was to accept Chas. Robert Kellum's resignation as Principal of the Verona School, purchase a tractor mower for the school grounds, adopted the General Budget and Tax Levy for the 1964-65 school year, approved the Dixie State Bank as depository, Asa M. Rouse as school treasurer and Eugene Robinson as textbook custodian for the 1964-65 school year and approved the payment of monthly bills and salaries.

On May 28th there were 42 boys and girls registered for the 1964-65 first grade. This is about 17 short of what our records indicate that will be in the first grade next year. If we have a child or know of a child that will be in the first grade at Walton next year, and they haven't registered, please have them to do so at once. Any afternoon you would be able to find someone at school or if you could not bring the child you could call and give us the information we want. The office phone number is 485-4253.

Next week I plan to resume my articles on the various reports and records and will discuss the Foundation Application and the General Budget. If you would be interested in some phase of the program of the school that we have not discussed please let me know and I will make an effort to discuss it.

—DEATHS—

MARY RAINOR

Mary Rainor, 81, of Route 2, Walton, died at 2:00 a. m., Sunday at the Dry Ridge Convalescent Home, where she had resided since June 18. She suffered a cerebral hemorrhage two weeks ago. She was a member of the Beaver Lick Baptist Church.

She is survived by a brother, Clarence Robbins, with whom she made her home.

Services were held at 1:00 p. m. Tuesday at the Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona. Burial was in the Napoleon Cemetery.

Beechgrove Homemakers

"Information on Panama" was given by Mrs. Raymond McHale, citizenship chairman, to Beechgrove Homemakers of Kenton County, during the June meeting which was attended in the home of Mrs. Gregory Bramlage, Bowman Road. Hostesses were Mrs. Roy Kummer, Mrs. Gus Schadler and Mrs. Frank Afterkirk.

Pamphlets were given to each member about the 1964 American Voter, which reviews the duties of President of the United States, the Senate and House, voting qualifications, and the National political conventions. Each committee report was taken and are to be forwarded to the county chairman, Mrs. Faye Porter. Mrs. Gus Schadler and Mrs. William Endres were elected to serve on the nominating committee, while Mrs. Raymond Dickson, Mrs. Virgil Kelly and Mrs. Stanley Parker were appointed to serve on the auditing committee.

A work day was planned to make place mats on June 24 in the home of Mrs. H. L. Clark on Richardson Road.

Dog Vaccination
Dates in Boone

The Boone County Health Department has announced the following locations and dates for all dog owners to have their dogs vaccinated against rabies. Time of the clinics is 1:00 to 4:00 p. m.

Florence Grade School, Florence on Monday, July 6.

Burlington Courthouse, Burlington on Tuesday, July 7.

Hebron School, Hebron on Wednesday, July 8.

Union Grill, Union on Thursday, July 9.

Old School Building, Walton on Friday, July 10.

Sprague's Grocery, Taylorsport on Monday, July 13.

Jones' Grocery, Petersburg on Tuesday, July 14.

Dr. Thomas Angel of Florence, and Dr. R. W. Bachmeyer of Walton, accredited veterinarians, will be giving the rabies shots. There is a fee of $1.50 for each dog vaccinated, and the vaccine is good for a period of three years.

Failure to have your dog vaccinated against rabies could result in court action. Anyone violating this law is subject to a fine of not less than $10.00 nor more than $100.00. Each day of violation shall constitute a separate offense. Future violators will be cited to court, according to the Health Department.

Gov. Breathitt Honored

Edward T. Breathitt's performance at his first Governors' Conference indicates that Kentucky is in good hands, says R. S. Penn of Frankfort. In an unprecedented move, the nation's governors put Breathitt on the 9-member Executive Committee which runs the conference during the year. It is unprecedented because governors attending their first conference just are not accorded this honor.

Apparently the governors of the 50 states, Mr. Penn added, agree that Kentuckians made a good choice when they elected Edward T. Breathitt.

Keen Teens 4-H Club

Five members of the Keen Teens 4-H Club represented Kenton County at the 1964 4-H Leadership Conference held at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, May 31-June 4.

They were selected, along with other Kenton County 4-H'ers on their leadership ability.

Those attending from this club were Jane and Paul Kunkel, Barbara and Allen Wolsing, and Charlotte Richardson.

Each delegate attended different discussion groups and conferences during the week. Special programs were the get-acquainted party, State talent show, Louisville Youth orchestra, dress review, and the farewell party.

Other Kenton County delegates were Kay Cummins, Laine Marshall, Wally Fennell, Carl Wicklund, and Paul Drake.

Car Wash at Beaverlick

There will be a car wash at the Beaverlick Christian Church, Saturday, June 27, from 10:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. The church is conveniently located on U. S. 42, one mile West of Beaverlick. Have your car cleaned for the 4th, inside and out for $1.75. For pickup and delivery service, call 485-7197 or 485-7142.

Proceeds will be used for the construction of a sidewalk leading to the basement door, which is needed.

Bible School Closes Friday

The Vacation Bible School of the Walton Christian Church will close with a program Thursday evening (tonight) at 7:30, in the church. Parents and friends are invited to see and hear what the children have accomplished these two weeks. On Friday, there will be a picnic at Big Bone Park for the children and helpers.

The average attendance the first week was 82 children and 29 helpers, a total of 111. Mrs. Robert Kellum has been the director.

Read the classified sections.

President of Northern Kentucky F. H. A.

Sandy Spillman will serve as president of the Northern Kentucky District Future Homemakers of America for the coming year. At a recent state meeting of the F.H.A., the former president of this district, Diane Case, of Bracken County, was elected to the state office of first vice president, and therefore, Miss Spillman then assumed the responsibilities of the Northern Kentucky District President. Miss Spillman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Spillman, Walton. She is president of the Walton-Verona Chapter of Future Homemakers of America. Sandy has held an office in her chapter for the past two years. She has received both her Junior and Chapter degrees and has plans for work on her State Homemaker degree. She has also been active in many other school organizations.

4-H Rebel Riders Meet

The second meeting of the Boone County 4-H Horse Club was held at the Diemar residence, 8940 Dixie Highway, Florence.

Four of the members brought their horses, which were ridden before and after the business meeting.

Howard Rae, president, called the meeting to order then refreshments were served. 4-H Rebel Riders was chosen as the name for the club. It was decided to purchase 4-H saddle blankets and patches. In order to do so, the dues were raised from 10c to 15c a meeting.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Tanner and Mrs. Scudder. The next meeting is to be held at the Diemar home at 2:00 p. m.

Mrs. Grace Fisher and Mrs. Erma Stockman attended the Cape Coral (Fla.) reception on Tuesday evening, given by the Gulf American Land Corporation, at Holiday Inn, Ft. Mitchell.

Each Thursday morning at 5:55, there will be a 3 to 5 minute program with Robert Miller on WLW radio. This program includes all aspects of burley tobacco from seed to cigarette. Interviews with outstanding scientists and farmers will also be a part of this program.

WKRC-TV, Channel 12, Cincinnati, will present "Tobacco News and Views," a program designed to cover all news and views of burley tobacco.

Ira Masie and Joe Smiley, tobacco specialists from the University of Kentucky, will work with both programs.

Mrs. Grace Fisher and Mrs. Erma Stockman attended the Cape Coral (Fla.) reception on Tuesday evening, given by the Gulf American Land Corporation, at Holiday Inn, Ft. Mitchell.

The public is invited to attend the show.

Miss Norma Jean Neumeister of Walton, attended the 82nd National Convention of Sigma Kappa Sorority at the Arlington Hotel in Hot Springs, Ark., June 15-20, as a representative of her chapter at Georgetown College. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brewster of South Main St.

Pythium soft rot, a fungus disease of newly set tobacco, has been recorded in several locations. Joe Smiley, UK Agr Extension Service specialist, says it is probably due to cool, damp weather many parts of the state have been experiencing.

Underground portions of stems, he says, show a watery, soft rot condition. If it is apparent many plants of a field will be lost, best system is to disk down the field and reset completely, he said. He cautioned farmers against confounding pythium soft rot with insect damage, particularly from wireworms. These insects attack underground portions of the plant stems.

Someone has erroneously quoted me as saying that we have a library and thus do not need the bookmobile. It is true that all of the schools in Boone County have library service, however, there is not and can never have enough books to meet all the needs of the children not mentioning the adults of the county. Without books all the teachers and school buildings

Local Lions Sponsor
Free "Safety Check"

The Walton Lions Club is holding a vehicle safety check on Saturday, June 27, all day, at the Baptist Church parking lot, South Main Street. Make sure your car is safe...bring it is for a free check. Members of the local club will be making the checks.

CWF Installs Officers

The Christian Woman's Fellowship of Walton Christian Church held its regular quarterly meeting Tuesday evening in Fellowship Hall. The Virginia Liggett Circle were hostesses. Mrs. Jack Rouse installed the following officers for the new year:

President, Mrs. Gaines Huey; vice president, Mrs. Claude Adams; secretary, Mrs. Layne Cheesman; treasurer, Mrs. J. R. Flynn; worship chairman, Mrs. Ed Scott; study chairman, Mrs. Robert Kellum. Service chairman, Mrs. Finley Jacobs, Jr. and Miss Rachel Acra, membership chairman, were not present to be installed.

Mrs. Ed Scott, retiring president, conducted the meeting. Mrs. Rose Kellum presented the study, and Mrs. Stanley Bush gave the devotional.

Present were: Mrs. William Moore, Mrs. Jack Rouse, Mrs. Claude Adams, Mrs. Paul Simpson, Mrs. Ed Scott, Mrs. Robert Kellum, Mrs. Russell Groger, Mrs. Gaines Huey, Mrs. Stanley Bush, Mrs. Layne Cheesman, Mrs. Nolan Flynn, Mrs. J. R. Flynn, and Mrs. Jane Sleet.

TOBACCO PROGRAMS

Tobacco farmers in this county will be interested in the following radio and TV programs, according to Joe Claxton, County Agent of Boone County.

Each Thursday morning at 5:55, there will be a 3 to 5 minute program with Robert Miller on WLW radio. This program includes all aspects of burley tobacco from seed to cigarette. Interviews with outstanding scientists and farmers will also be a part of this program.

State FHA Meeting Held in Lexington

Rita Trapp, Linda Lunsford, Jane Wagner, Linda Kelly and Kassey Watson of Simon Kenton High School, have returned from attending the 19th annual State meeting of the Kentucky Association of Future Homemakers of America, held at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, June 9-11. Accompanying the girls to the meeting were Mrs. Helen G. McElroy, Mrs. Helen Blanton, and Mrs. Alberta Lanham.

Ninety $250 scholarships were presented to outstanding FHA members. Simon Kenton, Bracken County, Campbell County, and Pendleton Memorial, along with 59 other chapters were presented Honor Roll awards.

Miss Diane Patricia Case of Bracken County Chapter, was installed first vice president of the Kentucky Association of Future Homemakers of America, along with other new officers at the closing session.

BAND BOOSTERS MEET

The Walton-Verona Band Boosters met June 15 at the music room. New officers were installed as follows: President, Mrs. Wm. Thornton and treasurer, Mrs. Genevieve Frederick.

Mr. Layne read 25 ways to ruin your child's music career. He also discussed summer band and how the band program will be set up for next year.

There will be approximately 15 members going to band camp at Butler State Park. The boosters will give $5.00 to each child to take to the expenses.

Mr. Robinson gave a talk on how proud he is of the band and the progress it has made.

All parents of band members should get behind Mr. Layne and help whenever they can. As the band grows in number so does the opportunities as well as the obligations.

Annual Cattle Show at Grant County High, July 2

The 13th annual Northern Kentucky Black and White Show, sponsored by the Holstein Breeders of Northern Kentucky, will be held at the Grant County High School grounds at Dry Ridge, on Thursday, July 2, according to Joe Claxton, Boone County Agent.

The cattle are to be on the grounds by 11:00 a. m. and judging will start promptly at 1:00 p. m. The Northern Kentucky Holstein Cattle Club will furnish the noon-day luncheon.

A prominent out-of-state Holstein breeder will judge the different classes. Trophies will be awarded to the Grand Champion bull and the Grand Champion female of the show. These shows are held as a means of educating the breeder in the essentials of good type.

The public is invited to attend the show.

ATTENDS SIGMA KAPPA MEET

Miss Norma Jean Neumeister of Walton, attended the 82nd National Convention of Sigma Kappa Sorority at the Arlington Hotel in Hot Springs, Ark., June 15-20, as a representative of her chapter at Georgetown College. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brewster of South Main St.

Auto Safety Lane Check
At Cherokee Bowl, Sat.

Saturday, June 27, the Kenco Jaycees will operate an automobile safety inspection lane at the Cherokee Bowling Lanes parking lot, near Taylor Mill, from 9:00 a. m. until 4:00 p. m. This inspection will be conducted with the help of Kenton County Police, and Joe Reagan of the Kentucky Department of Public Safety.

June is Auto Safety Month in Kentucky and has been proclaimed as such in Kenton County by Judge James A. Dressman.

A spokesman said, "Bring the family jaleby for a free check...even that new 1964 model could have a tail light out. See you Saturday!"

Fund-Raising Dinner

Senator Thurston B. Morton and Senator John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, will be speakers at a fund-raising dinner to be held on Saturday, August 15, at Town and Country Restaurant, Covington, according to Charles Wiley.

Guests of honor will be Clyde Middleton, Republican nominee for Congress from Kentucky's 4th district; Peter Kappas, nominee for Kenton County Clerk, and other Republican office-seekers.

The purpose is to raise funds for the Republican Congressional and presidential races in Northern Kentucky and the 4th Kentucky Congressional District. General chairman is Republican State Representative Ken Harper, and the tickets are $12.50 each.

Has Unusual Pets

Orville Zachary, Route 1, Walton, believes they have two raton, unusual pets at their home. Jack and Jill are the names of two pet crows that have been raised from tiny birds, found in the nest.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Taylor Mill and Community Volunteer Fire Department will hold a social Thursday, June 25 at 8:00 p. m. in the firehouse. Mrs. Ruth Reid is chairman of the social, and Mrs. Harry Vukob and Mrs. Byron Galloway are in charge of refreshments. Proceeds will go for the betterment of the Fire Department. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club met last week at the home of Mrs. Allen Monson in Plantation Heights. The members plan to have a tea and style show in the fall. Plans for the picnic were discussed. The annual picnic will be held at the home of Mrs. Chester Tallent on July 23 at 11 a. m. The club was very sorry to learn that one of their most faithful members, Mrs. Clarence Craven, had sold her house and was leaving the community. She and her husband plan to take a trip through the west, particularly Arizona and Colorado, then go to Florida for awhile before deciding where to settle down. Her husband Clarence Craven has recently retired after many years with the L&N Railroad.

Joe Maus, Sr. has recovered from his recent heart trouble and has returned home from the hospital. We hope he is soon feeling his old self again.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tomlin and son of Lexington, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tomlin.

The Oak Ridge Baptist Church will have special dedication services for their new educational building next Sunday, June 28, at 2:00 p. m. Rev. Claude Mason of Georgia, a former pastor, will preach at the special service. The Sunday School urges every member to be present that Sunday and after the morning service a basket lunch will be held at the church followed by the dedication service. All members and former members of the church are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Stella Richardson is recovering from a few days' illness. To aid her recovery, Mrs. Bessie Campbell spent a few days with her. Their granddaughter called on them Sunday.

Don't forget the Vacation Church School which begins July 13. All children in reach are invited.

Lathan Brinkley is planning to join his wife and daughters who are visiting her parents in Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton have purchased a trailer and moved it to their farm here.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Rapp and son spent the weekend with his parents.

Rev. Irwin Wolke returned to his parish in Lexington, after spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Wolke.

Mrs. Charles Losey enjoyed a visit by her sister, Mrs. Ora Stone. As Mrs. Stone returned home, Mrs. Losey accompanied her to visit her invalid sister, Mrs. William House, who seemed possibly a little better.

A good delegation from here attended the Philpot tent meeting on Monday evening.

Chester Ballinger surprised his parents by coming to spend several days with them.

Mrs. L. M. Deuser, enroute to Houston, Texas, to visit her son, was in a car-bus accident. Luckily no one on the bus was killed. Mrs. Deuser suffered a sprained back but is much better at the last report.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett enjoyed the company of their children and grandchildren on Sunday and in the afternoon calls by other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp spent Sunday with their daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. Denver Binder.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Goedde report that Joe, Jr. is becoming accustomed to the routine of the U. S. Marines and taking advantage of the opportunity in the armed services to further one's education.

During the fiscal year that ended in June '63, almost 2,000 schools and other non-profit organizations in Kentucky received a total of 45, 175, 013 half-pints of milk under the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Special Milk Program.

POINTING THE WAY—Governor Edward T. Breathitt, seated, and Junior Chamber of Commerce members discuss plans for a highway safety program event. Co-sponsored by the Chamber and State Departments of Public Safety and Highways, the project on July 2 will present a comparison between two travel routes—modern highways and the old routes. Chamber members will drive from Princeton, Covington and Prestonsburg to Frankfort along both routes checking time, stops, gas mileage, etc. With the Governor, from the left, Billy Thompson, Louisville; Howard Adams Jr., Lexington; Robert J. Meek, South Fort Mitchell and Roy Ramey, Prestonsburg.

Farm Bureau Fights For Rural Rd. Prog.

Farm Bureau came to the defense of Kentucky's rural road program again last week as it joined the side of the defense in the rural road suit in Jefferson County.

Farm Bureau has been one of the major promoters and supporters of Kentucky's rural road program through the years. Just this year, one of its major objectives came to pass as the state legislature doubled the fund, raising it from $5 million to $10 million.

Now the method by which this fund is to be apportioned to the counties is being attacked in the courts. This suit, in which Farm Bureau has intervened on behalf of the rural people of Kentucky, alleges that a law passed by the 1964 Legislature is unconstitutional. This law, which was supported by Farm Bureau, changes the allocation formula by putting more emphasis on rural road mileage and area. Prior to this, the fund has been allotted by the old three-way formula which, FB feels, did not do justice to the more rural counties.

Farm Bureau's main reason for entering this suit is to see the new formula held constitutional. It is important, also, that the rural interests be assured of representation as this case proceeds through the courts.

We believe it fair to point out that the total appropriation to rural highways, plus the amount appropriated to rural secondary roads, is still less than 15 percent of the total highway funds currently being spent in Kentucky. It is a known fact that the more urban, highly populated areas share greater than the sparsely populated areas in the remainder or over 85 percent of the total highway funds. Many counties in Kentucky will never receive a penny of the inter-state road money, and to many of these, the small amount of rural road money received amounts to a large share of their total highway expenditures.

When you take into consideration the total picture of expenditure of highway funds, we believe the recent attack on the rural road formula by the Jefferson County Fiscal Court is not justified.

GREENBO LAKE at Greenbo Lake State Park, near Ashland, is one of the 30 reservoirs constructed by the State in a Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources program. The Department's Division of Fisheries stocked it with five species of fish. A beach and modern bathroom and boat docks are other facilities on the 225-acre lake. Camping sites also are available at the park. Statewide, a total of more than 100 public lakes already in use, under construction, or planned will offer more than 300,000 liquid acres for swimming, fishing, boating, and other water recreation.

Florida Celery and Peanut Butter Combinations for Lunch Box

CRISP, FRESH FLORIDA CELERY IS IN SEASON NOW. Add its distinctive flavor and texture to the nutty goodness of peanut butter and you've a winner. Peanut butter, so good nutritionally, is already a staple sandwich filling. Combined with celery, these two popular foods make a new addition to lunch box menus. Here are five ideas for peanut butter and Florida celery to sharpen up the lunch box.

1. Fill crisp celery stalks with smooth or chunky peanut butter. Wrap with transparent saran or aluminum foil. Include two or three stalks in each lunch box.
2. Spread two slices of raisin bread generously with smooth peanut butter. Sprinkle one slice with plenty of thinly sliced celery. Top, peanut butter side down, with other slice of bread to make a sandwich.
3. Mix peanut butter with equal parts of cream cheese, and a dash of salt. Spread mixture into crisp celery stalks. Chill. Slice into 1/2-inch slices and toss with grapefruit and orange sections and French dressing. Pack in a lidded paper container and include with a plastic spoon in lunch box.
4. Sauté 3 tablespoons peanut butter and 1/4 cup finely chopped celery in 1 tablespoon butter for 5 minutes. Stir in one can (10-1/2 ounces) cream of chicken soup and one soup can water. Heat. Pour into wide mouth vacuum jug and include with plastic spoon in lunch box. Makes 2 or 3 servings.
5. Fill crisp celery stalks with peanut butter. Sprinkle peanut butter with toasted coconut or chopped dates or chopped candied ginger for a treat, not too sweet. Wrap in transparent saran or aluminum foil.

WHITES TOWER

Mrs. Ralph Howard, Reporter

We are into summer now and the weather has been just that . . . it makes a fellow look for a cool spot and that has been hard to find over the weekend.

We are very sorry to hear Joe Sweeney of Decoursey Road, is a patient at the hospital, and his son-in-law, George Binder, is on the sick list with a crippled back. Hope they are both well soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitley of Roselawn Drive, have as guests her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hawkins of California.

Mr. and Mrs. William Binder and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Yeoward spent last Sunday in Louisville, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bockweg, their niece.

David Barrow of Decoursey Ave., has a very bad case of poison ivy . . . his face and arms are swollen and even to his legs. Let's hope this boy is out of this agony very soon.

Ed Binder of Latonia Lakes, is a patient at Booth Hospital. We hope it is nothing serious and that he will be home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lancaster of Staffordsburg, were home over the weekend, but returned to Indiana, where he is employed, on Sunday evening.

Little Joddie Bridges of Atwood, is at the hospital today having her tonsils removed.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schoborg of the Tower, entertained on Father's Day for their fathers, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wolke, and sons of Decoursey Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schoborg of Independence, and their sister, Mr. and Mrs. Kaub and family of Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burke had as a visitor, Tom Burke, his brother of Arizona, who has been visiting the World's Fair. Other guests on Sunday were Helen Burke of Cincinnati, Joe O'Connell of Covington, and John Geiger of Latonia.

Happy birthday to Ralph Howard, on Monday. Helping to celebrate Father's Day and birthday together were his family and the grandchildren with a picnic dinner and home festivities.

Johnny Wolke of Decoursey Rd., was having trouble with his station wagon Saturday . . . having filled his tank Friday evening, he could not understand what was wrong, and after trying for quite some time, he had it towed to the garage and the mechanic could not get it started, so they decided to test the gas tank and found that someone had relieved him of his gas Friday night . . . what a dirty trick to pull on a teenager trying to do right.

Check Your Car, Check Accidents

Join the "Circle of Safety" . . . check your car, check your driving, check accidents.

In 1963, 3.5 million vehicles were checked in 3,600 local programs and more than a half million vehicles were found to be in unsafe driving condition. Rear lights topped the list of items needing attention for safe driving. Next in order were front lights, brakes, turn signals, and others.

How are voluntary community Safety Checks conducted? They are sponsored locally by service groups, industrial groups, tire and automobile dealers, youth groups, and public officials.

Check lanes are set up at convenient locations and manned by mechanics and by citizen volunteers or a state police on his off-duty hours. A Safety-Check sticker is given if everything checks out okay, if not, the vehicle is rejected and the driver urged to have unsafe items corrected.

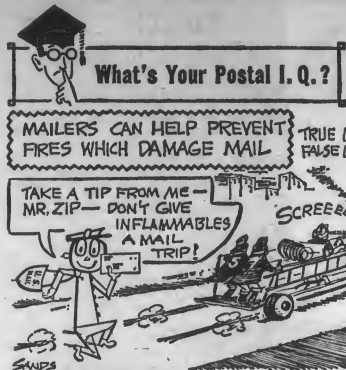

Thus, the "Circle of Safety" is started and now it is up to you as an individual to completely close this circle.

On the front page of this issue of the Advertiser two local civic organizations are conducting voluntary community Safety-Checks, the Walton Lions Club and the Keno Jaycees. Check for time and location and help yourself to help others save lives.

According to the present trend, Kentuckians can expect at least 4,800 people to die as a result of wrecks on Kentucky highways. At this rate, one out of every three Kentuckians is likely to be personally involved . . . either as a driver, passenger or pedestrian in a traffic accident by 1969.

Check your car, check accidents!

MAILERS CAN HELP PREVENT FIRES WHICH DAMAGE MAIL

TAKE A TIP FROM ME—MR. ZIP—DON'T GIVE INFLAMMABLES A MAIL TRIP!

TRUE—Mailers can help prevent fires which damage mail by observing postal regulations which prohibit the mailing of all explosives, inflammable material and mechanical, chemical, or other devices or compositions which may ignite or explode.

During fiscal year 1963, there were 49 major fires in mail storage cars. In these fires, 6,859 sacks and outside parcels were totally destroyed and 2,465 were damaged. This represents a serious loss and inconvenience to mailers and the Post Office Department.

When you observe the rules concerning "Nonflammable Matter" or properly prepare "Matter Mailable Under Special Rules," you will be doing your part to prevent fires which damage mail.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

World Family

Lesson for June 28, 1964

Background Scripture: Ephesians 2:11-22
Devotional Reading: Ephesians 4:1-7.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH is one of the strangest collections of humanity that exists in the world. There is hardly another religion which has a church; it is a peculiarly Christian institution. But even its members debate endlessly among themselves as to what the church really is and what to call it. Even in the New Testament other names besides "church" are used for it. Clearly, the church did not fit

Dr. Foreman all its titles equally well; if any one had been quite satisfactory, there would have been no need for the other names.

One of the names used by St. Paul in referring to the church is "household of God" (Eph. 2:19). This word includes the meaning "family"; the striking point is that Paul calls it the household of God. What other organization can dare to call itself by such a high name? Paul does not mean to call the church perfect, completely holy; but he uses some of the same words to refer to the church that he uses in speaking about Christ and God. In short, we are invited by the Apostle to look at the church as both divine and human. The household—that is the everyday human word; of God—that is the word of divinity. This alone makes the church unique. This also raises problems. To bypass a long discussion, we must say that according to the New Testament, the church is not a club which has asked Christ to join them. It is the other way around: Christ invites the church to join him. "Follow me," he used to say in Galilee, and still does. What we share

Now if we are, as a church, in any sense the household or family of God, we might be expected to have something in common. To put it another way, if you traveled around the world, meeting Christians in every nation (for there are fewer than half a dozen nations without any Christians), you might expect to find these Christians to be a good deal alike. But the fact is, you would probably be struck with how different they are. Even if you look into one congregation, say your own, what a variety of temperament, dispositions, abilities, and tastes you would find! What draws these people together, what is the cement that holds these odd-shaped stones in place? It is certainly not the peer-in-a-pod likeness that you might find in a college fraternity or the lockstep likeness of prisoners shuffling to bed. All sorts and conditions of men make up the church. Why doesn't the church split a thousand ways? The fact is, it has split, too many ways. But even so, as you pass from denomination to denomination, from Protestant to Catholic, from liberal to conservative, there is still something that all these smaller groups share in common. In our heritage

Let's be brief on paper here, and leave the reader free to continue thinking about this for himself. One thing you will find in every church in the world—one thing that makes us all one, is that you can't even get into a church by telling the officers how good you are. You get in, and you stay in, by admitting that you're just not right. We call this "confession of sin," confession of the most serious failure a man can commit—not coming up to what God has a right to expect of him. If we could say no more than that, the church would not have lasted long. But we can also say, and this is more important, that this great family is made up of those who admit their weakness and perverseness, and have asked the pardon of a gracious God, and have received it; and now, in Paul's words, "have access to the Father," through him—that is, Jesus. A young Mohammedan who had been converted to Christian faith said to me when I asked him what had persuaded him to be a Christian: "My old religion had plenty of theology, just as much as yours; but you have Christ, and we have nothing to match him."

The U. S. Public Health Service's latest report on radioactivity in milk covers totals for the entire year of 1963 and confirms that levels have been far below the acceptable limits set by the government.

What a shot! Photographers love to find a scene like this. Flowing water... a background of trees... a church spire in the distance... these always make an outstanding picture.

Wherever we travel we see Christian churches in harmonious settings, and there's a tendency to think of them as "part of the scenery."

But what an important part they are! Every one is a House of God, dedicated to His service. Every one is a community focal point, helping in a thousand ways to broaden and beautify the lives of its members. And every one is a vital link in the shining chain of Christian belief that stretches around the world.

Not far from where you live, there's a church that could give your life a new dimension. Whatever doubts and fears you may have, bring them to God in His House. You can rely on His promise that He will not leave you comfortless.

PINER HOMEMAKERS

The lowly dish cloth becomes elegant! Craft chairman, Mrs. Owen Flynn gave the lesson, showing how to weave cotton yarn through a certain type of dish cloth to make attractive place mats.

The picnic meeting June 16, was at the pleasant summer home of Mrs. W. O. Marshall. The club was surprised when the citizenship chairman, Mrs. Fred McMillan, reported that they had donated more than $500 worth of charity in the past year. Several members had helped flood victims. As devotional, Mrs. Clarence Duncan gave a prayerful poem, "Time." The covered dish lunch was delicious.

Visitors were Mrs. Duncan's daughters, Jane, Jo Ann and Judy. Others present were Mesdames Edie Colclough, C. E. Flynn, Marion Martin, Leslie McMillan, Chester Mullins, Nina Tomlin, William Wolterman, and William Woods.

The club will not meet in the busy summer months of July and August. The September 15 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Frank Elliott.

NEW BETHEL W.M.S.

The New Bethel W. M. S. met in regular session at the church on June 16, with thirteen members present.

Due to the illness of the president, Mrs. Gladys Alford, the meeting was presided over by Mrs. Lillian Stephenson, vice-president. After reports by various committees, and transaction of business came the program "Awakening Brazil," which was presented by Mrs. Mattie Orr.

A Mission Study Class will be taught on June 23 at the church by Mrs. Alford and Mrs. Dunn. The book will be "Spiritual Life Development," time 2:00 p. m. The July and August meetings will also be afternoon meetings, time 2:00 p. m.

Those in attendance were: Mrs. Lena Harris, Mrs. Rose Mamilton, Mattie Orr, Gwen Dunn, Dora Burdett, Elizabeth Kemper, Adeline Reed, Dorothy Porter, Fionnie Edgington, Lillian Stephenson, Lillie Cook, Phyllis Stephenson and Mary Porter.

County Agent's 1/2 Acre

—by—
Joe Claxton

Keep tobacco field cultivation to a minimum after setting out is completed. Soon after transplanting is one of the few times field tobacco needs cultivation, to break compaction caused by equipment during setting out. Thereafter cultivation should be shallow, from 1 to 2 inches in depth.

Cultivation is needed to break up the crust of the ground and to control weeds. And, do not side-dress tobacco with nitrogen during any cultivation period. One rule followed by Kentucky farmers is that tobacco should have had its last (and very shallow) cultivation when it is knee high.

Dr. Seaman A. Knapp, who is considered the father of cooperative extension work, once said: what a man hears, he may doubt; what he sees, he may possibly doubt; but what he does himself, he cannot doubt.

The Cooperative Extension Service this month celebrates a half century of providing for the distribution of scientific information that permits us to be one of the best fed countries in the world. Today we eat better than ever before, and on just 19 percent of our take-home pay. Not only are we well fed, but from our great abundance we are able to ship 5 billion dollars worth of food and fiber to people in other lands, all done on the smallest acreage of farmland in half a century and with the smallest agriculture labor force in 100 years.

Every month we are given a wide selection of various foods from which to choose. Only thru using good agricultural methods have our farmers been able to produce this great abundance for us. The Cooperative Extension Service has played a major role in the distribution of this "know how."

Farmers who have areas on their farm where crops show no hunger but where top yields are seldom obtained, might need a soil test. A good soil testing program will identify your low yielding areas.

By following a regular program of soil testing, low yields and low profits caused by "hidden hunger" can be avoided. Before soil testing became as common as it is today, many farmers had to wait for deficiency symptoms to tell them they were running out of a plant nutrient. This was an inefficient, costly method. When plants reach this stage, profits had been declining for some time.

Most farmers who use soil tests today are not interested in recommendations for average production. They are interested in producing top yields of high quality crops. For higher yields, have have your soil tested regularly and use sufficient amounts of the right kind of fertilizer to build up and maintain a high production level in the soils. All the information you need about having your soil properly analyzed and with the proper fertilizing recommendations, can be obtained from the County Extension office. Call us today.

BOONE 4-H HORSE CLUB

The first meeting of the Boone County 4-H Horse Club was held at the home of Mr. Diemar, 8840 Dixie Highway, Florence.

Mr. Slinger, the county 4-H leader, and members voted Howland and Rae as club president. He then called the meeting to order. Linda Hummel was elected vice president; Sharon Tanner, secretary; Debbie Yelton, treasurer, and Bobby Zimmerman and Kathy Diemar, reporters.

The club voted to have a meeting each Saturday at 2:00 p. m., until after the county fair.

Refreshments were served after the meeting was adjourned.

Guests were Mrs. Daugherty, Mrs. Renaker, Mrs. Scudder, and Mrs. Baute.

RYLAND HOMEMAKERS

"Fennies for Friendship" were collected by the Ryland Homemakers Club when they met at the Rural Electric building, Nicholson, with Miss Ruth Schmidt as hostess. It was explained this token of friendship goes around the world called "The Associated Country Women of the World." The aims of ACWW are threefold: to promote international goodwill, friendship and understanding among the countrywomen of the world; to raise the standards of living and homemaking among rural women all over the world, and to further friendly international relations and to be a voice for countrywomen in international affairs. Mrs. Harold Halffhill presided.

Eleven members received awards for perfect attendance during the year. The Devotional was presented by Miss Ruth Schmidt.

July 2nd was planned for a work-shop day at the home of Mrs. William P. Schall when instructions will be given on the making of place mats from dish cloths and plastic rain bonnets.

The club has scheduled a bus for a tour of Shakerstown Kentucky on July 16. The annual picnic will be August 4th and the homemakers will be the guest of Mrs. Fenton True.

Pointers on gardening were given by Mrs. J. H. Lawson.

Members in attendance were Mesdames A. R. Hicks, F. B. Hermes, Harold Halffhill, C. J. Castleberry, Morgan Metzger, Anthony Wolf, J. H. Lawson, J. K. Belew, Charles Fruediger, Fenton True, George Campbell, O. J. Williams, William Damon, Hugh Craigmyle, William P. Schwall and a guest Mrs. Don Riddel.

Why dust collects so fast in winter!

Ever wonder why homes seem to gather dust so rapidly in winter?

Usually it's caused by old-fashioned heating systems that create and circulate dust and dirt throughout the home. A discouraging problem for the home-maker who fights a losing battle to keep her house neat!

That's one of the big advantages of Electric Heat. It's flameless; can't create dirt or oily films. The heat circulates to warm your home; not the air which can carry dust and germs.

No question about it... Electric Heat is the cleanest system for your home. Offers lots of other advantages... it's economical... safe... and so comfortable! You'll be surprised how little it costs to install Electric Heat in your home!

ELECTRIC HEAT

Learn more about low-cost Electric Heat... the modern way to heat your home. Our heating specialists will gladly study your heating problems and help you select the best heating system for your home. Call or write today for free information. No obligation, of course.

20 YEARS AGO

JUNE 25, 1944

Farm labor shortage is acute in Boone County, according to Will Smith, Farm Labor Assistant. Several farmers have not gotten their tobacco crop out, due to weather and lack of help. Many farmers are loaning tools and equipment for someone to harvest hay crops on the shares.

The Junior and Intermediate Girls Auxiliary of the Walton Baptist Church enjoyed a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Harris on Beaver Road. Those present were: Misses Margaret Percival, Wilma Hanks, Gloria Garrett, Betty Dunn, Marjorie Carpenter, Lois Mayhugh, Maide St. Clair, Glenns and Betty Northcutt, Patty Johnson, Joan Elliott, Alva Flynn, Louise and Ruth Ann Isbell, Mary Howard, Wanda Caldwell, Joyce McIntyre, Mrs. Margaret Wilson, Bennie Elliott, Jr., and the host and hostess.

Mrs. Ann Dudgeon and daughter, Gladys, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Dudgeon attended the funeral of their cousins last Monday at Aurora, Ind., that were killed in a train accident.

Motorists contemplating extensive vacation trips in their cars this summer were reminded that no special gasoline rations will be issued for vacation travel.

Mrs. Dora Stephenson and Mr. and Mrs. George O'Banion were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stephenson, Miss Melva White and mother, last Sunday.

Those who spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Stephenson were: Mr. and Mrs. Wendell McCubbin and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Howard McCubbin and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hodges of Union, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sexton and son, Mrs. Emma Flynn, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stephenson and children, Pvt. and Mrs. Charles L. Stephenson, Harry McCubbin and Bobby.

With Our Boys in Service: Mr. and Mrs. R. Howard have received word that their son, Pvt. Sam W. Howard, has arrived safely in England; friends of Sgt. Ben Johnson are glad to welcome him home...he was wounded while fighting in Italy and has spent several months in the hospital; Chief Quartermaster Carl D. Moore, son of Oscar Moore of Independence, has been wounded in action in the Atlantic theatre of operation...his father was notified; Capt. Clyde Richardson is spending a two-week furlough with his parents in Staffordburg, and his wife in Frankfort; Pvt. Sherman Friend of Union, has returned to civilian life after having received a medical discharge.

Mrs. Hovee Cleek, Mrs. George Baker, Hume Cleek and Johnny Baker, all of Beaver Lick, left last week for a short stay in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith entertained Sunday in honor of their son, Seaman 2nd Class Robert L. Smith, who has completed his training at Great Lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Mrs. Kathryn Wharton, Mrs. J. N. Stephens and Donald Keeney spent Sunday evening visiting Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Pingley of Melbourne.

Mr. and Mrs. James Vessels, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wilson, and Mrs. A. C. Johnson spent Sunday evening with A. C. Johnson, who is a patient in St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Mrs. Fannie Brittenhelm and Mrs. Bess Conrad and mother were dinner guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Conrad of Dry Ridge.

Veterans Administration Questions and Answers

Q—I have a service-connected disability which has flared up requiring immediate treatment. How can I obtain authorization for treatment at VA expense?

A—Notify VA that you desire treatment for your service-connected condition. Veterans living away from VA outpatient clinics may be authorized treatment by their local physician under VA's "hometown medical care" program.

Q—I am receiving pension as a widow of a veteran, and for our two children. I am considering marrying again and I would like to know if this would result in the loss of this pension.

A—Only that portion that is payable as your benefit would be stopped. Benefits would continue to be paid to you on behalf of your children. Children do not lose their rights to pension when the widow remarries or dies. They will continue to receive pension until age 18, or if they remain in school, until age 21.

Q—How long does it take to obtain a loan on my GI insurance?

A—On the average, the loan is processed and the check delivered in two weeks or less. Only permanent plan policies have a loan value.

Notice is hereby given that Mabel Maddox has been appointed Administratrix of the estate of Dwight L. Maddox, Sr., deceased, by the Boone County Court.

All persons having claims against said estate shall present them, verified according to law, and all persons indebted to the said estate are requested to call and settle with the undersigned Administratrix at the designated address not later than September 18, 1964.

Park Reservations Now Quicker

FIRST STATE PARK RESERVATION through the new Central Reservation Information Office at Frankfort is made by Myron T. Gray (right), director of the National Touring Department of the American Automobile Association in Washington, D. C. Taking his call is Mrs. Ann Sanders, secretary in the State Parks Department office. Gray's two-minute call reserved a room in the General Butler State Park lodge for him August 15-19. The central service makes available local lines from Louisville, Lexington, and Cincinnati to the Frankfort office, which is connected by direct line to 12 vacation-type parks. Persons with definite choices still are urged to make their own reservations direct to those parks. The new service helps those undecided on a particular park or others to find similar accommodations when their first park choice is full.

County
Agent's
½ Acre—by—
Joe Glazen

Many questions are asked about left-over pesticides. Most folks want to know if the chemicals left over from last year are still good enough to control the pests. The chemicals may be effective under certain conditions. If you had last year's materials stored in a cool dry place and the packages were tightly closed, chances are that most materials purchased new last year are still good. They should be used first, however.

Combination dust materials are less costly and frequently pick up moisture after storage. They are not expensive and should be discarded in a safe manner. New dust material should be purchased each season.

Any package of pesticide which is unlabeled or several years old should be discarded safely. One of the safest ways to discard pesticides is by burying them.

Dairymen should be careful in their use of the powder of Methoxychlor on lactating dairy cows. Some farmers, trying to control horn flies, use a dust of methoxychlor and a dust of malathion. The strength of the strength wettable powder too often. The recommendation is for one level tablespoonful of the powder sprinkled on the back, neck and flanks of dairy animals every three weeks. But some dairymen are using the powder at more frequent intervals. This can cause contamination residues. Just because an insecticide can be used on lactating dairy animals doesn't mean that it is not to be restricted in that use.

Some dairymen also are using the material Malathion incorrectly. The dust of this material should be applied on lactating cows only every 10 to 14 days. The strength is the 4 or 5 percent dust of Malathion. The material must not be applied to animals any closer than five hours before milking. Control authorities are now checking Ky. dairies for residues from insecticides.

Cultivation of crops is a very old agricultural practice and its benefits are well recognized. Cultivation of home gardens gives best results when it is shallow (12 inches deep) and when the work is done just often enough to control weeds and to break the soil crust after rain or irrigation. Since cultivation controls weeds, this conserves moisture for the plants. It also conserves moisture by forming and maintaining a soil mulch. Cultivation increases aeration, too—that is, it allows more air to enter the soil; this favors needed chemical changes in the soil. However, cultivation at regular intervals is unnecessary. Weeds can be controlled by a soil mulch. In fact, when 3 or 4 ins. of the soil is kept stirred, the crop usually is injured. Such cultivation destroys many of the roots, which keeps the plants from getting nutrients and moisture. Since weed control is the most important reason for cultivating, it should be done at a time favorable for killing weeds. Weeds are killed most easily when they are small—before they become well established. Cultivate when weeds just begin to show through the soil; at this time, merely breaking the surface of the soil will destroy them. Destroying weeds when they are small also prevents them from competing with vegetable plants for moisture, nutrients, etc.

Social Security Notes

June—the traditional month of brides and roses—may mean a "Miss" become a "Mrs." But no matter in what month of the year this happy event occurs, the new "Mrs." should be sure to notify the social security office in on the good news—that is, if she has an account number in her maiden name.

A change of name requires a new social security card. It will carry the same number as she had before, but will be issued in her new name. Failure to notify the Social Security Administration makes it difficult for the working bride to receive credit for earnings reported in her new name, even though the number is correct.

Therefore, working girls, let your social security office know when you get married. Your local office at 300 Garrard Street, Covington, Kentucky will send you the necessary form for the change of name.

Auto Safety Check
By Lions A Success

The Walton Lions Club feels that they did a tremendous service for the community last Saturday when they held their first Auto Safety Check.

The "safety check" service was conducted from 9:00 a. m. until 3:30 p. m. at the Walton Baptist Church parking lot. Approximately 100 cars passed through the check lanes, and one out of three failed to pass inspection.

Many repairs were made and owners came back to receive their Safety-Check stickers. One car owner found the bearings gone bad in one wheel when his car failed to pass the safety lanes, and another driver found his car was burning too much oil and thus saved from a great deal more damage being done.

Everyone was pleased with the service rendered by the Walton Lions and the club in turn wants to thank the Walton Fire Department, the Baptist Church, and the Walton Garage, as well as the others who gave of their time to check cars.

Because of their success Saturday, in their first endeavor, the Walton Lions Club expects and plans to sponsor a bigger and more complete service with the next Safety Check they sponsor.

North Dakota Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goehring and family of Covington, recently returned from a two weeks vacation in Grand Forks, N. D., where they stayed with their daughter and son-in-law, A/2 Ronald Beach and Bonita. Marlene Goehring stayed for a visit and will return early September with the Beach family.

Simon Kenton FHA
Exec Council Meets

On Saturday, June 15, the Simon Kenton Executive Council of FHA met at the home of Mrs. Helen G. McElroy, Alta Vista Dr., Walton, for a picnic lunch and executive council meeting. June Wagner, president, presiding during the business session.

The following standing committees and their chairmen were appointed: Program, Linda Lunsford; Membership, Joan Wagner; Finance, Pam Willis; Recreation, Connie Coy; Publicity, Donna Grizzell; Log, Linda Conley; Deeds, Charlotte Richardson; Field Trip, Vicki Bravard; Checkroom, Linda Sack; Constitution, Jane Kunkel; Opinionaire, Jane Kunkel; and Scholarship, Connie Kelly.

The officers decided and voted on many items of business which they hope will benefit the chapter during 1964-65. At chapter meetings held the third Wednesday of each month, the officers will be dressed in their colors, wearing white pleated skirts, white blouses and the official FHA jackets. Mrs. McElroy, Linda Lunsford and June Wagner reported on the State FHA meeting, September, University of Kentucky in Lexington, June 9-11.

The executive council will meet again Wednesday, September 10, at the Home Ec Department. All committee chairmen are asked to attend this meeting also.

The following old and new officers attended this summer executive council meeting: Pam Schader, Mrs. Mason G. Schader, Rita Trapp, Verna Elliott, Sandy LaFollette, June Wagner, Linda Lunsford, Linda Conley, Charlotte Richardson, Joan Wagner, Pam Willis, Linda McKinley, Linda Conley, Jane Kunkel, Connie Coy, and Mrs. McElroy.

Judge Niblack
Dies Monday

Boone County Judge Charles E. Niblack died Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he had been a patient since last Thursday.

His home was at 14 Drexel Ave., Florence. A native of Powell County, he was 64 years old.

Judge Niblack is the third Boone County officialholder to die within the last ten months. Jailer Ira Tanner died last August, and Magistrate Joe Hogan died last December.

Judge Niblack had been back at his desk only three weeks after an earlier stay in the hospital, where he underwent treatment for a heart condition.

Mr. Niblack was trial commissioner of Boone County for 18 months before his appointment as county judge December 1, 1962, by former Gov. Bert Combs.

He was elected county judge in November, 1963, to fill the unexpired term of former judge C. L. Cropper.

Judge Niblack, a Democrat, had been city attorney and city prosecutor for Florence for seven years. Florence Police Judge Don Mager ordered Monday night's police court session postponed until next Monday out of respect for Judge Niblack.

A graduate of Chase College of Law, Cincinnati, Mr. Niblack was president of the Boone County Bar Association in 1962. He was also appeals agent for the Boone County District Court.

A member of Florence Methodist Church, he was a Mason and a member of Syrian Temple Shrine.

Survivors include his wife, Judy, a 15-year-old son, Jeff; a sister, Mrs. Verna Marie Schmidt, Covington; his father, Asa Niblack, a half-sister, Mrs. Rita Lowry, both of Clay City, Ky., and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Lee Stone, Winchester.

Services will be held this afternoon (Thursday) at 2 o'clock at the Stith Funeral Home, Florence.

Staffordsburg

Mrs. J. J. Barnett, Reporter

L. J. Rapp was honored on his birthday Sunday with a family dinner. Among those present were Mrs. L. J. Rapp, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rapp, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Rapp, Mr. and Mrs. Denver Binder, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Binder, Miss Judy Rapp, James Lancaster, Bruce Rapp, Lori Binder and Stephen Rapp, Jr. May God's blessings be with him in all the years that lie ahead.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger and son, Chester Ballinger, who is visiting from Arizona, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Marshall at Nicholasville, Ky. Lathan Brinkley is planning to join his wife and daughters in Oregon, starting on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett were guests at a reception given for Rev. and Mrs. Roy Martin at the First Christian Church, Covington, where Rev. Martin recently assumed the pastorate.

Robert Brinkley suffered a broken arm in a recent fall. A fellowship supper is planned for 6:00 p. m. at the church Sunday evening, July 12. Come and enjoy yourself.

The M. Y. F. made a trip to New Castle, Ky., Sunday evening where Rev. Roy Hunt was transferred.

We were very glad to have Mrs. Wm. Martin and Mrs. Louise Baldwin visiting our church Sunday morning. They are former members here.

We regret to learn that Alfred Portwood was taken to the hospital recently suffering, it seemed, from a heart attack.

WALTON LOCALS . . .

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Ryan of Beaver Road, Walton, a daughter at St. Elizabeth Hospital, June 26.

Little Louise Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Perkins, was rushed to St. Elizabeth Hospital last Thursday night. She had her tonsils removed recently and began to hemorrhage. She is now home and doing nicely.

Born to William and Patricia Stevens of Walton, a son, June 26 at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson, Jr. spent last Thursday evening in Lexington, visiting his father, Charles Watson, Sr.

Mrs. L. A. Gardiner of Louisville, was a recent guest of her daughter, Mrs. Gayle McElroy, and Mr. McElroy of Alta Vista Drive, and attended the Gardiner reunion at Berry.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Keeton and family of Cincinnati, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul West of High St., the past week.

Boone 4-H Rebel Riders

The third meeting of the Rebel Riders was called to order by the president, and refreshments were served. Then the secretary read the minutes of the last meeting, after which dues were taken up.

A discussion was held about riding in the rodeo parade. Some of the members bought saddle blankets with the 4-H emblem and, with dues bought 4-H patches for the sleeve and pocket of the shirt.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at the Boone County Fair

What's Your Postal I. Q. ?

TRUE—Special Handling service provides parcel post with the most expeditious handling, dispatch, and transportation available from the post office of mailing to the post office of address with delivery on a regularly scheduled parcel post trip.

Special Handling is available for fourth-class mail only, including that which is insured or sent COD—it does not provide indemnity for loss or damage. Special Handling parcels normally travel at the same speed as first-class mail.

Grounds on Tuesday, July 7 at 7:00 a. m.

Guests were Mrs. Joseph F. Daugherty, Mrs. Elmer Baute, Mrs. Arnold Easton and Mrs. Wm. Kummel.

All members are required to bring their horse or pony. If the members have no transportation, they are to call Mr. Diemar after 5:00 p. m. so he can try to make arrangements. Call 283-0463.

Veterans Administration Questions and Answers

Q—Can I allow my annual GI insurance dividend to remain on deposit to meet future premiums?

A—Yes, you may. You should notify the Insurance Service of the Veterans Administration Office where you pay your premiums to hold your dividends to your credit. If interest, to meet premiums, you should fail to pay when due.

Q—I served less than a year in the Army between 1942 and 1943 and was honorably discharged at my own request to accept employment in essential industry. Will I be entitled to a pension when I become 65 years old?

A—Pension may be granted at any age if a veteran has the requisite honorable service and is unable to follow substantially gainful employment due to disability.

Q—I had service during both World War I and the Korean Conflict but I have heard that the later period would be used in determining my deadline for a GI loan. Is this true?

A—Ordinarily yes. However, if the computed time based on a long period of service during World War II would establish a later deadline than a short period of service during the Korean Conflict the World War II period may be used.

Academic degrees were awarded to 1,656 students in May at the University of Kentucky's 57th commencement exercise.

Five Kenton 4-H's Are District Champs

Five Kenton County 4-H Club members were selected as district champions in demonstrations at the District 4-H Rally, held at the Campbellsville School in Henry County.

Barbara Budke won the Junior Girls' Electric division, demonstrating "How to Make a Pin-up Lamp." In the Senior demonstration competition, Ann Wicklund won the National Junior Vegetable Growers Association division with "Proper Methods of Transplanting Plants." Laine Marshall won in the girls' electric division with her demonstration, "Letting Off Useful Steam." Carl Wicklund won the horticulture division, demonstrating "How to Take Grape Cuttings" and David Knox won the photography division, demonstrating "How to Use Photographic Equipment."

Other Kenton County members in district competition were: Tom Cummins, Greg Finkel, Mary Ann Garrett, Rhonda LaFollette, Andrea Wicklund, Eddie Cummins, Allen Wolsing, Barbara Wolsing, Kay Cummins, Freida Wainwright, and Vicky Works.

Everyone who participated in the various contests gained experience and will be constantly improving their ability to present a program before a group. The winners who are in the senior division will now represent Kenton County and the District at the State contest to be held in Louisville, during the Kentucky State Fair.

Concern For School Dropouts Continues

Unskilled and immature, the school dropout finds himself alone in the market place.

The school dropout has little or nothing to sell in the new developments in technology and automation which continue to raise the educational requirements for employment. Also, these developments have eliminated many of the jobs which required no special skill and the situation may get worse.

Producing jobs for the 24 million young people who will be entering the labor market in the next few years will be difficult. For the dropout it will be even more difficult.

Some educators and communities have developed programs that are now underway across the nation. One of the biggest problems they face is how to approach the vast variety of persons among the dropout population.

Schools have made vast improvements in their holding power. Thirty years ago, the proportion of sixth graders who would not stay to receive a high school diploma was double today's dropout rate...two of three dropped out then...one of three dropped out today. One thing we should understand is that lack of mental ability usually is not the cause for the failure to finish school.

Despite everything that can be done, no one can expect the problem of the dropout to be entirely solved. Certain young people will continue to regard school as a waste of years, and they will leave school to engage in activities that are meaningful to them.

Walton Lumber Co. Entered Friday Night

A thief or thieves broke into the office of the Walton Lumber Co., last Friday night, July 3, and escaped with an undetermined amount of cash and checks. Entrance was made by forcing open a front window which faces Park Avenue.

The vault door combination was removed and the inner doors forced open. The large safe was then entered by ripping and tearing a hole in the heavy metal casing, giving access to the items taken.

It seems apparent that the entrants knew exactly where the cash was kept, because nothing else is reported to have been taken or disturbed. Investigation continues at this time.

COUNTY CONVENTION

Pursuant to the call of the Democratic State Central Executive Committee, under the date April 17, 1964, and the call of the Chairman of the Boone County Democratic Executive Committee, the Democratic voters of Boone County, Kentucky, will meet in Convention on Saturday, July 11, 1964, at 2:00 p. m., EST, at the Boone County Courthouse, at Burlington, Kentucky.

The purpose of the convention is to select delegates to the State Convention to be held in Louisville, Ky., on Saturday, July 18, 1964. All Democrats who are qualified voters shall be eligible to vote in the county convention.

DIXON-MOORE WEDDING

Miss Dorothy Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Dixon of Walton-Nicholson road, Walton, and Mr. Bernard Moore were united in marriage June 27 in Indiana.

The attendants were Miss Velva Ann Dixon, sister of the bride, and William E. Moore, brother of the groom. The Moores will make their home in Memphis, Tenn., where Mr. Moore is stationed with the U. S. Navy.

Miss Dixon was a member of the 1964 graduating class of Walton-Vernon High School.

Homecoming At Amity

Amity Baptist Church will hold a homecoming July 19. The pastor, Bro. Sam Branham, has announced that Bro. W. E. Maners will speak at the morning service, and Bro. Warren Werthe, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Latonia, will speak at the afternoon service to be held at 2:00.

Lunch will be served following the morning service. There will be special music at both services. All members and former members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Maxwell-Baker Reunion

The Maxwell and Baker families held their annual family reunion at Big Bone State Park, Sunday, June 28. There were over 300 people attending and everyone had a very enjoyable time.

The following attended from out of the state: Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. James Maxwell, Tom Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dyer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Maxwell and family, and Miss Maxine Maxwell and two friends, all from Heyworth, Ill.

Exchange Student Visits In Kenton Co.

On July 1, Gotfred Skuterud, an international farm youth exchange student from Norway, arrived to spend 15 days with the Cecil Cummins family of Bagby Road, near Crittenden.

Gotfred is from Syale, Modum, Norway, and is 25 years old. He is a County 4-H Agent. He lives on a 125-acre farm with his parents and two younger sisters. Their crops are hay, barley, oats, potatoes and forestry. The livestock are cows, poultry and swine. July 15, Gotfred will leave the Cummins home to spend two weeks with his next host family at Ewing, Ky. Then he will leave Kentucky for St. Paul, Minn., and then in August he will go to Montana, where he will visit more farm families.

There are 98 IFYE boys and girls in the United States from 37 different countries, who are now living with host families similar to ours, in 30 states of the U. S. This country has sent 103 IFYE's to 43 foreign countries.

The International Farm Youth Exchange is a 4-H program in which selected young people live and work with rural people in other countries from four to six months. Since it began in 1946, there have been 1,546 U. S. delegates sent to 67 foreign countries and 1,750 foreign exchanges who visited 48 states and Puerto Rico. IFYE is conducted by the National 4-H Club Foundation in Washington, D. C., in behalf of the Cooperative Extension Service of the State Land-Grant Colleges and Universities and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. In cooperating countries IFYE is conducted

Needlework At Kenton Co. Fair

To enable residents of this area to participate in the National Wool Needlework Contest, entries for the nationwide competition, will be submitted for judging locally at the Kenton County Fair, which takes place August 6-7 at the Simon Kenton High School grounds near Independence. No entries may be made directly to the contest's national headquarters.

Contestants must initially win a first prize in the judging being held at the Kenton County Fair before being eligible for the national judging.

Six first place winners selected at the Fair will then be supplied with complete information and official forms for entering their winning designs in the national finals, which will be held in New York late this year.

For further information regarding the 1964 contest, its rules and how to submit entries, please contact Mrs. George Wolsing, Fair Secretary, 325 Webster Road, Independence.

2 Counties Complete Library Petitioning

Two counties out of three trying to establish Kentucky's first public library districts by petition completed successful petitions between June 19 (effective date of new permissive State legislation) and June 30 (end of the fiscal year). State Librarian Margaret White has announced.

Thus during the 1964-65 fiscal year, Washington and Union counties will realize revenue from a special property tax for library service, Miss White said.

By the end of June, Boone County workers had collected some 2,200 of the necessary 3,500 signatures. Under the new 1964 State law, the county has a total of 90 days to complete the petition, but it will not bring in revenue for the county library program until fiscal year 1965-66. The county now has no public library or bookmobile service.

Two Civil War battles were fought for the possession of Cynthiana, Ky.

Nearly everyone has a remedy for the troubles of everyone but his own.

Ken Harper To Speak

Ken Harper, Republican member of the Kentucky State Legislature from South Ft. Mitchell, will be guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Boone County Republican Club, Thursday night at 8:00, in the Republican Headquarters at 276 Main St., Florence. He will discuss the last legislative term and state fiscal responsibility.

At the business session, there will be final plans made for the fair booth and the annual Republican picnic August 9 at which Senator Cooper will be a guest.

Part of the meeting time will be turned over to the Executive Committee to discuss problems and future plans concerning the judgeship of Boone County as it relates to the Republican party and the people.

Local Man Killed at Dry Ridge, Friday

R. B. (Robbie) Cole, 37, was electrocuted at about 11:30 a. m., last Friday, while working on a utility pole on Main Street, Dry Ridge, according to reports.

He was an employee of Day and Zimmerman Construction Co. of Cincinnati, which is doing work for The Union Light, Heat and Power Company, Covington. A native of Jackson County, Cole had lived in Walton for the past 28 years.

Survivors include his wife of about three months, Mrs. Mae King Cole, of Percival Road, Walton; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Cole of South Main St., Walton; four sisters, Mrs. Gladys Griffith, Walton, Mrs. Oma Brewer and Mrs. Sally Roberts of Florence, and Mrs. Gertrude Gabbard of Erlanger, and a brother, Nolan Cole, Erlanger.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m., Monday at the Walton Church of God. Arrangements were in charge of the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton.

Notes of Servicemen

Two local boys, both recent graduates of Walton-Vernon High School, recently entered the Air Force on the "buddy plan," and are taking their six weeks basic training at Fort Randolph, Texas. They are Mike Jamieson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Jamieson of Beaver Road, and Gary Roden, who resided with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Disney of 15 School Road.

Church at Dorion

Besides being actively engaged in educational and athletic organizations, he was a member of the Mountain Men's Club, the Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels, Georgetown College Alumni, from which college he received the Bachelor of Arts degree in '31. Graduate studies for Master's degree followed at U. K.

Mr. Williams collapsed of a heart attack in his school in line of duty. He was treated in the Methodist Hospital at Pikeville, and returned home for continued convalescence. He was discharged this deeply loved citizen while enroute to a Lexington hospital, after checking into a motel in that city on Monday, June 29th. The body lay in state in Pikeville on Tuesday, at home on Wednesday, with burial on Thursday.

Director in guidance of our youth in varied walks of life, he served 32 years in teaching capacity in Kentucky schools, beginning at Piner High School as assistant director and teacher, and terminated at Pikeville. He opened up the natural resources of the Kentucky mountains for the rehabilitation of Kentucky people. Surviving him are his wife, Lula Burke Williams; two brothers, Berry Williams of Independence, and Wallace Williams of Burlington; four sisters, Mrs. E. Bruce Wallace of Walton, Mrs. Lawrence Turner of Independence, Mrs. Anna W. Randall of Fort Mitchell, and Alice Williams of Independence.

Baker Funeral Home, Pikeville, was in charge of arrangements. The body was interred in Pikeville Cemetery.

Special Care of Eggs Needed During Summer

Summer's hot months impose special egg-keeping rules on the poultryman, says C. E. Harris, U. K. Ag Extension Service poultryman. The special care will preserve interior quality and prevent breakage, he says.

More thin-shelled eggs are produced in the hot months, especially if the flock has been in production seven months or more. As the laying period lengthens, more calcium should be provided. Some research indicates a calcium level of 3 1/4 percent may be used. Some ways to maintain egg quality:

Give flocks good feed with sufficient calcium to maintain shell quality. See that nesting material is kept clean, and gather eggs four or five times a day. Cool eggs in wire baskets, or hold them in filter flats to save labor and extra handling. Keep eggs refrigerated until ready for market and put them in clean, cool cases, small end down. Market at least twice a week.

Eggs should be picked up at the farm two or three times a week and handled carefully. Processors should keep eggs refrigerated until delivered to merchants, and encourage merchants to hold eggs under refrigeration until picked up by consumers.

The average age of passenger cars in use in the U. S. is six years and the average age of motor trucks in 8.1 years.

4-H CLUB WORK

The Cooperative Extension Service of the nation's 50 land-grant universities and colleges this year celebrates its 50th anniversary. It is a branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and is supported by tax funds.

There are around 11,000 county extension agents. These specially trained men and women work with 4-H Club members in every state and county. There are 94,000 clubs with a membership of two and a quarter million boys and girls from rural, suburban and city families. More than 425,000 volunteer leaders supervise the club work locally.

Fifty years ago 4-H had barely gotten off the ground. Participation was spotty. Sponsored programs were still a dream of the founders.

Agricultural extension agents were showing young farmers how to grow better corn for higher yields. They encouraged the youngsters to raise a pig to eat the corn. The fattened hog eventually reached the Sunday dinner table.

Girls raised pigs too, but for the most part they grew and canned tomatoes. The end product also was added to the family food supply.

The whole idea behind this unique service was to teach the children so they could prove to their parents that there were "better ways" to get the job done. So was born the 4-H slogan, "Make the Best Better."

And right behind the Extension Service came the business men to offer encouragement and financial support to the 4-H Club efforts. They offered funds for educational material, awards, recognition events, and when called upon, provided technical assistance.

As the number of head-heart-hands-and-health youth increased, so did the support of private enterprise. As the times and needs changed, industry, extension and the national 4-H service committee cooperated in developing new programs.

Today, 4-H'ers can learn about things such as electronics, scientific raising and care of farm animals, proper operation and maintenance of farm machinery, including the family auto; adequate measures to insure good health and safety, horticulture, entomology, photography, nutrition, buying or making apparel.

There are more than 35 different project areas available to boys and girls. Approximately 55 business firms and foundations sponsor these programs or provide educational assistance.

Kentucky may not be first in everything, but we are going to be first in our development of parks and in tourist promotion vowed Governor Edward Breathitt to State Parks superintendents.

An estimated 20.7 million motor vehicles were produced in the world in 1963.

A man who pokes fun at a woman trying to drive through a 12-ft. garage door usually sobers up when he tries to thread a needle.

If you want to get rich, learn how not to spend.

TAYLOR MILL

Ernest J. Ryle, Reporter

Captain Richard Dorsey, wife, Otie, and daughter, Sara, left about seven-thirty Sunday morning for the east coast where Dick will take off for Germany, his new assignment, next Sunday. His wife and daughter will return here to stay with Dick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dorsey, until such time as Dick can get their new home ready, and they will leave the U. S. by jet passenger plane, about a ten-hour trip from New York to Germany. We sure wish them good luck and "bon voyage" until they are all together again. It seems that some folks think the road through Taylor Mill is a "drag race strip"...that is, just here of late. We don't know who they are but here's just a little friendly advice: If you keep this up when you are driving you are

County Agent's ½ Acre

—by—
Joe Claxon

Many Boone County dairymen have planted sudan or a sorghum-sudan cross to provide additional forage for their milking herd. It is advisable to use these crops for temporary pasture since they are best suited for grazing. To get the best results from grazing, keep the following points in mind:

1. Wait until the sudan or the sorghum-sudan cross is about 18 inches high before grazing. The best grazing will be when the plants are from 18 to 24 inches high.

2. Quick graze. It is best to have a field small enough to graze down in a week or less. Clip after grazing to about 2 to 3 inches for faster and more uniform regrowth.

3. After clipping, wait until regrowth is about 18 inches high before grazing again. Graze with caution when the regrowth has been stunted by drought. Rotational grazing will help to graze faster and more uniformly and will allow time for regrowth.

4. For greater yields, topdress with about 30-50 pounds of nitrogen per acre after clipping (100 to 150 pounds of ammonium nitrate equivalent).

5. When the temperature is in the upper 80's, cows will spend most of their time trying to keep cool and will only graze a couple of hours during the heat of the day. Therefore, a separate night pasture should be available to the milking herd, and it should be the best pasture available.

Manganese toxicity already has been identified in several burley fields through Boone County. Unfortunately, once the deficiency is noted, there is no known corrective measure for the current crop.

Best control measure is to test soil and lime the tobacco field after the current crop is harvested. Stay out of the field with tobacco for two or three years to give the lime time to correct the manganese toxicity condition.

Many farmers will be interested in the following field days:

Animal husbandry field day will be held at the Coldstream Farm on Newtown Pike, near Lexington, July 15, starting at 9 a. m.

Horticulture field day will be held on Tuesday, July 14, on the South Farm, U. S. 27, Nicholasville Road, starting at 10 a. m.

New Use for Fiber Glass

APPLYING FIBER GLASS to the spillway of the lake used to supply water for the new eastbound I-64 Rest Area building in Shelby County, Kenneth Arnold, director of the State Highway Roadside Development Division helps launch a new Highway Department experiment in erosion control. Fiber glass in the bucket is pulled from one continuous roll by a compressed air unit. Asphalt will be sprayed on top of the fiber glass to hold it to the ground. A soil sterilant will also be used to keep weeds and grass from pushing the fiber glass-asphalt, erosion control mat out of place.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Bible Society

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Not Forgotten

Lesson for July 12, 1964

Background Scripture: Exodus 2 through 4.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 103:1-32.

WHERE IS your God? can be an earnest, even desperate question. Or it can be a sneer of mockery. It can be asked by friends of God or by his enemies. In times of peace and prosperity the question loses its anguish.

Like one of Browning's characters, we can sing happily, "God is in his heaven and all's right with the world." But there comes a time when it is small comfort to think

Dr. Foreman that God is in heaven. That's exactly the trouble, we think. He is in heaven when he ought to be here. This is a sore question even when we ask, Where is our God, Where is mine? When it's your own faith that is about to break the question about God isn't just a theological problem, it is acute, it becomes the most important question in the world. With all the people who need God's help, where is he? What is he doing?

God knows
"God heard . . . God remembered . . . God saw . . . and God knew." These words stand out in the two sentences that close the second chapter of Exodus. This is the first assurance the Bible has for us: we do not have a forgetful God, or an absent-minded one. The true God is not a pent-house god with a privately listed telephone. He hears, he knows, he sees, he remembers. He neither guesses nor forgets what goes on in his world.

God prepares a man
One reason why that question "where is God?" can be so often asked, is that God never advertises what he is doing. If he did what maintenance crews do on the city street, put up a yellow barrier and a sign: Slow—God at people from slavery to freedom.

God is always for freedom
God is both impartial and partial. He is impartial; that is, he plays no favorites. He does not have one set of laws for the good and another for the evil; he does not exempt some favored pets from suffering and defeat. In the Old Testament phrase, he is no respecter of persons. He is not awed by any man's eminence nor made anxious by any man's hostility. He is the same God of God always and everywhere. Yet he is partial also, in a way. That is, he does take sides. He did not look at the plight of the Israelites in Egypt as if he were a spectator from out of town at a ball game. The violence does not care who wins, just so it is a good game. "May the best team win," he says; but he does not help either side. God, on the other hand, was for the Israelites and against the Egyptians. He was for the Hebrews not because they were sweet, loving and holy, which they certainly were not; he was for them because they were mistreated — "oppressed" is the Bible word for it—and God is against oppression then and always. If you ever take the part of those who mistreat instead of those who are mistreated, you find yourself on the opposite side from God.

Within the shadows
Now there are two things to remember about this God of freedom, the only true God there is. One is: He does not always act as soon as we may want him to. The Hebrews had been oppressed for some time before he came to the rescue. We do not know why this is, but it is a fact. The other point to remember is that God often acts, as it were, in disguise. It is said of a hero in the Old Testament (Gideon) that the "Spirit of the Lord clothed Gideon with 'Gideon.'" It looked like Gideon doing great exploits, but Gideon was a cloak-of-darkness for the spirit of God. So it was at the Exodus from Egypt. Some people, no doubt the Egyptians themselves, could have said, Oh, there was nothing miraculous. We had a low tide and a high wind and they got away while the fog lay all along the shore. But the rejoicing Israelites did not praise the cloud of smoke nor the wind nor the low tide. They praised the God who had set them free. They could see through his disguises. Can we?

The profit motive is not bad if it is coupled with the Christian motive, but it plays havoc when it is dominated by greed.

I CAN SHAPE THE FUTURE

When I watch the stone mason at his trade . . . then I'm sure I can shape a stone. If . . . I had the right tools! If . . . I could apply just the right driving force!

But my stone always splinters, shatters.

It should be easier to shape the future. Tomorrow seems so formless, so pliable.

Yet there are so many tools. Which to use? So many kinds of force, of power. Which will shape, not destroy, my hopes?

I am realizing fast that the vital tools must be spiritual. My Church is training me to understand, to use them.

And centuries of Christian heritage convince me that the driving force ought to be spiritual. A Power that flows from God . . . is grasped by faith . . . and in the reverent hands of dedicated men will shape — rather than shatter — tomorrow.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and read your Bible daily.

1. For his own sake. 2. For his children's sake. 3. For the sake of his community and nation. 4. For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Staffordsburg

Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney and sons visited points in central Kentucky over the Fourth.

Chester Ballinger visited his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Maddox and Miss Nannie Ballinger, Sunday evening.

We are glad to report a better attendance at the Sunday evening service, almost a dozen more. If you will come next week and enjoy the fellowship supper at 6:30, we are sure you'll enjoy it.

Don't forget the week-day church school opens July 13. All children in the neighborhood are urged to come.

Miss Mary Stephens spent Saturday evening with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Keeney.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Binder and children are visiting their parents and other relatives here. The son, Randall, who suffered a broken leg some weeks ago, is traveling in the east. We hope he is soon well.

Friends and relatives of Alfred Portwood were surprised when he passed away after a short stay in the hospital. Surviving him are his wife, Anna Hawkins Portwood; a daughter, Mrs. Genevieve Cowey; two sons, Goebel and Charles, and several grandchildren. Funeral was Saturday at Independence with interment in Independence Cemetery.

Kentucky supplied more than 75,000 soldiers to the nation during World War I.

Manganese Toxicity Is Noted In Burley Crop

Manganese toxicity already has been identified in several burley fields throughout the state, says Joe R. Smiley, U. K. Ag Extension Service tobacco specialist. Unfortunately, he says, once the deficiency is noted there is no known corrective measure for the current crop.

First symptoms are slow-growing plants occurring soon after setting-out. Later, leaves turn light green, or yellowish between the larger veins. Gradually they develop numerous dead spots, particularly in older leaves. If good growing weather occurs, plants may lose these symptoms and appear normal. But quality may have been lowered and the leaf will contain abnormal amounts of manganese.

Some farmers apply lime around the plants after the toxicity condition is noted, Smiley says. But this does not appear effective. "Best control measure is to test soil and lime the tobacco field AFTER the current crop is harvested. Stay out of the field with tobacco for two or three years to give the lime time to correct the manganese toxicity condition."

WALTON, KENTUCKY — THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1964
Volume 49 - Number 29

There is a song that goes, "Tis Spring Again," but at picnic time it has been "Tis Rain Again," but this weekend the Weatherman has promised a good weekend so the Volunteers of the Walton Fire Department have planned to have a big picnic this Friday and Saturday nights, July 17-18.

Chief Worthington has promised a big picnic, plenty of booths, pony rides, swing ride...fun for the whole family.

The Ladies' Auxiliary will be on hand to serve those melt-in-your-mouth fish sandwiches and other eatin' treats.

There will be supervised parking, so come early, stay late, have fun and help a worthy cause.

Population 1,825

In the past week or two, Police Judge James S. Webster has made a survey of the population in the City of Walton. According to his figures, we now have a population of 1,825.

At the same time, the judge made a check of motor vehicles in town, and came up with a total of 671. We assume the figures will be used in determining the sale of stickers for cars and trucks, which have to be purchased by August 1, at $5.00 each.

Basketball Meeting Called

Coach Lando Lockard has announced that there will be a meeting of all Walton-Verona High School boys planning to play basketball this fall, on Friday, July 17, at 8:00 p. m. The meeting will be held in the W-V gym and will be for the purpose of getting acquainted and to work out a summer program.

Attending Scout Jamboree

Harry Sleet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sleet of North Main Street, Walton, left Sunday for the Sixth National Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America, July 17-23, at Valley Forge State Park, Valley Forge, Pa.

A total of 259 boys and leaders from the Dan Beard Council, will join more than 50,000 other Boy Scouts for the week-long "encampment." Harry expects to spend one day at the World's Fair in New York City before returning home.

A Look At Education

—by—
Eugene Robinson

Regular Board Meeting

On Thursday evening, July 2, the Walton-Verona Board of Education held its regular monthly meeting in the superintendent's office. The following business was transacted:

- 1.—Accepted Miss Maxine Little's resignation as commerce teacher in the high school. Miss Little's father passed away and she plans to stay with her mother and attend the University of Kentucky this fall.
- 2.—Employed Ben Simpson to seal the lunchroom and restroom ceilings at the Verona school with wall board.
- 3.—Voted to place Thomas Hatley at the Verona school as sixth grade and head teacher. In addition to these duties, Mr. Hatley will organize and direct the elementary basketball program. Each room will have a team and will play each other before high school games and on Saturdays. Mr. Hatley will also direct the Physical Fitness Program for the Verona school. This program will be new and more information will be released in the near future.

Maxine Lindsey Circle

The Maxine Lindsey Circle of the W.M.S. of First Baptist Church of Walton, met at the church July 9 with five present. Circle Chairman, Barbara Simpson, was in charge. Opening prayer by Clara Moberly, Helen Bredon showed pictures of missionaries from Ky. to Nigeria, appointed in June of last year, the Edsel Browns. After the business program, the program chairman presented a very nicely planned program, "Before the Seventies," with all taking part, and with a perle of prayer by all for the Missionaries Brown and for those on the Calendar of Prayer for that day.

The next meeting will be on the second Thursday of August, and all members are urged to be present...you are needed. Visitors welcome always.

To Have July 25 Wedding

Miss Penella Fields
Mrs. Esther Fields of Covington, announces the approaching marriage of her daughter, Penella Elaine, to Mr. John B. Knock, at Ashland Avenue Baptist Church, Covington, on Saturday, July 25, at 7:30 p. m. A reception will follow.

Miss Fields is the granddaughter of Mrs. Dora Fields of High St., Walton.

M. Y. F. Plans Festival

The M. Y. F. of Morning View Methodist Church will hold a festival Friday evening, July 17, at the church grounds. There will be a fish fry, barbecue and hot dog sandwiches, coffee and soft drinks.

There will be a fish pond, dart game, keg game, homemade pie and cake booth, and a "guess your age and weight" booth.

The affair will begin at 4:00 p. m., and proceeds go for the purchase of a movie projector. The purpose of the projector is to show educational and religious films at the MYF meetings, and to have to use when the church or Sunday school needs it. Everyone is welcome.

Women Democrats to Meet

The Boone County Woman's Democrat Club will meet on Monday, July 20 at 8:00 p. m., in the Southern Trails Restaurant, Florence. All members are urged to be present.

Boone County Democrats Speak To Your Leaders

The language that your political leaders understand is votes. The person who receives the most votes in an election is understood to be the choice of the people.

However, there are untold numbers of people who never speak to their leaders in this manner because they are not registered to vote.

Register and vote. This is your obligation to yourself.

Contact Bruce Ferguson if you have a problem in registering.

Attend Camp Wallace

Four boys from the Walton-Verona school district, along with other Boone County boys spent last week at Camp Earl Wallace, Monticello, Ky. They were James Chessman, Ricky D'Ermo, Steve Stephenson, and Charlie Mike Holder.

The boys were accompanied by their conservation adviser, Atlas Lynn, Sheriff Melvin Collins, and others.

Surprise Bridal Shower

A surprise bridal shower was given for Miss Virgie Hogan, Friday, July 10, by Mrs. Jean Perry Lynn and Connie at their home on Banklick Station Road, Independence. Those present were: Pam Schader, Mary Rawls, Martha Rawls, Judy Roberts, Mrs. Virgil Perry, Mrs. Esther Goerler, Mrs. Genny Dunn, Mrs. Hilda Cook, Mrs. Ruby Bramgarren, Mrs. Jenny Hogan, and Mr. Dora Ellwell of Walton. Miss Hogan received many lovely gifts and good wishes from her friends.

Mary Jane Jones New County Judge

Mrs. Mary Jane Jones, secretary to two former county judges, is the new judge of the Boone County Court. She was named to the post last Thursday by Gov. Edward T. Breathitt.

Mrs. Jones will succeed the late Judge Charles E. Niblack. She served as secretary to both Judge Niblack and former Judge C. L. Cropper.

As county judge, Mrs. Jones will also head Boone County Fiscal Court. She has been judge pro tem for several years and is well versed in legal procedures connected with Fiscal Court matters.

It is expected that Mrs. Jones will announce the appointment of a trial commissioner within the next several days. There is a backlog of more than 50 cases for decision in County Court.

Mrs. Jones will be an interim appointee. A nominating committee, consisting of the chairman of the Boone County Democratic Executive Committee and the chairmen and chairwomen of the county precincts will select a nominee to run for election in November.

The nominee elected in November will serve out the late Judge Niblack's term, which would have ended December 31, 1965.

However, in the May primary of 1965, when all county offices come up for nomination, the judge's office also will be up for grabs.

Social at Independence

St. Cecilia Altar Society of Independence, will sponsor their monthly social July 21 at 1:30 p. m. Prizes and refreshments will be featured and the public is cordially invited.

District 4-H Dairy Show

The District 4-H Dairy Show is to be held Wednesday, August 12, at the Grant County High School, Dry Ridge, according to Wayne Sniginger, Boone County Assistant County Agent.

Four-H members may show both registered and grade dairy animals. Members showing 4-H animals must register their animals with Mr. Sniginger and must be accompanied by official health papers.

Anyone wanting more information on the show may call Mr. Sniginger at 586-6412.

Annual R. E. C. C. Meeting July 22

A sensational beauty contest, widely accepted professional entertainment, and other interesting attractions feature the annual membership meeting to be held Wednesday night of next week, July 22, 1964. Additional information may be secured from the Critteniden Post Office.

Grant County High School grounds, near Dry Ridge, will be the scene of this event, scheduled to get underway at 6 p. m.

Applications are being received at the cooperative's offices at Independence and at Owenton, for those desiring to enter the beauty contest. Winner of the competition goes to the statewide contest. Girls are required to be between 16 and 22 years of age and daughters of cooperative members.

Gifts await members registering upon arrival at the annual gathering. New and brief procedures will be used by the organization's officers in making their reports. The entire program is to move swiftly.

Highlight of the prominent professional entertainers will be Perry Frost, Europe's greatest illusionist, Eala-Bono Duo, a husband and wife team doing a music and novelty show, and musical comedy by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Copfer.

Personally requested numbers and popular pieces are to be included in organ music by Mrs. Jean Tandy.

Kenton Co. Fair August 6, 7, 8

Final plans are being made for the 1964 Kenton County Fair. The fair will be held August 6, 7 and 8 at the Simon Kenton High School just south of Independence on Ky. 17. Classes have been established for all 4-H and F. F. A. work along with open classes for Beef, Dairy, Vegetables, Flowers, Tobacco, and Wool Needle work contest. All 4-H and F. F. A. members are urged to enter the youth division of the fair and all adults of North Central Kentucky are invited to enter to the world classes.

Open class exhibitors are urged to enter their exhibits by card or letter with Mrs. George Wolsing, Jr., Secretary of the Kenton Co. Fair Association.

Rides will be bigger and better than last year and we are looking for a much better exhibition arrangement.

Any organization or company interested in having a booth at the fair should contact Mrs. George Wolsing, Jr. or Robert Maddox for information.

Plan to attend the Kenton County Fair and see the exhibits of the fair and the open class entries.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Downing, Louisville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Peggy Ann, to Thomas David Berge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Berge, of Menominee, Mich.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky., and is employed as a social worker with The Salvation Army in Milwaukee, Wis. The groom-elect is a senior at The University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, school of Electrical Engineering. He is affiliated with Tau Beta Pi, Eta Kappa Nu, and is active in Air Force R.O.T.C.

The wedding will take place in May, 1965, at The Salvation Army, Milwaukee.

The Downings are former residents of Walton, and Peggy is a graduate of Walton-Verona High.

BAPTIST JUBILEE

The First Baptist Church, Walton, will observe a church-wide Day of Jubilee for the purpose of honoring their pastor, Rev. J. R. Tackett, and celebrating the Third Baptist Jubilee. This gathering will be held at Big Bone Park, on Friday, July 17, from 5:00 to 9:00 p. m. An old-fashioned basket dinner will be enjoyed at 6:30 by all members of the church and friends. You are urged to be present and enjoy the fellowship and an original program. In case of rain, the affair will be held in the church recreation hall.

A WORD OF PRAISE

A word of praise for our town... I am now numbered among the aged of our town, still I am much interested in seeing the town grow and be a good place to live. I think we can see the town is now furnishing the best water we have ever had. Thanks to the ones who have made this accomplishment, and may this be one of many improvements.—Maude Wilson

Return Receipt
Honorable Kelly Kennedy
Mayor, City of Walton
21 Park Avenue
Walton, Kentucky
Dear Mayor Kennedy:

Subject:
Application No. APW-KY-282G
Sewer Facilities
City of Walton, Kentucky

We have received official notification that Boone County has been selected to participate in the Accelerated Public Works Program. This reclassification does not affect projects which have already been approved and formal grant offers extended.

Your application which is referred to above has not been approved as of the date the County was reclassified, this application can no longer be considered for Federal grant assistance and is being withdrawn from our active files and placed in suspension.

In the event of subsequent area redesignation resulting in the County being placed on the eligible list, this application will again become eligible for further consideration under the Accelerated Public Works Program, contingent upon your request at that time. This action is taken without prejudice to the City and will in no way affect consideration of application for future assistance by the City under other programs administered by this Agency.

If you have further questions relating to this matter, please let us know.

Sincerely yours,
Edward H. Baxter
Acting Regional Director of Community Facilities

GOP To Select Candidate July 21

The Republican Executive Committee of Boone County will hold a meeting Tuesday, July 21, at 8:00 p. m., at Republican Headquarters, 276 Main St., Florence, to select a Republican candidate to run for County Judge this coming November. The announcement was made by Otis Readnow, Walton, County Chairman. Notices have been mailed to each of the 46 members of the Executive Committee.

The Republican Party in Boone County, in seeking a candidate, has proposed that a county administrator in Boone County should do the following: (a) Appoint responsible and effective bipartisan commissions in the area of water for the county, industrial growth, planning and zoning, roads, and school planning; (b) Demand from Frankfort the tax money that is due the county; (c) Take steps to eliminate the tax waste now going on in the county, to investigate the tax inequalities in the county, and through this means provide money for county needs that otherwise could only be accomplished by increased taxation (as now proposed by many county groups).

Don't worry about finding your station in life. Someone will tell you where to get off.

Perspiration On Clothes

Perspiration stains that have yellowed and set by aging frequently cannot be removed by simple methods such as rubbing a detergent into the spot and washing or by using a mild bleach, says Gertrude Paprotta, the Boone County Home Agent.

On washable white or color-fast fabrics these stains can usually be removed with a stronger bleach treatment. One good method is to sprinkle sodium perborate or a powdered bleach containing it directly on the stain, then dip in very hot or boiling water. The strain should be removed in a few minutes, then rinse well. Do not use this method on wool or silk.

Tel-Star 4-H Club Meets

God the Deliverer Lesson for July 19, 1964

Background Scriptures: Exodus 6:1 through 10:21
Devotional Reading: Exodus 15:1-18.

MOST MEN have their own favorite "image" of themselves. When a visiting speaker is to be introduced at some meeting or other, the one who is going to have to introduce him is embarrassed, not for lack of something to say but by the fact that the guest is distinguished in various ways. "How would you prefer to be introduced?" he may ask the visitor. Now without being irreverent we Dr. Foreman can say that while God could be introduced in an infinite number of ways, there may be one way he prefers to be known. The Bible gives us a number of God's introductions of himself. We know God wishes us to think of him. It is interesting and important to know that God never calls himself the Trinity, or the Great Mystery, or the All, or the Sky-god or many other titles men have invented up for him. One of his favorite titles is Deliverer.

God at the Red Sea
One event in their history always stood out—and still does—for the people known to us as Jews, known to their Egyptian masters as Hebrews. That was their deliverance from Egypt. As long as the Jews have been here as a people (they have seldom been a nation but always a people) they have loved to remember that God rescued them from Egypt. In times of doubt and despair they were always encouraged by their prophets to remember one thing, one great thing God had done for them. They never took credit for getting away from the land of bitter bondage. They did not even call Moses their deliverer. It was God who brought both Moses and his Work! It would be different. But he has his own ways of doing things. No doubt those tolling, sweating, bitter Hebrew slaves often thought to themselves or asked one another, Where is God? He seems to be forgotten! But God did not report to them, and he will not report to us, every day what he is doing. Maybe if he told us we should only laugh—in the wrong place. What was God doing to help his poor persecuted people down in Egypt? Well, when the time came, he was getting a man ready. (He was readying him in his great-grandparents, but that's another story.) Where is God? He is seeing to it that a little basket of reeds is not lost in the Nile backwaters. He is seeing to it that a little baby cries just in time to catch a Pharaoh's heart. God was arranging for that child to have the best education in the world... Or if you had inquired some years later, you might have been told (if God had cared to let you in on the secret) that God was preparing an old man, a shepherd, to become acquainted with every mile of a terrible wilderness country. One day he would lead a nation where now he led his sheep.

God waits for the time
If God knows what is going on, and if God is preparing today as in Moses' time some great man or men to lead us into new promised lands, then why does he not come to our rescue now? The idea that God waits for the right time to come before he takes action is a hard one to swallow; but it is all over the Bible. God does not do everything at once. When God made this universe he made Time with it, and God respects all things he has made. Even Jesus Christ did not come till the time was "ripe," as the Bible expresses it. Children have only two hands on their clocks; one points to "now" and the other to "never." But there is another clock, and God made it and he goes by it; it has a hand pointing to "not yet." Moses, you may remember, once tried to help the Israelites by killing Egyptians. He killed one himself for a start. But it was not God's time. Sometimes men come too late to their work; God never does. "Our times are in his hand."

Where some of your money goes...Americans are short-changed more than $100 million a year.

More hospital beds are occupied by persons with mental illness than with physical diseases.

CHOICE

John is thinking about "what he wants to be." No, he doesn't want to be a jet pilot, nor a nuclear physicist, nor a lawyer, nor an actor, nor a doctor, nor yet a banker, baker, or chemist. John has decided. He wants to be a MINISTER.

I wondered if his father or his uncle or anyone else in the family is a minister? Strangely enough, no! He won't make a lot of money, and knowing John, he certainly won't particularly like the idea of getting up to "preach" to people. Definitely he won't have a big shiny car to make his calls. I wondered why John had decided to devote a lifetime to service in the Church.

I asked John for a frank answer and he told me many small accumulative experiences which boiled down to this: A strong Christian influence from family, friends, and church kindled a spirit of awareness and devotion which seems to be latent in every human heart. Of course, we can't all be like John. Few of us have received the stimulus to devote our entire life to the Church. But some of John's spirit does dwell in all of us. Too often we are unaware that we possess this miraculous gift from God. Rekindle your spirit by going to church this Sunday.

The world's smallest pump handle

Ever consider how much time and effort an old-fashioned water pump takes? Or, how much a modern electric water system would add to your family's comfort and happiness?

An electric water heater is relatively inexpensive to install. Most men can do the major portion of the work themselves. Yet it gives so much comfort and convenience to everyone! There's plenty of hot water to help Mother with the household chores; a refreshing shower or bath after a hot day's work; it even encourages the children to adopt better hygiene habits. You'll enjoy your modern water system even more this winter. No more water to carry (and spill) from outdoors. How wonderful to have a warm, indoor bath!

ELECTRIC WATER HEATER & SYSTEM

It's inexpensive to install but means so much to your family's comfort.

FALSE—No indemnity will be paid on lost or damaged mail unless it is insured, registered or collect-on-delivery (COD).

Although every effort is made to protect all mail while it is in the custody of the Postal Service, unavoidable circumstances occasionally occur which result in mail being lost or damaged. Mailers may reduce the possibility of financial loss on valuable items by availing themselves of those services which provide for payment of indemnity—registered, insured, and collect-on-delivery (COD).

The fact that indemnity is not paid on other mail does not mean that the post office has no interest in situations where ordinary mail is lost or damaged or otherwise improperly handled. Complaints concerning these matters should be brought to the attention of your local postmaster.

County Agent's 1/2 Acre

—by—
Joe Claxton

The tobacco budworm is a major pest of burley tobacco. The budworm is a light brown to green colored caterpillar, about one and one-half inches long. It is showing up in buds of tobacco plants. It eats holes in the buds, can cause serious stunting of leaves.

Control measures: Use DDT or TDE as a spray or dust. Sevin also is recommended.

If tobacco is knee high or smaller, use one-half pound of actual material an acre. If it is more than knee high, use one pound of actual material an acre.

When sprays are used, nozzles of equipment should be held at least 12 to 15 inches above the buds. This avoids a too-heavy concentration of the mixture in the bud. Light coverings of sprays are best.

Fields should be inspected two times a week now to see if any worms are present. For a representative sample, check four areas of each field and about five plants an area. Use some other cautions—(1) Do not use shaker cans or cloth bags to apply dusts, as distribution is not controlled accurately; (2) give the materials time to work; it takes about three days for the insecticide to do the job; (3) do not make a second application until 7 to 10 days after the first, and make the application light; (4) bud-worms are more easily controlled when small.

Follow safety directions. Use UK Cooperative Extension Service Misc. 229-A, "Insecticide Recommendations for Tobacco Fields."

If you're growing sweet corn commercially or just as a home garden crop, you may be fighting the corn earworm pretty soon. This brown to greenish-colored caterpillar develops from eggs laid on the corn earworm by the female corn earworm moth.

Control measures: If you are a home gardener, as soon as silks appear, on sweet corn, apply 50% wettable powder Sevin, mixed at the rate of two level tablespoons in a gallon of water. This amount will take care of about 100feet of row. Make the first application no later than two days after silks appear. Make second application two or three days after the first and a third application within another two or three days.

If Sevin is used, there is a 7-day waiting period after application before the crop can be fed as feed or fodder to cattle.

Staffordsburg

Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Reporter

On Monday of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Faulkner entertained her father, Dudley Wade, Mr. and Mrs. William Wade, and Mr. and Mrs. William Whitehead of Cynthia.

The fellowship supper at the church Sunday evening in honor of our new pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. Sanford Rucker, was well supplied, well attended, and enjoyed by all. We should do it more often. We are planning an ice cream supper on August 1, so reserve that date on your calendar.

Chasler Ballinger, who has visited his parents here for a few weeks, left Friday for his home near Phoenix, Ariz.

Miss Judy Rapp is starting this Monday to work at Michael's Art Bronze Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Faulkner went fishing near Georgetown, on Saturday, and visited her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ward.

Bible school is under way this week with a children's program planned for next Sunday evening.

L. M. Deuser, who was in an automobile accident last week and who thought he was not badly injured, found that his knee cap had been hurt. He now has his knee in a cast. We hope he will soon be well and getting around as usual.

Visit Flower Grounds

Boone County Home Agent, Gertrude Paprotta, says that the University of Kentucky Horticulture Department invites you to visit their flower trial grounds this summer. It is located south of the new agricultural science building on South Limestone, Lexington. There are over 150 kinds of annuals, nearly that many kinds of hardy chrysanthemums, and about 30 kinds of perennials planted there. The day lilies should be showing up well during July. Many of the annuals will be well in bloom by then and many will continue in bloom all summer. The hardy mums should be at their best early in October.

—DEATHS—

HARGIS H. BANTA, 69, of 10 Roe St., Walton, died at 2:45 a. m., Monday at his home after a long illness resulting from a heart condition.

Mr. Banta was a native of Bourbon County, and was a retired farmer. He was a member of the Walton Methodist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Louise Hubbard Banta; three daughters, Mrs. O'Neil Masters of Lexington, Mrs. Fred Jones of Fiskburg, and Mrs. Daniel Corman of Wilmore; three sons, Frank Banta of Cold Springs, Harold Banta of Elsmere, and Hargis Banta, Jr. of Napoleon, and one sister, Mrs. Burns Watson of Mt. Sterling.

Services were held at 1:00 p. m., Wednesday at the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton. Burial was in Lexington.

MRS. KATIE SCOTT
Mrs. Katie Scott, 88, said to be the oldest resident of Florence, died at 5:00 a. m., last Saturday, at St. Elizabeth Hospital, after a long illness. She resided at 8 Banklick Street, Florence. She was a member of the Ladies Altar Society of St. Paul Church, Florence.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Lucille Lipp of Ft. Mitchell; two sons, William E. Scott and Robert A. Scott, both of Florence; three grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.

Regular High Mass was sung at 9:00 a. m., Tuesday, at the St. Paul Church, following prayers at the St. Paul Funeral Home. Burial was in St. Mary Cemetery.

VERONA

Flonnie Edgington, Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Renaker arrived home Sunday after spending their vacation in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burchett and children came home last week from Tennessee and Corbin, Ky., where they had been visiting their parents and other relatives for a few days.

We were sorry to hear of Lt. Herman Donald Beach being killed in an airplane crash in Formosa, June 20. We extend our sympathy to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beach of Ellison Station, and his daughter, Miss Cecilia Beach of Seattle, Wash., and other relatives in the loss of their loved one.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Sturgeon and children spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Sturgeon.

Mrs. Susie Glone was a six o'clock dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edgington, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walden were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edgington.

Mrs. Pearl Lamm was calling on Mrs. Flonnie Edgington, Saturday.

Bro. and Mrs. A. M. Davis left Saturday for Tennessee to attend a reunion of the Taylor family on Sunday. They returned home Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. William Waller were away last week on a vacation.

STEAL FOR THRILLS

Retailers and merchants are faced with a problem that is becoming very acute. There has been a tremendous increase in shoplifting losses to retailers in the past few years. In Kentucky, $10 to $15 million is the estimate of loss annually through shoplifting.

Most of this is amateur rather than professional and done because it is a "Thrill to Steal." Teenagers are joining "Shoplifting Clubs," and in order to belong to such an organization, boys and girls are expected to steal a certain amount and then steal so much weekly to remain a member. Sometimes, it is merchandise they do not have funds to buy, but mostly it is just to see how daring they can be in their shoplifting.

Kentucky schools have uncovered such clubs and in grades as low as the 7th and 8th. Parents have a great responsibility in helping our young people to grow up with respect for our laws and rules of society. Question your child when they state they found a certain item or that it was given to them or they traded for it. Parents know whether their child has the funds to purchase same.

Legal means will be used by the Kentucky Retail Federation to convict adult shoplifters. They are also anxious to cooperate with parents and groups trying to help teenagers to grow into respected men and women.

A policy of publishing names and addresses of juveniles convicted of shoplifting has been found to have a successful effect in many communities.

It is almost unbelievable that more people are involved and more money lost from this one crime, than probably any other committed in the State of Kentucky.

Public speaking is easy. It's the thinking before you speak that is hard.

Pleasant Grove WSCS

Mrs. Frank Ringenbach conducted the opening devotional, using for the thought, "We Are the Light," at the July meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Pleasant Grove Methodist Church. Mrs. T. S. Moffett presided over the business session at which time all officers reported on the training school they recently attended.

Mrs. Ralph Lavelle presented the program, "Our Later Years—A Time for Responsible Living." Mrs. John Zuverink, Mrs. Frank Ringenbach, Mrs. Fred Wetzel and Mrs. T. S. Moffett participated in a play pertaining to the theme.

Mrs. Walter Garriott, wife of the new minister, was welcomed into the society. It was announced that the Susannah Wesley Circle will hold an ice cream social on Saturday, August 22, in the evening, at the church. There will be no meeting of the WSCS in August.

Other members present were Mesdames Crutcher Masters, C. W. Pruest, Ralph Porter, John A. Rich, Adolph Wieland, Vincent Harje, Harold Buxton, and Mrs. Alma Deatherage.

What adds to accidents in the home is the fact that some people don't spend enough time there to get to know their way around.

Lesson Topics For Boone Homemakers

Miss Virgil Lou Hogan
Miss Virgil Lou Hogan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hogan, Independence, is engaged to Ronald J. Panko, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Panko, Milford, Ohio, her parents have announced. The wedding will be August 8 at the St. Mary Cathedral, Covington.

The Boone County Homemakers have planned several interesting lessons for the coming year. The topics are an outgrowth of the need and interests of the members throughout the county.

In September, the Homemakers will be learning to knit. They can continue this work throughout some of the discussion lessons.

A series of four lessons on family relations will be held in the spring. The lessons will deal with the following topics: Getting Along With Others; Promoting Good Mental Health; Help Your Child Learn the Use of Money, and Growing Older With A Purpose.

Making the most of available time and money through better management will be the subject of two lessons in fall.

Members plan to learn more about their city and county governments through one of their programs.

Special interest lessons for those interested in specific subjects will be offered on landscaping, housing, and purse construction.

Representatives from each club receive training lessons from the Extension workers to prepare them to teach the subject to the community clubs. For special interest lessons, the instruction is for anyone who is interested in the problem which is being explored, said Nancy Alice White, Boone County Home Agent in Training.

To Marry at Richmond
Mr. and Mrs. John L. Feagan of Walton, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Joy Elaine Feagan, to Tom Mulligan of Georgetown, Ky.

Miss Feagan is a nurse at the Shriners Hospital in Lexington, and Mr. Mulligan is employed with Syntex Laboratories, Inc.

The wedding will take place at Richmond Presbyterian Church on July 24, at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. An invitation is extended to all friends of the family.

Wyona King Circle Meets
The Wyona King Circle of the New Bethel Baptist Church, Verona, met in the home of Mrs. Travis Dunn for their regular monthly meeting with lunch served at noon... which was very much enjoyed by all. In the afternoon a book on Communism with question and answers was taught. It was very interesting as taught by Adeline Reed. There were fifteen members and one visitor present.

The next meeting will be in August in the home of Mrs. Cassie Risner.

Hosts Board of Managers
The Northern Kentucky Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution will be hosts to the Board of Managers of the Kentucky Society on Saturday, July 25 at noon at the Lookout House.

This will be a luncheon meeting for the attending members and their wives.

Honorable James F. Miller of Lexington, will preside. Miss Ellen Benson will be piano soloist.

Summer Concerts to Be Presented Here

There will be two summer band concerts presented by the Walton-Verona school bands and sponsored by the Band Boosters Club.

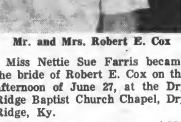

A jazz concert by the Moonlighters Band, will be given Saturday, August 1, at 7:00 p. m., and the Summer Music Program Concert will be presented Sunday, August 2, at 2:30 p. m. Both concerts will be outdoors, in front of the Walton-Verona High School.

Watch for more detailed program in next week's paper.

Hopeful Heights Carnival

The Hopeful Heights Volunteer Fire Department will hold its third annual Carnival, Friday and Saturday, July 24-25, at the intersection of Burlington Pike and Hopeful Road. There will be rides, refreshments, booths, and games.

Wed at Dry Ridge, June 27

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Farris of London, Ky., and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Elmo Cox of Independence, Ky.

The bride has been employed by the Grant County Board of Education for the past two years, and the groom is employed at the Cincinnati Milling Machine Co.

The couple are residing at 929 Highland Ave., Covington.

New Bethel WMS Meets

The July meeting of the New Bethel W. M. S. was held at the church in Verona on Tuesday, the 14th, with 17 members in attendance. The business session was presided over by Gladys Alford, president, who reminded members of the Associational Mission Study to be held at Oak Ridge church on July 21... the book taught was "History of the Woman's Missionary Union," by Alma Hunt; and the quarterly meeting of North Bend W. M. U. to be held at Elmore, July 28. Each member is urged to attend both of these meetings. After reports given by chairmen of the various committees and all other business taken care of, the meeting was given over to Marian Searcy, who was program leader for the meeting.

The program, "Religious Liberty, A Baptist Heritage," was presented in a very inspirational way. The meeting was adjourned with prayer by Mary Porter.

Members attending were Marian Searcy, Rose Hamilton, Bertha Littrell, Etta McManama, Lena Harris, Mattie Orr, Gwen Dunn, Elizabeth Kemper, Fannie Edington, Gladys Alford, Clio Messmer, Dorothy Porter, Alle Stephens, Lillie Cook, Rose Copley, Alice Smith and Mary Porter.

To Bid Road Contract

To bids for a grade, drain and traffic bound surfacing project on the Burlington-Bullittsville Road in Boone County will be received by the Kentucky Highway Department, August 7, Commissioner of Highways Harry Ward announced this week. The project will begin at Ky. 20 at Bullittsville and extend south for 2.621 miles.

27 Register For Kindergarten

Last Thursday, 27 pre-school children registered for the Kindergarten sponsored by the Wa-Na Woman's Club, to be held at the Walton Christian Church. Kindergarten starts September 14.

There are still openings for several more children in order to fill two classes. Both classes will be held in the morning. One teacher, Mrs. Tommy Cook (the former Shirley Lou Carpenter), has been secured and the Kindergarten will secure the second teacher if the number of registrations necessitate the need.

Tuition is $10.00 per month, or $13.00 per year if you live within the city limits of Walton and want transportation furnished. The registration fee is $2.00. It may have been your date, so please contact Mrs. William Moore, Kindergarten Chairman, 485-4592, or Mrs. Tommy Cook, 485-4293.

Govt. Loans Available

The very small business... chiefly operators of retail businesses and service establishments... many of whom have found it difficult to obtain financing in the past, will now find it much easier to qualify for government loans," R. B. Blankenship, Branch Manager of the SBA, advised this paper last week. The new liberalized loan program was announced recently by President Lyndon B. Johnson.

"We have simplified our procedures and requirements for these loans," Mr. Blankenship said, "and we believe it is important to help the many thousands of struggling firms as a means of creating new jobs and stimulating the economy in our State and Nation."

If interested, contact the Small Business Administration office, located at 1900 Commonwealth Building, Louisville, Ky., 40202. Telephone SE2-3271.

Band Boosters Club Meets

The Walton-Verona Band Boosters held their regular meeting on Monday, July 20, with four members present.

Among the items discussed were Band Camp at Butler Park, where several of the band members will participate. Plans were made for serving refreshments at the Jazz Concert, August 1, and the Band Concert, August 2.

The Birthday Calendar has arrived and will be delivered soon. Band Boosters thank all those who made the calendar possible.

4-H Electric Projects

Electric projects spark 4-Hers in scores of endeavors that have to do with electrical energy. The training and guidance by extension workers and local club leaders show boys and girls how to repair, remodel, rebuild, and expand the use of electric appliances and power machinery on the farm and in the home. Westinghouse Educational Foundation backs this project and assists in developing latest how-to guide sheets for 4-H members.

4-H Keen Teens Meet

The Keen Teens 4-H Club held their monthly meeting at the home of Ricky and Betty Messing-schlager. Paul Kunkel, president, presided.

We discussed the fair projects, our booth, and contests. Our guest speaker was an IFYE from Norway. He showed slides of his country and told us about each one and then allowed us to ask questions.

Following adjournment, refreshments were served to three guests, 11 members, four leaders, and one county agent—Reporter

Scholarships for 4-Hers

Two hundred seventy high school and college students who are 4-H members, will be the richer this fall by $28,400 in scholarships. Funds for these grants come from private business enterprises and educational foundations. Scholarships are administered through the National 4-H Service Committee of Chicago in cooperation with the Extension Service.

REGISTRATION CLOSES ON SEPTEMBER 5, 1964

September 5, 1964, will be your last chance to register to vote in the November election.

What part will you play in the final outcome of the General Election in November... Active or Passive?

You will play an active part if you are registered and if you exercise your most valuable franchise and vote.

You will play a passive part if you are not registered and therefore not permitted by law to exercise your most valuable franchise. Your vote is lost. Don't let this happen to you... register and vote!

To Start Publishing Baby Pictures In September

We have had a number of inquiries as to when we would begin to publish the baby pictures taken this spring. We are in receipt of these cuts and we plan to start publishing them in September. Since July and August are vacation months for many, we feel it might be better to wait until the fall season begins then, we feel, none will miss any of their children's photographs. We appreciate the interest shown and hope this arrangement suits everyone.

Police Sponsoring Safety Program

Campbell County F.O.P., Inc., No. 10, appalled by the increase of road fatalities and accidents are conducting an all-out safety campaign, in hopes of reducing all road menaces. At present they are concentrating on: Distribution of safety bumper signs, safe driving stamps; giving safe driving lectures to students and offering a booklet to all teenagers interested in driving.

To offset the cost of this safety campaign, the police are having a Grand Old Opry Show, Saturday, September 12, at the Campbell County High School, Alexandria, at 4:00, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m. Admission: Children $1.00, and adults $1.50, according to William Vervest, president.

Boone County Fair August 12-13-14-15

Everyone looks forward to the Boone County Fair, which will start with Family Day, Wednesday, August 12. Fair committees are working overtime getting arrangements made. The fairgrounds will be getting completely cleaned-up with repairs made and buildings painted for the convenience of those who attend.

Committee members are giving many hours of their free time in order to improve the fair each year, according to Mr. Beckham Shields, President of the Fair Board.

Mr. Reuben Kirtley, in charge of commercial and other exhibits on the grounds, reports a large number of reservations and that those who plan to have exhibit space should contact him immediately.

Of course, the Farber Carnival will have Family Day, Wednesday afternoon, and the fair will start with a horse-pulling contest.

Miss Boone County Fair will be selected Wednesday, Mr. Robert Matheny, chairman, Mr. Matheny urges all those who are interested in participating in the pageant to register with him immediately at the office of the Boone County Recorder.

All exhibits of home economics, garden, fruit, field crops, poultry, and tobacco should be ready on Wednesday afternoon, between 2:00 and 7:00 p. m. These will be judged Thursday morning.

The Conner Junior High School Band will play at the fair on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights. This will be their first fair appearance, Mr. Shields said. On Thursday, there will be a dairy show during the day and that night there will be the pony show and pig scramble. Friday will start out with the 4-H Tractor Driving Contest, and the afternoon will be the beef show and that night will be the 4-H Clothing Style Show and English Horse Show.

Saturday morning, the fair will open with the tractor pulling contest. The baby show will be in the afternoon, and the Western Horse Show in the grandstands. The English Horse Show on Saturday night will close the fair.

The 1964 fair is offering the largest cash prizes in history of this event. The fair contributes to the surrounding communities by sponsoring educational exhibits, increasing business with a large number of people from other sections of surrounding states. It also contributes to the State Revenue Department in taxes that otherwise would not be available to them. There are 95 fairs and horse shows in Kentucky. The Boone County Fair is a member of the Kentucky Association of Fairs and Horse Shows and follows the rules and regulations that are recommended by the Ky. Dept. of Agriculture.

Kenton Fair Assn. to Meet

The Kenton County Fair Association will meet at the Independence Courthouse on Thursday evening, July 23, at 8:00. You are invited to attend and help in the planning for the August 6-8 Kenton County Fair. If you are interested in having a booth at the fair, please contact Mrs. Geo. W. Moxley, or Robert G. Maddox so your booth can be included in the plans.

Pick up your copy of the Kenton County Fair catalog at the Kenton County Agricultural Extension Office or at a local business concern that helps sponsor the fair.

Tuberculosis germs most frequently attack the lungs but can attack all parts of the body.

Revival at Dry Ridge

The Assembly of God Church at Dry Ridge, will begin a revival meeting July 23, with Bro. and Sister Doak of Missouri, as speakers. According to the pastor, Rev. A. H. Davis, there will be good old-time holiness preaching and singing. Everyone is invited to attend... bring your music with you.

TOWN BENEFACTOR Kenneth W. Pollock (right) of Fort Scott, Kan., emerges from the basement fallout shelter area of the city building where extra ventilating equipment (see vents in background) made it possible to protect about 1,000 persons—many more than could be accommodated otherwise. Using data on the best available local shelter areas in existing structures provided by the Defense Department's National Fallout Shelter Survey, Pollock has spent about $18,000 so far to improve shelters for 6,600, and will go to $50,000 if necessary to improve fallout shelters for the town's 10,000 inhabitants. Money for the project comes from the charity fund of Key Work Clothes, Inc., a local firm which Pollock heads. (Photo by Bill Esser, Topica Capital-Journal)

County Agent's 1/2 Acre

—by—
Joe Claxon

Agricultural limestone applied to farm land not only supplies calcium and magnesium that are needed by growing plants, but it makes the other nutrients more available to the plants as well.

Limestone reacts slowly in the soil. For example, it may take three to four years for limestone to change a soil pH from 5 to 6. Therefore, it is to the farmer's advantage to apply limestone on strongly acid soils at least a year ahead of seeding clovers or alfalfa.

Soils should be tested and needed limestone should be applied this fall while the ground is firm enough to support the lime spreading trucks. This should be done this fall even though a crop may not be seeded until next spring.

Finely ground limestone reacts much more quickly than coarse limestone. By and large, the limestone farmers are getting today is too coarsely ground to give even distribution of limestone over the field. Often there will be strips or spots in a field where crop growth, especially in legumes, is poor. These may be areas missed by the lime spreader or truck.

Twice as much limestone may be needed on heavy clay soils as is needed on light sandy soils to get the same change in soil pH.

Over-cultivating burley tobacco can do more harm than good. In the later stages of growth, cultivation could do more harm than good since the root systems have become so large and since the root-pruning is more damaging to the crop than any benefit derived from continued cultivation.

Normally, about three cultivations are sufficient for producing excellent tobacco crops. Cultivation should stop when tobacco plants are about knee-high. At this stage, roots of plants extend beyond the tips of the leaves. Continued cultivation, no matter how shallow, may cut off the growing roots near the surface. This would slow down growth seriously. And any cultural practice that slows growth will reduce quality.

Pesticide Death Total Was 524 For 1946-60

Pesticides, the friend of man when properly handled, also are dangerous enemies when improperly used.

From 1946-1960, says the National Safety Council, there were 524 deaths in the U. S. from improperly handled pesticides (storage, application, accidental ingestion or inhalation, etc.).

Since this is National Farm Safety Week, some solid figures may help bring home the danger of careless use or handling of these otherwise useful, helpful materials. The facts:

Deaths by compounds: Arsenic and arsenic compounds, 6; cyanide and cyanide compounds, 41; chlorinated hydrocarbons, 85 (of which DDT accounted for 35); fluoride and fluoride compounds, 28 (of which 16 were caused by sodium fluoride); nicotine and nicotine compounds, 50 (of which nicotine accounted for 50); organic phosphate compounds, 106 (of which parathion accounted for 73) and phosphorus and phosphorus compounds, 211 (of which 201 were caused by phosphorus in rat poisons).

Social Security Notes

Many housewives in the Northern Kentucky area have become both employers and tax delinquents without realizing that they have become either. If you hire a household worker you may be one of these persons.

Cooks, maids, gardeners, and other household help working in or about the private home of another individual are domestic employees. If they are paid cash wages of $50 or more in a calendar quarter (three-month period) their work is covered by the Social Security Act.

Their earnings must be reported to Internal Revenue Service, and the social security tax must be paid on these wages.

Domestic employees are marginal earners and usually cannot save enough to meet the needs of old-age, disability and death. And when their wages are not reported they lose the protection of social security and are not prepared to meet any of these emergencies.

It is the employer alone who is responsible for reporting of wages and final payment of taxes to Internal Revenue Service. This bitter fact has been learned by a good many area residents at costs running as high as $1,000 per person in back taxes, interest and penalties.

No one will ever call to explain the law. However, you can get detailed information by calling or writing the Social Security Administration, 309 Garrard St., Covington, Ky.

Tackling the "Drop Out" Problem

CLOTHING, SHOES, AND LUNCH MONEY needed to keep many of Kentucky's needy youngsters in school are furnished by local clubs, churches, and other organizations. Here, a Harrison County pupil is given a shirt by Mrs. W. J. Woodruff (center), Parent Teacher Association clothing chairman. Mrs. Dorothy McCauley, the county's pupil personnel director for 22 years, helps in the fitting. Mrs. McCauley is typical of personnel directors in every school district in the state who work with local agencies to keep deserving youngsters in the classroom despite financial difficulties at home.

TAYLOR MILL

Ernest J. Ryle, Reporter

Richard Ashcraft was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital by the Independence Life Squad after a fall from a bike on McCullum Road, last Tuesday.

Rodney Kendall was taken to the hospital by the Independence Life Squad on July 14.

Taylor Mill Life Squad took Mrs. Frank Schmidt of Grand Avenue, to the hospital where she was pronounced dead at the scene.

Everett Gooch of Sunset Drive, was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital last Friday suffering from chest pains.

Mrs. Ott Inabnit is still quite ill at her home in the Tower. Her daughter came in from California to be with her mother.

Did you ever have a fine looking patch of potatoes and go out to look them over one morning and find them full of bugs, who were stripping off the leaves? Well, we have tried about every powder and bug killer on the market but none seemed to get all of them. Early one morning, before the bugs had gone down, we took a large pan and a light, flat paddle and holding the pan under the leaves we tapped the tops lightly knocking all the bugs in the pan. A quart of boiling water poured into the pan and Mr. Bug never comes back.

The writer and wife and their grandsons, Tom Brumback, wife and children packed a picnic dinner and went to Big Bone Park, where we spread our lunch on one of the tables in the shade, of which there is abundance. We recommend this place for those who want to spend a quiet day away from the city turmoil.

New arrivals reported this week in our area are: James and Rosella Coleman, Taylor Mill, a girl, July 14; Thomas E. and Rose Slenger, Independence, a girl, on July 16; Dr. and Mrs. Bettie Cheek of Independence, a girl, July 2.

On our return trip from Big Bone, Saturday, we drove through a real hard rain all the way from the river at Dam 38 until we got in Florence. From there on home no rain had fallen.

Thomas and Mary Jones are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl at St. Elizabeth Hospital on July 17.

Blackberries are things that ought to be black but are red when green.

BIRTHS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jess Kinman (nee Carolyn Powell) of Frankfort, a daughter, at King's Daughters Hospital on July 14th. The little miss has been named Subrina Carol. The Kinmans have another daughter, Katrina Marie, who will be four on July 24.

Acute respiratory infections are the major cause of time lost from school and work, they account for about 65 percent of all acute sickness.

Veterans Administration Questions and Answers

Q—I was recently hospitalized in a VA Hospital for 30 days for treatment of a service-connected disability. After 18 days, was released for seven days leave, then returned for five more days. Am I entitled to temporary 100 percent rating for my service-connected disability during the period of hospitalization?

A—No. To meet requirements for temporary 100 percent rating, you must have received continuous treatment for a period of 21 days. Leave or passes of more than four days within the first 21 days will be considered as interrupting the continuity of treatment.

Q—For the purpose of qualifying for $1,600 toward the purchase of an automobile or other authorized conveyance, does the term "World War II" include any period of continuous service performed by the veteran after December 31, 1946, and before July 26, 1947, if that period began before January 1, 1947?

A—Yes. Q—I recently retired from Civil Service employment and am filing claim for non-service connected pension from the VA. Will my retirement pay be considered income for pension purposes?

A—Retirement benefits based on a claimant's own employment are not considered income until the death of the claimant. Personal contribution has been received. After he has received an amount equal to his personal contribution all payments will be considered income.

VISALIA

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mardis and children have returned home after spending their vacation in Clinton, Okla. They visited friends that they had met while in service.

Raymond Neupickle is much improved after having a near case of pneumonia. Glad that he is able to be out again. Lawrence Neupickle has been a patient at Booth Hospital, after suffering a light stroke. He is getting along real well.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mullins and daughters of Kenton, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fimmel and sons of Visalia, have returned home after vacationing together at Daytona Beach, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fimmel and family, Mrs. Joe Richardson of Staffordsburg, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Richardson and girls of Williamstown, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Marshall and daughter of Nicholasville, spent a recent weekend in the Smoky Mountains.

Tuberculosis takes no vacation! Be sure to have a TB checkup each year so that you are protected.

Leaders Need Help
Lesson for July 26, 1964

Bible Material: Exodus 15:12 through 15:27.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 101:1-6.

PRIMA DONNAS are hard to get along with. It's hard to be in the same house with one, hard to be on a committee or a team with one. A real original prima donna is a singer (the name means First Lady) who does soprano parts at the opera. They are notoriously temperamental. They make it rather hard for the other members of the cast. They don't like to share a scene, Dr. Foreman, they want to dominate it. Now prima donnas in ordinary life are like that. They have plenty of talent, perhaps even genius. But they do not work well on a team. They are star performers, and they know it. But there is a difference between a superior performer and a performer who can't forget that he is superior.

Leaders Need Help
There is a difference between prima donnas and leaders. The p.d. is admired, but that's the end of it. The boys in the school yard may admire a boy who can stand on one hand. But if they don't all try to do the same, he's not a leader. A leader is followed. Now some of the greatest mistakes in history have occurred when leaders have tried to be prima donnas, or vice versa. Hitler was a first-class prima donna; but he called himself a Leader. He seldom would listen to advice.

God's leaders
You might think that God's leaders would not need help, but they do. Don't they have the help of God and isn't that enough? No. God's providence calls on other men to rally behind leaders. Not even God's chosen leaders can lead without help of any kind. This is true of your local minister: where is the church that can get on without a committee or board or council or session or vestry or some group of leaders from the congregation to help the minister? It was true of Moses too. There was a man of God if ever there was one: immortal in human memory as one of the greatest leaders in all history... yet even he was tempted to doubt his own ability. Because he could do anything better than most others, he tried to do everything. Because he was a good judge, none better, he made the attempt to judge everything. Now every man has his limitations. No man, for example, can do more than he has time to work in. Even if his powers were unlimited, which they are not, he cannot do in ten hours what calls for twenty hours to do it right. Ministers have been known to suffer nervous breakdowns because they thought they did not need help; and Moses was headed for the same kind of trouble, till old Jethro gave him the advice which saved the situation.

The humility of a leader
Moses was one of the best educated men of his time, and immensely superior to the other Israelites. Jethro, his old father-in-law, was on the other hand, one of the most ignorant of men. He had never lived, so far as we know, outside that rocky wilderness. When he ventured to give Moses advice on how to handle the crowds that came before him from dawn to dusk, demanding his decision on innumerable problems large and small, Moses did not brush him off. Moses listened; one of the humblest acts recorded of any leader in history. It was a humble thing old Jethro advised him to do, too. Appointing subordinate judges to help solve the people's problems would be, in a way, governing by committee, and we can imagine Moses had no great liking for that. But the mere admission of others (none in his class, either) to the administration of national affairs would be admitting he could not do it all. Well, even the greatest have to admit it: they are not superhuman, and though they are God's men, there are no more hours in a day for them than for any one else. The great man may accept help grudgingly, but God's leaders accept gratefully. They take helpers as God's gift and not as insult.

While still a Senator, President Johnson kept a large framed legend on the office wall, reading, "You ain't learnin' nothin' when you're talkin'."

Faith's Challenge

There is something very special about a boy and his dog. The dog so obviously wants nothing more than to devote his life to his small master. He takes his boy on faith... and, inevitably, the boy lives up to it.

For faith creates a challenge. If someone believes something good of you, you find yourself eager to measure up to that standard.

God looks for the best in all of us. Regardless of what may have happened yesterday we are, today, welcome in His Church. He has faith in us. Should we have less than faith in Him?

COMPANY'S COMIN' as the President of the United States, Lyndon B. Johnson, and the First Lady approach the hillside home of Tom Fletcher near Inez. Fletcher, his wife, and eight children received their callers on the front porch during Johnson's tour to Martin and Johnson counties. The Fletcher home is one of 1,000 Eastern Kentucky dwellings improved by non-repayable grants of $1,000 or less since November 1963. The program is administered by the Farmers Home Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Many of the recipients qualified for the grants and loan programs were referred to the Federal agency by the Kentucky Department of Economic Security's field staff.

Christian Church Speaker

Dr. James A. Moak

Dr. James A. Moak will be the guest minister at the Walton Christian Church on Sunday morning, August 2.

Dr. Moak has been serving as general secretary of the Kentucky Association of Christian Churches since July, 1957. This organization is designed to serve the needs of 896 Christian Churches in Kentucky in fulfilling the mission and purpose of the church at home and around the world.

The local church feels privileged to have Dr. Moak to fill the pulpit while Rev. William R. Moore, regular minister, and his family are on vacation.

REGISTER AND VOTE

This is a very crucial Presidential election year, the highest and most powerful office in the country will be filled by the vote of the people.

Will your vote be among the votes cast or have you neglected to register. If you are not registered, you have until September 5 to register. You owe yourself this much.

Voting is a privilege not to be taken too lightly, remember... untold millions of people the world over would be eternally grateful for the chance to cast their votes for the leadership of their countries without fear of reprisal.

However, too many Americans neglect their most valuable franchise... their right to vote. Contact William Stephens at the Boone County Courthouse, Burlington, if you have any problems in registering.

Southern States Annual Meeting

Election of Advisory Board, Farm Home Advisory Committee members and operations reports will highlight the Southern States Cooperative annual membership meeting for the Walton area on August 5, 1964, at 7:30 p. m. The meeting will be held at Walton-Verona High School.

One of the features of the meeting will be special recognition of all young farmers and homemakers.

Joe Jones of Union, will serve as chairman of the local meeting. W. W. Worthington of Morning View will give the invocation. Group singing will be led by Mrs. Ruby Worthington of Morning View.

Local operations and services will be discussed by James Lipscomb, manager of Lipscomb Farm Supply.

H. B. Lindley of Lexington, a member of the regional staff, will report—using color slides—on the over-all Southern States operations for the fiscal year, which ended June 30.

Frank Jackson, Jr. of Independence will discuss "Young Farmers and Their Future in Agriculture."

Nominees for the local Southern States Advisory Board for the Walton area are: Preston Hedges, Union; Robert Northcutt, Crittenden; Earl Perkins, Walton; and Ronnie Vest, Verona.

Ladies nominated for the Farm Home Advisory Committee are: Mrs. Kendall Hand, Burlington; Mrs. James Rice, Verona; Mrs. Charles Tugate, Crittenden; and Mr. Walter Webster, Walton.

The delegate and alternate nominees in Election District 10 are: Russell Clinkbeard, Morning View; Joe Jones, Union; and Wilbur Simpson, Crittenden.

There will also be the awarding of a number of attractive door prizes.

The following committee chairman will assist with the meeting: Foods, Mrs. Iverna Schmidt, Walton; Decorating, Mrs. Preston Hedges, Union; Greeting, Wilbur Simpson, Crittenden; Ribbons, Mrs. Wilbur Simpson, Crittenden; Entertainment, Preston Hedges, of Union; and Usher and Rodney Vest, Verona.

Sheep pen lots of roughage... up to 90 percent of their diet.

Demossville Girl Is Co-Op "Queen"

Jean Ann Hafer, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Hafer of Demossville, has been selected Owen County Rural Electric Cooperative beauty queen. She was crowned last week at the annual meeting at Grant County High School, Dry Ridge. More than 800 members attended the meet.

Miss Hafer, a graduate of Pendleton County High School, will represent the co-op in a state-wide contest at the Kentucky State Fair in Louisville.

Directors re-elected at the meeting were: Rev. W. M. Smith, of Boone County, president; Albert Davis, Carroll County; Frank Jackson, Kenton County; Chester Campbell, Pendleton County; Walter Luttrell, Howard Green and A. W. Ayers, Owen County; Robert Arthur, Grant County; Robert Penn, Scott County, and Oakley Noel, Gallatin County, directors.

C. A. Richardson, manager, used slides to illustrate the cooperative's progress during the past year. The slides included a new branch office near Independence, substations, and line conversions to improve facilities.

Guests for the occasion included J. K. Smith, electricity manager, state REC association; Hugh Spurlock, East Kentucky REC; T. A. Perry, Owensboro, attorney; and Louis Thompson, Independence, director of public relations for the cooperative.

All Saints Summer Picnic

Something new has been added at All Saints. In January, we moved into our new four classroom school. The school is not yet completed but is far enough along to allow us to serve dinners in the cafeteria.

Our Summer Festival this year will be held on our school grounds on Ky. 16 in Walton, on Saturday, August 1. While there has been a change in location and date, there will be no change in the menu. The same delicious country-style chicken and roast beef dinners will be served from noon until 7:00 p. m. at $1.25 for adults and 75c for children. A beautiful RCA color television will be awarded at the conclusion of the Festival. Have a good time with us on Saturday, August 1.

The committee is composed of Nell Ferguson, George Rayburne, and Paul Parker—Pub. Chm.

Named Official Spokesman

According to Otis Readnor, the Boone County Republican Chairman, Charles Wiley of Walton, Route 2, has been named official spokesman for the Republican Party.

Mr. Wiley will be responsible to the party and the various news media in accurately reporting the party's views on issues, in preparing advertising and news articles in the name of the party in relation to its participation in local, county, state and national politics.

WALTON BOWL NOTES

At Walton Bowl, Lloyd Yates' 648 helped his team to win two games over Pin-Quins in the Sunday Night Mixed Couples League. Tossie Wireman had a 181 game with a 468 series for the losers.

In the Wednesday Night Scratch League, Harry Calken posted a 403 series for Sizemore Mfg. Co., but it was not enough as his team dropped two games to Roberts' Insurance. Frank Smedley's even 600 boosted his team, the Lambs, to a triple win over the Medley-Madeacs. Mary Salice came thru with a 513 series to help her team, All Thumbs, win a 3-game series over the Gutterbells, on Monday night.

How do you make the 7-10 split? Ask John Taylor, he accomplished this rare feat.

Republican Bake Sale

The Boone County Republican Club will hold a bake sale on Saturday, August 1, at the Belghie Grocery in Walton. Donors are asked to have their baked goods there by 9:00 a. m. or shortly thereafter. Mrs. Richard Fewell is chairman of the sale.

KENTON COUNTY 4-H members are working hard preparing for the 1964 Kenton County Fair. Pictured above is Miss Kay Cummins receiving the Kroger Award from John Griger of the Kroger Co. The picture was taken during the 1963 fair. Plan to attend the fair this year, August 6-7-8, at the Simon Kenton High School grounds and see the events as they happen.

FIRE DEPARTMENT SAYS "THANK YOU"

The Walton Volunteer Fire Department wishes to thank all those who worked and those who helped support the department by attending the picnic was a success considering other activities scheduled for the same time.

Prizes were awarded the following: Otis Readnor, Walton, $100 worth of gasoline; Ralph Folz, Walton, $50 worth of gasoline; lawn furniture, from the Ladies' Auxiliary, Jessie Still. The Auxiliary also wishes to thank the public for its support.

Charles Worthington, Chief of the Department, announces that Fire Protection Insurance notices will be sent out soon... the date due is October 1.

May Need Second Teacher This Year

The Walton Kindergarten may need a second teacher if the registration for the fall session continues to increase. To be a state accredited Kindergarten, the Walton Club must follow certain regulations in having a teacher for so many pupils in a certain amount of space. The Kindergarten facilities in the Walton Baptist Church are excellent, so the Kindergarten Committee is anxious to secure applications of those who might be interested in this position, should the need arise, so that we may have an equally good teaching staff.

Please make your application in writing to the Kindergarten Committee Chairman, Mrs. William Moore, Walton, and state age, education, experience, salary expected and any other qualifications you think important.

At least 32 college hours are required in courses as child psychology, art, music, and English. Previous school teaching experience or positions in children's clinics may serve as substitute for some college hours.

Upon receipt of written applications, the committee will require a personal interview before a definite selection is made to secure a teaching staff.

The Kindergarten Committee would like to have these applications by August 10. If you know of someone who might be interested, who may not see this notice, please pass this information along to them.

IS YOUR SUBSCRIPTION PAID?

The following item was taken from the "JAMBOREE JOURNAL," published during the National Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge State Park, Valley Forge, Pa. Some of the Scouts were interviewed each day. The question at this time was: "What has been your most unusual or exciting experience at the Jamboree?"

Harry Sleet, Post 59, Walton, Kentucky: "I think my most exciting experience is in going for the ceremonies at the Avenue of Flags in LCHQ as a member of the Region 4 band. It is nice to see the boys and the flags from all the states. It makes me proud that I am an American. I like visiting the Revolutionary War monuments here at Valley Forge. It has been exciting and inspiring."

Church Again In North Bend Assn.

The building of First Baptist Church of Independence is back in the North Bend Baptist Association of Kenton and Boone Counties.

A mission program will be started there to build a new congregation under the name of Grace Baptist Chapel.

Chase M. Jennings, superintendent of the Northern Kentucky Baptist Mission Program, made this announcement last week. These churches have been asked by the Association to sponsor the new work in the building. They are: Latonia Baptist, Covington; Rev. Thomas H. Shelton, pastor; New Banklewick Baptist, Independence; Rev. Don Davidson, pastor; and First Baptist, Walton, Rev. Joseph R. Tackett, pastor.

Special services will begin Sunday afternoon at 2:30 the W.V. Summer Band program will present a series of short concerts. Included is a program by the combined beginning and junior bands, and a concert by the high school band. A concert of light popular selections will be given.

The two events are very informal, to bring your lawn chairs, cot, or mattress and wear your bermudas and short sleeve shirt and enjoy two fine concerts. A refreshment stand will be operated by the W.V. Band Boosters who sponsor the activities.

The auxiliary needs more members... 10 years and over. The fee is $1.00.

You are reminded that the auxiliary will again have a booth at the Kenton County Fair, August 6-7-8. Get the articles you are donating to the member who asks you by August 1, please. Thank you for your cooperation.

Republic Picnic Aug. 8 Northern Kentuckians are reminded that the Boone County Republican picnic will be held the afternoon of August 9, with Senator John Sherman Cooper as the guest speaker. A motorcade will be formed at Republican Headquarters in Florence and travel to the picnic location.

Union Man Named to UA John Jacobson, Union, has been named a vice chairman in the district covering Boone County for the 1964 United Appeal. He will lead a team seeking contributions from special groups.

X-Ray Unit at Florence

On Friday, August 7, the Mobile X-Ray Unit will be at the Health Department in Florence. All persons over 20 should put forth an effort to have an x-ray made at this time. Hours of operation will be 10:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon and 1:00 to 3:00 p. m. A good way to avoid TB is by having regular chest x-rays.

Don't gamble with TB. Get a chest x-ray or a tuberculin test today!

Revival Now In Progress A revival is in progress at the Assembly of God Church at Dry Ridge. Bro. and Sister Dock from Missouri, are leading with good old time Holiness preaching and singing. Come, bring your music with you. Everyone welcome.

Rev. Ambrose Davis is pastor.

A CORRECTION... Last week, in the news item about the Kindergarten registration, we stated the Kindergarten would be held at the Christian Church. This should have been First Baptist Church, Walton.

The 1963 calf crop for the U. S. was 1,811,000 head, 2 percent more than the 1962 crop and the fifth straight year of increase.

Band Concerts On Saturday-Sunday

Two outdoor concerts will be given this weekend at the Walton-Verona School. Both concerts will be held on the front lawn and are free to the public. Saturday evening from 7 to 9 a program will be given by The Moonlighters, a 12 member band led by James Layne. The selections will include music of Peter Gunn, Walk On The Wild Side, Malaguena, and many other favorites of the band fans. The Moonlighters is a band based in Walton and has performed at many high school proms, private parties, weddings and other functions. It has been acclaimed as the finest band of its type in the Cincinnati area.

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 the W.V. Summer Band program will present a series of short concerts. Included is a program by the combined beginning and junior bands, and a concert by the high school band. A concert of light popular selections will be given.

The two events are very informal, to bring your lawn chairs, cot, or mattress and wear your bermudas and short sleeve shirt and enjoy two fine concerts. A refreshment stand will be operated by the W.V. Band Boosters who sponsor the activities.

FALSE—Dead letters of the first class are opened at dead letter post offices in an attempt to determine the correct name and address of either the addressee or sender so that they may be delivered or returned. Only those employees especially designated to open dead letters are allowed to open such matter and then only under supervision. When the correct name and address of either the sender or addressee can be determined from the contents, the dead letter is sent to the other under official sealed cover and a 10¢ fee is collected for this service. Letters containing cash or valuables in excess of $1 are kept on file for one year. If unclaimed by that time, they become the property of the U.S. Government. Letters with THOUGHTFUL PARENTS never end up "dead" because they bear the complete name and address of both sender and addressee and will be either delivered as intended or returned to sender. Use of ZIP Code can, at times, aid in delivering letters with hard-to-read addresses.

Dawson Ballinger, whom we reported ill, is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cooper entertained her brother's family from Cincinnati, Sunday, and later they called on Mr. and Mrs. Ballinger.

Douglas Brunst has been ill for several days with ivy poisoning, which is made worse by the very hot weather.

I sincerely hope you are planning to have supper with us Aug. 1. We plan to start at 5:30 and will serve both home-made and factory-made ice cream, home-made cake, soft drinks. There will be a fish pond and country store. Again we hope you can come.

Flax is an excellent nurse crop for seeding down legumes and grasses.

—DEATHS—

NORMAN W. LABLY

Norman W. Lably, 65, of Idlebrook Farm, Union, died at 10 a. m., last Friday at St. Elizabeth Hospital where he had been admitted the previous Sunday.
 Mr. Lably was an elder at the Union Presbyterian Church, a member of the Scottish Rite, Covington, and a member of Golden Rule Lodge, F&M, No. 345, Covington.

Surviving are his wife, Adel Osborne Lably; a son, Charles Lably of Union; three daughters, Mrs. Addie Tanne, Chicago, Mrs. Winifred Barlow and Mrs. Norman Newman, both of Union, and a brother, Arthur Lably of Chicago, Ill.
 Private services were held Monday with cremation at the Cincinnati Crematory. Arrangements by Hugenberg & Niemeyer Funeral Home, Covington.

STANLEY C. CLORE

Stanley C. Clore, 70, of 109 Galatin St., Burlington, died at his home last Saturday. He was a retired machinist with Allis-Chalmers Co., Cincinnati, and a member of Bellevue Baptist Church.
 Besides his wife, Lutie, he leaves four sons, W. S. Clore of Cincinnati, A. F. Clore of Burlington, Edward Clore of Miami, Fla., and Gerald Clore of Burlington; two sisters, Mrs. Sherman Burham of Grant, and Mrs. Grace Rice of Burlington; 13 grandchildren, and a great-grandchild.

Services were held at the 8th Funeral Home, Florence, at 2:00 p. m., Tuesday.

KENNETH R. CONNELLY

Kenneth R. Connelly, 78, a well known farmer, was found dead slumped atop a bale of hay in a field of his farm on the Elliston, Napoleon Road, last Thursday.
 A neighbor, Garnett Harvey, discovered the body at 10:30 a. m., about 90 minutes after Mr. Connelly had left his home.
 Claud Neal, Grant County coroner, ruled the farmer had died of a heart attack. He had been under the care of a doctor for a heart ailment. Mr. Connelly was chairman of the board of deacons of Ten Mile Baptist Church, Napoleon.

Survivors include his wife, Lena; a son, K. Harold Connelly of Elliston; two daughters, Mrs. Harry Waller of Bruce, Miss., and Mrs. Andrew Mack of Mt. Healthy, O.; and a sister, Mrs. Walter Hon of Walton.
 Services were held Sunday at Ten Mile Church, with burial following in the Old Fellows Cemetery at Napoleon. The Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

Plan for Tractor Driving

Boone County 4-H Tractor leaders are making final plans for the 4-H Tractor driving Contest to be held at the Boone County Fair on Friday morning, August 14th.
 Leaders are Ted Cross, Beckham Shields, G. W. Ryan, Junior leader Billy Smith, Bob Hollenkamp, Sam Roberts and Woodford Crigler.

Two trophies and $80.00 prize money will be awarded to the 8 best drivers. The boys will be judged on safety and skill as they maneuver a tractor and implement through an obstacle course.
 State tractor driving champion, Billy Smith, is instructing the boys in driving procedure. Billy will drive in the Regional Driving Contest this September at the Virginia State Fair.

FUTURE FARMER Joe Lutz attended electric class sessions at the Hardinsburg Center. He is a member of the Boone County Chapter.

4-H REBEL RIDERS

The fourth meeting of the Rebel Riders was held at the Boone County Fairgrounds. Mr. Diemar told the riders when to walk, trot, canter and reverse, as it will be done at the fair. Mr. Diemar then lined up the riders for the rodeo parade and they practiced walking the horses and ponies. The president, Howard Rae, called the business session to order, and the secretary, Sharon Tanner, read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved. The treasurer, Debbie Yellon, collected the dues, and the vice-president, Linda Hummel, passed out the 4-H patches for the rodeo. It was decided to have all future meetings...until after the fair...every Tuesday at 7:00 p. m. at the fairgrounds.

Guests were Mrs. Herbert Scudder, Jr., Mary Ann Holley, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Abernathy, Mrs. Charles Tongret, Mrs. Elmer Baute, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Easton, Mrs. Davis Hempling, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hempling, Donald Perkins, Mel Reineke, Mrs. Salsbury, Mr. England and Mr. Siminger.

The Rebel Riders rode in the Grand Entry Parade at all performances of the RCA Rodeo at Latonia Race Track. This was good experience for the members. The fifth meeting of the Boone County 4-H Horse and Pony Club was held at the Boone County Fair Grounds, July 21. Horses and ponies were ridden with Mr. Diemar directing. Beth Stevens gave some pointers to the English riders.

During the business session it was decided to lower the dues to 10c. Afterwards, refreshments were served. A number of parents and other guests were present. The club would like to thank the parents who helped in the participation at the rodeo at Florence. The next meeting will be held at the fair grounds, July 28 at 7:00 p. m.

Free Band Concerts

Mayor Bernard Eicholz announces the August 2 opening of the second annual series of free, Sunday evening band concerts in Covington's Devou Park. The first of four programs will be presented by Bob Roken and the band. All concerts will begin at 7:30 p. m. Following the first concert will be programs on August 9, 16 and 23. The bands of George 'Smittle' Smith, Wally Johnson and Andy Brady will be featured.

County Agent's 1/2 Acre

—by—
 Joe Claxon

Tobacco growers should be alert for buildup of the green peach aphid, a major pest of tobacco, this time of year. These tiny, sucking insects can seriously damage tobacco.

CONTROL: Dusts of one of these—Thiodan, Malathion or Diazinon. (Parathion 1 percent dust also is helpful but is a highly toxic material that only experienced personnel should use.) Sprays of the first three also are satisfactory. Cover undersides of leaves thoroughly with either spray or dust. (If sprays are used, 15 to 30 gal. of water an acre is recommended for thorough coverage). Spot check fields in widely separated areas to see if the aphids are present. They are tiny, green in color and soft-bodied. They exude a honey-dew like substance that attracts flies, wasps and ants, and induce a mold. Leaves attacked by the aphid curl downward and turn thin, chaffy or yellowish in color.

Test fields if temperature is below 80 degrees. If the temperature is above that point for periods the aphids seem to die off. The materials recommended here can also be combined with other chemicals being applied to control hornworms or budworms.

Vacation season is here, and so are the chiggers. Chiggers can cause as much discomfort to people as poison ivy. The red chigger is a mite not an insect. It has 8 legs, is bright red and just large enough to be seen with the unaided eye. Chiggers lay in wait on grass and other plants for a host such as an animal or man, to pass. They can crawl on the body and move about for several hours before settling down for a meal.

Chiggers work their mouth parts into the skin beside a hair follicle and injects a fluid which prevents the blood from clotting. This fluid causes the red blotch and itching bump that is so uncomfortable and which may persist for a week or so. Chiggers do not bury themselves under the skin as is often believed.

Chigger bites may be anywhere on the body, but most are usually on the ankles around tops of the socks and around the waist where clothing is pressed against the skin. Most animals and birds are infested with chiggers. Chiggers even attack cold-blooded animals such as snakes, toads, and land turtles.

To keep them off your body use an insect repellent. Small, unlimited areas such as lawns, playgrounds and parks can be treated with insecticide to eliminate them from the area.

Covenant

Lesson for August 2, 1964

Background Scriptures: Exodus 19 through
Deuteronomy 10:1-16.

THE RELIGION of the Jews is the mother-religion of our own, if we are Christian. Their Bible is a part of ours; and the New Testament cannot be understood apart from the Old. This is not saying we all have to be Jews before we can be Christians.

Dr. Foreman, many beliefs and practices which we have in common.

In the most basic matter of all, the Jewish-Christian line is clearly different from other religions; namely, in what we can call the pattern of religion. Let's translate that into what a "religious" man would be expected to do. It is not true that all religions are much alike. Ours is sharply different from others. What would an ancient Greek (say five hundred years or more before Christ) have done if he were a religious man? What you would have noticed most about him would have been how often he mentioned some god's name, asking him to bless what he was about to do. Also you would have noticed how often he made a "sacrifice" of some sort even if no more than a pinch of incense or a cup of wine poured on an altar. In an Indian city this writer has seen a little stone bull on the outside of a temple. The bull's neck was wreathed in orange-colored flowers — the sacred color there — which various poor worshippers had left there that morning as a religious duty. Very much the Greek idea. The gods were there to help you or hurt you, and you kept them on your side by frequent requests and frequent offerings.

Well, it wasn't only Greeks or Indians, many religions with variations of detail follow this same pattern in essentials: You do right by God and he will do right by you. In practice this was like the ordinary law-abiding citizen's attitude to courts and courtrooms. He stays away from them as far as he can. He respects the laws, but he stays away from the law-makers and the law-enforcers. The last thing he wants to see is a policeman at his front door to tell him the judge wants to see him!

What is special about our religion? Of course the Jewish and Christian religions are not the same; but they do have several points in their "pattern," as we are calling it, which stand out as quite different from the more usual pattern as the Greeks and Indians—among many others—have practiced it. First and most basic, the Jewish pattern can be summed up thus: If I do enough for God, he is bound to do something for me. In the Hebrew-Christian tradition, this is turned around: God has done much for us; therefore let us do all we can for him. In their pattern, religious acts (i.e. acts which are called religious) are inducements to the gods to come over to our side. In our pattern, religious acts are acts of gratitude for what God has done for us. (For the Hebrew the great thing God did was to get them out of Egypt; with us, the great thing is God's coming to us in Christ.)

"The ethics of response"

Another strand in the Jewish-Christian tradition is this: whereas in other religions religious act may be altogether unrelated to a man's daily conduct, in our pattern we show our gratitude to God not only by loving him but by obeying his will in all the affairs of daily life. A man who does not love his brother cannot love God. Man does not earn God's protection and favor, he does not deserve it; but man, the underserving, lives for the God who freely saves him. This is called by Christian thinkers the "ethics of response." The old Hebrew name for this pattern of religious living is "covenant." The Ten Commandments are presented not as arbitrary rules, but as a pattern of human response to the God of Deliverance; in the covenant we reach a hand to the God who has already reached down to us.

The cost of tuberculosis to the American people is approximately $725,000,000 annually.

OUR NEW LAND

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Forty-three acres! How long we labored, hoping someday to add it to our modest farm.

Good bottom land... with a grove for the children to play in, a stream with an ol' swimmin' hole, and rich soil just begging for the plow.

Now it's ours! A great moment... full of promise... fraught with challenge.

Sort of like that moment a few years ago when Peg and I became members of the congregation. Before that the church had been simply a familiar scene along the border of our lives. Suddenly it became our church.

And there was that deep sense of partnership with God... full of promise... fraught with challenge.

There is such an abundant harvest of blessing and happiness to be reaped in life... if a man yearns for the best, and claims it for his own, and is ready to put his hand to the plow.

Enter Food Exhibits In Boone County Fair

Who doesn't enjoy seeing foods displayed at a county fair? What exhibitor does not like to proudly point out her exhibit to friends?

If you are one of these people who look at the fair foods exhibits and say or think you could have prepared something as well or better, why not show us at the Boone County 4-H and Utopia Fair. The date to enter exhibits at our Fair is Wednesday, August 12, between 2:00 and 7:00 o'clock. You may see the different class listings in a Fair catalogue or in one issue of the Boone County Recorder, states Gertrude Paprotta, your Home Agent.

We have had a few questions in the office and comments made by judges that we are passing on. Some canning entries were not considered last year because the jars had not been washed. Jellies and jams cannot be fairly judged on appearance only. They will be opened by the judges in order to see the degree of doneness and to taste.

Some have asked for the definition of quick breads and butter cakes. Quick breads use baking powder or soda as the leavening agent in contrast to yeast leavened breads. The example of quick breads which might be confusing is loaf bread, quick bread, date-nut, banana or cranberry loaf.

A butter cake is one that uses shortening. The shortening may be vegetable shortening, margarine or a mixture of shortening.

All baked goods must be thoroughly cooled before wrapping. Baked goods are judged on cut and appearance and taste. We have bulletins in the Extension Office on making jams, jellies, and preserves; candies, yeast breads and other goodies. Call if you need a recipe. Phone 586-6412.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Mays of Cincinnati, Ohio, were the Thursday guests of this office. Paul West, and Mr. West of High St.

Ice Cream Supper Aug. 8

The Bykota Class of the Walton Christian Church will be serving home-baked ham sandwiches, pickles, cold sandwiches, home-made cake and all the homemade ice cream you can eat at the Ice Cream Social served on the church lawn Saturday, Aug. 8, from 4:00 until 8:00 p.m.

Bring the family and enjoy an evening away from home. Eat your supper with us, and visit with your friends. Everyone welcome.

Kenton County Fair Beauty Pageant, Sat.

The Miss Kenton County Fair Beauty Pageant is to be held on Saturday evening, August 8, at 8:00 p. m., at Simon Kenton High School, near Independence.

A portable television will be given as a door prize to someone. This program has been planned by the Keno Jaycees. You are invited to be present.

X-Ray Unit at Florence

You don't inherit tuberculosis, you aren't born with it. You catch TB from someone who has it. And remember, people of any age can catch the disease. When TB is found early and treated properly, you get well as fast as possible.

On Friday, August 7, the mobile unit will be at Florence at the Health Department for the purpose of taking chest x-rays of all persons over 20. Hours of operation will be from 10:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, and from 1:00 to 3:00 p. m.

To Let Road Contract

Bids for grade, drain and traffic bound surfacing on the Union-Mt. Zion Road in Boone County will be received by the Highway Department on August 21, Commissioner of Highways Henry Ward announced last week.

The project will begin at the Gunpowder Road and extend to the Zion Road, a distance of 0.8 miles. This is one of the state's Rural Secondary program, operated from tax on gasoline.

To Wed August 15th

Miss Pauline Gross

Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Gross of Walton, wish to announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Pauline, to Mr. Dennis S. Flynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Flynn, also of Walton. The wedding is planned for August 15 at the Walton Christian Church with the Rev. William R. Moore officiating. The public is cordially invited. A reception will follow in the church basement.

New Garbage Collectors; To Run On Wednesday

We have been informed that K&O Disposal, Inc., will begin garbage and refuse collection in the City of Walton, on Wednesday, August 12, and will continue his pickup every Wednesday thereafter. Remember this new day.

A City Ordinance provides that all garbage and refuse shall be deposited in 2-gallon garbage cans. Hot ashes, brush and bulky items, too large for pickup, will not be accepted for removal.

REBEL RIDERS MEETING

The sixth meeting of the Rebel Riders was held at the Boone County Fairgrounds, July 28 at 7:00 p. m. The horses and ponies were ridden with Mr. Gobel and his telling members what the judges would ask for at the fair.

After practicing, Linda Hummel, vice-president, called the meeting to order. The secretary, Sharon Tanner, read the minutes of the last meeting, which were approved. The treasurer, Debbie Yellow, called the roll and collected dues.

It was announced that there would be four trophies given at the fair...one to the first place Western horse, Western pony, English horse, and English pony.

The next meeting will be held at the Fairgrounds, Tuesday evening at 7:00 p. m.

Attend Leadership Conference of FHA

Sandy Spillman and Judy Watson of Walton-Vernon High, and Brenda Taliaferro of Boone County High, Florence, attended the annual Leadership Training Conference for State and District officers of Future Homemakers of America, July 29-30, at the FHA Leadership Training Center at Hardinsburg, Ky.

Miss Spillman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Spillman, 15 S. Main St., Walton, is president of the Northern Kentucky District; Miss Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Watson, 43 Sanders Dr., Florence, is reporter for the District; and Miss Taliaferro, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Taliaferro, Greenville Subdivision, Florence, is second vice-president of this district.

The girls were accompanied by Mrs. Shirley Frost of Walton-Vernon, Miss Mary Lois Williamson, chairman, State FHA Advisory Board, Department of Education, Frankfort, gave the keynote address, "Will You Join The Parade?"

One U. S. farmer today provides 25 domestic consumers and 4 people overseas with their total food and fiber needs.

Boone Republican Picnic August 9th

Senator John Sherman Cooper and Congressional candidate, Clyde Middleton, are slated as speakers at this year's Boone County Republican picnic. "Bigger, better and fancier than ever," were the opinions of co-chairmen, Don Brown and Bert Loomis, of Burlington. "There'll be plenty of food and soft drinks for everyone and then some," Mr. Brown said. Mrs. George Morith is food chairman.

The picnic's location this year is at the American Legion Grounds on Don Road, just off State Route 16, between Walton and Nicholson. Easy-to-find signs will be posted for those a little unfamiliar with the area. Kick-off time will be round 2:45 in the afternoon. One of the feature attractions will be a motorcycle, which plans to leave Republican Headquarters in Florence at 2:30.

Republican office-holders and office seekers alike will be plentiful, also voters to meet them and discuss issues and topics with them. Plenty of old-fashioned folk music will be furnished by Walter and a special invitation is extended by Boone County Republicans to all interested Northern Kentuckians, regardless of political affiliation, to join in this great, spectacular annual picnic festivity, according to Charles Wiley, the publicity chairman.

Wilmington Homecoming

Wilmington Baptist Church, at Fiskburg, will have homecoming Sunday, August 9. A basket dinner will be served on the grounds at noon. A roll call of all members will be held at the 11 o'clock worship service and a goal to break all previous records for the Sunday School has been set.

Wayne Adams is writing a "History of Wilmington Baptist Church," which began June 2, 1884 with six charter members, and this is the mother church of six neighborhood churches.

This is the beginning of the celebration of the 160th anniversary. The Campbell County Baptist Association will meet at Wilmington, August 27-28. The pastor, William F. McGibney, invites the general public to these services.

Notes of Servicemen

Amos E. Haley, 25, whose wife Mary, lives at 761 Cox road, Independence, Ky, was promoted to specialist four, July 23, in G-5, where he is serving with the 79th Artillery.

Haley, a rocket specialist in the artillery's 3d Missile Battalion near Ft. Belvoir, ended the Army's May 30. He completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky, and was last assigned at Fort Sill, Okla.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell N. Haley, who live in Independence, is a 1958 graduate of Simon Kenton High School.

Marine Private Jimmy L. Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Crawford of Sidney Drive, Independence, completed his recruit training July 23 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif. Following graduation, he was assigned to Camp Pendleton, Calif., for advanced infantry training.

Change In Services

Services began at Lebanon Presbyterian Church last Sunday at 2:30 p. m. This change was made only for August as the pastor will be absent for two weeks. There will be church services on Sunday, August 16, and the church is cordially invited to attend services on the second and fourth Sundays. Rev. Ralph Hoffman will deliver the message.

No person is as bad as he is said to be, nor half as good as he could be.

A ton of manure is worth about $5.00 in its ability to produce crops. It is usually of maximum value when spread at a light rate of about 5 tons per acre.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. James Hobart Warner of the Wooster School, Danbury, Vermont, announced the engagement of their daughter, Judith, to Mr. Adolph M. Edwards, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Edwards, Jr., of Evanston, Illinois, at a family dinner party.

Miss Warner is a graduate of the Northampton School in Northampton, Massachusetts and Connecticut College, in New London, Connecticut. She is living in New Orleans, Louisiana where she teaches at the Trinity Episcopal School.

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Hobart C. Warner of Sandy Hook, Connecticut and the late Mr. Warner and the late Mr. and Mrs. James Stevens Miner of Port Chester, New York.

Mr. Edwards was graduated from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and is currently serving as an officer in the United States Coast Guard in New Orleans.

He is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Adolph M. Edwards, Sr. of Walton, Kentucky.

Southern States Annual Meeting

Preston Hedges of Union, and Ronald Vest of Verona, were elected to the local Southern States Agency, Lipscomb Farm Supply, at the annual membership meeting held in Walton, August 3. Over 45 stockholder-members and their families attended the session.

Arren VanHorn of Morning View, was named chairman of the Advisory Board, while Wilbur Simpson of Crittenden, was picked as vice-chairman.

Elected to the local Southern States Farm Home Advisory Committee were: Mrs. Charles T. Hedges of Crittenden, and Mrs. Kendall Hand of Burlington. Mrs. Tugate was also named chairman of the Farm Home Advisory Committee, while Mrs. Hand was selected as secretary.

Russell Clinkenberry of Morning View, was chosen as a delegate to represent the local membership at the Southern States Cooperative's 41st annual Stockholders Meeting in Elmwood, Va., November 12-13. Preston Hedges of Union, was selected as the alternate.

There was also the election of a delegate and alternate to a District election meeting to be held in Lexington, this fall. Mr. Clinkenberry was named as delegate, while Mr. Simpson was named alternate.

A highlight of the meeting was the financial report of Southern States, illustrated with color slides and given by Bill Tanner of Lexington, a regional representative of the organization. According to the report, members of the organization in a five-state area put through their Cooperative about $14,000 worth of purchasing and marketing volume during the 1963-64 fiscal year.

Jim Lipscomb, manager of Lipscomb Farm Supply, Walton, was reported on local operations and services.

Another highlight of the session included special recognition of all young farmers and homemakers. Frank Jackson of Independence, a young farmer, discussed the role of "Young Farmers and Their Future in Agriculture."

Kenton Is Named "Disaster County"

Kenton County has been designated by Secretary of Agriculture, Orville L. Freeman, as a "Disaster County" to receive help in restoring land damaged by excessive rainfall or flooding this spring according to a report received from R. O. Wilson, Chairman of the State ASC Committee.

Additional ASC members have been allotted to Kenton County to assist farmers in restoring drainage systems or taking other corrective measures where new conservation problems were created as the result of excessive rains and flooding during the early part of 1964.

Mr. Rector, Chairman of the Kenton County ASC Committee, reports that according to a preliminary survey made in the county, several farmers have suffered from the flood. Much damage has occurred to waterways making it necessary to rework them preparatory to reseeding. Other damage to farmland has been reported, Mr. Rector said.

Measures eligible for Emergency APC cost-share assistance include: 1. removing excess deposits of debris, 2. shaping, grading and leveling eroded or silted channels, 3. repairing terraces, soil waterways, farm ponds, diversion channels, and drainage systems, 4. restoration of stream channels, 5. seeding and 6. replacing farm fence.

Farmers who have suffered damage the early part of this year and need cost-sharing assistance are invited to call at the county ASC Office, Nicholson, Ky.

KLIP KLOP CLUB PREPARES FOR FAIR

The July meeting of the Kenton County 4-H Klip Klop Klub was held at the home of Nancy McLafferty. Forty members rode their horses to the meeting. Each member brought his 4-H Light Horse and Pony Project Book to the meeting and a discussion was held on how to complete the records.

The Kenton County Fair 4-H Horse and Pony classes, to be held on Saturday, August 8, at 11 a. m., were discussed. This year some new classes are scheduled.

The classes for the Kenton Co. 4-H ponies are:

- 1-Pony in halter.
- 2-Horse in halter.
- 3-Pleasure pony.
- 4-Pleasure horse.
- 5-Pony and cart.
- 6-Horsemanship.

This year Rosette Ribbons were to be awarded for the first four places in each horse or pony class. Ribbons awarded by the Danish society will be presented to the remaining entries in the class. Twenty-five cents entry fee will be charged for each horse or pony class.

After the Fair classes were discussed, refreshments were served and the meeting was adjourned.

—DEATHS—

GENE RAY BREWSTER

Gene Ray Brewster, 22, of 222 Mt. Zion Road, Florence, was killed by a train July 31, on the North of Kensington, on the Southern Railroad tracks, according to Boone County Coroner Jerry Rouse of Florence. He was a farm hand and a native of this county.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kimber J. Brewster; his sisters, Rosella, Linda and Brenda Brewster, at home; three brothers, Charles, Robert and David Brewster, at home, and his grandfather, Henry Brewster, of Walton.

Services were held at 2:00 p. m., Monday, August 3, at the Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, with Rev. Ralph Curry officiating. Burial was in New Bethel Cemetery, Verona.

University of Minnesota test showed cows milked four times daily—at six hour intervals—gave nearly 8 percent more than cows milked twice daily.

Grass is the best soil conservation and soil building agent. It makes a farm more attractive and profitable.

Merrian Kerchner serves as a pleasant reminder that Coney's "Biggest Bargain Day" will be Wednesday, August 12—Coca-Cola Day.

And something new and exciting will include one thousand "under-the-crown" prizes. A color television set will be the top prize going to the lucky "under-the-crown" winner. In addition to the Color TV will be 50 eight-transistor radios, plastic picnic coolers, plus rounds at the Shooting Gallery, games of Basketball, Miniature Golf and Fascination, boxes of the nationally famous Coney Island Taffy Candy, plus a free ride ticket with every bottle of ice-cold Coca-Cola purchased throughout the day.

To get in on the "under-the-crown" fun you have only to buy a Coke and snap off the crown to see whether you've won one of the thousand special prizes. You can win more than one major prize, and with each bottle of Coke you get a free ride ticket. Everybody wins something!

Birthday Celebration

Mrs. Ethel Rogers of Walton celebrated her 68th birthday, Sunday, July 26th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Aylor of Richmond road. A birthday dinner was prepared for Mrs. Rogers and she received many nice gifts. Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Aylor, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shields, Walton; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stephens, Verona; Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Jones, Union; Mrs. Esther Fields, Latonia; Miss Jo Ann Shields, Tucson, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Aylor and children, Angle an Randy, Union; and guest of honor—Mrs. Rogers.

Afternoon guest were Mr. and Mrs. George Jones, Erlanger; and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Jones and children, Robin and Phil of Erlanger.

Lions Auxiliary Meets

New officers of the Walton Lions Auxiliary held their first meeting of the coming year at the Cahana Restaurant, Erlanger.

The new officers are: Eloise Ryan, president; Lillian Davis, vice-president; Audrey Matthews, secretary; Wanda Dixon, treasurer. Plans for the new year were discussed by the following members, Lillian Davis, Wanda Dixon, Mary DeMoisey, Olive Johnson, Shirley Johnson, Joann Lipscomb, Ruth Masters, Marcella Messingchager, Mazie Mosley, Helen McElroy, Blanche Roberts, and Eloise Ryan.

After the meeting adjourned, bowling was enjoyed at the Cahana bowling lanes.

Next scheduled meeting is on August 11.

Chiggers Can Be Controlled

Chiggers can be controlled by spraying. But it's hard to tell where to spray. These mites are so small they are not easily seen. And often the bites are not felt until several hours after you have picked them up.

Here's a tricky way to locate chigger-infested areas. It's suggested by entomologist of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Place a piece of black cardboard or construction paper edgewise on the ground, or lean it against a tuft of grass, or fallen branch where you suspect there might be chiggers. Watch it carefully for a few minutes. If you see small orange or pinkish mites moving rapidly across the paper and accumulating on the upper edge, you've found them.

Now spray! If you need information on spraying, you may call your Co. Extension Office, 58-6412.

How to be bright (without half trying)

No question about it...installing an electric water heater is one of the best things you can do for your family's comfort and convenience!

It opens new phases of modern living; makes dishwashing and other chores easier; encourages children to bathe properly.

Electric water heaters can be installed easily. Some models are short and fat so they can be placed in the kitchen as part of the cabinets. Others are tall and lean for use where floor space is important.

Whatever kind you select, be certain it is electric so you'll have all the hot water you'll want...when you need it!

Veterans Administration Questions and Answers

Q—Under the terms of the GI loan benefit, can a veteran mortgage his present home to obtain money for other expenses?

A—Only for home improvement. GI loans are not available to pay doctor bills, buy furniture, etc.

Q—I hold a permanent plan GI life insurance policy. I need money to pay bills. Should I cash in my policy?

A—You should consider borrowing on your policy. You may borrow as much as 94 percent of the cash surrender value without losing your insurance protection. Once a policy is surrendered for cash it cannot be restored.

Q—I was discharged from the service less than a year ago. Is it possible to receive dental outpatient care from the VA?

A—It will be necessary that you file a claim for dental treatment within a year from the date of your active duty. The VA will make a determination as to the outpatient care you may receive.

County Agent's 1/2 Acre
—by—
Joe Claxon

If you want to save yourself some work next spring, apply a soil insecticide to plant bed sites now. Here's what to do: Destroy old plants left in the beds first. Many pests overwinter in these areas and move to new bed sites, or reinfest the same site.

If a new bed site is to be used for the 1965 crop, a soil insecticide is recommended, particularly if sod is to be broken for the new site. Apply the insecticide (granules or emulsifiable concentrate sprays) and then dig it into the top 3 to 5 inches. This will kill insects this fall and prevent large buildups next spring.

If an old bed site is used and it was treated with a soil insecticide in the last one or two years, a new application is not needed. Soil insecticides last a long while in the earth. If the site did not have it though the last two or three years, it may be time for another application.

Planting a cover crop such as soybeans after the soil insecticide is applied is quite alright. The material will not affect the cover crop. See Ky. Extension Service Misc. 551-A, "Insecticide Recommendations for Tobacco Beds," for full details.

Farmers: Be sure the soil sample you take to the county agent's office represents the field or area to be limed and fertilized. It takes time to get good soil samples, especially from large fields, but it is worth it. A farmer that is not willing to spend the time and effort to get good samples should take no sample at all.

A soil sample should be made up of small amounts of soil from at least ten spots in the field, garden, or lawn. The spots should be spread over the entire area that is being sampled. From each spot, take a thin slice or core of soil from the top of the ground to a depth of 6 inches or as deep as the area is usually plowed. Put these small slices or cores in a clean box or pail, crumble and mix well. Take about a pint of this soil for the soil sample. Spread the sample on a clean paper to dry. It can be dried in the garage, in the basement or on the porch. Do NOT dry it in the oven, before an open fire or over a radiator. Once the soil sample is dry, mash it into very fine crumbs with the hands and put it in a paper box or bag. Put your name, address, and the field name or number on it and take it to your county agent. Be sure to fill out the information sheet.

Give the County Agent the soil sample well in advance of the time you want the results. It can take time to test soil. The time will be shorter if the sample is dry, well crumbled and labeled. Take soil samples this fall from fields that are to be treated next spring as well as those that are to be treated this fall. If the fields need lime, apply it this fall. Ask your county agent for Misc. 197 or Leaflet 39 for instructions as how to take good soil samples.

Meals are more enjoyable when you realize an automatic DISHWASHER will do the dishes.

It provides more time for after dinner family fun, watching TV or taking part in community activities.

You also have more time to be the gracious hostess when you own an automatic DISHWASHER.

It uses water hotter than hands can stand... then, dries things hygienically clean and spotless!

Of course, hands stay soft and smooth longer... out of hot, greasy dishwater. And, watch how savings on soap and water add-up.

Learn to Worship

Lesson for August 9, 1964

Background Scriptures: Exodus 25 through 31.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 81:1-12.

FOR ALL that was said in this column last week about the close relation between the two religions, that of the Jews and that of the Christians, it still is true that these two religions are different. The present-day Jewish religious life is strikingly like that of Christians; but the early Hebrew faith was—to look at it—more like those of their pagan neighbors than like the Jewish or Christian religion today.

Nevertheless, even from the ancient pages of Exodus, where first we find detailed directions for the public worship of God, we can learn to worship the Most High. The ancient Hebrew religion was priestly; that is, the offering of sacrifices and leading in all the forms of worship which were observed in Tabernacle or Temple, were not left to chance. The priesthood took charge and took care that all was done in accordance with what they understood to be God's suggestion. To us today this suggests that God is not rightly worshipped if, instead, is reverent or stupid and silly performances. Other religions may go in for bizarre and weird practices such as snake-handling and human sacrifice, crawling on the ground all the way to some sacred shrine, or lying on a bed of spikes; but not the Jews, and not the Christians.

Beauty in religion
Any one with a little imagination, reading carefully those chapters in Exodus which tell of the construction of the Tabernacle, may be confused by details (and sometimes confused by the lack of them); but one thing stands out: the Tabernacle was a thing of rare beauty. If it had been preserved, as were the treasures of King Tutankhamen, who lived about that time, it would have been praised even today as unique and beautiful in a high degree. So today there is or there should be a close combining of beauty with the public worship of God. Shabby ways of worship may belittle a shabby God, but not the true God, who made everything beautiful in its time.

The heart in worship
A boy who joins the army soon finds out that he can no longer do as he pleases, if he ever did. He has few decisions to make. But there is one thing the army gives men a chance to do but will not force on him: namely, to go to church. The army authorities may not be noted as experts in religion, but they do know this much: compulsory religion does no one any good. So it was in ancient Sinai and Palestine; gifts to the Tabernacle and Temple were not forced, but the people gave whose hearts moved them to give. So it is to this day. The humblest and simplest worship services in the poorest kind of church building will have as part of the worship, the offering. (Not "collection," please!—there's quite a difference.) So with all parts of the service. Freedom, including free generosity, has been a part of the worship of God ever since Sinai, and indeed long before.

The glory
It is said that the glory of the Lord filled the Tabernacle, full of smoke by day, of fire by night. Was this a kind of fire you might have captured on color film? Was it perhaps a figurative way of speaking of what is unspeakable, the glory of the invisible God whom no man can see? However it was, it is the glory of God alone which is real. There can be a great deal of the glory of man in worship; members may boast of the great paid choir and organist; they may speak of the minister's eloquence, and show you with pride the spotless modern kitchens; but it is not the glory of man that blesses a church, it is the glory of God.

That Summer Afternoon

I'll never forget the day we took this picture. The sun was shining brightly and we'd gone for a ride in the country, my husband Tom, Thelma and I. We came to this field full of daisies and we stopped, and I braided a crown of flowers for Thelma's head. She was wearing a brand new dress and she had a new little parasol too. I thought she looked like just about the happiest and prettiest little girl alive.

How thankful I was! For our Thelma had just weathered her first serious illness, and for several weeks there had been days and nights of incredible anxiety and heart-rending prayer.

Now, watching Thelma in her new-found health, I thought of our church. Not only our minister, but members of the congregation, people whom I scarcely knew, had rallied to our side during Thelma's illness.

Just having them — just knowing that they were adding their prayers to ours, had meant so much. And now, I knew, they were sharing our jubilation.

How sorry I feel for people who don't go to church. For they miss one of life's great truths — the knowledge that if you have the Church, you can never again be alone.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend service regularly and read your Bible daily.

A Look At
Education—by—
Eugene Robinson

For approximately two years now the school administration and teacher committees have been working toward a goal of standardizing school regulations and policies. During the summer a considerable amount of work has gone into a project of putting these policies into a handbook for the convenience of all personnel. It has been suggested that I use my article for a few weeks for the purpose of allowing the public view the policies. This is what I plan to do and would suggest that readers keep these articles so that they will have a means of making future references to the school's attitude or policies toward certain problems that arise during the course of the school year.

Philosophy of the Walton-Verona Schools. Revised January 16, 1964

The philosophy of the Walton-Verona Schools is designed to prepare students to live worthwhile lives in this modern world. This includes the education of the whole child, physically, emotionally and intellectually. In accomplishing this goal each teacher should strive to care for individual differences, taking the student where he is, encouraging him to work up to his ability and to think critically.

In order to develop responsible citizens who become an integral part of society, the school should stress character building traits, the value of living in a democracy, and good family relationships. A broad general education and skills for earning a living should be available for all.

Every child in a classroom should be led to believe that he is important in the school and is needed. He should be made to feel happy, special attention being given to his interests with every effort being made to keep students in school as long as desirable goals are being accomplished.

Teachers should help students set up and obtain objectives, guiding the student's desire to learn and helping him to understand himself and others.

The above philosophy is the result of many hours of work by the Philosophy Revision Committee consisting of the following members: Pauline Gardner, Julia Kirk, David Mason, Colleen Shields, and Maxine Littrell. The committee involved the thinking of all faculty members and has the best represents the philosophy of the entire staff. The administration feels that in order to carry out this philosophy all teachers should endeavor to help each child to:

1. Develop good work habits.
2. Develop all potentialities of himself.
3. Help develop a fine character with wholesome attitudes toward life.
4. Increase his desire to learn and grow academically.
5. Recognize and prefer wise and just leadership.
6. Learn that discipline is the price of freedom.
7. Work toward the goal for a continuous development by moving at his own rate.
8. Participate in a wide range of leisure time activities.
9. Develop a wholesome sense of values.
10. Learn that "getting along" with other people is a fundamental prerequisite for a full life; to live and work together in peace, tolerance and understanding.

Union Girl Wins Award

Miss Kathleen Noe, Mt. Zion Road, Union, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Noe, has been presented the National Business Education Association award of merit for outstanding achievement by the business education department of the University of Kentucky. She was graduated in June.

Miss Noe was a member of Delta Zeta Sorority, the Marketing Club, Kentucky Student Education and NEBEA. Next year she will teach at Thomas Jefferson High School in Louisville.

Juvenile Officer Relieved

Chester Henderson, 23 Edwards avenue, Florence, has been relieved of his post as Boone County juvenile officer.

A former assistant police chief of Florence, Henderson was appointed to the post last year by the late Judge Charles M. Black. Judge Mary Jane Jones, who plans to appoint a trial commissioner, was told by Fiscal Court she cannot employ both a trial commissioner and a juvenile officer.

Mrs. Gayle McElroy, home economics teacher, presented Barbara with this award, along with a silver spoon of her choice pattern at the school's honor day program. The award is given each year to the senior girl with the highest scholastic average for your years of advanced home economics.

Barbara, an honor graduate at Simon Kenton this year, studied under the vocational course, and was a member of the FHA for three years.

Lions Attend Cabinet Meet

The Lions Club held their first cabinet meeting of District 43-N, August 9, at Holiday Inn, Frankfort. Members of the local club attending were Lou Davis, president; James Lipscomb and Bill Leicht.

The meeting was a great success and was the largest group to ever attend a district meeting.

All of the Walton Lions wish Hugh Yancey, of the Mays Lick Lions Club, the best of luck in the coming year as Governor of District 43-N.

Lion Yancey is a charter member of the Mays Lick Club, a Key member and holds a five-year perfect attendance record. He served as club president, 1960-61, and received the District Governor's Appreciation Award for outstanding service in that office.

The Walton Lions are happy to have their past-president home again. Andy Matthews, who has been working in Tennessee.

New Point Levies
Effective Labor Day

Stronger point levies aimed primarily at speeding and racing violations will go into effect in the State's driver point system by Labor Day weekend, according to Governor Edward T. Breathitt.

"I realize that no enforcement program is a popular program," Breathitt told a recent public hearing held in Frankfort on the proposed changes. "But all of us as public officials must face up to our responsibilities. Whatever price we have to pay in public criticism will be well worth it if even one life is saved."

Major changes in the point assessments are:

Racing (now 6 points); suspension of driving privilege for 90 for first offense, one year for second offense, and three years for subsequent offenses.

Speeding (now 3 points); under 16 miles per hour over limit, three points; 16 to 25 mph over limit, 6 points; 26 mph and over, suspension of driving privilege for 90 days.

Moving violation involving an accident from present 4 points to 6 points.

Passing stopped school bus loading or unloading—from present 4 points to 5 points.

Failure to yield right of way to emergency vehicle—from no points now to 4 points.

Operating a motor vehicle in violation of restrictions (such as without glasses)—from no points now to 90 day suspension.

Attempting to elude a peace officer when making an arrest—from no points now to 90 day suspension.

LEGION AUXILIARY
INSTALLS OFFICERS

The following members of the American Legion Auxiliary at Walton were elected as officers for the year 1964-65, and were installed recently at a dinner meeting at Robertson's Restaurant, Fort Mitchell:

President, Eva Waters; vice-president, Hilda Noe; secretary, Florence Ryan; treasurer, Mary Berkenmeier; chaplain, Georgia Stephenson; historian, Laura Westington; sergeant-at-arms, Doris Taylor.

The auxiliary meets the first Wednesday evening of each month at the Girl Scout room. If you would like to join, you are invited to attend the next meeting, Sept. 2nd.

The auxiliary sponsors socials every other Sunday at the Legion Hall on High Street, the next one being on August 23. You are invited to attend.

Other members present at the meeting were Juanita Glenn, Alice Feldhaus and a guest, Alyce Egan who reported on her trip to Girls' State, which she thoroughly enjoyed.—Reporter

Ferguson To Run
For County Judge

Bruce Ferguson is the Democratic nominee for Boone County Judge.

He was selected last Thursday night at a special convention of precinct committee members at the Burlington Courthouse.

Ferguson, 35-year-old farmer of Union and former school board member, won out over three other candidates, including Truett DeMoisey, Walton attorney; former State Representative Dan Roberts, Walton; and Harold Weaver, a grocer of Union.

Three ballots were taken. In the first ballot the voting went Ferguson, 12; DeMoisey, 8; Weaver, 6; and Roberts, 5.

Ferguson's name was dropped the second vote went; Ferguson, 16; DeMoisey, 12; Weaver, 4; Weaver's name was dropped and Ferguson, 26 to 24.

James Conner, chairman voted in the third ballot so there would be no tie.

Ferguson ran a strong race in the Democratic Primary, last year for county judge. He was defeated by the late Judge Charles Niblack, 2680 to 2482.

Judge Mary Jane Jones, appointed by Gov. Breathitt, declined to be a candidate in November.

GOL BOOTH AT FAIR

Following a rousing annual picnic, last Sunday, Boone County Republicans, eager for victory, will be manning a Goldwater-Middleton-Osterhook booth in the center of the midway at the Boone County Fairgrounds.

Members of Boone County's fair sex will roam the fairgrounds in past costumes as "Goldwater-ettes". A few tickets left.

County chairman, Otis Readour has announced that a few tickets are left for Boone Countians wishing to attend the Republican Fairgrounds to be held Saturday, August 15, at Town & Country Restaurant. The $12.50 a plate fund-raising affair will feature both Sen. Thurston B. Morton and John Sherman Cooper.

Meeting Date Changed

Due to the fact that local Republicans will be busy at the fair, the regularly scheduled meeting of the Boone County Republican Club has been changed from Thursday, August 13 to Thursday, August 20. The meeting will be held at Reckitt, 15 East 15th St., Covington.

Merit System Discussed

The Simon Kenton F.H.A. officers met at the home of June Wagner in July to discuss plans, the regularly scheduled meeting of the Boone County Republican Club has been changed from Thursday, August 13 to Thursday, August 20. The meeting will be held at Reckitt, 15 East 15th St., Covington.

Boone Approved For Emergency Relief

Boone County has been designated by Secretary of Agriculture, Orville L. Freeman, as a "Disaster County" to receive help in restoring land damaged by excessive rainfall or flooding this spring and in re-establishing permanent vegetative cover that was destroyed or seriously damaged by prolonged drought, according to a report received by R. O. Wilson, Chairman, Kentucky State ASC Committee.

Additional ACP funds have been allotted to the county to assist the farmers in restoring drainage systems or taking other corrective measures where new conservation problems were created as the result of excessive rains and flooding during the early part of 1964; also in reestablishing permanent vegetative cover that was destroyed or seriously damaged due to droughts during either 1962, 1963, or the spring of 1964 (limited to 1964 spring seedings).

Measures eligible for Emergency ACP cost-share assistance include:

1. removing excess deposits of debris; 2. shaping, grading and leveling eroded or gullied areas; 3. repairing terraces, soil waterways, farm ponds, diversion channels, and drainage systems; and 4. restoration of stream channels.

For future information, call at the county ASC office.

The nation's natural resources include not only water, forests, soil and wildlife, but also phosphates, coal, oil, iron, zinc, copper, lead, and numerous other substances, both organic and inorganic. Overall conservation was advocated as early as 1873, but nothing was done about it until near the end of Theodore Roosevelt's second term as President.

County Agent's ½ Acre

—by—
Joe Claxon

Burley 21, the popular burley tobacco variety in Kentucky for a number of years, was top seller this season as far as seed was concerned. Burley 21 sales were 24 percent of the variety sales in seeds in Kentucky this season and 28 percent of the seed sales in the several-state burley belt.
Next was Ky. 9, which accounted for 22 percent of Kentucky seed sales and 18 percent in the burley belt. Ky. 10 was next, with 22 percent of Kentucky seed sales and 17 percent in the belt.
Burley 21 perhaps provides more usable tobacco under normal growing and proper cultural practices than most other varieties. Ky. 9 and Ky. 10 are popular because of resistance to many diseases.

Ranking next, after the top 3, were all the hybrid varieties, with 20 percent in Kentucky Seed sales and 18 percent of the belt. Ky. 12 accounted for 2 percent of state and burley belt sales each. Eight or 10 other recommended varieties had the remaining 10 percent of seed sales in the state and 17 percent in the belt. High sale of hybrids was due to the hybrid being new and very interesting to compare with standard varieties; hybrids also probably will reach harvest time earlier than late maturing varieties.

These figures came from major seed-selling sources.

The heel fly, whose eggs laid on legs and bellies of cattle turn into cattle grub, has finished egg laying this season. And treatment to control the grub can now be started. Systemic insecticides are an excellent way to control the pest. Grubs develop in animals' bodies and emerge next spring from cattle backs. Systemics carried throughout the body of the animal kills the grubs before they have a chance to develop.

Treatment can be done from now until late October on native cattle. On cattle shipped into the southwest, treatment date should be before September 1. Materials recommended are Co-Ral, Ruelene or Trolene. The 25 percent strength wettable powder of Co-Ral is recommended, as spray, 12 pounds of actual material in 100 gallons of water. Wet animal's skin. This material also can be used as a backline, pour-on treatment, four pounds actual material in 3 gallons of water or light, white mineral oil. Pour one half pint on animals back.

Ruelene is used in the 25 percent strength emulsifiable concentrate form, as a spray formed from 2 gallons of Ruelene to 100 gallons of water and apply 2 to 4 quarts per head. As a pour-on it is one part Ruelene to two parts of water applied at 1/2 a cup per 100 pounds body weight.

Trolene is a medicated or mineral feed additive. Label directions should be followed.

There are certain rules to be followed in use of any of these 3 materials. County agents can supply these, or furnish producers with a copy of Extension Service Misc. No. 280-A, entitled "1964 Insecticide Recommendations for Beef Animals."

A—No. If a veteran's total service was all peace-time service, death pension for non-service connected death is not payable to his widow or children.

Staffordsburg

Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Reporter

Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Rucker were happy to have as recent weekend guests some 28 members of their family... sons, daughters, in-laws, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. The oldest son, Carl, a minister in Marion, Ind., preached at Staffordsburg while he was here.

Mrs. Joe Sweeney, who has been ill, is improved.

L. M. Deuser and Emil Stein are reported doing nicely.

Miss Judy Rapp entertained the MYF, Sunday of last week, and in spite of the heat, they seemed to have fun.

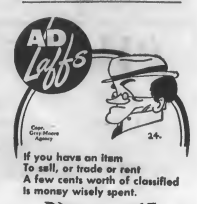

Rev. and Mrs. Roy Hunt and sons surprised Staffordsburg members with a surprise visit, as they accompanied a group of MYF members from the New Castle Church.

We were glad to see Dawson Ballinger out again.

The weather was just right for the ice cream social. We had a large attendance and everyone seemed to enjoy it. The proceeds were gratifying. Thanks to all our friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Carsee Brinkley have returned to work following a two weeks vacation, spent mostly at home.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY BOONE CIRCUIT COURT No. 1952

HOWARD WINANS, ET AL. Plaintiff versus

DONNA SUE BINGHAM, ET AL. Defendant

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Boone Circuit Court rendered the 22nd day of June, 1964, in the above case, I shall proceed to offer for sale on the premises near Verona, Kentucky, to the highest bidder, at public auction on Monday, the 31st day of August, 1964, at Two O'clock P. M., or thereabout, upon a credit of 6 & 12 months, the following described property to-wit:

A tract of land in Boone County, Kentucky, and bounded generally by abutals as follows: N. by the Crandden and Verona dirt road and lands of J. M. Anderson; S. by the lands of J. G. Kennedy and W. T. Florence; E. by the Crittenden and Verona road, and W. by the lands of J. G. Kennedy, W. T. Florence and Crittenden and Verona Pike and being the same lands known as the Charlie West Tract and a part of the Margaret Hanna Tract; that this above general boundary is made up of two parcels or tracts, and one definitely bounded and described as follows: WEST TRACT: BEGINNING at a point in the Crittenden and Verona Pike at the entrance of a dirt road and corner with the Anderson Tract; thence with said dirt road, the same being the lines of the Anderson Tract, S 42 E. 11.50 chs.; S 41 1/2 E. 5.97 chs. to a point in the center of road and corner with J. G. Kennedy; thence with Kennedy's line S 55 W 6.23 chs.; S 1/4 E 11.44 chs. to a stone; thence S 81 1/2 W. 17.84 chs. to the center of the pike and corner with Kennedy; thence with said pike, the same being the lines of Margaret Hanna Tract, N 1/4 E 4.24 chs. N 3/4 E. 15.12 chs. N 3/4 E 41.25 chs. to a point in the center of the pike and corner with J. M. Anderson; thence with the pike, same being Anderson's line, N 34 1/2 E. 6.60 chs. to the beginning, containing 40.65 acres.

HANNA TRACT: BEGINNING at a point in the Crittenden and Verona Pike, corner with J. M. Anderson and the west tract; thence with the center of the pike the same being the lines of the West Tract, S 39 1/2 W 4.25 chs.; S 9 1/2 W 15.12 chs. S 1/4 W 5.46 chs. to a point in the center of the pike and corner with W. T. Florence; thence with Florence's line N 83 W 9.26 chs. to a stone, a corner with Florence and J. G. Kennedy; thence with Kennedy's line N 4 1/4 E 4.24 chs. to a stone and corner with Kennedy and J. M. Anderson; thence with Anderson's line on the north side of an old lane S 52 1/2 E 9.10 chs.; thence S 56 1/2 E 5.96 chs. to the beginning containing 28.48 acres. The said old lane above mentioned is included in the above survey and was received by J. E. Ransom in his lifetime.

EXCEPTING herefrom the following described lands: A tract or parcel of land in Boone County, Kentucky, and is bounded thus:—Beginning at a corner of J. G. Kennedy and McKenzie (now Florence); thence E 37 rods and 14 1/2 ft. to the center of the Crittenden and Verona Turnpike road; thence with center of said Turnpike road S 32 rods and 12 ft. to a new made corner in Florence's line; thence with said Florence's line W 40 rods and 3 1/2 ft. to a stone, corner to Florence and Ransom; thence N. 38 rods and 3 ft. to the place of beginning, containing eight and one-half (8 1/2) acres, more or less.

For the purchase price, the purchaser must execute bond, with approved surety 8% bearing legal interest from the day of sale until paid and having the force and effect of a judgment. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.

Which house has air conditioning?

If you've tried to sleep these hot, sweltering nights, you can envy the lucky folks who have air conditioning. They can ignore the hot weather; dial the spring-like coolness they want and enjoy a night's rest.

Come to think about it, they're not particularly lucky. Air conditioning is now within everyone's budget. Costs only a few pennies a day, thanks to low-cost rural electric power.

Air conditioning gives welcome relief for those who suffer from hay fever or asthma, too. Bring spring back to your home. Enjoy sleeping again. Air condition your home now!

ELECTRIC AIR CONDITIONING

BONUS

RECC members can earn big cash incentives if they air condition now. This special offer expires August 31st. Call us for details.

Faith on Trial

Lesson for August 16, 1964

Background Scriptures: Numbers 11 through 14.
Devotional Reading: Hebrews 9:15-18.

THEY WERE not Boy Scouts, those famous spies Moses sent ahead into Canaan before he undertook to invade the country. We all know about spies nowadays and what they do. Moses' spies, like those of modern times, had one main object: to look at the enemy's defenses and estimate their war-strength. These spies would not travel under cover of darkness, and they had no U-2's to help them. They had to

Dr. Foreman look at everything from the ground level. They would probably be dressed like Egyptians and speak Egyptian. On the streets of cities in Palestine Egyptian soldiers were familiar figures, so these twelve men had no trouble getting in to Canaan or getting out again.

The grasshopper mind. But what they saw! Great high thick walls around every city; tall strong men, prosperity and power everywhere. The twelve men were unanimous on one point: Canaan was a beautiful and fertile land, and well worth taking if they could. If they could! That was where the Intelligence Department split. Big cities, yes; rich country, strong people, yes. But can we win in a war? Ten men said No, Joshua and Caleb said Yes. What the majority said is remarkable. "We were as grasshoppers in our sight, and so we were in their sight." This kind of thinking is called nowadays an inferiority complex, but we can just as well call it the grasshopper mind. If you think of yourself as a grasshopper, it is pretty certain that no one else is going to mark up the cheap price-mark you have put on yourself. Those Hebrews had come out of generations of undernourishment and hardship, and were no doubt little undersized people compared with the big bold Canaanites. So the Ten said, We'll never make it; while only two men had resisted the grasshopperism of their ten companions.

They left God out

This was not the first time, nor the last, that a major move began wrong. You can't find out what is right, you cannot have reliable information about present facts or future policies, by simply counting noses. Fifty million Frenchmen can be wrong, smashingly wrong. The majority report may be the simplest on the road to ruin. Now when a majority is wrong, there is always a reason for it: somewhere. The reason is plain in this case. The reader will notice that the ten No-sayers said only "we are not able." . . . they are stronger than we." The two Yes-sayers said "The Lord is with us; do not fear them." Now all Israel professed to believe in God. It had not been long since they made that covenant with God at Mt. Sinai. But when it came to a pinch, the ten grasshopper men forgot all about God.

Unfaith is expensive

Both faith and unfaith are expensive. The tribesmen to whom the committee of spies reported chose the way of unfaith and they were 35 years paying for it. Now the way of faith is expensive too, but in another way. Unfaith costs success, happiness, honor, and ends in dismal failure. Faith costs the effort, sometimes a heroic effort, to live by it—a faith you cannot live by and fight for is no true faith. But it wins the approval of God in the end. Faith is like a power-tool. A good one may be expensive; but you do not save by taking a cheap one instead. "Quality remains after the price is forgotten." Pay for faith or unfaith you must; but in the long run you will wish (as the Israelites dying in the wilderness no doubt wished many a time) that you had chosen the way of faith. Yet this too is costly; cheap faith is not faith at all. God approves men of courage like Joshua and Caleb; but he does not reward such men by making life easy for them. Odd as it may seem, it is God's way to make faith hard for believers.

Let us endeavor to live that, when we come to die, even the undertaker will be sorry.—Twain

Air pollution can be harmful to crops as well as to humans. In crops it causes poorly developed leaves, flowers or fruits. It can also retard growth and lower yields.

A NEW ROAD

"Let's find a new road!" That's a game we play often when we take a family ride.

These little journeys of discovery have led us to some beautiful, serene sections of our community that we never would have seen if we'd stayed on the busy highway.

At times, life itself can seem like a crowded, noisy highway. The years rush by . . . we promise ourselves that some day we'll take the time to look around us and try to understand where we are and why . . . but worldly interests tend to fill every minute to the brim. We wonder why the pleasures that we work so hard to obtain fail to bring us happiness . . . and we sense that life has a deeper meaning, if we could find it. The Church can guide you and your family to a new, wonderful road. Discover the warm fellowship, the renewed courage, the refreshing peace of mind that grow from membership in your neighborhood church.

20 YEARS AGO

AUGUST 17, 1944

The Boone County 4-H and Utopia Club Fair and picnic has been postponed due to a request by the local Board of Health. It will be rescheduled for a later date.

In recognition of the four square development, David Earl King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter King, Verona, was awarded a scholarship at the American Youth Foundation Camp at Shelby, Mich. The award was made by the Danforth Foundation Ralston Purina Co.

Mrs. J. O. Dudgeon of Nicholson spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Omer Dudgeon.

Mrs. Russell Dearing left Friday for her home in Texas, after a visit with Rev. and Mrs. C. G. Dearing.

Miss Barbara Robb of Oakley, is spending her summer vacation with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Breeden, near Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Winkle attended the funeral of O. T. Winkle on Tuesday at Colemansville, Ky.

Mrs. W. W. Rouse entertained the Homemakers Club at Camp Hutton. About 24 were present. All enjoyed the day very much.

With Our Boys In Service: Edward McIntyre left Tuesday for the Navy; Charles Holder of Great Lakes, Ill., is spending a few days at home; William Cluser, now serving with the United Forces in France, has received a promotion to Corporal; interesting letters received from R. E. Smith, PhM2/c, and Edward E. Eggleson, who is a patient in a U. S. Army hospital in England.

Mrs. Joe Wood, Mrs. David Houston and Mrs. Ed Kennedy were Tuesday guests of Mrs. Marvin Kite.

Mrs. Sarah Nell Sleet and two daughters of Covington, were the guests of George Baker and family, Saturday night.

Rev. J. Russell Cross was visiting with his many friends last Wednesday as he passed through this area enroute from his home in Conway, Ark. to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vest entertained a group of friends at dinner Sunday in honor of their grandson, Coxswain Austin L. Vest of the U. S. Navy, who is home on leave after 21 months of overseas service.

The August meeting of the Business Women's Circle of the Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Ed Hankinson. Members and guests present: Mrs. R. F. DeMolay, Mrs. Roberts Duchemin, Mrs. Lola Mae Bollington, Mrs. Edith Turner, Mrs. Martha Jane Carpenter, Mrs. Claudia Shoulders, Mrs. Margaret Wilson, Mrs. Neumeister, Mrs. Geraldine Harris, Mrs. Blanche Roberts, and Mrs. Lucille Neumeister.

Local winners in the Post-Coppin Better Child Contest were Donna Wright, daughter of Mrs. Sheroid Wright of Star Route, Walton, in the 4-year-old group, first place, and H. C. Wayman, son of Mrs. H. Wayman of Route 1, independence, in the 5-year-old group, third place.

Rev. Charles C. Thompson, minister of the First Christian Church of Murray, Ky., is evangelist for revival services at the Walton Christian Church.

Nathan L. Wilson, Route 2, Florence; Robert Moore, Route 2, Walton; and Verne James of Walton, were in a collision involving the autos of these men. None were injured seriously.

Every lover of nature, every man who appreciates the majesty and beauty of the wilderness, should praise the far-sighted man who wished to preserve our forests... Theodore Roosevelt.

Bookmobile Goes to Prison

REACHING OUT to extend Bookmobile service to the Kentucky Correctional Institution for Women, Mrs. Lonnie Watson (left), institution superintendent, and Bookmobile driver Mrs. Howard K. Lawson deliver material from the Shelby County Bookmobile to some of the prisoners. Forty books will be delivered each month to augment the institution's 700-volume library. During the school year, the institution's teacher will select material to fit the school curriculum. Trips to the institution at Pewee Valley, formerly called the Kentucky Women's Prison, are financed by private donations. The new service adds about 10 miles to the route for Mrs. Lawson of Waddy who has piloted the Shelby County Bookmobile for eight years.

CONCORD

MAGIC IS THE WORD for this jumper that turns from day to night. By day, with gaudy blouse, it's smart for work or play. By night without blouse, the tiny cap sleeves make it just right. The easy, skimming fit of the jumper is assured by Talon nylon coil Zephyr zipper down the back. Remember, fox proper care, cover zipper area with press cloth when ironing. This "Quick 'N Easy" design, ideal for your travels, is made from Butterick pattern #3028.

4-H REBEL RIDERS The seventh meeting of the Boone County 4-H Horse and Pony Club was held at the Fairgrounds in Burlington, August 4. Horses and ponies were ridden as would be done at the fair Thursday, Aug. 13 at 7:20 p. m.

The business meeting was called to order and the 4-H saddle blankets were passed out, and dues taken up. After the meeting refreshments were served. A number of parents and other guests were present.

The club decided to have the next meeting, August 18, at the Boone Fairgrounds, at 7:00 p. m., and you don't have to bring your horses. We are going to decide about the family picnic and the trailride.

—by—
Eugene Robinson

Organization of The Walton-Verona Board of Education

Name of Board
The schools in this district shall be under the management and control of a board of education, consisting of five members, to be known as the Board of Education of the Walton-Verona Independent School District of Walton, Ky.

Authority and Responsibility
The Walton-Verona Board of Education shall have general control and management of the public schools and determine the general policies of the school system of the Walton-Verona District, in the manner provided by law, and shall have charge of all assets and properties of said school system.

Membership and Term of Office
The Board of Education of the Walton-Verona School District shall consist of five members elected for a four-year term, alternating in such manner that two are elected at one period and three at a second period, with an election every second year. Members must be at least 21 years of age, a citizen of Kentucky for three years, voter in the district for which he is elected and must have completed at least the eighth grade.

Vacancies on the Board
In case of a vacancy in the membership of the Board, a new member shall be elected for the unexpired term by the other members of the Board within 90 days after such vacancy occurs. The member so chosen shall hold office for the unexpired term of the member whose place he takes and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Functions of the Board
Elect a superintendent of schools and support him in the performance of his duties; adopt an annual budget for the operation of the school system; consider and pass upon all questions concerning capital outlay, building sites, improvements and salaries; determine the means of financing them; discuss with the superintendent reports concerning development of the schools in terms of pupils, teachers, and other employees, and the needs of the district; consider and pass upon the recommendations of the superintendent in regard to appointment, transfer or dismissal of employees, or other items pertaining to their welfare or that of the schools; adopt textbooks and courses of study upon the recommendation of the superintendent in conformity with the statutes of the Commonwealth of Kentucky; adopt policies, rules and regulations for the administration of the schools; interpret to the public the aims, progress and needs of the schools.

Officers
The officers of the board shall consist of a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

Duties of Board Officers
The Chairman of the Board shall preside at all meetings of the Board; sign the minutes of the Board proceedings; certify transcript of records when necessary; sign contracts made by the Board; call special meetings of the Board whenever he may deem it advisable.

The Vice-Chairman shall, in the absence of the Chairman, exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the Chairman.

The Secretary may not be a member of the Board. He shall be elected for a term of one, two, three, or four years at a salary set by the Board. The duties of the Secretary shall be: Keep an official and accurate record of Board proceedings; keep in careful custody all books of records, documents, title papers, and securities; present to the Board all correspondence of an official nature; prepare for the Board all contracts required by statute upon employment of teachers and other personnel; call a special meeting of the Board upon the request of three members of the Board; notify each member of the Board in writing of each special meeting.

The Treasurer may not be a member of the Board. He is appointed by the Board. The Treasurer shall have bond for good and faithful performance of duties in the penal sum set by the Board. ## Beighle Bros. Sell Local Super Market

Stanley E. Jones and Dale Dowrey have purchased the Beighle Bros. IGA Super Market in Walton, according to a report from Sam Beighle.

In announcing the purchase, Mr. Jones and Mr. Dowrey issued the following statement, "We are happy to be associated with Beighle Bros. and the people of Walton. We certainly hope to continue the fine service and accommodations that you are accustomed to. We plan to make no changes in policy or personnel, whatsoever. Here's hoping to continue serving all the Beighle customers and cordially invite everyone in the Walton area to visit us and give us a chance to meet you."

Jones & Dowrey operate an IGA store in Mason, Ohio. However, Mr. Jones and his family will be moving to our area soon. At one time, he was connected with the Kroger Company and held various positions. Jones is also a Navy veteran of four years. His wife, Jane, was formerly from Bellevue, Ky. They have two daughters, Laura, 7, and Tracy, 5, and a son, Mark, one year old. The family is anxious to get located so that Laura can get enrolled in school.

Sam Beighle said that he would like for their customers to come in and meet the new owners, Mr. Jones. "We want you to become acquainted with him as he will endeavor to operate the store in a manner similar to that used by these past years in serving the people of the Walton area."

Mr. Jones said that present plans call for the remodeling and rebuilding of the IGA market in Walton.

Baptist Convention At Wilmington

The Campbell County Baptist Association, representing 8,807 members and composed of 22 churches and two missions, will hold its 138th session at the Wilmington Baptist Church, Highway 17, Fishburg, Ky., next Thursday and Friday, August 27-28, according to the moderator, William F. McGibney.

Local Church Scene Of Pretty Wedding

A beautiful candlelight wedding was solemnized at the Walton Christian Church by Rev. William R. Moore, assisted by Rev. James Reed, Saturday evening, August 15. Miss Pauline Gross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gross, of Walton, became the bride of Mr. Dennis Flynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Flynn, also of Walton.

The sanctuary was beautifully decorated with four candelabra palms and two salmon-colored gladioli arrangements. Soft organ music was played by Mrs. Harry Henson, organist, and Mrs. Ed Egan sang "Because" and "I Love Thee" before the ceremony, and "The Lord's Prayer" as part of the wedding ceremony.

Attendants of the bride were: Miss Georgia Brooks, Miss Kathleen Flynn, Mrs. Ronald Vest, Mrs. Robert Ryan as matron of honor, and little Miss Lee Ann Scott, flower girl. All were attired in gold satin floor-length sheath dresses with matching headpieces and mitts.

The ushers and attendants for the groom were: James Stephenson, Albert Parker, David Gerth, Billie Cook, Ronald Vest, Robert Ryan as best man, and Master Tommy Farwell, ring bearer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely wedding gown of silk organza and lace with a bouffant skirt that made a train in the back. Her veil was wailelength in tulle.

A reception was held in Fellowship Hall following the ceremony with Mrs. Fred Spillman, Mrs. Merrill Scroggins and Miss Joann Henson assisting at the refreshment table. Gifts were opened and put on display by Mrs. Francis Stephens and Mrs. Ruby Wood. Following a short wedding trip the bride and groom will be living in their new home on New Salem Creek Road, overlooking I-75.

Revival Continues

The revival at the Walton Church of God, 88 South Main Street, will continue through Saturday, Aug. 22, according to the pastors, Dee and Wanda Gadd. The evangelist is Rev. E. B. Martin of Mt. Sterling, Ky. The public is invited.

Opening of School Set For August 27

As has been the case for the past three years the Walton-Verona schools will open on the last Thursday of August with an in-service day for teachers. The buses will make the regular runs on Friday, August 28, and will return the children home before lunch. This day will be used for registration and room assignments. The buses will make the same runs at the same time with the same drivers as was the case last year.

The first full day of school will be Monday, August 31, with school opening at 8:40 A. M. The lunch rooms will be open, and the following charges will be made for lunch: 25c for grades 1 thru 5, 30c for grades 7 through 12, and 35c for teachers and other adults. This increase for the upper grades was brought about because of complaints of not getting enough to eat. It was impossible to give them more for the 25c charge plus 35c reimbursement from the government and a few commodities.

This is all the lunchroom gets on each child to pay the salaries of cooks and buy the necessary food and supplies. The additional 5c we hope to give the children more to eat; however everyone should keep in mind that they are paying 30c for a plate lunch that would cost about $1.00 at other places.

The following is a calendar of some dates that parents and children might want to remember.

Sept. 7—Labor Day, no school
Oct. 20—Report cards sent home
Nov. 13—NKEA, no school
Nov. 26—Thanksgiving vacation

Veterans Administration

Questions and Answers

Q-I am a widow with an infant child. Soon I will marry a disabled veteran who receives maximum pension. How much will his pension increase with two dependents?

A-Assuming the veteran is now single, the maximum pension would be $85 per month if his income was below $600 per year. A veteran with two dependents with income below $1,000 per year would be entitled to $85 per month.

Q-Under the above circumstances, will the VA pay any medical or dental expenses for my daughter and me? If I should become pregnant, will the VA pay the maternity costs, in part or in full?

A-The VA will not pay any medical or dental expenses for your daughter nor you, nor will it pay any maternity costs.

Q-Does a veteran who served between September 16, 1940 and December 31, 1945, earn any gratuity Social Security wage credits?

A-Yes. These gratuity credits amount to $60 for each month of duty, but are not listed on the Social Security earnings record until benefits are applied for.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Boone Circuit Court rendered the 22nd day of June, 1964, in the above case, I shall proceed to offer for sale on the premises near Verona, Kentucky, to the highest bidder, at public auction on Monday, the 31st day of August, 1964, at Two O'clock P. M., or thereabout, upon a credit of 6 & 12 months, the following described property to-wit:

A tract of land in Boone County, Kentucky, and bounded generally by abutals as follows: N. by the Crittenden and Verona dirt road and lands of J. M. Anderson; S. by the lands of J. G. Kennedy and W. T. Florence; E. by the Crittenden and Verona road, and W. by the lands of J. G. Kennedy, W. T. Florence and Crittenden and Verona Pike and between the same lands known as the Charlie West Tract and a part of the Margaret Hanna Tract; that this above general boundary is made up of two parcels or tracts, and one definitely bounded and described as follows: WEST TRACT: BEGINNING at a point in the Crittenden and Verona Pike at the entrance of a dirt road and corner with the Anderson Tract; thence with said dirt road, the same being the lines of the Anderson tract, S 42 E 11.50 chs.; S 41 1/4 E 5.97 chs. to a point in the center of road and corner with J. G. Kennedy; thence with Kennedy's line S 35 W 6.23 chs.; S 1/4 E 11.44 chs. to a stone; thence S 81 1/2 W 17.84 chs. to the center of the pike and corner with Kennedy; thence with said pike, the same being the lines of Margaret Hanna Tract, N 13 1/4 E 4.24 chs. N 8 1/2 E 15.12 chs.; N 38 1/4 E 41.35 chs. to a point in the center of the pike and corner with J. M. Anderson; thence with the pike, same being Anderson's line, N 34 1/4 E 6.60 chs. to the beginning, containing 40.65 acres.

HANNA TRACT: BEGINNING at a point in the Crittenden and Verona Pike, corner with J. M. Anderson and the west tract; thence with the center of the pike the same being the lines of the West Tract, S 39 1/4 W 4.25 chs.; S 9 1/4 W 15.12 chs.; S 1 1/4 W 5.46 chs. to a point in the center of the pike and corner with W. T. Florence; thence with Florence's line N 85 W 8.26 chs. to a stone, a corner with Florence and J. G. Kennedy; thence with Kennedy's line N 43 E 32 chs. to a stone and corner with Kennedy and J. M. Anderson; thence with Anderson's line on the north side of an old lane S 32 1/4 E 9.10 chs.; thence S 56 1/2 E 5.96 chs. to the beginning containing 28.48 acres. The said old lane above mentioned is included in the above survey and was received by J. E. Ransom in his lifetime.

EXCEPTING from the following described lands: A tract or parcel of land in Boone County, Kentucky, and is bounded thus-Beginning at a corner of J. G. Kennedy and McKenzie (now Florence); thence E 37 rods and 14 1/2 ft. to the center of the Crittenden and Verona Turnpike road; thence with center of said Turnpike road S 32 rods and 12 ft. to a new made corner in Florence's line; thence with said Florence's line W 40 rods and 3 1/2 ft. to a stone, corner to Florence and Ransom; thence N 38 rods and 3 ft. to the place of beginning, containing eight and one-half (8 1/2) acres, more or less.

For the purchase price, the purchaser must execute bond, with approved surety 6% bearing legal interest from the day of sale to be paid and having the force and effect of a judgment. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.

CHARLES N. BENSON, Master Commissioner Boone Circuit Court

Fresh Apple Flavor In Cheese Cake

Cheese Cakes rates almost as high as Apple Pie as one of America's favorite desserts. When it's laced with crisp, crunchy tidbits of fresh Washington apples, you've a very special dessert indeed! It's a timely recipe, too, for the tart and tangy, all-purpose Washington State Wineapples are in your market now. Noted for fine-grained white meat, sturdiness and versatility, this variety retains fresh apple flavor even when cooked. The concentrated flavor is peculiar to Washington State Wineapples because of the unique and beneficial growing conditions there. Introduce this new, tangy apple version of Cheese Cake at your next party or buffet supper; it'll be a "rave" dessert!

Apple-Cheese Cake
1 ½ cups fine graham cracker crumbs
1 tsp. cinnamon
½ cup butter or margarine
8 tbsp. sugar
Blend together, thoroughly, all ingredients. Reserve 2 tbsp. of the mixture for crumb topping. Turn remainder of crumb mixture into a 9-inch spring-form pan. Press mixture evenly over bottom and 2 inches up sides of pan. Chill; or bake 10 minutes in a 375° F. oven to set crust.
2 envelopes (2 tbsps.) unflavored gelatin
¾ cup water
¾ tsp. salt
2 egg yolks, beaten
1 cup orange juice
2 tsp. shredded orange peel
½ cup sharp American cheese, finely diced
Soften gelatin in water in saucepan. Add milk, beaten egg yolks, and orange juice. Stir over low heat until gelatin is completely dissolved. Cool. Stir in peeled, shredded apple, diced cheese, and sieved cottage cheese. Chill, stirring occasionally, until mixture begins to "round." Beat egg whites until fairly stiff. Gradually add sugar, while continuing to beat, until sugar is dissolved. Fold into chilled mixture. Whip and fold in cream. Test for sweetness, adding a little sugar, if desired. Turn into crumb crust. With spoon "groove" top and sprinkle reserved crumbs into grooves. Chill at least 4 hours, preferably overnight. Before serving, garnish with Washington apple crescents dipped in lemon juice. Serves 10-12.

Fall Shoe Fashions

Fashion experts say that the use of contrasting textures is the trend to watch in shoe styling this season. In dress shoes, you'll see many combinations...smooth with suede, lustre with suede, smooth with embossed, patent with suede, and so on. For casual wear, grained leather might collar a suede flat or smooth scalloping might be added to a brushed leather gillie.

You can expect a wide range of shoe colors this fall, with such colors as gold-digger, dark brown, berry red, and tarragon green balancing the pale chamois, the chamois and pale golds. Of course, natural leather colors and blacks are always fall favorites. Mrs. Gertrude Paprotta, Boone County Home Agent, says.
Most popular heel of the season is the mid-heel, which continues strong in every footwear category. Heel shapes show great variety, with versions of both curved and straight heels often seen. At the other end of the shoe, the crescent toe is the prevailing favorite. The true rounded toe is seen only occasionally, while the squared-off shapes are used on some casual styles.

In dress shoes, the "open look" continues with slingbacks, strap shoes, and shallow-cut pumps. T-straps or those that span the instep are often seen. Slingers are completely free at the back or supported by narrow spindles. You may see pumps that have slip openings down the front or bare the foot at the side with a cut-away.

Most of the more familiar shoe textures will be used for boots this year...smooth and brushed leathers, suedes, grained and patents, either single or combined. Embossed and printed textures also are popular. You'll also see use of cuts, chains and colored linings, especially in ankle boots and booties.

Fund-Raising Dinner

Nearly 500 Republicans and Republican supporters gathered at a Fourth District fund-raising dinner at Town & Country Restaurant, Covington, Saturday evening, as Senator Thorton B. Morton, Senator John Sherman Cooper and a host of Republican officials and legislators urged support of Clyde Middleton in the Fourth District, and the Republican ticket statewide and nation-wide.

John R. S. Brooking served as master of ceremonies for the affair which was charmaned by Ken Harper.

It should happen every August!

Here's a chilling thought for a hot August day... remember those sub-zero days last winter... and think of the freezing weather we'll have during the next six months!

There's not a thing anyone can do about winter but you can make certain that your family is cozy warm regardless of the weather outside. Install Electric Heat. It's relatively inexpensive; but, what comfort! Temperatures are regulated to "just right" warmth for each individual room. It's so clean (there's no fumes or dirt to circulate throughout your home).

Electric Heat is safe because it's flameless. You'll be surprised how little it costs! Be prepared for winter; install Electric Heat now.

ELECTRIC HEAT

Dependable

Lesson for August 23, 1964

Background Scripture: Deuteronomy 1: 6 through 15
Devotional Reading: Psalm 78:1-7.

A STUDENT waiter in the school dining hall was complaining about another waiter. "He just took off without saying anything about it, and the rest of us had to carry his job. There wasn't time to get a substitute." Now the student who walked off the job leaving the others with extra work, and all without letting any one know he was leaving, may have been a very good waiter. But he won't stand a

Dr. Foreman good chance of being recommended for the job next year, if he keeps up this sort of thing. No matter how good he is at waiting on table, if he can't be depended on, he's not a good prospect. Dependability is what makes all good qualities strong.

God at the center

The heart of the matter, as usual, is to be found in the Bible. Deuteronomy 6:4-7 is as good a place as any to find dependability—not the word but the thing itself—described plainly. What are the qualities of a dependable life? First of all, it is one that has God, the true God, at the center. It is life oriented to God, taking orders from him. Centrally it is a life filled with love for God. This means devotion, admiration and not mere adoration, it means loyalty through thick and thin. Now there were few if any atheists in those days. Believed in God, some kind of God, was to be found everywhere. Constantly, through all their prophecies, the Hebrews were reminded of what kind of God the true and only God is. Inside and out.

The heart—to modern ears—means the emotions. But when the prophet said love God with all your heart, he did not mean love him with all your emotions. Loving God with emotions only turns worship into a kind of binge. The Hebrew word could almost be translated "Stand By"—stand by your God with all your loyalty and all your dedication. The "heart" meant the springs of life, the motives at the very center of a man's life. The point is that in the character of a good man or woman there is an inner and outer side. The outer side is his actions, habits, what we see of him. The inside is what he really is; and if what he is is not right, then what he does will be all wrong. Nobody likes to be called a hollow person, yet that's just what any of us is if the strength is not there, the God-created strength, on the inside.

Weekdays and Sundays
We don't know whether Moses meant to be taken literally or not when he ordered the Israelites to write the laws on their heads and hands and on the doorposts of their houses. They took it literally, anyway, and tied on their foreheads and on their wrists tiny boxes containing quotations from the Law. Jesus rather made fun of this practice, because it had become a substitute for actually keeping the Law. Anyway, one point is clear. The conduct, the habit-patterns, the ambitions, the purposeful actions of a man belong in his head and hands and home. What he thinks, what he does, where he goes—his home life and his work life—should be all of one piece. You can't live selfishly six days a week every week and then break out into unselfishness on Sundays. You can't be dependable as a man and a Christian on one day devoted to goodness. The six bad days will vote the one good day down. People have often tried to divide their lives into compartments, in some of which they could do as they pleased and in others they would conform to what they took to be the will of God. Isn't that in fact what most of us do? How often in the course of an ordinary weekday do we ask ourselves, "What will people think?" and how often do we ask, "What does God think?" What society expects of me may be good; what God expects and demands is good. And he expects it seven days a week.

According to Oil Facts, a gallon of distilled water costs more than twice as much as a gallon of gasoline. Here are representative per gallon prices of some everyday items: gasoline, 30¢ (including the tax); distilled water, 76¢; milk, 78¢; root beer, $1.10; fresh orange juice, $1.90.

THE Water's fine

Last summer she screamed when we took her near the ocean. Now she loves to splash around under her parents' watchful eye. One day she'll be swimming out past the breakers and riding in on a wave.

How does one explain this emerging courage? It is a combination of growth, training and confidence. And no two alone are sufficient—it takes all three.

These three have also their spiritual counterparts. From the day religious education commences, a child begins to show evidence of spiritual growth. This is followed by an aptitude for learning the simple but profound truths of Christian belief and practice. Ultimately we see evidence of a deep and enduring confidence in God—the magnificent quality we call Faith. Then moral courage, true character, emerges in the lives of our sons and daughters.

A vast spiritual ocean touches every shore of life. And those who once venture into the surf are never again content just to loll on the beach.

20 YEARS AGO

AUGUST 24, 1944

An Army transport plane was forced to make a landing Friday in the East Bend Bottoms, near Rabbit Hash. It was set down between two corn fields on the farm of Reuben Kirtley. No one was injured. Constant guard over the transport has been kept by a military detachment from Louisville. Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Watson and daughter, Mary Jo, arrived here last Wednesday from Monroe, La., and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Watson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson, of North Main St.

Mrs. Shirley Bertram and family of Greenville, Ohio, arrived on Thursday and are visiting her sisters, Mrs. W. W. Rouse and Mrs. Ralph Carpenter.

Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Ervin of Versailles, were dinner guests on Saturday evening of Miss Luke Gordon and her mother, Mrs. Estelle Gordon. The Ervins were weekend guests of Miss Mary Rensler and Mrs. Lois Maze. Rev. Ervin preached at the morning service at the local Christian Church. He is a former pastor of Walton Christian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Johnson entertained their grandson, Robert Clark Craycroft, of Cincinnati, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Alexander and son of Crittenden, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Jump and family of Dry Ridge, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dance and son, Sunday. M/Sgt. C. M. Howe and wife of Rapid City, S. D., Mrs. Mary Howe and Mrs. Thelma Smith visited relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Boll and sons, of Batesville, Ind., part of last week.

Mrs. Neal Guilfoyle and daughter are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hall of South Walton.

A. M. Carlisle and Mrs. Wilbur Richman of Madison, Ind., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Carlisle.

Mrs. Ruby Duncan spent Monday of this week with Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hunt and Rev. A. K. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Greenwell of Erlanger, were calling on Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edrington, Sunday afternoon. The Greenwells are the proud grandparents of a baby boy born to their daughter, Mrs. Fred Hamilton, and Mr. Hamilton on August 11. The young man has been named James Robert.

The Walton Girl Scouts are spending their annual outing this week at Camp Hutton on Eagle Creek. The following girls are attending camp: Emma Lou McElroy, Barbara Crouse, Jeanette Grubbs, Margie Carpenter, Mary Yeally, Carol Kendall, Coleen Valandingham, Beverly Pruett, Fay Brakefield, Geraldine Simpson, and Blanche Brittenhelm, troop leader.

Mrs. Joe Ryan and daughters, Nancy and Sue, of Beaver, spent last week with their relatives, the R. K. Newman family.

Mrs. Floyd Chapman returned home last week after spending several weeks with her mother and brothers in Laconia, Ind.

Mrs. J. B. Lanna, Mrs. Arch Noel and Mrs. Walter Brown visited and Mrs. W. T. Stewart in Indiana, last week.

Mrs. Maude Dickerson of Sparta, spent the weekend with her brother, J. H. Vest, and family. Pvt. James P. Watson, husband of Mrs. Viola Watson, Independence, is now in France, according to a letter received by his wife. Nick Welsh is spending a furlough with his mother, Mrs. Katie Welsh, of South Main.

County Agent's 1/2 Acre

—by—

Joe Claxon

United States farmers use almost one and one-third billion acres of land, nine billion man-hrs. of labor and over 200 billion dollars in assets. Together, U. S. farmers own 5 million tractors, 3 million trucks, 4 million autos and other farm equipment worth nearly 20 billion dollars.

At this time, the family-size farm continues to be the backbone of agriculture. And these units are growing and marketing more products. Out of a total of three and a half million farms, 800,000 produce over 10,000 dollars worth of food and fiber annually and 100,000 market more than $40,000 worth. Most are operated by a single family.

Some chores at the burley curing barn are necessary as tobacco harvest time nears. The ripper the tobacco crop is at harvest time, the more usable and saleable it will be at sale time. It will be much easier to cure.

To house the crop properly, clean out the barns. Remove all farm debris (such as manure, straw, trash) and take machinery and equipment elsewhere.

Since burley is an air-cured product, supplying air for the curing process is highly important. Barns should have at least 25% of the long side of the structure in side vents a maximum of 50%. The ventilators, of course, should be closed so they can be swung open or closed when needed. Farmers have discovered that by using the ventilators properly, burley tobacco can be cured much faster and easier.

Beef cattle producers will be cheered by the news that over the past several weeks, cattle prices have shown the first substantial advance in almost a year and most of this increase has occurred in the price of fed cattle. According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, one reason for the increase is more beef exports. The USDA reports that the prospects for exporting a large quantity of beef are good.

Your lawn mower is a labor saver. It saves you time and back breaking work, but did you know that it is a serious enemy of the trees and shrubs planted around the home grounds? Many homeowners do not understand that a plant which has been bruised is as susceptible to attack from insects and disease as a plant that has received a definite cut. Bruises caused by the lawn mower can be more serious than a cut because infestations are often not detectable until serious damage has occurred. Make planting beds for your shrubs in the same manner as beds are prepared for annuals and perennials. Edging should be installed around these areas to separate the plantings from the lawn area. Your lawn mower should be kept sharp at all times. Dull mowers do not cut the grass, but pull it from the ground, giving the lawn a chewed-up look after mowing.

Buckhorn Is Newest State Park Lodge

NEWEST LODGE in the Kentucky State park system is this $666,000 structure with 24 luxurious guest rooms at Buckhorn Lake State Park in Perry County, near Hazard. All of the rooms are air-conditioned and have private balconies overlooking the scenic, 1,230-acre lake. The contemporary-style lodge of native stone and wood exterior also includes a 200-seat dining room, lobby, meeting and recreation rooms, offices, and a gift shop. It is the second State park lodge to open this vacation season, new Hemlock Lodge at Natural Bridge having opened May 30. They bring to eight the total of new lodges, plus two additions, built in the last two years.

OAK RIDGE

Shirley Talient, Reporter

Four boys from our community decided to set out on an adventure before settling down to another year at school. They are Roger Kennedy, who will go to Eastern Kentucky State College in September, Wayne Zimmerman, who will attend Cumberland College this fall, Larry Reel and Billy Lutz. They built a 9x12 ft. raft on eight 55-gallon drums and Sunday they launched it in the Licking River at Locust Pike. They plan to float down the Licking to the Ohio, and then down the Ohio River. I asked their mother how far they intended to go and how long they planned to be gone. She said they really didn't know; they would probably stay with it until their money ran out or they got tired of it. The boys all grew heads before leaving. We wish them a safe and memorable adventure.

Mr. and Mrs. John Riggs spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Heidel.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Frazier of Latonia, spent Sunday with Mrs. Alma Yates.

Rev. Enoch Ortega, Southern Baptist Missionary to the Spanish Speaking people in California, was the speaker Sunday morning at Oak Ridge Baptist Church. He had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Perry and then went to Bethel Baptist Encampment where he will be camp Missionary this week for the Royal Ambassador camp. He was accompanied by his 9-year-old son, James.

The Annie Allen WMS of Oak Ridge Baptist Church met Thursday evening at the church, then decided to go visit Mrs. Linda Heidel and have their meeting there as she was just out of the hospital and not able to attend the meeting otherwise. A very interesting program on English speaking churches in Europe, Asia and South America was presented, after which Mrs. Joseph Wren taught a chapter in the book, "Spiritual Life Development," and the members discussed how they could better develop their Spiritual lives, and the Spiritual life of the church.

The community was shocked by the sudden death of Sid Richardson, last Friday. He died of a heart attack while in the ambulance on the way to the hospital. Our heart aches for his wife, Helen, and his five children as they must face life without the one they leaned on. Those who came out from town to attend the funeral and help in this time of need included Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carter of Melbourne, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Amidon of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Richardson of Indianapolis, Ind.

Mrs. Carl Tomlin and son of Lexington, are spending three weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tomlin while Carl is in Pennsylvania, attending a school.

WHITES TOWER

Mrs. Ralph Howard, Reporter

We extend our sympathy to the relatives of Dora Howe, who passed away recently after a long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Schoberg have moved from the Tower to the Daugherty apartment in Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sweeney and family of Arizona, arrived last week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sweeney of Decoursey Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Shulte of Independence, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Beach of the Tower, have moved to a new house on Taylor Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eghensburger of Latonia, have returned from a month's trip to California.

The Kenton County Fair was a real success over previous years. It seems they are really getting somewhere now, and I am sure a lot of people put in a lot of hard work to accomplish these results. I am sure everyone congratulates them for a good job, and may they grow better and bigger every year.

Joseph Goedde of Decoursey Rd. left last week for Navy service, after a leave for Navy wishes go with this fine young man.

Maybe we were pretty poor in the old days, but at least dime stores didn't have to use lay-away plans.

SUPERINTENDENT—

Election: The Superintendent of the Walton-Verona Schools shall be appointed by the Walton-Verona Board of Education for a term of one, two, three or four years. His term of office shall begin July 1 following his appointment. In case of a vacancy in the office for an unexpired term, the Board of Education shall make the appointment so that the term will end on June 30.

Qualifications: Before assuming his duties, the Superintendent shall present to the Board that elected him a statement signed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction stating that he has been duly issued a certificate of administration and supervision issued in accordance with the provisions of law, which qualifies him to hold the position to which he has been elected. He shall hold such certificate throughout the period of his employment.

Duties and Responsibilities: The Superintendent shall be the executive agent of the Board and shall meet with the Board except when his own tenure, salary or the administration of his office is under consideration. The Superintendent shall be held responsible for carrying into effect the rules, regulations and policies of the Board of Education and shall devote himself exclusively to his duties.

The Superintendent shall have general supervision over the conduct of the schools of his district, including specifically the courses of instruction, the selection of teaching materials, the management of personnel, the discipline of pupils, and the administration of business affairs. In cases not covered by specific rules of the Board, the Superintendent shall have discretionary authority.

The Superintendent shall constantly examine the conditions and progress of his schools and keep himself informed of the progress in other districts. He shall be responsible for the general conditions of the schools of his district, shall keep the Board advised concerning future needs of the school system insofar as such needs can be anticipated, and shall provide leadership for the improvement of the instructional program. He shall prepare, or have prepared, payrolls, all budgets, salary schedules, and other reports required by the State Board of Education or needed for the efficient operation of the school system.

DIRECTOR PUPIL PERSONNEL

Election: Each Board of Education shall, upon the nomination and recommendation of the Superintendent, appoint the Director of Pupil Personnel. He shall be responsible to the Superintendent.

Qualifications: Each Director of Pupil Personnel and Assistant Director of Pupil Personnel shall be 25 years of age or over. He shall throughout his tenure of service hold a valid certificate of service in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education. He shall have had three years successful teaching experience.

Duties and Responsibilities: The Director of Pupil Personnel shall have the following major responsibilities and shall perform any duties specifically assigned by the Superintendent:

To enforce the compulsory attendance and census laws of the state; to acquaint the school with the home conditions of the child and acquaint the home with the work and activities of the child in school; to ascertain the causes of irregular attendance and truancy and seek the elimination of these causes; to advise the parents in school of all children who should be enrolled and keep all enrolled children in reasonably regular attendance; to visit the homes of children who are absent from school or who are reported to be in need of books, clothing, and parental care.

To ascertain and report to the superintendent of schools in the district in which the child resides the number and cost of books and school supplies needed by any child whose parent, guardian, or custodian does not have sufficient income to furnish the child with the necessary books and school supplies; to keep the records and make the reports that are required by the State Department of Education on each child enrolled in school; to serve as a counselor, offer encouragement, and give guidance to young people who need help; to check excuse notes from

ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Spegal of Demosville, announce the marriage of their daughter, Linda Faye, to Mr. Ronald Wayne Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Baker, also of Demosville.

The ceremony was performed July 27 at the home of the bride's parents with only the immediate families present.

The bride was lovely in a ballerina length gown made of silk organza with finger tip sleeves of white lace. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a simple white band of taffeta.

The Rev. W. E. Maners officiated at the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. James Sears, brother and sister-in-law of the groom, were their only attendants.

A reception was held at a later date at Wilmington Baptist Church at Fiskburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker are home to their many friends at 19 East 10th St., Covington.

Have New Granddaughter

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie B. Stephenson of Erlanger, have received the news that they have a new granddaughter, born to their son, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Stephenson, of Trenton, N. J. This is the first grandchild in the Stephenson family.

Boat Instruction Classes

Attendance lists are at an all-time high for the September classes of the Cincinnati Power Squadron. While the majority of the applicants are taking the basic "Piloting" course, about 150 are taking elective and advanced instruction. The Squadron, a non-profit organization, is devoted to safety on water, and has educated and trained hundreds of amateur boatmen in this area. If interested in these classes, call 531-5225.

Home Ec Teachers
Attend Conference

"New Designs for Home Economics" was the theme of the state conference for home economics teachers held at the FFA Leadership Training Center at Hardinsburg, August 11-14.

Among the approximately 300 teachers attending were: Mrs. Helen Blanton and Miss June Goodrich, teachers in Boone County High School, Florence; Mrs. Shirley Frost, teacher in Walton-Verona High, and Mrs. Helen McElroy, teacher at Simon Kenton High, Independence.

Mrs. Blanton served on a panel during the conference, and Mrs. Frost worked on the auditorium committee.

Time was available at the conference for district meetings. The Northern Kentucky District of Home Economics Teachers met and made plans for the coming year's work, under the able direction of the president, Miss Goodrich. District officers assisting her are: Sylvia Hall, first vice president, Williamstown High; Mrs. Caroline Ransdell, second vice president, Grant County High, and Mrs. Frost, secretary-treasurer, W.V. High.

Fair for Christmas Fund

The Ruth Lyons Christmas Fund will have a $5.05 donation added to its cause this year. This was the proceeds of a yard fair conducted by six little girls at the home of Mrs. Nelson Popham of Bedinger Avenue.

For the amusement of some 25 children attending the fair, there was a pet show with Rusty Markers winning first prize. All children received some sort of prize. Four different booths and the sale of popcorn was conducted by the girls.

Those working on the project were Pamela Popham, Karen and Denise Slopach, Evelyn Jones, Lila Black, and Rene DeMoisey.

Others lending assistance were Mrs. Popham, Mrs. George Black, and Mrs. Robert Slavsky. Mrs. Bryan Rector served as a judge for the pet show.

Keep smiling. It makes people wonder what you've been up to.

Bill is named in Libya with the U. R. Air Force.

$50.00 Cash Reward

Chief Charles Worthington of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department will pay a $50.00 cash reward for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who at 12:30 a. m., Tuesday morning, did turn in the following two false alarms:

(1) Reported a fire in the home of Mr. Clemons on Hicks Pike,

(2) Called the ambulance of John Taylor on Catalina Drive.

Any person or persons having any information, please contact Chief Worthington.

Don't wait for something to turn up. Get a spade and dig for it.

LIONS AUXILIARY MEETS

Principal investigator at Big Bone Pike, Paleontologist Lloyd G. Tanner was guest speaker at the monthly dinner meeting of the Walton Lions Auxiliary, held Aug. 11, at Woodland Inn, which was attended by 18 members.

Mr. Tanner is Associate Curator of the University of Nebraska. After the business meeting, presided over by Vice President Lillian Davis, Mr. Tanner presented a most interesting talk and showed slides of prehistoric animals.

The Auxiliary congratulates the bowling team on winning the summer league first place trophy held at Walton Bowl. Auxiliary members of the team are Shirley Johnson, Marcella Messingchlag, Betty Kennedy, Marcella Gunning and Lillian Davis.

The next meeting will be held at Woodland Inn, September 8.

Office Closed August 31

On August 31, the Boone County Health Department, Florence, will be closed due to the personnel attending a District meeting in Frankfort. This meeting will be held at the Boone County Health Department. Discussion will consist of maternal and child health projects as well as the coding system used by the personnel of the Department. The office will be opened on the following day, Tuesday, Sept. 1.

VISITORS FROM OKLAHOMA

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simmons and family of Broken Arrow, Okla., were recent overnight guests of Miss Mattie Hudson.

Mr. Simmons, an attorney and mayor of Broken Arrow, and his family are enroute to Atlantic City, where Mr. Simmons is serving as a Sergeant of Arms at the Democratic National Convention. Mr. Simmons was highly impressed with our area of Kentucky and our people.

Over 900 Entries In Kenton County Fair

The 1964 Kenton County is now history and we can look over the records for the facts. Over 900 entries made up the shows that were conducted August 6-7 at the Simon Kenton High School grounds, near Independence.

Winners receiving special awards were: Kay Cummins, Cincinnati Milk Sales Ass'n award for dairy; Wayne Works, the Trailblazer 4-H Club award for horse and pony project; Karl Wicklund, Kroger Company award for vegetables; Paul Kunkel, Kroger Company award for field crops; Robert Van Horn, Standard Oil Company award for Junior 4-H tractor driving; Warren Richardson, Standard Oil Company award for Senior 4-H tractor driving; Laine Marshall, Kroger Company award for clothing; Allen Wolsing, the American Quincey Cattle Club plaque; Charlotte Richardson, American Jersey Cattle Club award; Mrs. John Belew, National Wool Needlework award.

JOIN CENTRAL INVESTORS

Two Walton men, Howard Brann and Franklin Butler, have joined the sales staff of Central Investors Life Insurance Co. of Lexington, new company, in operation since early May of this year.

Membership Urged
In Band Boosters

September would be an excellent time for parents to show their interest in the Walton-Verona School bands by joining the Band Boosters. The interest and support of each parent or of friends is needed and will be greatly appreciated.

At the regular August meeting, last Monday, six members were present, not very good support, do you think?

Seventh grade band students will be pleased to know they may wear sweaters. The Boosters will buy the letter.

A few birthday calendars are available for those who want one. See Mr. Layne or call Mrs. Jean Thornton, 485-4463.

The Walton-Verona Band participated in the Firemen's Parade in Covington, last Tuesday evening.

The band is an asset to the school and the community that requires work and support by the parents and other interested friends. Be a booster of the band by being a Band Booster Club member.

Revival at Independence

Revival services will be held at Grace Baptist Chapel, Independence, Ky., August 30 through Sept. 6, at 8:00 nightly.

Churches of the North Bend Baptist Association will join in sponsoring this revival. A different minister and a different choir will be heard each evening. You are invited to attend.

Important Dates in the Kenton County Schools

There will be an orientation day for all new teachers in the Kenton County public schools on Friday, August 28, at 9:00 a. m., in the Turkey Foot Junior High School.

A general teachers' meeting for all teachers of the Kenton County system will be held on Monday, August 31, at 9:00 a. m., in the Turkey Foot Junior High School.

On September 1, all Kenton County public schools will be open one-half day for enrollment, and on September 2 there will be the first full day of school. The school buses will run on schedule these two days.

NEED BLOOD DONORS

Jimmy Terry of Old Lexington Pike, Richmond, needs blood under surgery at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, September 21. Before doctors undertake surgery, Jimmy must have 15 pints of blood at the hospital before September 15.

Anyone who wishes to be a donor, please call his grandmother, Mrs. Flora Baxter, 485-4944.

Auxiliary Meeting
At Piner, Aug. 18

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Piner and Fiskburg Volunteer Fire Dept. held their regular meeting Aug. 18 at the fire house with 11 members present.

Ruth Worthington gave a nice report on the Ladies' Auxiliary booth at the Kenton County Fair. It was a real success. The Auxiliary wants to thank everyone who worked at the booth, everyone who donated articles and gave donations. Everything was really appreciated.

The Auxiliary is planning a fish fry, September 18 at the fire house with service starting promptly at 5:00 p. m.

Members present at the meeting were: Leatha Woods, Eula LaFollette, Ruth Worthington, Irene Mann, Christine Tugate, Ruth Worthington, Goldie Glenn, Gladys Colston, Gertrude Marshall, Faye Bray, Esther Glenn and son, Donald Gene.

Auxiliary wishes to thank the firemen of Piner and Fiskburg Volunteer Fire Dept. for building the booth at the fair.

The firemen have a special camp meeting, Sept. 31 at 8:00 o'clock in the firehouse. The regular meeting date falls on a holiday.

Some people argue religion as stubbornly as if they had it.

Veterans Administration Questions and Answers

Q—As a so-called peacetime veteran am I entitled to any disability compensation from the VA?

A—Yes, such disability compensation is generally 80 percent of the wartime rates. However, if the disability occurred under extra hazardous conditions, wartime rates apply.

Q—Are veterans ever required to pay for care received in Veterans Administration hospitals?

A—The circumstances under which a veteran might be charged for care received in a VA hospital arises rarely. It is possible that a veteran admitted to a VA hospital, is later determined not to have legal entitlement. In such a case the veteran would be billed for his care. Also a veteran may be admitted for injuries sustained in an automobile or industrial accident and "third party" liability determined later. If the veteran is awarded damages based wholly or in part on the cost of the medical services involved, the VA may seek payment.

More than 145 million Americans... 77 percent of the civilian population... had some form of health insurance at the end of 1963.

To establish a good alfalfa stand always use a high quality seed that has been inoculated just before planting.

Health insurance coverage increased by 3.9 million over the previous year's total of over 141 million.

Ernest J. Rylo, Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Dameron and this writer, his wife, and son who now live in Florida, were Sunday guests of Bob Mathis of Jones Road, Walton.

The rain Friday, about 1/4 inch, was a great help though not as much as we needed.

Dorsey & Goshorn have as fine a crop of tobacco as we have seen in this neighborhood. Watering during the dry spell helped a lot.

We were surprised to find that there is a big crop of all kinds of fruit...grapes, pears, peaches and plums are in abundance.

The Kenton County 4-H Club Council will sponsor a chartered bus to the Kentucky State Fair on Saturday, September 12. You are invited to make reservations for the trip by calling the County Agricultural Extension Office, 356-3061, or by mailing them to Kenton County 4-H Clubs, Box 97, Independence, Ky. The cost of the round trip will be $3.00 per person. Please make your reservation now as we can take only about 36 people on the bus.

The bus will leave Simon Kenton High School at 6:15 p. m. and will return about 9:30 p. m. If you want to go with your county group, make your reservations early.

To hit the bull's eye, you have to miss everything else.

Mrs. Breathitt to Aid Arthritics

Recent visitor to Frankfort was 8-year-old rheumatoid arthritis victim Wanda Brewer of Morehead who received a personally-escorted tour of the Governor's Residence by Mrs. Edward T. Breathitt. Kentucky's First Lady has been named state chairman of the annual fund drive of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, to be conducted September 15—Arthritis Day in Kentucky. She will head an organization of some 20,000 volunteers, aiming for a goal of $100,000 in contributions during the door-to-door drive in 25 counties. The funds are used to finance therapy centers for arthritics, provide medical scholarships, and research grants. Wanda, the daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Brewer, was treated at the therapy center at the University of Kentucky Medical Center, where she still receives additional therapy.

—by—

Inventory your farm soils with a soil test to determine fertilizer needs. Farm profits can be increased by proper use of fertilizer and limestone. These needs vary from field to field within a farm. Thus a soil inventory is needed to help make the fertilizer-needs decision. Tests of representative soil samples are the best way to get this information.

Some points to remember in soil testing: Soil test results and recommendations can be no better than the sample itself...take samples properly...ask for instructions on getting soil samples; give information on past fertilization and cropping...this information along with soil test results is essential for the best recommendations...Boone County soil testing laboratory will determine lime, phosphate and potash needs...at present, nitrogen determination systems are not considered satisfactory...that's why past cropping history is so important a part of soil testing; give information on physical properties of soils...they influence responses to fertilizer and limestone; get representative samples from each field to be fertilized; fall sampling is as good as spring sampling...there isn't enough difference between the two to make any difference in fertilizer recommendations; use a soil test to see what you need or what you do not need. Don't guess, it could cost you money either way.

Another treatment against the sod webworm soon will be due. This pest is the larvae of the lawn moth. Damage is caused by feeding of the larvae on grass blades. It shows up as small dead patches in lawns. There are about three generations a year in Kentucky. Lawn moths are active now, which means another treatment (the last this year) probably will be due about mid-September. The 30 percent strength wettable powder of Sevin is recommended at 2 cupsful of material per 1,000 sq. ft. of lawn in 2 gallons of water. Also useful is Diazinon, wettable powder or liquid concentrate, and follow label directions. After spraying grass, wash the material off the blades with a light hosing or sprinkling to get the insecticide to ground line where the larvae live but do not try to soak it into the ground. If diazinon is used, keep children and pets off grass until the grass is dry.

Insects that attack stored grain can be a big problem. Control of these pests is a must for farmers. Here's how to do it: Clean all storage areas of grain left over from the previous crops...that's because this old grain may harbor large numbers of insects that will be glad to attack your newest crop too; after bins, etc. are swept clean, use premium grade 57 percent strength emulsifiable concentrate Malathion...use 1 gallon of this concentrate in 25 gallons of water...spray all surfaces to the runoff point, being sure to force spray into cracks and crevices; make sure the bin areas and adjacent areas stay clean, to keep insects from getting into the new crop.

We Couldn't Have Any Finer Officials than We Already Have in the Court House.

That's right. Don't you believe it too? After all, that's what they have been telling us in song and story for a good while in Boone County. They've been telling it so long they must have convinced everyone by now how infallible they are. They are dedicated men and women who have given us one of the cleanest counties in the commonwealth, but this is only a drop in the bucket compared to their infinite wisdom on other matters. For instance, they appoint commissions on water, roads, zoning, planning, and all sorts of wonderful projects. Some commissions have been in existence for 20 years or better. But do these commissions go to work and spend our tax dollars? Not on your life! Why get things stirred up? To have these commissions in action would just cause confusion and bustle. What perfect reasoning this is! After all, if we had a county water system, or outstanding county roads, or proper zoning plans, or fine schools, people would just get impatient for other improvements, like industry, park systems, youth programs, hospitals, and things like that. Consider how capably they've handled the voting problem. It doesn't matter so much that a husband votes in one precinct and that his wife votes in another. This shows what a magnificently flexible system we have! And we have nothing but our understanding officials in the court house to thank for this. Naturally, sometimes things become so confused that a voter wishing to alter his registration has to seek legal counsel before he is permitted to change. But this is the problem of the voter not the Court House official. After all, giving a voter the choice of voting party candidates from two parties only creates problems. Two parties aren't necessary in our Boone County paise. And consider yourself the good fortune we have with tax assessment. By judiciously taxing some properties to excess, and others willy-nilly, they not only have caused certain parties to leave the county, but have prevented others from taking up residence. This is wisdom of the most sublime order, for it rids the county of potential trouble-makers. It keeps away those who might find fault!

It is wonderful, too, how most—if not all—of our highly regarded county officials are directors of the county banks. This enables them to wisely watch over the county tax monies deposited there in. Of course, by being directors, this enables them to control the money, and of course, we know without saying what money controls! But by having such wise, wonderful men in office we wouldn't dare imply that they would ever think of using such power or pressure indiscreetly.

Yes, we have fine officials in Boone County. We can't find a thing wrong with any of them. It is only when we have progress, up-to-date methods, active commissions, and positive thinking that we find things wrong with people. Fortunately, none of our county officials has this shortcoming. They preside over a Utopian system that has no problems simply because it isn't going anywhere. We can only stand in awe of their masterful handling of the status quo.

We must admit, we can find no fault with the officials in the Boone County Court House. They are perfect in every respect. And they handle things so well, we don't even have to bother them about it. They say so themselves repeatedly.

We Republicans cannot offer such outstanding public officials. We admit our men make mistakes sometimes and need supervision and advice from the voters. If we were to start sensible programs in Boone County, there might be questions that would have to be answered.

We are not infallible; we might have to replace men now on commission with men who might try to accomplish something. We would surely be faced with difficult problems in improving our county jail, setting up a just juvenile program, instituting measures for county parks, water systems, industrial sites, and the like. Republican officials would have to work hard in the interest of the county. This would be their fault for supporting progress and building the County. This would be their fault for initiating action itself, instead of prospective action.

Instead of gathering in a group behind closed doors to decide what is best for the County, Republican officials would have to get opinions from the farmer, the laborer, the businessman, and the housewife before making final decisions. As we say, our men aren't perfect; only hardworking, sincere, and wanting to do the job. It's too bad our workers would have to look for the answers, instead of knowing all the answers. The people of the county have the choice, this year and next, of registering and voting for the perfect man in the Court House today, or for imperfect, but able discerning men with goals and visions who call themselves Republicans.

Staffordsburg

Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Reporter

A wedding of local interest was solemnized in Western Kentucky, Saturday, Aug. 15, when Miss Mary Anne Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Bennett, of Fulton, Ky., was united in marriage to Capt. Robert H. Lindsey, U. S. Army, son of Col. and Mrs. Julian B. Lindsey, retired, Washington, D. C. It was a beautiful wedding in the First Christian Church of Fulton. Miss Bennett had attended a Mississippi college but graduated from the University of Kentucky. She was a member of the National Honor Society and Pi Beta Pi. Capt. Lindsey, a graduate of West Point, is at present teaching Military Science at Kentucky Military Institute. Miss Bennett's grandparents, well known here, were the late Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Richardson. Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Richardson, Miss Helen Richardson, Mrs. George Fimmell, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Richardson of Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sweeney of near Phoenix, Ariz., have been visiting relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Henry of Miami, Fla., spent some time here recently visiting relatives. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rapp one evening. They said farewell at a supper at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Blader.

Miss Emma Yates spent several days recently with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Smith, near Louisville.

Mrs. John Klette and mother, Mrs. J. A. Keeney, visited in Lebanon, Ohio, one day recently. They stopped in Reading to call on Mrs. Mabel Gatewood. They also stopped to see Mrs. T. B. Stephens of Ft. Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Lathan Brinkley and family, who had spent the summer in Oregon, where they had considered making their home, returned here last week.

The WSCS met with Mr. and Mrs. David Kennedy. Mrs. Geo. Fimmell, Jr. was program chairman. The subject, "Problems of the City." Refreshments were served to some 12 members and guests. The September meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. John Shaw.

BIRTHS

A/3c and Mrs. Ronald Beach have announced the birth of a baby boy, August 10, at Grand Forks (North Dakota) Air Base Hospital. The baby weighed nine pounds and has been named Ronald Edward. Mr. and Mrs. Beach also have a daughter, Bonita.

20 YEARS AGO

AUGUST 31, 1944

The transport plane that was forced down last week near Rabbit Hash, was dismantled, loaded on large trucks and came through Walton, headed for the air field in Louisville.

Dr. R. E. Ryle, prominent local physician, died Tuesday evening of a heart attack after several months illness.

The youth of Walton, supported by adult leaders, are in the process of forming a youth caucen. The youth council met and elected the following officers: Blanche Brittenhelm, president; Jack Hughes, vice president; Beverly Pruett, secretary, and Ernestine Webster, treasurer. The adult council will work with this group in setting up rules and regulations. They plan to rent the room over the Community Public Service office as a club room and will sponsor recreation of all kinds for the young people of Walton.

The new Walton Stock Yards opened Tuesday with an attendance of about 1,500 people and some 1,000 head of stock was sold with prices ranging high.

Boone County growers have completed the harvesting of a reported 11,000-bushel peach crop, according to the County Agent's office.

With Our Boys in Service: Pvt. Franklin Breeden of Washington, D. C., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Breeden, South of Walton; Sgt. Richard Lee Jones of the U. S. Marines, has arrived in the states after over two years in North Ireland; Harold Wilson, who serves with the Merchant Marines, is home on furlough after trips to North Africa and Liverpool, England...he visited his brother, Lawrence Wilson, of Nicholson Road; word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Stephens of Independence, that their son, S/Sgt. Harold A. Stephens of the Marines has recently been promoted to that rank at El Torro Marine Corps Station in California; Ensign Charles Ransler arrived home for a brief leave after four months service aboard a destroyer; John D. Breeden, Aviation Machinist Mate of the U. S. Navy, and his wife, of Deland, Fla., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Breeden of Walton and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Colclough of Independence.

A surprise birthday dinner was given Mrs. Sam Winkle, Saturday, by her sisters. The following relatives were present: Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lay and children of Ludlow, Mr. and Mrs. Warner Hughes of Cincinnati, Norman Howard of Norwood, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Kilgore and son of Cleves.

Miss Mildred Soden of Covington, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Soden of Nicholson Road.

Mrs. Mary Howe and Mrs. Thelma Smith entertained on Wednesday for Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Howe of Williamstown, N.Y. Mrs. C. M. Howe and wife of Rapid City, S. D., and Glenna and Betty Northcutt.

Mrs. Flossie Smith of LaGrange, spent the weekend with Mrs. Mable Webster and Ernestine.

Mrs. Margaret Wilson, Mrs. John Hanks, and Margaret Hanks are teaching Bible School at Zion Baptist Church.

Mrs. Helen Wesselman and son, Billy, were killed in an explosion that occurred in the cellar of the Wesselman home on Pelly Road, Independence, last Tuesday afternoon.

TAYLOR MILL

Ernest J. Ryle, Reporter

The writer and wife had as recent Sunday guests, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Jones and children, Mrs. Frank Biddle and Mrs. Carl Mockbee and children of Covington. Mr. and Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Biddle are now residents of Burlington.

Garnet (Bud) Ryle came in from in Naples, Fla., recently for a two weeks business trip to Cincinnati. He is spending his weekends with relatives in Independence, Covington and Erlanger.

This community was shocked and saddened by the sudden death of Russell Richardson. We join with his many friends in extending heartfelt sympathy to his family. Mrs. Inabell's sister has left for her home in California. Mrs. Inabell does not improve as fast as her many friends would wish.

We don't understand it, but there seems to be plenty of fruit this year. The writer wants his friends to know that he has bushels of grapes and they are excellent. We also have plenty late tomatoes.

MORNING VIEW

Heiden Dance, Reporter

I wish to extend my hearty thanks in behalf of the MYF of Morning View Methodist Church for the large turnout which made our ice cream social a success.

Each one of us should unite together in thankfulness for the rain which has bathed our earth at this time. Not only does it help our crops and gardens but it also refreshes each one of us and makes us ready to face a new week with renewed vigor. So, once more I ask each one to send prayers of thanks for this blessing bestowed upon us.

Rev. Joseph Daley of Morning View Church, has recently been visiting the members of the community. He urges each one of you to attend the church of your choice, whether Morning View or another.

We are most happy to hear that Mrs. Ray Cheesman is feeling better after her recent illness. After staying in bed for such a long time it is most gratifying to see her up and about once more.

We wish to congratulate Miss Joann Rust and Gregory Larson on their recent engagement. I'm sure each person wishes them the all good luck and happiness in the world.

Although these are late, I announce the birth of a boy, Joseph, to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cheesman; also, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cheesman recently became the parents of a girl, Sandra Yvonne.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gilbert, Debbie, Danny and Donna returned from their vacation in Virginia, August 15. Miss Janet Held accompanied them. It must have been a pleasurable trip, especially since the weather has been so nice and cool.

Miss Anna Mae Dance of Cynthia, Mrs. Oma Dance, her children, Beverly, Arvin and Donnie, of Louisville, and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Cox of Frankfort, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dance a few days last week.

Thought for the Week: Don't brag about tomorrow for we don't know what tomorrow holds.

Do you have news you wish to be printed in the Morning View column? Call 358-4864 before 8:30 p. m. Thank you.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY BOONE CIRCUIT COURT NOTICE OF SALE HOWARD WINANS, ET AL. Plaintiff VERSUS DONNA SUE BINGHAM, ET AL. Defendant

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Boone Circuit Court rendered the 22nd day of June, 1964, in the above case, I shall proceed to offer for sale on the premises near Verona, Kentucky, to the highest bidder, at public auction on Monday, the 31st day of August, 1964, at Two O'clock P. M., or thereabout, upon a credit of 6 & 12 months, the following described property to-wit:

A tract of land in Boone County, Kentucky, and bounded generally by abutals as follows: N. by the Crittenden and Verona dirt road and lands of J. M. Anderson; S. by the lands of J. G. Kennedy and W. T. Florence; E. by the Crittenden and Verona road, and W. by the lands of J. G. Kennedy, W. T. Florence and Crittenden and Verona Pike and being the same lands known as the Charlie West Tract and a part of the Margaret Hanna Tract; that this above general boundary is made up of two parcels or tracts, and one definitely bounded and described as follows: WEST TRACT: BEGINNING at a point in the Crittenden and Verona Pike at the entrance of a dirt road and corner with the Anderson Tract; thence with said dirt road, the same being the lines of the Anderson tract, S 42° E. 11.50 chs.; S 41 1/4° E. 5.97 chs. to a point in the center of road and corner with J. G. Kennedy; thence with Kennedy's line S 55° W 6.23 chs.; S 1/2° E 11.44 chs. to a stone; thence S 81 1/2° W. 17.84 chs. to the center of the pike and corner with Kennedy; thence with said pike, the same being the lines of Margaret Hanna Tract, N 134° E 4.24 chs. N 9 1/2° E. 15.12 chs.; N 39 1/2° E 41.25 chs. to a point in the center of the pike and corner with J. M. Anderson; thence with the pike, same being Anderson's line, N 34 3/4° E 6.60 chs. to the beginning, containing 40.65 acres.

HANNA TRACT: BEGINNING at a point in the Crittenden and Verona Pike, corner with J. M. Anderson and the west tract; thence with the center of the pike the same being the lines of the West Tract, S 39 1/2° W 4.23 chs.; S 9 1/2° W 15.12 chs.; S 134° W 5.46 chs. to a point in the center of the pike and corner with W. T. Florence; thence with Florence's line N 85° W 9.26 chs. to a stone, a corner with Florence and J. G. Kennedy; thence with Kennedy's line N 4 1/2° E 32 chs. to a stone and corner with Kennedy and J. M. Anderson; thence with Anderson's line on the north side of an old lane S 52 1/2° E 9.10 chs.; thence S 58 1/2° E 5.96 chs. to the beginning containing 28.48 acres. The said old lane above mentioned is included in the above survey and was received by J. E. Ransom in his lifetime.

EXCEPTING therefrom the following described lands: A tract or parcel of land in Boone County, Kentucky, and is bounded thus—Beginning at a corner of J. G. Kennedy and McKenzie (now Florence); thence E 37 rods and 14 1/2 ft. to the center of the Crittenden and Verona Turnpike road; thence with center of said Turnpike road S 32 rods and 12 ft. to a new made corner in Florence's line; thence with said Florence's line W 40 rods and 3 1/2 ft. to a stone, corner to Florence and Ransom; thence N. 38 rods and 3 ft. to the place of beginning, containing eight and one-half (8 1/2) acres, more or less.

For the purchase price, the purchaser must execute bond, with approved surety 6% bearing legal interest from the day of sale until paid and having the force and effect of a judgment. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.

Promised Land Lesson for August 30, 1964

Background Scriptures: Deuteronomy 34; Joshua 1 through 6; 11:14 through 24:29; Devotional Reading: Isaiah 74:1-15.

"PROMISED LAND"—what does that suggest to most people who read or hear the words? To many it suggests a land of rest, a perfect paradise, the Utopia, the never-never land of heart's desire. This was not the original meaning at all. It referred to a definite area on the surface of this planet, about the size of the state of Vermont, land which most American farmers would consider far from the best.

Dr. Foreman, a land without good roads, a land of very crude culture compared with our own. It was promised to a rather unpromising set of desert tribes, children of slaves. They needed a place in the sun, and the Promised Land was it.

The land is still there, much changed, with the dust of centuries of misuse thick upon it, and yet a land which today is beginning to blossom again. The Israelites began to edge their way in. It was a fresher land than now. There were forests in which men might be lost, there were clear streams, there were wild beasts such as lions. Parity, it is still there. You can buy a ticket to places in it. Some of the towns mentioned in the Bible are still in existence. This writer has telephoned to Jerusalem from the top of Mt. Carmel. You can drive the length of the whole ancient kingdom of the ten tribes in an afternoon. But while the centuries have made many differences, and the wars and neglects of men have damaged the land in many ways, the Promised Land is still there, with the same rivers and mountains, desert and seacoast that were there when Joshua was fighting his way in. One notable difference between those days and these is that instead of being split into dozens of tiny city-states, each city almost a nation to itself, there are now only two, Israel and Jordan.

Conquest
 Palestine is not now a peaceful country, it almost never was. If Jew and Arab are at each other's throats today, they are only stepping up with an ancient tradition. Joshua found the cities of the land in league against him, but if they had not been warring him they would have been fighting each other. This brings up an old question. Today wars of extermination are regarded by all the world as criminal. We have a name for what Joshua tried to do: genocide, the complete slaughter of a nation. Can we today approve of genocide when Joshua committed it (or tried to—the attempt was not wholly successful), while thinking of it as a horrible crime today? One thing we can say: A Christian, even a non-Christian in a world which has long had the influence of Christianity, has a light which Joshua did not have. Joshua had never heard of the Sermon on the Mount.

In song and story
 The "Promised Land" has captured the imagination of people who make poetry out of history. The conquest of Canaan has been idealized, romanticized, spiritualized, out of all resemblance to its actuality. One of the oddest uses of the historical conquest by the Israelites is to take Jordan as a symbol of death, and Canaan (the Promised Land) as a type of heaven. Considering the bloody cruel ugliness of what actually went on, one hopes that heaven is not like what the Hebrews found and did in the Promised Land! It would be better to take those wars as an example of how God can bring good out of evil, using "the wrath of men to praise him." Let us be grateful that victory came not to the sprawling tribes who worshipped animals, but to a people who for all their faults and sins still were aware of a God of purity and justice; a God of truth, King of all the Kings and Kinglets of this earth.

There is nothing as strong as simple truth.

Sometimes the future looks black; we can't see a glimmer of light anywhere . . . and we ask for help without really expecting an answer. But we're wrong. Even that small word, "help" means that we have realized our own inadequacy and turned to Something outside ourselves for guidance.

Called, or not called, "God is an ever-present help in trouble." And whenever we ask Him to intervene, our lives are filled with new hope and inspiration.

He does not ask us to worry about the future. In fact, He doesn't intend us to worry at all. Worry indicates uncertainty and fear, and these have no place in Christian living.

Perhaps you are thinking "That takes greater faith than I'll ever have!" But you forget God's help. Perfect trust . . . serene peace of mind . . . these are your birthright. And your Church will teach you to attain them.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
 ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest force on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Register, Republicans Urge

"No matter how strong a person's political convictions are this November, they won't do him or her a bit of good on November 3 if not registered," said William Tanner, secretary of the Boone County Republican Committee.

The county clerk's office has permitted registration to be carried on in Florence for one day prior to the closing of the books. Check your paper or call the court house for proper information concerning the hours. Only residents of Florence precincts may register at this time. The rest of the county must go to the Court House in Burlington.

Those unable to get there themselves during office hours may call the following numbers for transportation, courtesy of the Republican Club of Boone County: William Tanner (Devon) 282-1252; Mrs. Richard Fowell (Florence) 282-2428; Bert Loomis (Burlington) 586-6533; Orl Readmon (Walton) 485-4732, or Mrs. Ethel Daugherty (Union) 354-3531.

ENJOY WEEK'S VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ryan and sons and Mrs. Florence Mullins spent last week vacationing at Kentucky Dam Village and other places of interest enroute. They saw two outdoor plays, "Stars In My Crown" and "The Stephen Foster Story" while on their trip.

Scarlet Gate, near Lexington, was the home of the famous author, James Lane Allen.

Health insurance benefits in 1963 were up 10.2 percent over the '62 total.

A Look At
Education—by—
Eugene Robinson

PRINCIPALS

Election: The Board, upon the recommendation of the Superintendent, shall appoint such principals as may be required in the various schools.

Qualifications: To be qualified for a principalship, it is necessary that a legal certificate in administration be held.

Duties and Responsibilities: The Principal, under the supervision of the Superintendent, shall be responsible for the general management and discipline of his school and for the care and use of the building, grounds, and all equipment.

The Principal shall supervise and evaluate the work of the teachers and non-teaching personnel assigned to his building and shall assign certain duties and responsibilities to his personnel and see that such are properly performed.

It is the responsibility of the Principal to secure a certified substitute selected from the list given by the Board.

The Principal shall see that all records and reports for his school are accurately and fully kept and is responsible for checking teachers' registers for accuracy and completeness.

The Principal shall see that all rules and regulations are enforced in his building by supervising all school activities and shall conduct periodic fire drills in his school.

The Principal shall be responsible for the management of all public funds handled in the school and shall make monthly financial reports to the Superintendent of Schools.

The Principal shall confer with the Superintendent concerning the recommendation of personnel for re-election in the school.

Principals may suspend pupils from school for a three-day period for misconduct and recommend pupils for expulsion to the Superintendent of Schools.

The Principal shall cooperate with the Director of Pupil Personnel in enforcing laws and regulations pertaining to the school census and attendance.

All purchase made by the Principal, to be paid for by the Board of Education, shall be made only after discussing the purchase with the Superintendent and after he has approved.

The Principal shall be responsible for all purchases and for debts made by his school. All personnel and departments will get the Principal's approval before making any purchases.

Birthday Calendars

The Band Boosters still have some Birthday Calendars on hand. They fear maybe someone who has ordered a calendar has failed to receive one. Please contact James Layne or Mrs. Nell Jean Thornton, 485-4463, if you have not received your calendar or if you want to get one. The price is 50c and this money goes to support the band in the local school.

Celebrates Birthday

A birthday supper for Virgil (Bud) Young was enjoyed by Mrs. Grover Young, Mildred Cook, Layna, Dayne, Nadine and Mi-lynda Cheesman, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Young, and Allen Broadbent at Young's Boat Dock on Williams-town Lake. After a birthday cake and home-made ice cream, a boat ride was enjoyed by all.

Executive Board to Meet

The 1964-65 Executive Board of the Simon Kenton High School P. T. A. will be held Tuesday, Sept. 8 at 1:30 p. m. in the office at Simon Kenton High School. Plans for the coming year are to be made at this time.

Officers were installed at the May, 1964 meeting of the P. T. A. by the president of the Kenton County Council, Mrs. Frank Palmer. They were: President, Mrs. Wesley Hall; vice president, Mrs. Harold Buxton; secretary, Mrs. William Campbell; and treasurer, Mrs. Charles Adams.

Visalia 4-H Club Meets

The Visalia Eager Beavers Teen 4-H Club held its monthly meeting August 27 at which time they elected officers for the coming year. Paul Drake was elected president; Alice Budke, vice president; Pauline Stacy, secretary; Wally Finnell, treasurer; and Barbara Budke, reporter.

At this meeting it was decided that the club would take a trip to the State Fair, September 12.

Engagement Is Announced

Miss Linda Louise Hopperton

Mrs. Alberta Craddock Hopperton, widow of the late Ellis Hopperton, of Union, Ky., announces the engagement of her daughter, Linda Louise, to C. F. (Pete) Zehnder, son of Mrs. Bessie Zehnder and the late Clarence A. Zehnder, of Florence.

The wedding will take place on October 10, 1964 in the Union Baptist Church at Union.

Record Enrollment
In the W-V Schools

On Friday, August 28, there were 683 children, 31 teachers and some 100 parents and friends of the schools gathered to get the 1964-65 school year under way. The 683 students is a record breaking number to enroll in the Verona Schools. Last year the beginning enrollment was 651 and when the school year closed there were 658 and this was the greatest number ever enrolled in the Walton-Verona Schools until last Friday. The breakdown of this enrollment is as follows: Walton Elementary, grades 1-5 has 185; Verona Elementary, grades 4-6, has 186; and the Walton-Verona High School, grades 7-12 has 314 of which 215 are in grades 9-12. It is interesting to note this 100 more in the upper four grades than enrolled in 1958. The total enrollment in 1958 was 542.

John Shoemaker has a check and finds that there are some 20 more students to enroll in high school. Tom Hatley has estimated that there will be about six of eight more to enroll at the Verona Elementary School, and we expect about the same number at the Walton Elementary School. If all these people do show up there will be about 715 enrolled in all the schools.

Attends Scout Conference

Harry Sleet attended the Order of the Arrow, Area 4 Conference, at Chillicothe, Ohio, Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this past week.

The Order of the Arrow is an organization of honor Boy Scout campers. Harry is connected with Ku-Ni-Eh Lodge, located in Cincinnati.

Revival to Continue

The revival at the Concord Baptist Church, Gallatin County, will continue through September 6th. Services are conducted nightly at 7:30 p. m. with Rev. Maynard Head of Swiss Colony Baptist Church of the Laurel River Association as evangelist. Tommy Boaz of Pleasant Home Baptist Church is directing the singing. Everyone is welcome.

Duvall at Burlington

Mr. F. E. Duvall, a Contact Representative of the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Servicemen's Board will be present on Wednesday, Sept. 2, at the Court House in Burlington, Kentucky, to assist veterans and their dependents with claims for benefits in them as a result of military service.

He will be present from 9:00 until 11:00 a. m.

There are 2,989 miles of main track railroad lines in the state, and 21 different railroads serve Kentucky.

SININGER GETS LEAVE

Wayne Sininger

Wayne Sininger, Assistant County Agricultural Extension Agent in Boone County, has been granted Sabbatical Leave by the administration of the University of Kentucky to do graduate work at the University of Tennessee, in Knoxville.

He will be enrolled at the University of Tennessee from Sept. 22 to June 5, to get a Master Degree in Extension Education, with emphasis on Leadership Development and one of the animal sciences. At the completion of his training he will return to Boone County as Assistant County Agent in Boone County since February, 1961, and before that was the Assistant County Agent in Henry County, Kentucky, for a period of four years.

BOONE JUVENILE JUDGE APPOINTED

C. William Funk, Florence police court prosecutor, was named trial commissioner, juvenile judge and judge pro tem of Boone County by Boone County Judge Mary Jane Jones, last Thursday.

Mr. Funk practices law with Elmer Berling at 226 Main Street, Florence. He has practiced in this county for nearly five years.

The appointments are effective through the tenure of Judge Jones. As trial commissioner and juvenile judge Funk will sit in on cases involving children and mostly family matters.

Local Library Needs
1,000 Signatures

Workers in the Friends of Boone County Library movement, meeting last week at Florence Christian Church, were told they could make their campaign a success if each obtained 10 more signatures on petitions.

Mrs. William Blackburn, of Williamstown, State Department of Libraries, said that the "Friends" effort to get a public library for the county would be successful if 1,000 more signatures were obtained.

She noted that 3,500 names of voters who cast ballots last November would have to be obtained. She said that of the three counties which started attempts to get libraries on June 19, only Boone County remains short of its goal.

Mrs. Edward Lay, High Street, Walton, permanent chairman of the movement, said the 90-day period allowed by law to gather signatures will expire on September 16.

Week of Prayer Observance

The Week of Prayer for State Missions will be observed at the First Baptist Church, Walton, beginning September 7 and continuing through Friday, September 11, every afternoon from 1:30 to 2:30, except Wednesday when the hour will be 7:00 to 8:00 p. m. All members of the church are urged and invited to attend.

REGISTER BY SEPT. 5th

The Boone County Democratic Club urges all unregistered Democrats to register by September 5. Extra registration days for Florence residents will be held at the Florence Post Office on Saturday, September 5 from 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 a. m. All residents of Boone County may register at the Courthouse in Burlington at the same hours.

As Democrats we must face the facts that the loss of Boone County to the Republicans in the last gubernatorial race was our own fault. Remember, a house divided is a house that will fall.

The motto of the Great Commonwealth of Kentucky should be an inspiration to us—"United We Stand Divided We Fall".

Remember in our own Boone County the Republicans are uniting and also trying to divide the Democrats. Do not fail for their bait.

How much satisfaction do you get by deserting your party? Is it something you go out and brag it or do you try to forget it?

Unite the Democratic Party in Boone County. Vote Democratic. Do not be a deserter. Bruce Ferguson and Wilton Stephens are always eager to help in any of your registration problems. Give them a call—Pub. Chm.

Tel-Star 4-H Club
Wins at County Fair

This year at the Kenton County Fair the Tel-Star Teen 4-H Club Fair was among the most outstanding with each member working hard to achieve their goal—blue ribbons.

Opening night of the fair, five members participated in the contests for Queen, Prince and Princess. For queen were Vicki Works and Connie Fields; for prince, Jerry Burns, Wayne Works and Wayne Fields, who received unanimous award; for princess, Frieda Waincoat, who received the crown.

Friday was the dairy show with two members participating, Vicki and Wayne Works. Vicki received a blue ribbon and first in her class with her senior yearling. Wayne placed second in the class and received a blue ribbon on his senior yearling. Vicki received a blue ribbon on her 2-year-old cow, and also placed first in showmanship. She also showed at the District Dairy Show at Williamstown, August 12, receiving a blue ribbon on each of her show animals in their classes. Vicki placed third in showmanship and received a show halter for her performance.

Friday night, Vicki Works participated in the Farm Bureau King and Queen contest.

On Saturday, four members of the club participated in the horse and pony show. Frieda Waincoat, Dan Straw, and Johnny Gabbard each received several blue ribbons in their class. Wayne Works received the championship and a trophy on his roaster pony.

Two of the club members were champions in their projects. They were Wayne Fields, utility electric light, and Connie Fields, Unit III canning.

Tel-Star also had a booth at the fair. Members sold ice tea and lemonade. They wish to thank everyone for their donations and patronage.

The club met at the home of Vicki and Wayne Works for the August meeting. The fair was discussed. A new member joined the club. Wayne Works.

It was decided to meet at 11:00 a. m. August 22, at the Courthouse in Covington, walk over the bridge, eat lunch, and go to a movie. A motion was made to send "thank you" notes to all people who donated toward the fair booth. A motion was also made to buy a gavel for the new president for next year. The club cleared $60 at the fair to buy jackets.

Campaign Chairwoman

Clyde Middleton, the Republican Congressional candidate from the Fourth district, has appointed Mrs. Brookings as his campaign chairwoman for the district. She will be in charge of all women activities.

Walton Cemetery to Get A Face-Lifting

On July 1, of this year, the First Baptist Church, Inc., of Walton, who owns and operates the Walton Cemetery, decided to do something about conditions at the local graveyard. A Cemetery Committee was named and instructed to make recommendations and carry out the necessary plans for improving the cemetery.

Those named to the committee were: Alvin Lawrence, chairman; Truett DeMoisey, attorney; James Bonar, and Mrs. Mabel Webster. These people lost no time in getting to work and have already accomplished quite a lot. A Foundation Fund is one of the first goals of the committee which, in time should make the cemetery self-supporting.

Many suggestions have been made by the committee. A few of the foremost are: Erect four stone pillars at entrance; clean out all fence rows and put a new fence around the property; erect all fallen stones; complete plotting of cemetery; driveway to be paved; old trees and shrubs removed; provide rest room facilities; acquire more land. There are more but you must realize that this will take time and, in a sense, depend on the acceptance of this modernization by the people in this area.

If you should care to make a contribution to this fund, the committee will gladly receive it. In our opinion, this is a fine move and something that has been needed for many years, and we trust the people of this community will cooperate in this move.

Republican Club to Meet

The Boone County Republican Club will hold a special meeting on Thursday, September 3 at 8:00 p. m. in the Florence headquarters. As this meeting will cover plans for the Freedom dinner, all members are urged to attend.

County Agent's 1/2 Acre

—by—
Joe Claxon

Farmers will get better fertilizer and liming recommendations when they have soil tested if they will fill out the information sheet provided by the county agent.

This information about the soil itself along with past cropping and treatment history is important from several standpoints.

First, the county agent knows that when limestone is applied to a field, the acidity is reduced slowly. For example, it may take 3 or 4 years for limestone to change a soil pH from 5 to 6. Thus, if a farmer applies limestone one year and has his soil tested the next year, the acidity is reduced very little. The limestone is at work and more is not needed.

Second, when the phosphate fertilizers are applied, much of the phosphorus becomes so fixed in the soil that growing plants can't get it. Neither will this fixed phosphorus show up in a soil test. However, this phosphorus is released gradually and the growing plants can use it. Thus, if a farmer made heavy applications of phosphate fertilizers one or two years ago, he should have enough of the fixed phosphorus released during growing season to give a good crop yield.

Third, a soil test on a field where rock phosphate has recently been applied will show more phosphorus than is actually usable by growing plants.

Fourth, a heavy clay soil needs more limestone than a sandy soil even though a soil test shows the same acidity level. Also more phosphorus is fixed in the clay soil.

Fifth, there is no soil test for nitrogen. The county agent makes his recommendation for nitrogen from the past cropping and fertilizer history. If a farmer plans to plow under a good clover-grass mixture and grow corn on the land, he can depend on about 60 pounds of nitrogen from the soil. A poor grass-clover seed will provide about 20 pounds of nitrogen to the corn, but a farmer should count on little or no nitrogen from the soil where corn is grown continuously.

Thus, the county agent wants the above information so that he can give farmers credit for what they have already done to their soil. The past cropping and treatment history will not cause the county agent to increase fertilizer recommendations above what the soil test calls for but it may cause him to lower them.

Be fair to yourself and your crop. Give him the information he needs to make good soil treatment recommendations.

Wheat Program For 1965 Is Voluntary

The 1965 wheat program will be entirely voluntary, according to R. O. Wilson, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committee. It is designed to provide cooperating farmers an income advantage, but any producer may disregard acreage allotments and all other features of the program. As in 1964, there will be no marketing quotas or marketing quota penalties for 1965-crop wheat.

Further, those growers who over-plan their acreage allotment in 1965 will not lose wheat acreage history for future years. This is a change that applies for the first time to the 1965 crop as provided in the 1964 legislation.

The Chairman explained that a producer may become a program participant by signing up and meeting the applicable program provisions. The program in 1965 offers growers a number of options which were not available in 1964. These options provide growers with opportunities to improve their wheat income.

For instance, a grower may qualify for a price-support loan ($1.25 a bushel, national average) and for marketing certificates on his farm's allocation for domestic and export wheat (at 75 and 30 cents a bushel, respectively) by meeting program provisions regarding allotments and devoting to approved conserving uses an acreage equal to 11.11 percent of the wheat allotment—in addition to the farm's conserving base. (No diversion payment will be made for the 11.11 percent diversion.)

Of the grower in high-risk areas may insure crop failure by producing up to 50 percent in excess of his wheat allotment while meeting conservation-use provisions of the program, and still qualify for a loan and the certificates if he declares his intention to do this when he files a program application and then stores the excess wheat under bond.

If the grower wants to earn diversion payments, he will also reduce his wheat acreage by at least 10 percent below his allotment and then devote these acres to an approved conserving use. Maximum diversion can be 20 percent of the allotment or enough additional acreage within the wheat allotment to make a total of 15 acres. Producers who have allotments of 15 acres or less will gain income from this new provision.

Producers who sign up in both the wheat and feed grain programs may substitute wheat for feed grain or vice versa. In this case the diversion payments would be made at the rate applicable to the crop for which acreage is actually diverted.

Charlton Wilson reminds wheat growers that participation in the 1965 wheat program is not automatic—signing up to take part is the first step to qualifying for the program's benefits. The signup in ASCS County Offices extends from August 24 through October 2.

A bright idea for a dark, gloomy night!

There are good reasons why more and more folks are installing out-door electric lights.

They're wonderful for barn yards; actually add hours to your working day. No more stumbling around in the dark. They discourage night prowlers, too!

Businessmen find electric night lights profitable. Brightens up the premises for customers. After hours, a bright night light helps protect valuables by discouraging theft.

Costs only pennies to operate. Another good way to live better with low-cost rural electric power.

ELECTRIC NIGHT LIGHT

Let us install a security light at your home. Automatically lights at dusk and turns off at dawn. Special low rates for RECC members. Call us today for details.

Heroes

Lesson for September 6, 1964

Background Scripture: Judges 1 through
Devotional Reading: Psalm 80:1-4, 14-19.

MANKIND has three ideals which cannot harmonize with one another. So says a philosopher. The three ideals are: the hero, the artist, the saint. What makes a proper hero doesn't make a proper saint or a proper artist.

What is good behavior for the saint may not be such for the artist... and so on. Men of any one type are likely to shock and repel men of other types. We see this today in the un-

Dr. Foreman easy relations between military men and "egg-heads," between athletes and Phi Beta Kappas. We can find it in the Bible too. One strange part of the Bible is the book of the Judges, in which there are stories so disgusting and terrible that they never have been used as Sunday school lessons.

Heroes

The word "judges" as used in the book of the Old Testament by that name does not have its usual meaning either in Hebrew or in English. It is used to refer to certain men, usually counted as twelve in number, who raised armies, carried out assassinations, or in other ways, always by the use of violence, came to the rescue of the Israelites and set them free once more. The judges were all military heroes and honored as such. They were heroes, not saints, and cannot be measured by the yardstick of a saint.

Gourage

Yet these men, from the greatest to the least of them, were instruments of God in the world, and were used by the Spirit of God to work out his good purposes. They were not such men as all Christians ought to be; but they were men with some qualities which all Christians might well imitate. One of these qualities was courage. No man without courage can be a hero. We may expect that a hero will be not only moderately brave, as most human beings are, but (as we put it today) brave "above and beyond the line of duty." We can think of Ehud, going on his mission of death quietly in the very midst of his country's enemies; of Gideon, watching his little army melt away—two out of three of them admitting they were scared, and going home!—of Shamgar, doing great exploits with no weapon but a stick to prod oxen with; of Deborah, a military chief of staff, taking the lead only because she could find no man to do it; Samson, full of good possibilities even if he never used them, certainly no coward in the face of lions or men. One and all they were men who dared to do what other men feared to attempt.

Faith

Centuries later, the writer of the Letter to the Hebrews, in reflecting on these very men and naming some of them, thinks chiefly not of their courage but of their faith. By faith they won their battles. Now the Old Testament does not give details about most of the judges, but where it does give details they are a little surprising. Faith is so often confused with a list of propositions we are asked or commanded to believe, that we don't always recognize faith of the kind these Hebrew heroes had. There was an active faith, the faith of fighters and doers, not thinkers. Not that God has no need for thinkers; but when Israel needed a war of liberation, as they so often did, they were not to be saved by scribes and professors, but by men with weapons in their hands, not afraid to use them. This kind of faith does have some "belief-about" in it but also "belief-in." Men of fighting faith believe in something and some one; their faith is a challenge and a summons, not a meekly recited creed. What those heroes believed in was freedom; they fought, every one of them, to set their people free. The Who was the Lord of Hosts (meaning Lord of Armies). They did their great exploits as champions of the Almighty.

Cleveland, Ohio, was the first U. S. city of its size to adopt the parking meter plan for motorists... this was in 1939.

When he's 20, a man wants to save the world. When he's 40, he just wants to save part of his pay.

Wake 'em up Gabriel!

There isn't much music coming out of that horn. But one thing's certain; this little fellow is making plenty of noise.

If it happens to be Sunday morning, when the family sleeps late, this sturdy musician isn't going to receive much praise. His lungs are strong, though, and he's going to sit there and toot that trumpet until Mom or Dad takes it away from him.

All of his playmates are at Sunday School, so you really can't blame him for trying to while away the idle hours. Unfortunately, his parents haven't got the Church-going habit, so this boy will probably grow up like them and sleep away the hours in which he could be getting spiritual nourishment.

You've got the right idea, Gabriel. Wake them up to their responsibility!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

VERONA

Fionnie Edrington, Reporter

Mrs. Mag Chapman and Mrs. Verie Webster entertained recently Mrs. Webster's sons, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Webster and family of Covington, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Webster and family of Williams-town, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Webster and daughter of Crittenden. They celebrated their mother's birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Williams and three daughters returned home last week from Oklahoma, where they had been visiting their son, Mr. and Mrs. William Williams, who is stationed there in the Army.

We were sorry to hear of Mrs. America Sturdivent, Wendell Webster and Mrs. Ann Vailandingham all being in the hospital. We hope for each a speedy recovery.

Bro. and Mrs. Lewis Searcy and three children have returned home from Nevada, where they had been visiting their daughter and family.

We extend our sympathy to the William Stamper family in the loss of their father last week.

We extend our sympathy to the Tinch family in the passing of her father, Mr. Truett, of Corbin, Ky.

Veterans Administration Questions and Answers

Q-1 I have a service-connected disability which requires continuous treatment. I plan to travel abroad this summer. What arrangements shall I make regarding medication and treatment?
A-You should contact the VA Clinic now treating you to obtain appropriate supplies to prescribed medication to carry with you, and for suggestions about obtaining medical supplies and services abroad. In case of a medical emergency, you should contact the American Embassy or Consular Office.

Q-My husband died recently and the VA paid his insurance to his former wife even though they had been divorced 15 years ago. Why was this done?

A-The VA is required by law to pay the insurance to the person last designated as beneficiary by the insured veteran. Your husband either neglected to change his beneficiary after the divorce, or it was his wish that the insurance be paid to the former wife.

Q-Is it necessary to report compensation or pension from the VA as income if I am receiving VA pension?

A-The person receiving the compensation or pension directly from VA need not report it as income on his pension claim. However, if the money was paid by the VA to someone else and received by the pensioner by inheritance or gift from that person, then it should be reported as income for pension purposes in the same manner as other property received by gift or inheritance.

Funny thing about getting an idea. It never works unless you do.

In addition to classroom and teacher problems that arise with some 50 new students this year, the transportation of students has become a problem. In fact, it has developed into such a problem that we cannot cope with it with the arrangements we now have.

The bus coming in from North Main has consistently had some 85 or 90 people on it, and from past experience there will be more when the weather gets bad. This could not continue, and the board had three choices in correcting the situation:

Buy a new bus; start picking up at 7:00 a. m. and make two loads on this route, or discontinue bus service for areas close to the school.

In discussing these choices, there is no money to buy a new bus; none of us thought parents would want their children picked up at 7:00 a. m. and brought to school when it does not start until 8:00, then the only other thing to do would be to discontinue bus service in some areas. Before making this decision, the board discussed and fully realized their responsibility to all people. Their responsibility is to furnish transportation for those that do not live within a reasonable walking distance, and courts have held that this could be considered a public nuisance if there is a traffic hazard.

The board's decision was to eliminate bus service for High School Court, Central Park, and Beaver Grade. The new schedule involving the buses of Mr. Carey and Mr. Gibson are as follows, and was started September 8:

Mr. Carey's schedule will remain the same except he will not pick up students coming toward Walton on Nicholson Road after he passes the Gault property at the railroad bridge.

Mr. Gibson will pick up Catalina Drive at the same time, or about 8:15, and then proceed to the Gault property on Nicholson Road, turn around, pick up along Nicholson Road and Main Street from the St. Clair service station to Barth Motors, which will be the last stop. The pickup will start about 8:25 on Nicholson Road.

We beg that you be tolerant and understanding in this change. For safety reasons and limited facilities there was not other choice for the board to make. Please remember that the board has never denied bus service to any group on side streets or even within 1/2 mile of school. It might be said that they have been too free with bus service and therefore put themselves in the dilemma that they find themselves now.

Also, I want to add that there will be a completely new arrangement in picking up town children...if not this year, it will be instituted next year. I realize that parents have problems in getting children to school. However, there are dozens of children riding buses that could walk and be home before the bus can get them there. We have children that lives less than 1/2 mile and could walk home and be there by 3:30. They wait for a second bus and do not get home until after 4:30. This is over an hour and does not make any sense at all. There are many examples very similar that add burdens to our transportation problems. Will be glad to talk to you about the change or the transportation problem in general, but I cannot tell you any more than I have told you in this article.

Local Wa-Na Club To Meet Sept. 14

The Wa-Na Woman's Club will open the 1964-65 year on Monday, September 14, at the RECC building on Walton-Nicholson road, at 8:00 p. m.

"Wake Up to a New Year," is the title of the program which will be presented by Miss Kathleen Wellman, who has her studio of modeling in Cincinnati. The spiritual guidance will be given by Mrs. Robert Eisenhardt. Hostesses for this evening will be Mrs. Gayle McElroy, Mrs. Leonard Cook, Jr., and Mrs. Heinz Wahrburg.

Mrs. Lewis Webster is the membership chairman and she is asking that each present club member bring a prospective member to the September meeting, but please advise one of the hostesses that you are planning to bring a guest.

The Wa-Na Club has been an active organization in the community and we need to increase our membership so that we can be more active and assist with community projects.

Mrs. Walt Ryan, program chairman, and her committee have some good programs lined up for the year for your entertainment, and Mrs. Jack Rouse, chairman of the ways and means committee, has plans and projects to keep club members busy for a little outside activities during the year.

Mrs. Clayton Jones, president, urges all members to try and be present at the September meeting when the plan of work will be given. She also invites anyone interested in club work and those interested in becoming members to be present.

If the going seems easy, you just might be going downhill.

IN STATE CONTEST

Robert R. Scott, Chairman of the Kenton County Board of Education, has announced the appointment of Charles L. Williams to the Kenton Board to serve out the unexpired term of R. S. Richardson, who passed away August 14.

Mr. Williams, of 6531 Sugar Camp Drive, Independence, is a graduate of Simon Kenton High School, class of 1939. He is married to the former Dolores Wagner and has two children, Kirk, age 11, and Peggy, age 8. He is one of nine sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Williams and is a native of Kenton County.

Mr. Williams is a building contractor and is active in the Northern Kentucky Builders Association.

New Teachers For Walton Kindergarten

Mrs. Tom Cook

The Walton Kindergarten, sponsored by the Wa-Na Club, will be under the direction of new personnel this year when the 1964-65 session begins at First Baptist Church, Walton, September 14.

Classes will be conducted in the morning from 9:00 to 11:30. Mrs. Tom Cook will be the director and will be ably assisted by Mrs. Lando Lockard.

Mrs. Cook resides with her husband and two children on Old Lexington Pike. She is the former Shirley Lou Carpenter and has lived in Walton most of her life. She graduated from W.V. high school. Last year Mrs. Cook was one of the first grade teachers in the Walton school and is experienced in working with small children.

Mrs. Lockard, wife of the coach at Walton-Vernon high, moved to Walton this summer from Camp-

Local PTA Plans For A Big Year

Mrs. Lando Lockard

The Walton-Vernon P. T. A. with Mrs. John Webster as president, is hoping for a successful year. With the all-time high enrollment in our schools, the PTA membership should exceed any previous year.

The teachers, principals and superintendent need and want the support of the parents through the parents and teachers organization and it is our duty to the school and to our children to come out, join and work in this group. Membership cards will be available and at the small fee of 50 cents.

Mrs. Webster met recently with her Executive Committee to formulate plans for the PTA work this school year. The regular meeting night is the fourth Monday in the month at 7:30 p. m. For September, the date is the 28th, and will be held in the Walton school.

The following committee chairmen have been contacted and they will be ready to appoint committee members and announce their plans at the September 28 meeting: Membership, Mrs. Paul Beighle; Treasurer, Mrs. John Webster; Publicity, Mrs. Lando Lockard; and Parliamentarian, Mrs. Gene Roland.

Program, Mrs. Porter Taylor; Refreshments, Mrs. William Gibson, Jr.; Magazine, Mrs. Charles Holder; Budget and Finance, Mrs. Walt Ryan; John Shoemaker; Tom Hatley; Hospitality, Mrs. Robert Eisenhardt; Publicity, Mrs. Clayton Jones; Ways and Means, Mrs. Lando Lockard, and Parliamentarian, Mrs. Gene Roland.

Remember the date, another announcement will be made later...give the school and your PTA some thought and plan to assist with this organization.

Luncheon Enjoyed By Boone D. A. R.

The Daniel Boone Memorial Luncheon of the Boone County Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held in the green room of the Locust House. This is an annual remembrance of Daniel Boone for whom the DAR chapter was named.

Members and guests were welcomed by Mrs. Ashlin Logan, Regent, who also led the DAR ritual. Mrs. Logan introduced Mrs. Robert Hume, State Regent of the DAR, who gave an account of the annual DAR Congress in Washington. Mrs. Hume said Senator Byrd was the principal speaker. She also said Mrs. John S. Cooper invited members to the White House for a reception. Mrs. Hume told that the DAR has donated $31,000 the past year toward help for the American Indian. She announced that the daughter of Mrs. Thomas Burdett of Ashland, had been selected, on the basis of the DAR participation, as Mrs. DAR Junior Member.

Following Mrs. Hume's interesting talk, was a short business session where the Chairman of the Revolutionary Soldiers' graves, Mrs. J. Proctor Brothers, together with her committee, Mrs. Roy C. Nestor, Mrs. Davis Gaines and Mrs. Clifford Coyle, reported to those assembled their progress made toward marking the grave of a Revolutionary soldier's grave in the Burlington Cemetery.

To defray expenses of this affair it was decided to hold a covered dish picnic at Midway. A large picnic area with members contributing the food and each person paying for their meal.

The chapter unanimously endorsed the candidacy of Mrs. T. Ewing Roberts of Louisville, as State Regent of the Kentucky Society. This election will be held at Lexington in February.

Present were Mesdames Ashlin Logan, Robert Hume, Roy S. Nestor, Fred Bennett, J. Proctor Brothers, Davis Gaines, Clifford Coyle, Garnet Tolins, Bernard Scott, Mrs. Thomas Weldon, Regent of Simon Kenton Chapter, and Mrs. Clayton Jones, Regent of Elizabeth Kenton Chapter.

"Freedom Dinner" Sellout

The Boone County "Freedom Dinner," at Brookwood Country Club, Friday, September 11, featuring Congressman Gene Snyder and Fourth District Nominee Clyde Middleton, has been announced as a sellout by Mrs. Richard Fewell, chairman.

Hostesses for the event are Mrs. Carrie Martin, Mrs. Joyce Ravenscraft, Mrs. May Mattingly, and Mrs. Doris Hempling. The decorations committee is composed of Janet Miller, Mrs. Lillian Schram, Mrs. Alice Conrad and Mrs. Martin.

Bradford Lodge Meeting

Bradford Lodge, 123, will hold their regular meeting Thursday evening, September 10 at 7:30 p. m. All members are urged to attend. All visiting members are welcome. William H. Appel, Master, will preside.

Learns New Hair Designs

Mrs. Harold Lusby, who operates 'Aly's' Beauty Salon on North Main Street, recently returned from Toronto, Canada, where she attended the Bruno School of Hair Design, getting instruction in the latest of hair styles.

FIRST BAPTIST REVIVAL

A revival will be held at First Baptist Church, Walton, September 11 through September 18, with services each evening at 8:00.

Rev. Albert Glaser, a native of Stanford, Ky., who has been engaged in pastoral evangelism for 12 years, will be the guest speaker. He received his B. A. degree from Georgetown College, and his B. D. degree from Southern Seminary.

Bob Hickman, Minister of Music at Florence Baptist Church since October, 1959, will be guest singer. He is also a graduate of Georgetown and Southern Seminary.

You are personally invited to hear Bible preaching and great singing by these dedicated men.

A call meeting of the PTA will be held at the school September 14 at 4:00 p. m., at which time the festival will be discussed.

Miss Jean Ann Hafer

She is the Northern Kentucky's finest! This fair young lady, only recently named Miss Owen County RECC, will compete on Farm Bureau-RECC Day, September 16, at the Kentucky State Fair for the Rural Electric Cooperatives' statewide beauty queen title.

She goes to Louisville after having been judged the winner in the beauty contest held at the annual meeting of the Owen County Cooperative held recently at Dry Ridge.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Hafer of Demossville, Pendleton County, she will be a freshman in Home Economics at the University of Kentucky this fall. Miss Hafer was graduated among the top ten of 120 seniors this past year at Pendleton High School. Her record in 4-H work was outstanding, having won the "Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow" award.

She has been an active participant in riding and swimming and an avid fan of both basketball and baseball. A member of Butler Christian Church, she is secretary of the Sunday school.

A "brownette," Miss Hafer is five feet, four inches tall, weighs 110 pounds, and has measurements of 35-25-35. This 17-year-old will compete with at least 20 others in the statewide contest.

MORNING VIEW

Helen Dance, Reporter

After talking to Dewey Flisk, I am happy to report that his son, Eddie, is doing a great deal better. However, he is still in the hospital at this writing. I'm sure all wish him a speedy recovery so he can be home soon.

Recently, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Forehan and Winston Forehan spent an enjoyable visit in Texas. At the close of their visit they returned home, bringing with them Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Forehan's son, Dennis. He had been working on a ranch there.

Miss Pam Forehan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winston Forehan, is now visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Saxton and son in Washington, D. C.

The church of Morning View is now sponsoring an attendance contest, the red team versus the blue. The captains are Mrs. William Cross, red, and Miss Inus Baker, blue. Come to church and support the team of your choice with your attendance.

Since the tobacco cutting season is here, it's a rare day that you don't see someone working industriously in their field. A lucky few are finished and await the time when the tobacco must be stripped. However, most are still working diligently before old man frost arrives.

Thought for the Week: A slack hand causes poverty but the hand of the diligent makes rich.

Do you have news you'd like to have printed in the Morning View column? If so, call 359-4864 before 8:30 p. m. Thank you!

Walton Woman's Literary Club Meets

A most pleasant and profitable meeting of the Walton Woman's Literary Club was held at the home of Mrs. Don Bedinger, on September 2, at 2:00 p. m.

Most of the past members were present along with several guests, all being joyfully greeted by Mrs. Bedinger and the co-hostess, her sister, Mrs. Wadsworth Latimer.

Mrs. Grace Knox, president, presided over the business session. She then presented briefly a summary of the year's work, "Facing the Challenge of a Rapidly Changing World."

To get started on this program, the 68th annual District Convention will be held September 26 at the Town & Country Restaurant, Covington, with the Covington clubs serving as hostesses. Make reservations by September 28.

How much do Americans think of our "Free Government?" We shall now find out by our response at the polls. "Let everyone vote our convictions," Mrs. Knox said.

Mrs. Lloyd Watson led the club in singing "My Old Kentucky Home." Mrs. L. M. Gabriel chose Bessie's for her spiritual guidance. "We need to reevaluate our ideals. Sometimes God, seeing our waywardness cannot accept our ways, our offerings and our sacrifices. Then what can we do?" Bessie said. Return to the Lord and He will abundantly pardon and cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

Mrs. James Webster chose the poem, "Autumn" by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow for her "Farewell to Summer," and it most beautifully fit the occasion.

Parkway Uses New Construction Technique

A NEW FACE—Motorists traveling the Central Kentucky Parkway in 1965 will encounter a new face on the slopes created by cuts through the rolling Central Kentucky hills. A dynamiting process known as "pre-splitting" is being used in construction of the new Parkway as a means of eliminating the danger of rock falls and improving the appearance of cut slopes. Shown here is a pre-split slope on the Parkway just east of US 31-E near Bardstown.

Little Chris King was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital complaining of stomach pains and loss of use of his legs. Doctors did not diagnose what was wrong, but he is showing some improvement. He was in isolation and even his parents couldn't see him. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Roscoe Egger is having trouble with the muscles in his face. At first it was feared he had had a stroke, but it wasn't. He is better and is hoping for full recovery in a short time.

Mrs. Ballard Peyton and daughter were recent guests of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Egger. Her husband joined them for a weekend and they then drove to their home in Winston-Salem, N.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter Webster of Hattisburg, Miss., visited their parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Webster, recently. They left last week for their home where Porter is a professor at Mississippi Southern College.

We were sorry that we did not write a column last week but we were taking a short vacation in Long Beach, Miss. My parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hutchins, former residents of Oak Ridge, returned home with me for two weeks. Kevin especially enjoyed the trip as we flew down there by Delta Airlines and that was a big treat to him.

Mrs. Marie Glass was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Fogel.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Bates had as recent visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Gerold Travis and two sons, Blythesville, Ark. They had a family dinner for them and Mr. and Mrs.

Wesley Bates and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bates, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert King and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wren and children were in Dayton, Ohio, recently to visit Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wren and children. Bill Wren was sick with tonsillitis and stayed with his grandmother Wren in Ludlow.

Louise Jenkins spent a week recently with her grandmother, Mrs. O. J. Dorman. On Sunday, Mrs. Dorman, Louise, Gertrude Dorman, Mrs. Betty Jones, Don and Sarah Jones went to Erlanger, and had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Judd Dorman in honor of Gertrude's birthday.

County Agent's 1/2 Acre

—by—
Joe Glazen

When we buy something, we want to be sure we get our money's worth. If soil test results show that a field needs it, money spent for limestone is a good investment. Now is the time to get it spread. The fields are firm and soil compaction by the spreader trucks will be reduced to a minimum. The trucks will not mire down. Limestone applied this fall will have the winter months to be correcting soil acidity.

The fineness of grinding will determine how rapidly the limestone will correct soil acidity. To get your money's worth when you buy limestone for your farm, be sure it is finely ground. Ground up limestone rock does not dissolve rapidly in the soil, and particles larger than a vetch seed will have little effect on soil acidity because the growing crop and leaching loss will remove the calcium about as fast as these particles dissolve. Research has shown that only about half the limestone particles between the size of a lespedeza seed down to the size of a tobacco seed are effective in correcting soil acidity three years after limestone is applied. Only the particles smaller than a tobacco seed will be effective in sweetening the soil the first year following application.

So when you buy your ground limestone this fall be sure it has a lot of fine particles in it so it will sweeten your soil rapidly and increase your profits.

After checking to see that the limestone you purchase is finely ground, get it spread uniformly over the field and worked into the soil this fall so you will get the increased crop production you need your money for. Remember the fineness of grinding of the limestone determines its value and unless it is finely ground it is not going to give the results you expect.

It is been reported from Moscow that Premier Khrushchev told collective farm leaders that the Soviet Union may set up corps of Western-style county agents to travel the countryside advising farmers.

It is reported to have said that the county agent system would be discussed at a meeting of the Communist Party Central Committee in November. Khrushchev also said his government would begin organizing large scale chicken farms on the U. S. model.

20 YEARS AGO

SEPTEMBER 14, 1944

A heart attack late Wednesday ended the career of Boone County Sheriff J. T. (Jake) Williams in his office at Burlington. A native of Union, Sheriff Williams served as deputy before being elected to his present position. County Judge Cropper appointed Miss Glenore Williams to complete the unexpired term of her father. Boone County now has the first woman sheriff in its history.

A record attendance is expected at the Boone County 4-H and Utopia Fair this Saturday. A big attraction will be a team pulling contest. More than $60.00 in cash prizes have been raised and a large number of entries are expected.

A revival at the Walton Christian Church closed with a very successful note... there were 29 additions.

The Walton Women's Literary Club held its first meeting of the year with Mrs. H. F. Mann as hostess. A timely program was presented, "Women of Today," by several of the club members.

Which family is best prepared for winter?

The answer? They're equally prepared because both homes are heated the modern way... with low-cost Electric Heat. Proves a point. Electric Heat is ideal for every home... regardless of size or age. It can be installed quickly and economically in an older house; or in a newly constructed one.

The big difference is in comfort! Temperatures can be regulated in each, individual room. There's no "cold spots" or drafts. Electric Heat is so clean because dirt is neither created nor circulated.

Spokesman for God Lesson for September 12, 1964

Background Scriptures: 1 Samuel 1 through
Devotional Reading: Psalm 113-14.

WHAT DOES the word "prophet" bring to mind? Fortune-teller, farsighted reader, weather predictor, "Old Man Mose"? One meaning of "prophet" is to be sure, is a man who can tell you today what is to happen tomorrow.

In the Bible this is sometimes the meaning of the word. Most prophets went in for prediction some of the time, and most prophets' predictions sounded most unlikely to those who first

Dr. Foreman heard them; but they came true. Indeed, according to Deuteronomy 18, one test of an alleged or self-styled prophet is the same as for a true one: Does what he foretells come true? If it does not, he is no true prophet. If it does, he is.

Exception to the rule

As a general rule, a prophet's contemporaries do not recognize him as such. Since most "prophets" are fakes, people suppose the true prophet is a faker too. Jesus said a prophet is not without honor except in his own country. Familiarity breeds contempt, the proverb says. How can an ordinary man we see every day be a prophet? Now Samuel, whose story is in the Old Testament, was an exception to this rule. In his own day, in his own country, his own people did recognize and honor him. Samuel was a man of many affairs and many talents. He was a soldier, revivalist, judge, historian, kingmaker. But he is best known as prophet. He had an extraordinary life. Every one knows the story of how his mother prayed for a child, and how this child was promised to the Lord before he was born. Well known too is the story of his life in the shrine at Shiloh as a kind of apprentice priest; and how he first became a sensation by his denouncing High Priest Eli, the aged, respectable and venerable Eli, head (if we may put it that way) of the State Church. What most people don't know is the rest of the story. Did his later life prove a failure? Was he a wonder-child, fading into obscurity after his one outburst?

Leader of men

By no means. That incident at Shiloh was just the start. Measured by immediate results, Samuel was perhaps the most successful prophet who ever lived. The people listened. When he led a revival, there were many conversions; when he led an army, the army won. When he selected a king, the people elected Samuel's man. As long as the king followed Samuel's guidance, he was a success... but that's another story. The point is, Samuel was a true leader; he was believed, obeyed, followed. His judgments were accepted as God's judgments. His decisions and his commands were obeyed just as if God had been literally speaking through Samuel's mouth.

No man lives forever

Samuel's successes as a military man did not make him a war-monger. His own battles were fought to set free his people from foreign domination; his aim was justice and peace. And justice and peace the Hebrews had for a generation.

And then what? Something slipped, everything seemed to slip. Not until the time of Solomon was there such a peace as in Samuel's time, and Solomon's peace, not being founded on justice, did not endure. There is a point here sometimes forgotten. No man lives forever; and no matter how good, brave, smart and successful a great man may be, sooner or later "his place knows him no more." Even a man who lives close to God must go the way of all flesh. We make a mistake if we think any man however good and great can arrange things so that the evil he has successfully fought will never return. The Philistines, the enemies of Israel, never came back in Samuel's time. But in later days they were even more troublesome than ever before. So unless there are successors to great men, the great man's good may die with him.

Living would be easier if men showed as much patience at home as they do when they're waiting for a fish to bite.

Hard work... an accumulation of easy things we don't do when we should.

Mrs. Nestor in Lexington
Mrs. Roy C. Nestor, Florence, Senior State President, Kentucky Society, Children of the American Revolution, was in Lexington, recently, where she was guest speaker at Lafayette Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution. The meeting was held at historic Pisgah church, near Lexington, once the location of Transylvania College. She also presided at a State Board meeting of the Kentucky Society, Children of the American Revolution, held at Harrodsburg. While there, she attended the outdoor pageant, "Home is the Hunter."

ANTIQU CAR SHOW

The Kentucky Antique Car Club will present its second annual antique auto show at Escue Pontiac, 50 Madison Ave., Covington, September 12 and 13.

As the largest showing of exclusively vintage and classic cars in this area, the event drew large crowds to the Pontiac dealer's showrooms last year. Clyde Holcomb, board chairman of KACC, said this year's event will feature a greater representative showing of the area's finest restored automobiles and should be an even more worthwhile attraction.

On hand to add a touch of glamor to proceedings, Maureen O'Grady, Miss Boone County of 1964, will award a $50.00 Savings Bond as a door prize as well as trophies to automobiles chosen in 15 competitive antique and classic car categories.

A Look At Education

—by—
Eugene Robinson

This week I will return to the policy handbook with a discussion of personnel (employees and students) regulations. However, before starting with this information I want to express my appreciation to the parents and children involved in the bus changes, for the way in which they have accepted this necessary change. The board and I appreciate this attitude and whenever possible, we hope to make it a little more convenient for you.

Our enrollment has increased to 774. Some of the rooms are a little crowded and we have had to purchase a few seats for the lower grades. It seems that students and teachers have gotten organized and to work earlier this year than they usually do. For this we are grateful and want to express our appreciation to both students and teachers for this fine start.

Hiring, Re-hiring and Tenure
Candidates for teaching positions are elected by the board upon the recommendation of the superintendent. The board of education elects at its meeting in April of each year the fully certified teachers in the system and emergency teachers if needed are not elected until the August meeting. Teacher tenure and dismissal shall be in accordance with the act of the Kentucky General Assembly relating to teacher tenure.

Non-teaching personnel are employed at the May meeting upon the recommendation of the superintendent.

Credentialed
Every teacher must have on file in the superintendent's office a Teacher Retirement Certificate. Also a transcript of credits, a teaching certificate, and a health examination certificate must be on file before teachers can be paid.

Each teacher is to have a physical examination when hired and must have one every two-year period as designated by the department of health. A certificate for each examination is to be filed at the superintendent's office.

Non-teaching personnel must have a physical examination each year.

Professional Growth
Each teacher is expected to improve his teaching effectiveness by professional growth. Such growth may be evidenced by the taking of additional college courses, writing for professional journals and/or actively participating in the in-service training program within the school. A principal or teacher is a member of district, state, and national teacher organizations and every teacher is expected to be an active member of these organizations.

Teacher Absences
Teachers will not be absent from their class or study hall except in an extreme emergency. Going to the bank, postoffice and other personal affairs is not an emergency and must be handled after school hours and on Saturday.

The principal will be notified as soon as possible when a teacher cannot be at school so a substitute can be given an opportunity to get to school on time. When it becomes necessary for a teacher to be late in getting to school, the principal should be notified so he can provide care for the pupils until the teacher arrives. The principal will engage substitutes from the list provided by the superintendent.

After one year of employment, teachers may be granted five days of their sick leave without loss of salary for any reason of emergency approved by the superintendent. (For example: the severe illness or death of a member of the immediate family). Teachers will be granted sick leave of ten days per year cumulative up to forty days. No teacher may use more than forty days in one year. Sick cards provided must be filled out and signed upon the teacher's return to school. Teachers failing to do so within one week will not be paid for the days they miss because of sickness or death. The card is a sworn statement on the part of the teacher and will not need the doctor or notary public signature.

Teachers may be granted a leave of absence not to exceed one year, upon written request for extended personal illness or other disability. This leave may be renewed at the discretion of the board upon written request of the teacher. Upon return from such leave the teacher shall resume the contract status in effect at the time the leave was granted.

Teachers may be granted a

Mrs. Paprotta Resigns Local Post

Mrs. Gertrude Paprotta, Home Demonstration Agent of Boone County for the past seven years, has resigned her position. The Boone County Fiscal Court has accepted her resignation and she has been granted a sabbatical leave by the University of Tennessee.

Mrs. Paprotta will receive a scholarship towards getting her Master's Degree in Interior decoration, with an emphasis on color. She is planning to attend the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Mrs. Paprotta's statement to the people of Boone County is thus: "I feel a need to further my education; to keep my mind fresh and keen in order to be of further help to the people of Kentucky in my work in Extension. My only regret is leaving the many nice people and friends I have made during my stay here in Boone County."

In addition to caring for the sick and undernourished aboard the S. S. Hope, the ship's medical staff also establishes outpatient clinics in various communities of the nations visited by the vessel.

We must find our duties in what comes to us, not in what we imagine might have been.

35 Attend Kindergarten

The Walton Kindergarten, conducted at First Baptist Church, and sponsored by the Wa-Na Club, had 35 pre-school children enroll on Monday.

This is the twelfth year that the kindergarten has been sponsored by the local women's club, a group interested in the community.

Mrs. Shirley Cook and Mrs. Evelyn Lockard are teachers in the kindergarten this year.

Kenton Elementary PTA

The first meeting of the Kenton Elementary PTA will be held on September 17 at 8:00 p. m. in the school cafeteria. At that time, F. D. Caton, principal, will be the speaker for the evening and will also introduce the faculty.

Kenton Elementary PTA was represented at the Sixth District School of Instruction of the Kentucky Parent-Teachers Association at Grant County School, Dry Ridge, by Mrs. Willard Slade and Mrs. Art O'Brien.

Ladies Auxiliary Fish Fry

The Ladies Auxiliary of Piner and Fiskburg Volunteer Fire Department is having a fish fry at the fire house on Friday, Sept. 18, promptly at 5:00 p. m.

The menu will be fish, beef barbecue, German potato salad, saw, potato chips, coffee, soft drinks, and pie. There will also be a novelty table.

The Auxiliary will be expecting you for supper. Come out and support your Fire Department!

RECEIVES CITATION

Miss Linda Fay Lunsford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil C. Lunsford, of Walton, Route 1, has received a certificate of appreciation for appearing at the New York's World Fair with the Cincinnati Y.M.C.A. Youth Symphonic Band. The citation was signed by Robert Moses, fair president.

Besides Linda Fay, there were four other students from Simon Kenton who participated with this band. All received the same award. They were: Karen Weisel, Marie Crout, Marcia Jaegers, and Bobby Roden. All of these students were students of Robert K. Roden, director of music at this Kenton county school.

The group enjoyed a week of concerts at Philadelphia and at the World's Fair.

Lucky Clovers 4-H Club Fair Winners

The Lucky Clovers 4-H Club was well represented at the Kenton County Fair. Many of its members had projects completed but did not show them at the fair.

Members having completed projects and showed them were: Charles Campbell: Vegetables, 2 blue ribbons, 3 red ribbons; red, tobacco; red, photography; blue, stamp collection.

Richard Eha: Electric pin-up lamp, blue and champagne; first yr. cooking, red.

Keith Riddell: Outside lighting in electric, blue and champagne; geology, blue and champagne; tobacco; white; gardening, 3 reds, 2 blues; entered tractor driving contest.

Laine Marshall: Good grooming, blue and champagne; cooking, 6th year, blue and third in class; sewing, blue and champagne; forestry, 2nd year, blue and champagne; secretary, blue, blue; electric, 4th year, 3rd place.

Now our day has come and we are off again to the Kentucky State Fair with our champions, judging teams, and demonstrations.

Keith Riddell took a blue and State champion ribbon on his electric project; Laine Marshall received a blue on her street strength formal, a red in baking, and blue in electric demonstration.

The Eha boys have left the club and moved to California and thus did not enter their lamps.

Laine Marshall won the overall championship in sewing at Kenton County Fair and thus received a silver metal platter from Kroger.

On Saturday, Sept. 12, she was interviewed by Bob Miller on "Everybody's Farm Hour" on her 4-H work, and was guest soloist on the program. A Mr. Nelson accompanied her on the piano. Laine later in the evening played piano at their booth for this favor.

After a lot of walking and rushing to appointed places, we had lunch and headed for home.

A Look At Education

leave of absence for a period of one year upon written request in order to pursue a program designed to enhance teaching effectiveness. The selection of this program should be the result of co-operative planning by the teacher and principal, and should be approved by the superintendent. This leave may be renewed at the discretion of the board upon written request of the teacher. Upon return from such leave the teacher shall resume the contract status in effect at the time the leave was granted.

Teachers, upon written request, may be granted a special leave of absence without loss of compensation for the purpose of attending educational conferences.

Teachers called for reserve status or drafted for service with the armed forces shall be granted upon written request, a leave of absence to exceed two years; the board shall renew this leave automatically until such time as the teacher is released to inactive duty, or discharged other than honorably from service.

Upon return to service in the schools, such teachers shall resume the contract status in effect at the time leave was granted; except that they may receive such increments on the salary schedule to which they would have been entitled if they had not been called to active duty with the armed forces.

Teachers on leave of absence not planning to return to service in the schools at the expiration of such leave shall notify the board of their intention on or before March 30 in the year in which such leave is operative.

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to express our sincere thanks and gratitude to our many friends and neighbors who were so kind to us during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father, Robert W. Webster. To Drs. Huey and Kratz for their untiring efforts, also Bro. Seary, Bro. Curry and Bro. Kennedy for their many visits and comforting words, the neighbor men who practically raised and harvested our crop, and the women who helped with the meals, provided the food, also the Hamilton Funeral Home for their efficient services and the donors of the flowers. We know God will bless each one of you.

DAIRY COWS graze contentedly outside the entrance to an underground livestock shelter near Elkhorn, Neb., which was built by J. Gordon Roberts, president of Roberts Dairy of Omaha, to protect 200 Guernsey cows and three bulls from a nuclear attack. His dairy farm is only about 25 miles from Strategic Air Command headquarters near Omaha. In peacetime, the $35,000 shelter is used as a "loading shed" for the cows to get out of the sun. Roberts, who has also built shelters for his family and employees, says he built the livestock shelter because "the American dairy cow is one of the best in the world. It took 300 years to produce this type of animal. It makes sense to preserve it if we can."

GOSHEN CHRISTIAN MISSION MEETING

The regular meeting of the Goshen Christian Mission was held September 2 in the church basement. The retiring president, Mrs. Janet Burns, called the meeting to order by asking Mrs. Edna Callen to lead in prayer.

Roll call by the retiring secretary, Mrs. Lillian Elliott, with 11 members, one visitor, and eight children present. Minutes of the August meeting were read and approved.

The retiring treasurer, Mrs. Gertrude Marshall, read her report. It was accepted as read. Collection for the day was $22.00, offering $18. and $4.00 on boxes of cards sold.

The sunshine reporter, Mrs. Edna Colston, reported 98 cards sent and night visits made to the sick by ladies of the Mission.

After all reports were given, the new officers took over. They were: President, Ruby Worthington; vice president, Gladys Colston; secretary, Elaine Mastin; treasurer, Edna Callen; sunshine reporter, Edna Colston; ways and means chairman, Gertrude Marshall, and reporter, Eula LaFollette.

In the absence of the new president, the new vice president presided over the rest of the meeting. The Fellowship dinner, which will be October 18 in the church basement, was discussed. Missionary workers, Bill and Ethel Gulick, will be present then. On November 4, Ethel Gulick will be at the regular meeting and will present the program in the afternoon.

Hostesses for next month will be Lillian Elliott and Elaine Mastin, with Gertrude Marshall program leader.

After the meeting adjourned, a delicious dinner was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Worthington and Mrs. Callen.

In the afternoon, the program was opened with prayer by Edna Colston. The lesson on "Paul's Teaching On Faith," was very interesting and everyone took part. Those present were: Members,

VERONA HOMEMAKERS

The Verona Homemakers Club held its first meeting of the new year at the home of Mrs. Virginia Perkins, a new member. Eleven members were present. After the usual business, we were introduced to Miss Nancy White, our new Assistant County Home Demonstration Agent, and Mrs. Hattie Rimer, new Boone County Homemakers Club president.

Miss White made some very important announcements and distributed some very useful material to our club members. Mrs. Rimer made a very interesting talk on "What Is A Homemakers Club?" It was a great help to each of us and the club is grateful to her. Our guests enjoyed a delicious luncheon with us, prepared by our hostess.

The afternoon was spent teaching interested club members how to knit. Lesson leaders were Adele Reed and Vicki Hicks. Miss White had a supply of yarn and needles on hand.

The October meeting will be at the home of Sally Hicks. The lesson will be "Time Management," and should prove interesting and helpful. We want to extend a welcome to the housewives who would like to be a homemaker to come and join our club. Visitors are always welcome.

Members present were: Mrs. Pearl Lamm, Mrs. Ethel Fooks, Mrs. Edith Hamilton, Mrs. Sally Hicks, Mrs. Maureen Wilson, Mrs. Florence Florence, Mrs. Lillian Stephenson, Mrs. Phyllis Stephenson, Mrs. Vicki Hicks, Mrs. Adele Reed and Mrs. Virginia Perkins. Visitors were Misses Nancy White, Roma Jean Stephenson, Jennifer Wilson, Masters Timmy Hicks, Ray and Randy Hicks, and Mrs. Hattie Rimer.—Pub. Chm.

County Agent's 1/2 Acre

—by—
Joe Claxton

Old King Burley, Kentucky's agricultural mainstay from the cash income standpoint, celebrates his centennial this year. In that 100 years, he has come from a "sport crop" first raised in Northern Kentucky to a booming, sought-after component of many tobacco products.

The cigarette industry now is the biggest user. It is estimated most American cigarettes have about one-third burley content.

Burley's flavor and aroma, plus some burning quality (to keep the cigarette going) has brought it new friends.

Where did burley originate? This is not definitely known, nor the origin of its name. But those who have gone into the matter think burley as we know it today came from a seed source in Bracken County. It was (in the mature plant) much lighter in color and texture than the then standard burley. The latter was heavy, red and gummy with a leathery feel and appearance. The new plant was called white burley.

A Bracken County farmer, G. W. Barkley, first grew a crop of the "new" burley. George Webb, Brown County, Ohio, across the Ohio River, got some of this seed in 1864. When the plants came up, he threw them away as diseased. Not year (1865) being short of seed, he used the Barkley seed again. The mature plants cured to a "liquid gold" in color, he said later. It didn't appear this tobacco had any future, Webb said. Then the next year (probably in 1866) he grew a second crop and produced about 20,000 pounds. Two hogheads of this tobacco were shipped to Cincinnati and sold for a high price. In 1867 Webb shipped two hogheads to the St. Louis Fair and sold for $38 a hundred-weight.

"White" burley was off to the races, though it would get a slow start and take a long time to reach its present stature of about 25 million pounds grown in Kentucky alone. The name: The best dictionaries say its origin is virtually unknown. It is believed the tobacco's name was taken from family name, possibly Burleigh.

Whatever its origins, the crop now is a top ranker in money val-

What's Your Postal I. Q. ?

POP LEASING POLICY ADVANTAGEOUS TO GOVERNMENT

TRUE ☐ FALSE ☐

1. TRUE—The Post Office Department leasing policy is advantageous to the Government for the following reasons.

1. Private enterprise puts up the capital for the erection of new post office buildings.
2. These buildings are taxable and bring in revenue for the local community.
3. This plan makes badly needed buildings available for postal use which probably would not be available otherwise; thus contributing to a more efficient postal service.

ue. Last year, Kentucky farmers took in about $318,000,000 gross on their burley crops. Main use of burley today is in cigarettes. However, it also is used in pipe tobacco, to a lesser extent in cigars, and to some extent in other products such as snuff (now rapidly decreasing in consumption), cigarette tobacco (makings), and others.

For the first 50 years of its existence, burley went principally into pipe and chewing products. But about the time of World War I, it began to go into cigarettes. The 1920's saw a big spurt in cigarette consumption, and burley went with it. For the first 50 years, burley was sold by the hoghead system. Farmers raised, harvested and cured the tobacco, then pressed it into hogheads. Buyers sampled the hogheads, bought what they liked. Then, in the early 1900's, the auction system as we know it today began. Farmers moved their crops to commodious open floors in loose lots. Buyers handled the loose leaf there and made bids. One big improvement has been made in yields. In the early '30's, perhaps some time prior to that, yields in Kentucky averaged 800 lbs. an acre. Now they average 2,300 for this state.

Old King Burley has come a long way and probably will be around for many more years—diseases, insects and medical reports notwithstanding.

Several residents of Canada and Great Britain have served aboard the white hospital ship, S. S. Hope, in addition to nearly 600 American medical personnel.

The white hospital ship, S. S. Hope's medical mission to Guinea will begin in October and will be the vessel's first visit to the continent of Africa.

Even in old age, men have all the best of it in that they are likely to die ahead of the women.

Mrs. Harry Glacken of Crittenden, was the Saturday night guest of Mrs. Fannie Adams. While here she called on Mrs. R. F. DeMoisey.

Over the weekend, the following were calling on Mrs. Richard Howard, who is confined to her home due to illness: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deatherage and sons of Hebron; Mrs. Joseph Martin and children of Covington, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howard and daughter and husband of Versailles, Ind.

Mrs. Malcolm McNeely of Memphis, Tenn., spent a week with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Eisenhardt, Mrs. Eisenhardt and their two daughters, of Catalina Drive. Mrs. Eisenhardt's father and brother, Gary, came up for Labor Day and Mrs. McNeely returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Rouse of Bedinger Ave. entertained with a family dinner in honor of the anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rouse. Enjoying this happy event were the honored guests and their daughters, Annette and Mary Beth, Mr. and Mrs. Asa M. Rouse and children, Mills and Amy, Mrs. Martha Jane Carpenter, and William Mathis.

Enjoying a picnic on Labor Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newt Sanders and family of Limaburg Road, Burlington, were Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence and sons of Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smoot and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Stewart and daughters, all of Burlington.

Mrs. June Acra and Mrs. Sandy Rice and children of Lebanon, O., were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Richard Howard, Monday morning, on their way from returning Russell Acra to the VA Hospital. He had spent the weekend with his family in Lebanon. Russell has been in the hospital for five weeks taking tests and treatment for a back-injury received the first of the year.

Church Board Retreat

On Sunday afternoon and evening, 17 members of the Official Board of the Walton Christian Church and the minister, Rev. William Moore, enjoyed a retreat and picnic supper at the cabin of Dr. West on Bullock Pen Lake, near Crittenden. Elders of the church in attendance were James Spencer, Clayton Jones, Layne Cheesman, Frank Penick, Ben Doan; deacons, Howard Brann, Robert Kellum, Russell Groger, Paul Simpson, Dr. Gaines E. Huey, Finley Jacobs, Jr., Dale Stephens; deaconesses, Mrs. Jack Rouse, Mrs. Frederica Mann, Mrs. Victor Huff, and Mrs. Pete Miller. A delightful picnic supper and an afternoon of fellowship was enjoyed by this group of the church.

To make a ton of hay at 10 percent moisture, reports the American Grassland Council, 7,000 lbs. of water must be removed from 9,000 lbs. of fresh cut forage.

GRILLED CHICKEN is hard to beat for tasty, thrifty patio dinner—especially when basted with a flavorful fruit glaze.

FRUIT-GLAZED CHICKEN

1 broiler-fryer, quartered
1 can peaches, pears or apricots, undrained (8-1/2 oz.)
2 tsp. minced onion
2 tsp. brown sugar
2 tsp. A.I. Steak Sauce
2 tsp. butter

Mash fruit with fork. Combine all ingredients except chicken, simmer 15 minutes. Place chicken skin side up on grill 4 inches above hot coals. Baste with sauce often, turn chicken every 10-15 minutes for 45 to 60 minutes. Serves 4.

Boone Republican Dinner

At a $7.00-a-plate Boone County Republican dinner last Friday night, Clyde Middleton, Fourth District Congressional candidate, told a capacity audience that Kentuckians of this district must have a positive servant of the people who will act as a responsible representative for them in Washington.

Preceding Mr. Middleton on the program was Congressman Gene Snyder of Louisville, who wholeheartedly attacked the depressive national debt administration has imposed on the people.

Ethel Harmon Circle Meets

The Ethel Harmon Circle of New Bethel Baptist Church held its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, September 8, at the home of Mrs. Doris Webster. Mrs. Mary Porter, president, conducted the business session. The program, "Helping Our Church Worship," was presented by Mrs. Lillian Stephenson with Phyllis Stephenson, Elizabeth Strong and Doris Webster taking part.

The October meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Dorothy Porter.

CARD OF THANKS—

Take time to think... you can do more work with your head than you can with your feet.

Who are his silent partners?

That electric milker is a profitable partner... it permits one man to do the work of eight.

His other silent partner is equally important for it lets him earn more profit on every hundred-weight of milk. And it adds only pennies to overhead.

You guessed it. An electric hot water heater enables you to up-grade your dairy rating and increase profits without noticeably increasing your over-head or feed costs. With plenty of hot water, it's easy to keep everything spot and span. No problem meeting sanitation requirements, either.

A hot water heater is more than a smart investment. It means more profit. It means more comfort and convenience for your family, too.

CONCORD

Mrs. Lindsey Webster, Reporter

The Concord Baptist Church has had a good revival meeting. The singer was Tommie Boar, and our pastor and his wife, Bro. and Sister Spencer, helped out. The guest speaker was Norman Head of London, Ky. We had boys one night from Glencoe, and the Demosville church pastor and members were with us one night. They sang several songs and they really did a splendid job. Concord church members met with Clark's Creek, Sunday.

The Jones family had a reunion Sunday at the Burlington Fair grounds. There were 95 present. Lindsey Webster and wife spent Labor Day with his son's family at Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey E. Webster and Floyd Chapman went to Sparta to the stock sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Webster called on Mr. and Mrs. Harold McLoney one day last week.

Mrs. Floyd Chapman has been suffering from high blood pressure. Mrs. Marion Martin and Leonard Lawson are better; Herman Schuler is not so well. Mrs. Raymond Jones' daughter has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Webster visited Mr. and Mrs. Charla Lawson recently.

Those who entertained the singer and preachers during the revival were: Mrs. Helen Speagle, Mrs. Vinson Jones, Mrs. Raymond Jones, Mrs. Harvey Hughes, Mrs. Lewis Riley, and Mrs. Lindsey Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey E. Webster went to Walton, Wednesday. They went down to see his son, Ray, who is sick, and stopped by to see Mr. and Mrs. Harold McLoney, then went to Glencoe to see Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glacken. They also called on Marion Martin.

Give Us A King

Lesson for September 26, 1964
Background Scriptures: 1 Samuel 8 through 11
Devotional Reading: Psalm 72:1-7, 12-15

THERE USED to be a comic character named Popeye. He once got to be king of some imaginary country, and wore the biggest crown the cartoonist could invent for him. Then one day there was a revolution. The streets were filled with people yelling, "Down with King Popeye!" Old Popeye had a fast cure for the revolution. (This was back in the days when revolutions could sound funny.) He came out the back of the balcony, took off his crown and threw it to the mob. Then an attendant handed him a derby hat, which he put on. So everybody began to shout, "Long live President Popeye!" This little tale illustrates a point: leadership there must always be. What name the leader has is not important, it's how and where he leads that is the question.

Power in the people

Now the little "nation" of Israel wanted a king. (We put "nation" in quotes because in the time of Saul it was hardly more than a confederation of tribes.) They had had great leadership from Samuel, but as he grew old the people began to worry about what would happen next. So they demanded: Give us a King! If you read the story it may raise in your mind an old and yet quite modern question: Where is the root of power in a nation?

The United States has the same answer the ancient Hebrews had: The people choose their leaders, the people's power is delegated to those leaders. What the people give the people can take. Mussolini, "Il Duce," Leader of Italy, once operated Italy as if it belonged to him. But there came a time when the people no longer supported him; and they hanged him in a public place. Power rises and resides with the people. They can misuse it, they may neglect it and let someone steal it; but the Hebrew nation, and ours, believed and believes that government can be only by consent of the governed.

Power corrupts

Give us a King! the populace shouted; and when they got one, named Saul, and had vowed loyalty to him, they all went home. Now we have a King our troubles are over, they thought, and half-drunk with delight they tramped away through the dust. But there was one sober man there present, the prophet Samuel. He had in God's name selected and anointed this new king. But he could see the dangers in having a king at all. Saul's power to be king was conferred on him by choice of the people and of Samuel too. But as someone would say more than a thousand years afterwards, power corrupts; and it would corrupt Saul. This new king would forget that his power had been given to him, not born with him; Samuel realized this and drew a bitter word-picture of what a king would be. In describing the king, any future monarch, the verb Samuel uses is mostly "he will take..."

Rights and duties

Is this inevitable? Does all power always corrupt? Not always; but the danger is that possessors of power are in constant danger of being corrupted by it. Samuel must have thought the future was not loaded against the nation, for he wrote a document (a "white paper" as we might call it today) giving the "rights and duties of the kingship." This, in germ at least, was a Constitution. A truly democratic system was there in essence. One of the original thirteen colonies, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, wrote into its constitution the phrase "that this may be a government of laws, not of men..." In dictatorships of all kinds the law is what the dictator says it is—"I AM the State!" Monarchs have lived above the law; yet when they have done so, they have forgotten the first law of all, the law of God. What became of Samuel's book? Destroyed perhaps by some greedy king. But the laws of God are not so easy to destroy.

CARD OF THANKS—

I wish to thank everyone for the cards, prayers, visits, flowers and other gifts of kindness I received during my stay in St. Elizabeth Hospital. Your kindness will always be remembered.

THE RIGHT APPLE

When there are so many apples on the tree, how do you pick the right one? This is always the problem of youth. There are so many roads, so many opportunities, so many choices. How do you decide which may be best? And when you have made a choice, how do you know it is the right one?

Education is today's solution to the question of youth. Education is today's solution to the question of youth. Education is today's solution to the question of youth. Education is today's solution to the question of youth.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his own sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

20 YEARS AGO

SEPTEMBER 21, 1944

A pretty wedding of September 15 was that of Miss Betty Acree, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Acree, of East Bend Road, and Mr. William Allen, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Allen, of Big Bone. The Big Bone Baptist Church was the scene of this wedding which took place in the presence of the immediate families.

Sgt. James Carpenter, son of Mrs. J. W. Carpenter, has contracted malaria fever from being in a jungle area somewhere in India. He is in a hospital, according to a recent letter received by his mother.

Samuel Collins of Sadleville, Ky. was struck by an automobile on North Main St., Walton. He was taken to the hospital by R. E. Brugh.

The annual Boone County 4-H and Utopia Fair held its twelfth successful event at the grounds near Burlington. There was a good attendance despite the busy tobacco cutting season.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hanks entertained over the weekend for her sister, Mrs. W. M. Clontz, and Mr. Clontz of Harlan, Ky.

Mrs. Ora Stone has returned home after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Helen Epping, and Mr. Epping at Richmond, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Elliott had as dinner guests Sunday night, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Grubbs and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brugh.

Mrs. Maurice Stephenson spent from Thursday until Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Spanton, and family of Taylor Mill Road.

Clifford Jones of the U. S. Navy, arrived here for a short leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Jones, of Verona Road. Their other son, Sgt. R. L. Jones, of the U. S. Marines, is still enjoying his leave after 28 months overseas.

Mrs. Hannah Chapman and grandchildren were calling at the Elmer Chapman home in Walton, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Arnett and daughter spent Sunday with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Haddix.

Miss Wanda Bridges leaves for college this week. She has been visiting relatives and friends before departing.

Tilford Menefee is home on a furlough. He has been visiting friends and relatives around Fliskburg.

The Fidells Class and the Business Women's Circle met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wilson for their regular monthly meeting. Enjoying the evening were Mrs. Myrtle Little, Mrs. Edith Turner, Mrs. Martha Jane Carpenter, Mrs. Katie Hankinson, Mrs. Virgie Allen, Mrs. Lola Mae Bollington, Mrs. Geraldine Harris, Mrs. Blanche Roberts, Mrs. Roberta Duchemin, Mrs. Mary Humphrey, Mrs. Lucy Breeden, Mrs. Lucity Neumeister, Rev. and Mrs. R. F. DeMolisey, and Mrs. Will Soden. Mrs. Soden was co-hostess with Mrs. Wilson.

The September meeting of the Christian Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. Lottie Powers for a luncheon meeting.

Guests and members present were Mrs. Katie Ransler, Mrs. Bessie Moore, Mrs. Harris Moore, Mrs. John C. Bedinger, Mrs. Mabel Groger, Mrs. Katie Welch, Mrs. Clara Neumeister, Mrs. Ora Fry, Mrs. Irene Bush, Mrs. Hattie Percival, Mrs. Georgia Arnold, Mrs. Harry Bird, Mrs. June Vallandingham, Mrs. Lydia Vallandingham, Miss Lib Ingram, Rev. George S. Caroland, and Miss Mary Belle Alexander.

Veterans Administration Questions and Answers

Q—I have a policy loan on my World War II life insurance policy. Can payments on this loan be made in any amount or are there restrictions?

A—The only restriction is that the payment be at least five dollars or more is acceptable.

Q—I have been receiving $75.00 compensation because of my son's death in service. Has this rate been increased lately?

A—A new law provides graduated rates to parents, depending upon other income which must be estimated and reported each year. Rates have been increased about 10 percent.

Q—Will the VA let me know who is listed as beneficiary on my government life insurance?

A—Yes, the VA will give you that information upon request. However, if you are not sure who the beneficiaries are, it is preferable to make a new designation the way you want it now. This will cancel all previous designations.

MORNING VIEW

Helen Dance, Reporter

Rev. Frank Lipscomb, Sr. held worship services at Amity Church on September 6. Also, Wednesday night, the ninth, he held prayer meeting in the place of Brother Brannon, who was on vacation at that time.

I am happy to report that Eddie Flisk is out of the hospital, up and about once again. After so long an illness it's certainly nice to see him feeling so well.

Sunday, September 6, a dual birthday and anniversary party was held for Mrs. Ann Beckett and William Dance on their birthdays, also Mr. and Mrs. William Dance's anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Dance, Helen Dance, Bill McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Cox of Frankfort, Mrs. Oma Dance and children, Ronald and Beverly, Alfred Tilmes, Miss Monica Jackson of Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beckett, Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Beckett, Mrs. Mabel Hicks, Miss Anna Mae Dance of Cynthiana, and Donald Dance of Berry. After a wonderful dinner a few went fishing, while others enjoyed playing croquet and pitching horseshoes. After a delightful evening, all departed feeling tired, yet happy.

Mrs. Frances Duncan and children, John and Judy, spent one day last week visiting Mrs. Bertha Duncan.

Have you noticed the trees lately? Their leaves are starting to turn the familiar yellow, red and gold. They'll soon be all dressed up in their new fall clothes. It won't be long until their radiant colors will be glowing brightly in the autumn sun. Even though this splendor will be short-lived, it certainly makes a person feel good to see the earth clothed in such finery.

Thought for the Week: Smile when you feel anger, the reward is great.

DROP IN THE BUCKET!

Southern's lowered rates on grain in the Southeast show what can be done nationwide!

The savings to consumers from the 60 per cent reduction Southern Railway has made in its grain freight rates are just a "drop in the bucket" compared to the savings that could be made in the nation's total transportation bill. But these savings—already being felt in the South—will add up to an estimated $40 million annually. Especially will housewives, small businesses and farmers benefit—all of whom suffer most when unnecessary regulation keeps freight rates artificially high.

These money-saving grain rates, as now in effect, are spurring the development of a great new, billion-dollar-a-year cattle and hog raising industry in the South. More and larger feed mills, feed lots and packing houses will be needed. "Family-size" farms now have a greater opportunity to profit and grow. New jobs are being created. Families will eat better at lower cost.

And don't forget—we're talking about a rate reduction on just one commodity in just one section of the country. Vastly greater savings to consumers nationwide will result when all carriers are free to lower their rates on all agricultural and bulk commodities. Unnecessary regulation of reductions in freight rates is costing American consumers billions of dollars a year. These outdated regulations can be eliminated. In the public interest—in your interest—they should be. Now!

Wiley Nominated by GOP For Co. Judge

Charles Wiley

The Republican Executive Committee of Boone County, meeting last Thursday, elected Charles Wiley, of Beaver Road, Walton, as candidate to fill the unexpired term of the late Judge Charles Niblack. Wiley currently is publicity and advertising chairman of the Middleton-for-Congress campaign, and has been deeply engaged in politics for several years.

William Tanner, Boone County campaign chairman, said, "We couldn't have made a wiser choice. The Post Times-Star recently described him as having the 'push of a steam-driven piston' and they are right. I never saw anyone yet who could accomplish what he can and in such a varied complexity. He is a tireless, enthusiastic worker; he is practical; he is a quick thinker; he is used to making important, vital decisions quickly and responsibly; and above all, he is a dedicated believer in conservative, responsible government and administration."

When questioned on the position he would take if elected, Wiley commented, "I believe my position is clear in the four-point program and six basic issues we have formulated. Granted, things need to be done in Boone County, but we don't intend to approach any situation as anything to be afraid of or to brush aside. We're going to roll up our sleeves, use some practical ingenuity, and get to work. In Boone County we have over 30,000 of the finest people you'll find anywhere; they have as much pride in their area as I have, whether life-time residents or newcomers. They are as anxious to solve their problems as I am. All we need here right now is some leadership, some willingness, and man-to-man cooperation. I think this is what the people want, and this is, unequivocally, what we will give them."

Ammerman Family Reunion

Edgar Baker, principal, announced that the Educational Television sets were in readiness for the first telecast, which was on Sept. 14.

Pretty Fisk-Harding Wedding August 29

Miss Janet Dale Fisk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisk of South Taylor Mill Road, was married August 29 at Hickory Grove Baptist Church to Fred Jan Harding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harding of Pleasant Ridge, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The bride wore a gown of white satin. The fitted bodice accented with a sabrina neckline was adorned with pearl embroidery. Back of her gown had tiny buttons from the neck to the skirt with a chapel train. Her crown of pearls held an illusion veil in place.

The bride carried a bouquet of lace mums with a white orchid in the center. Her attendants carried cascades of white and blue lace mums. Mrs. Nellie Goodridge, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a blue floor length dress designed with a shell bodice and bell shaped skirt.

The attendants were Helen Harding, sister of the groom; Jane Black and Peggy Leonard. They wore identically styled blue floor length dresses.

Branda Goodridge, niece of the bride, acted as junior flower girl, with blue floor length dress, carrying a basket of lace mums, dropping rose petals as she went down the aisle. Steven Piper acted as ring bearer.

Ronald Goodridge served as best man, with Jeffrey Fisk, David Webster and David Moser as groomsmen.

The bride's mother wore an egg shell colored dress with orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a silk green and white dress with green orchids as her corsage. Following the wedding a reception was held in the church basement.

After a Southern states wedding trip, the couple returned on Arcadia Ave., Lakeside Park. She is a teacher in the Park Hills school, and he is employed at General Electric, attending evening classes at U. C.

Boone County at State Fair

Seven Boone County 4-H members were in competition at the Kentucky State Fair, Sept. 11-12. Billy Moore and John Holliday both won blue ribbons on their tractor driving skills.

State Fair Winners From Kenton County

"Our 4-H Club members should be congratulated for their fine club work in 1964. Our appreciation should be given to the 4-H leaders who so willingly gave their time and efforts to help these youth with their projects, and to Mr. Robert G. Maddox, our congratulations, thanks and appreciation for his time and effort to help us all. Bob, we are glad that you will have some time to volunteer for this work, and we will certainly miss you as our Assistant Agent."

"Two championships were won by our boys in electric, Keith Riddell and Ronnie Holt. The other four electric entries, Carl Wicklund, Wayne Fields, Dick Richardson and Mike Richter, won blue ribbons."

In photography, Carl Garlough won a blue ribbon, red and white ribbon on his entries.

In woodwork, Rusty Armstrong won a blue ribbon, and Wally Finnell a red ribbon. Winners in entomology were, first year, David Levin, red ribbon; second year, Wally Finnell, white ribbon; third year, Carl Garlough, red ribbon.

In the clothing classes, there were five blue ribbons: Janet Schwartz, Rhonda Cross, Deborah Bailey, Laine Marshall and Elaine Justice; three red ribbons, Donna Reila, Sandy LaFollette, and Barbara Budke; one white ribbon, Alice Budke.

In foods, there was one blue ribbon and seven red ribbons. Barbara Budke won a blue, and the red ribbons went to Judy Schwartz, Patricia Nolan, Annette Eckler, Andrea Wicklund, Cheri Northcutt, and Elaine Justice, Donna Elbert, Laine Marshall, and a white ribbon to Jane Kunkel.

Girls in the canning unit won six blue ribbons: Donna Elbert had four blue ribbons, and Connie Fields and Charlotte Richardson had one each. In red ribbons, Connie Fields had six, Donna Elbert four, Charlotte Richardson four, and Mary Cummins one.

Winners of white ribbons were: Donna Elbert won a blue, Charlotte Richardson five; Connie Fields, four, and Paulette Stacey, one.

In home furnishings, Kenton County had three blue winners: Connie Fields, Frieda Waincoat, and Barbara Budke. There were four red ribbons in this group: Donna Elbert, Vicki Works, Alice Budke and Jerry Burns.

It is hoped the boys and girls will continue this good work in '65. Leaders feel that they made a very good showing at the Kentucky State Fair.

1,061 New Kentucky Classrooms

1,061 SPARKLING NEW CLASSROOMS built in a $45.2 million construction-and-equipment program are being opened for the 1964-1965 school year to young Kentuckians in elementary and high schools. Typical of the new and renewal program are these two projects in Eastern Kentucky. Floyd County's $400,000 Charles S. Clark Elementary School (top) is a consolidation of 19 one, two, and three-room schools. The new school, named for the county superintendent, is 4 1/2 miles northwest of Prestonsburg. It contains 18 classrooms, three multi-purpose rooms and three offices. Shown in construction in Middlesboro (bottom) is that city's 28-room West End Elementary School. In it and the new 22-room East End Elementary School, six elementary schools are being consolidated.

A Look At Education

—by—
Eugene Robinson

Resignations

Teachers wishing to resign from positions in the schools are encouraged to submit a written request to this effect to the board of education at their earliest possible convenience. Such requests must be submitted not later than 30 days before the opening date of school.

Flowers

In case of sickness of a staff member or death in the immediate family of a staff member, flowers may be sent. They are paid for from the funds of the local teacher organization.

Showers, Baby & Wedding Gifts

Teachers are not expected to take part in such occasions as a group or individuals. This would be a voluntary and personal thing for teachers and not a part of school activities.

Method of Pay

Teachers are to receive their checks regularly on the first day of every month, provided they have their monthly reports completed and in the principal's office. Checks may be picked up in the principal's office at the close of school on pay day.

Absence Register

The attendance register is to be kept daily in ink, with attendance reports due not later than the third day following the close of the school month. Under no circumstances is erasing permitted in the attendance register. Fractions are to be in decimals and carried out to two decimal places. Draw a line through wrong numbers and write at top or side of error.

Permanent Record Cards

All permanent record cards in the principal's office and in folders in classrooms are to be kept current, being posted at the end of every six weeks and semester. This enables the principal and faculty to have the necessary information for guidance of students. Students are never to have access to permanent record cards and yellow folder in classroom.

Enrollment Cards

Teachers are to fill out and sign enrollment cards for each student entering his class. These are due on Friday of the first full week of school.

Textbook Cards

In those classes having free textbooks, the teacher is to fill out a textbook card for each student and send it home for signing. In addition, a summary form is to be filled out and turned in to the superintendent's office during the first week of school. This summary form is to be used by the teacher in checking textbooks at the close of the year.

Opening the School Day

Each teacher will open school every day by reading a few verses of the Bible without comment and having the pupils repeat the Lord's Prayer and pledge to the flag.

Playground Supervision

Teachers must be with their group for supervision on the playground and all other places in the school at all times, unless the principal provides a schedule for such duties. According to law, teachers can be held liable for injury to a child that is hurt while under their supervision; therefore, great care should be exercised in this area.

BAND BOOSTERS MEET

The Walton-Verona Band Boosters met Monday, September 21 in the school music room with 17 members present. The vice president, Mrs. Nadine Magee, presided in the absence of the president.

Music director James Layne discussed the "semester fee" and its purpose.

The boosters will sell Christmas cards again this year. Plans were discussed for a ham supper to be held at a later date.

Mrs. Layne discussed coming events of the band. Night now, band members are making preparation for the "Band Day" at Eastern State College, Richmond, Ky., October 17.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Reporter

Mrs. and Mrs. L. M. Deuser enjoyed a visit several days the past week from her aunt, Mrs. Nell Clark, of Covington.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp and Mrs. D. B. Binder visited on Sunday with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. James Stephens and family, of North Vernon, Ind.

Miss Mary Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Rector and Mrs. J. A. Keeney visited on Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bryan of Grants Lick, Ky. They were disappointed in not finding their aunt, Mrs. J. B. Smith, at home.

Earl Armstrong of Newtonville, Ohio, was in their neighborhood last weekend and purchased some cattle from M. Wharton.

We were very pleased to have a good number at Sunday school. We are hoping that now that summer is about gone our attendance will increase. There is a steadily increasing attendance at the Sunday evening service.

Mr. and Mrs. Lathan Brinkley and daughters called on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Brinkley.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Stephens Rapp this weekend had the grading done in preparation for building a new home on a lot obtained from his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp.

A fish fry, chili and sandwich supper is planned at the Methodist Church for Saturday evening, Oct. 10th.

MORNING VIEW

Heleen Dance, Reporter

Mrs. Russell Cook recently celebrated her birthday with her children and grandchildren. I sincerely wish her many more happy birthdays in the future.

Miss Becky Cheesman attended a slumber party at the home of Miss Dilema Sizemore, Sept. 18.

The attendance contest at Morning View church will have been in its fifth Sunday, Sept. 20. The attendance has steadily started to climb. Let's keep it that way by supporting the team of your choice — the reds or the blues.

Once again our drought has been broken by a much-needed rain. Even though most of the crops have been harvested or are ready to be, the rain was heartily welcomed to fill the cisterns and wells from which we receive our water supply. Nothing could be a better blessing to us than fresh water to supply our needs and refresh the beauty of the world around us.

Since the baseball season is almost ended, we must face the fact that the Reds of Cincinnati have goofed again. Hopes are terribly slim for the pennant, but second place is still in view. Yes, we must face the facts, the Reds will just have to let some other team fight the Yankees this year.

Thought for the Week: Sometimes it's hard to get rid of the irritating fuzz after a peach of an argument.

Legs Star in New Fashions

NEW STOCKING STYLES dominate fashion news for fall and winter. Textures on the legs are prime mood setters. Here a new herringbone textured nylon seamless stocking by Hanes in brown and white provides the focal point of interest. Diamonds are a fair lady's best friend when they are by Hanes in a new lacy diamond pattern for late day wear. Another important style, Hanes Cantreese-Sherlock, provides the first heel and toe knit of Ram Guard fabric, an innovation which stops runs from starting in the foot of the stocking.

Veterans Administration Questions and Answers

Q—I was retired by the Air Force for disabilities incurred in an aircraft accident in 1958. I was told then that no training was available under VA programs. Could that be true?

A—It could have been true then, as Vocational Rehabilitation benefits were formerly provided only for wartime disabilities. Training is now available if needed to overcome your postwar disabilities. You should ask your VA Regional Office to determine your eligibility.

Q—in reviewing my government life insurance policy, I find no record of who is supposed to get the insurance should I die. How do I find out who is named as the beneficiary?

A—Your original designation of beneficiary is on file in the office where your insurance premiums are paid. You can bring your beneficiary designation up to date by executing a new designation form. The form can be picked up at any VA office.

Q—I have lost my original discharge and was told by a friend I must have the original for VA home loan guaranty purposes. Is this true?

A—The VA would like to have the original. But if it has been lost, they will accept a certified copy.

Staffordsburg

Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Lathan Brinkley and daughters visited his parents on Sunday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Finnell and children and Betty Rich spent one day at the Ky. State Fair. Sam Coleman, who is well known here, is in the Roadside Rest Home, recuperating from a recent stroke.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Keeney and daughter of Chicago, spent a recent weekend here with his mother, other relatives, and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brunst and son were recent guests of friends in Austin, Ind.

Mrs. Mabel Vanlandingham has returned home from St. Elizabeth Hospital and is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Deuser enjoyed calls from relatives and friends over the weekend, including Chester Rapp, Chas. Neuspickle, Mrs. Joseph Goedde, Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brooks, Mrs. Chas. Deuser and children, Mrs. Chas. Sparks and daughter, Freda Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Denver Binder and Harry Armstrong.

The Staffordsburg Homemakers met for their first meeting of the new year at the Howard Fredericks picnic grounds with Mrs. W. O. Earl as hostess. The slate of officers who served so effectively the past year were re-elected for another year. Mrs. Shaw read the gardening lesson and quite a lot of discussion followed. Twelve members were present. We hope all members will be at the next meeting to get a good start for the new year.

The WSCS met with Mrs. John Shaw, hostess, and Mrs. Sanford Rucker, program leader. Mrs. Cecil Faulkner read the scripture, followed by prayer by Mrs. Rucker. Topic for discussion was new plans for a new age. Those having part on the program were Mrs. Dewey Parsons, Mrs. Don Keeney, Mrs. Rucker, and Mrs. J. Keeney. The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Don Keeney, who told of the seminar which she attended at Immanuel church. Mrs. Ballinger distributed the brooms to members for sale. If you have tried these brooms, you will surely want another. Just call any of the members. Others present: Mrs. G. Finnell, Jr., Mrs.

Tired Tilly finally learned that shopping could be fun. She read the ads in classified and half her work was done.

What Is God Doing?

Lesson for September 27, 1964

Background Scriptures: 1 Samuel 12; Hebrews 11:32-35; 12:1-2
Devotional Reading: Psalm 67:1-10

IN THE midst of personal agonies, or swept into a vast public calamity like a drought or a flood or a war, the cry goes up from bewildered souls confused by pain. What is God doing? He ought to be here, he ought to take a hand; where is he in this hour of need? This is not a new question; it has no doubt been asked ever since men began seriously to believe in God. One wide-ranging answer is found, in Dr. Foreman many places and eras, in the Old Testament. Prophets when asked this question or any question like it, would not answer by talking theology or philosophy; they pointed to history. The God of the Prophets was no do-nothing God.

God in events
God, the God of the Bible, is not so remote that you have to track through eternity to find him. God is here, God is now. In ways which no prophet claimed to explain but which every prophet believed, God is in events. What a non-religious person might see only as an event which is historical and nothing more, the prophets see as an act of God. Samuel, judge and prophet, in a farewell address pointed out some of the events which were divine acts affecting the story and the fate of the Hebrew people. One great event was freedom.

"I am the Lord thy God who brought you out of . . . the house of bondage." Who set the Israelites free? A series of regrettable circumstances, no doubt the Egyptians said. The Egyptians were so far from believing the escape of their slaves was a doing of God, that they tried more than once to re-enslave them. Who set them free? Moses, you may say. Certainly there would have been no freedom without him. "Who was it?" "God," said Moses; "God," said all the prophets. The word that made the exodus possible; the survival in the terrible wilderness; the whole of the many-sided, many-chaptered Event, was God's story, for it was the doing of God.

Homeland and king
Another great event, or series of events making one great one, was the settling of the Israelites in a homeland of their own. This sounds simple, like "the winning of the west" or "the American civil war." Actually it was a long process, with ups and downs, successes and failures, not just an orderly process but disorderly, crude in many ways, a tale of "blood, sweat and tears." Yet Samuel (typical of other prophets) gives credit to God. Then just recently—that is, shortly before Samuel's farewell—these Hebrew people, aware that more fighting would be necessary before they could feel secure in their still unstable homeland, had elected a king. Samuel, however, says that God set this king up for them. This is remarkable; for Samuel disliked the whole business of having a king at all. It shows he had the rare ability to see the doing of God in events he himself did not welcome.

IF . . .
As of the time of Samuel's address, it looked as if God was not only in history, but in history very much on one side, the side of the Hebrews. But Samuel holds up a red light, a warning sign. Don't think that because God has been for you, in the past, he will always be for you whatever happens, whatever you may do. It is possible that God may turn against you—you and your king. Notice that Samuel does not say God will turn against Israel, or that he will not. The prophet sets up one word, a might word: IF. If you (the people, the nation) will fear, and serve, and hearken, and not rebel, and follow . . . then it will be well; but if not, the hand of the Lord will be against you. In short, God is in history, he is a God of action. But what the action of God will be, leaves to the choice of his people.

CARD OF THANKS—

May I express my deepest gratitude to all my many friends and neighbors for all their acts of kindness during my recent illness, and to the people at Booth Hospital for their most considerate attention, which made my recovery possible.

—MRS. LILLIE MOORE
11-39*

THE ROMANS MOVED RIVERS

In this age of technological wizardry never sneer at the past.

The Roman engineers who designed this aqueduct in Spain were brilliant men. Skill such as theirs, more than the might of Caesar's armies, fashioned the vast civilization of the Empire.

In this age of scientific discovery never overlook the Truths long ago revealed.

Christianity was born in a remote province of ancient Rome. It suffered generations of persecution until it converted even its persecutors. And when barbarians overran the Empire, our faith found a foothold in their hearts as well.

In a civilization of modern marvels the Church still raises its towers of truth. And when, next Sunday, we come with our families to worship, somewhere a congregation will be singing:

*O where are kings and empires now But, Lord, thy Church is praying yet—
Of old that went and came? A thousand years the same!*

WHITES TOWER

Mrs. Ralph Howard, Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howard of the Tower, were pleasantly surprised recently by a visit from their nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howard, of Versailles, Ind., and some relatives from Kokomo, Ind.

Robert Grubbs of the Tower, visited at his home recently. He is stationed at Ft. Knox.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ledford and Jerry Blinder and Barbara

NOTICE—

Notice is hereby given that Harold Schadler and Charles Franklin Schadler have been appointed Co-Administrators of the estate of Charles Schadler, deceased, by the Kenton County Court.

All persons having claims against said estate shall present them, verified according to law, and all persons indebted to the said estate are requested to call and settle with the undersigned Administrators not later than December 31, 1964.

Sherman visited Versailles State Park, Indiana, recently. Jerome and Cora Cox of the Tower, spent the weekend recently at their home in Williamsburg, Ky. They teach at the Taylor Mill and Ryland Heights schools, respectively.

The festival at St. Cecilia church at Independence, drew a large crowd. They served about 1,300 dinners but had to turn away over 100 because of having sold out. It was a real success and a big help to the new church, as well as to the new church addition.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Caldwell of Visalia, called on Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howard, Tuesday of last week. Mary Northcutt was also a visitor in the Howard home.

Jim Burke and Mr. and Mrs. Howard attended the Latonia Race Course last week and enjoyed the afternoon.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to the family and relatives of Joe Blau of Walton, formerly of this vicinity, who passed away in his sleep.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaler Marshall and daughter, Laine Ellen, attending the Kentucky State Fair one day, where their daughter received several blue ribbons on her 4-H work.

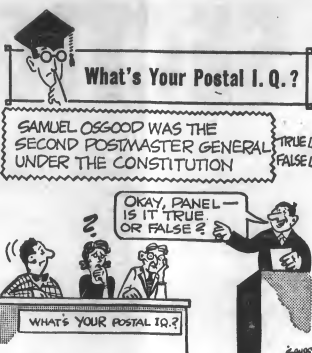

We were glad to hear that Mabel Vanlandingham of Steep Creek, is back home from the hospital. We wish for her good health in the future.

Harry Armstrong of the Tower, and Charles Losey of Staffordsbury, have been busy saving fire wood for the winter.

Apples are very good and also plentiful this year.

Twenty-seven nurses who served aboard the hospital ship, E. S. Hope, during its ten-month visit to Ecuador, will also be with the ship during its coming mission to Guinea.

Feed accounts for 55 to 70 percent of the cost of producing livestock and livestock products.

1. FALSE—Samuel Osgood was our first Postmaster General under the Constitution. He was appointed in September of 1789.

Benjamin Franklin was appointed by the Continental Congress to head up the American Postal System in 1775 and he is generally known as the first Postmaster General; however, he was not the first Postmaster General under the Constitution.

CRITTENDEN

Mrs. Walter Cooke, Reporter

Mrs. Frank May is in St. Elizabeth Hospital, suffering from cuts and bruises. She was in a car wreck last week.

Mrs. Rosella (York) Wayland of Erlanger, underwent surgery at St. Elizabeth Hospital, last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Olan Piner and Mrs. Belle Sparrow attended the funeral of Mrs. Alma (Anderson) Perrin at Fiskburg, Wednesday.

Mrs. Eugene Sparrow of Florence, was visiting her parents,

Mr. and Mrs. Olan Piner, Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robert Mann announce the birth of a baby boy. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ira Mann and Mr. and Mrs. Russ.

John Bailey has returned to his home in Florida, after having been called here due to the death of his sister, Mrs. Eva Schulte.

OAK RIDGE

Shirley Talient, Reporter

A number of people from the community are in the hospital at this time. Chris King is still in St. Elizabeth Hospital, where they are starting physical therapy treatments on him. Richard Morgan of Lone Oak Drive, underwent serious stomach surgery and now has pneumonia. We pray that he may recover and soon be home with his lovely family. Linda Hollingsworth, who is a senior at Simon Kenton, underwent an emergency appendectomy at St. Elizabeth Hospital last Wednesday and is getting along fine, and will probably be home before this is printed. Mrs. Bea Guffey of Lipscomb Road, has been a patient at St. Elizabeth Hospital for nearly three weeks. She hoped to get home last weekend but we have not heard whether she got home or not. Russell Kenner has been a patient at Booth Hospital for two weeks, suffering from high blood pressure. He is now at his home. Mrs. Joyce Hingler tells us that her mother is in St. Elizabeth Hospital, having had a heart attack.

Sandy Richardson hurt her neck Friday evening. She was riding home from school with Freddie Joe Kennedy and his car was involved in an accident. She had it x-rayed and the report says she is suffering from neck spasms. We hope she is soon feeling up to par again.

We were shocked this morning to hear that little Tracy Lillard, had died last night after having spasms. Our sympathy goes out to this fine family.

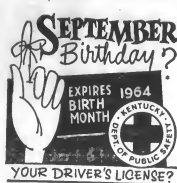

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bailey and son, Greg, spent the weekend visiting relatives in Beattyville. Ky. Greg got sick while there and they had to bring him home and put him to bed.

There was a big crowd Saturday at the sale of Mrs. Jane Horton, but they were mostly a visiting, looking crowd rather than a bidding crowd. Things didn't bring a very big price.

We just heard that Mrs. Jane Oden of Finston Hill Drive, in Taylor Mill, collapsed at work last weekend and is in Booth Hospital.

We were all grateful for the rain last week though it is too late for it to do much good except to put some water in the cisterns and to settle the dust.

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Frank Boone on Janet Drive. Several of the members have moved to other states this summer and they have openings for some new members. The club meets in the home of members once a month and studies better methods of homemaking, family relationships, decorating, and many other interesting things. Anyone in the Taylor Mill area interested in becoming a member of the Oak Ridge club, please contact the president, Mrs. Reece Kennedy, 356-5907. Those present were Mrs. Stanley Ashcraft, Mrs. Frank Boone, Mrs. Chester Talient, Mrs. Reece Kennedy, Mrs. Kenneth Galloway, Mrs. Ollie Miller, Mrs. Allen Monson, and four guests, Mrs. Charles Kelly, Mrs. Donald Scroggins, Mrs. Elmo Thompson, and Mrs. Lawrence Treadway. Walter Dorman of Forest Lane, who was in St. Elizabeth Hospital for nearly three months following brain surgery, has been transferred to the Veterans Administration Hospital in Cincinnati. His wife was able to bring him home for the weekend but he returned to the hospital Sunday evening.

A Look At Education

—by— Eugene Robinson

For the benefit of those that may not be reading this article each week and do not understand what has been appearing in the article I want to explain that for some time now I have been using the space to reproduce the "Handbook on Policies and Regulations for the Walton-Verona Schools." Every employee was given a copy of this handbook at the beginning of the year and I felt that the public might be interested in some of the information.

However before continuing with this you might be interested in knowing that our first month closed with 718 students. In spite of this large increase in enrollment, some minor transportation problems that required some changes in bus schedules and the usual school problems I think this has been the finest start in the seven years that I have been in the school system. This has come about because of a good attitude on the part of students, parents and teachers. I course this is what makes a good school. Everyone working for the good of all and with the attitude that other groups are important, that they have problems and needs which each of us can help with. The problems come when parents, students and teachers begin to make selfish demands and need to do their best in sharing the burdens of making a good school. I appreciate our fine start and want to thank all groups and all people for their efforts in making it a good start and may we all double our efforts to make this year one of the finest years that the Walton-Verona schools have ever experienced.

GRADE BOOK

All teachers will turn in the grade book, blue cards, keys, yellow records and the other necessary reports at the close of the school year. No check will be issued until all of this is done.

LESSON PLANS

All teachers are to use the lesson plan book provided by the board of education. Before leaving in the afternoon, each teacher will see that their lesson plans and assignments are in order for the next day and leave same on their desk. If a teacher anticipates being away the next day a more detailed lesson plan must be left on the desk for the substitute teacher.

BUS DUTY

All teachers will take their turn at performing late and early bus duty according to the schedule provided by their principal. Teachers performing bus duty must be at school before the first bus leaves in the morning. These teachers will remain until the last bus leaves in the afternoon.

RESPECT OF STUDENTS

Teachers are to demand the respect of students at all times, by insisting that students call them by the proper title, (Miss, Mrs. or Mr.)

PROTECTION OF PROPERTY

Teachers are to exercise the greatest care at all times to protect the building, furniture, and apparatus of the school from damage by pupils; and when damage has been done they shall make every effort to ascertain who is responsible and report the matter fully to the principal. In case of willful damage a student may be sent home and required to have parents come and make necessary adjustment for damage.

STUDENT ERRANDS

Teachers are not to send students to town on errands.

TEACHING HOURS

Teachers are to arrive at school 15 minutes before school starts and are to stay 15 minutes after school is dismissed. This gives them time to get organized for the day, to help students who need help, and to leave lesson plan book in order for the next day.

FIRE DRILLS

When fire drills are held once a month, each teacher is to be responsible for directing his group out of the building in an orderly fashion any time during the day.

SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

Teachers are expected to be in attendance at PTA meetings, assembly programs and other school activities.

Any teacher who is sponsoring an extra-curricular activity is responsible for all activities of that organization and for seeing that the group is properly chaperoned. The sponsoring of clubs and activities is to be evenly distributed among the staff and only staff members will sponsor clubs and all other school activities.

TO TRY AGAIN

The Boone County Board of Education, in special session last week, voted to ask Boone Fiscal Court to place a 25-cent general tax levy on the November ballot. In June the measure was defeated by more than two to one in a special election. The board wants to try again. This does not affect the Walton-Verona Independent School District.

Revival at Wilmington

Revival services will be held at the Wilmington Baptist Church at Fickburg, October 12-18, each evening at 7:30 and Sunday morning at 11:00, according to the pastor, William F. McGibney. John Wall, of Dry Ridge, will be the evangelist. Rev. J. B. Spegal will serve as song leader. The four church choirs will also participate in the services. Rev. McGibney said, "Come and bring your friends for a treat of sermon and song."

Rogers - Walker Wedding Sept. 19

The marriage of Miss Bobbie Jean Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Rogers, and Mr. John F. Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walker, was solemnized in the Walton Christian Church on September 18th at 7:30 p. m. Rev. William Moore officiated. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of chantilly lace and tulle. The lace bodice was finished with lily point sleeves attached to the fitted basque waistline was a beautiful skirt of tulle with lace panels flowing to the floor. The neckline was fashioned of scalloped lace and sequins. Her finger-tip veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of orchids and white mums.

The neckline was fashioned of scalloped lace and sequins. Her finger-tip veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of orchids and white mums.

Pamela Kay Robinson was the maid of honor. The bride's maids were Sandra Waddell and Bonnie Jo Osborne. They wore identical dresses and hats of various shades of pink and carried bouquets of pink carnations and mums.

The best man was Robert Hansman of Cincinnati. The ushers were Gary Waddell and Peter Seque. Charles Kevin Northcutt, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

After a honeymoon trip to the Smoky Mountains, they will make their home in Cincinnati.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mrs. Gladie Burchiel, grandmother of the groom, from Ontario, Canada; Mr. and Mrs. Murray Hoskins, Ontario, Canada; Mr. and Mrs. Ora Thurber of Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Walker, Jr. of Paris, Texas; Mrs. Charles Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Barnes and daughter, Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Kinman of Frankfort, Mrs. Clarence Potter and daughters of Columbus, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Osborne, Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carney, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Northcutt and sons of Lexington.

Buys Hereford Cattle

R. A. Turner, 5635 Wilson Road, Independence, last week purchased four registered Polled Hereford cows and calves from Joe A. Kandy of Elliston.

Walton Methodist Revival

Revival services will be held at the Walton Methodist Church, Friday, October 2 through Sunday, October 11, each evening at 7:30. Rev. J. B. Harmon, minister of the Herald Memorial Methodist Church at Raceland, Ky., will be the speaker. Glenn Hamilton, of Erlanger, will have charge of the song services. The minister, Charles G. Dearinger, and the membership extend a cordial invitation to the public to worship during these special services.

FAIR BOARD TO MEET

The Kenton County Fair Board announces that the next meeting will be held October 8 at the Independence Courthouse, 8 p. m. This is the first meeting to be held after the fair in August. Financial reports and other business will be transacted. All persons interested are invited to attend, and help with planning for next year's fair, according to Laverne Wolsing, the secretary.

Headquarters Open Daily

Boone County Republican Headquarters, 278 Main St., Florence, is now open between the hours of 2:00 and 4:00 p. m. each weekday and all day on Saturdays, according to Mrs. Howard Ravenscroft, co-chairman of the Goldwater-Middleton campaign in Boone County. Voters interested in acquiring information and literature on national and local candidates are invited to come in or call 282-1606.

Literary Club to Meet

The Walton-Women's Literary Club will meet on Wednesday, October 7, at 2:00 p. m., at Southern Trails Restaurant, Florence. The speaker will be Mr. Eugene Robinson, whose topic will be "Education, Contours and Transformations For Our Rapidly Changing World." Hostesses are Mrs. B. W. Franks and Mrs. Alan H. Gaines.

Boone Co. Council PTA

The Boone County Council PTA held the first meeting of the current school year on Tuesday, Sept. 22. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Harry Henson, who led in the pledge of allegiance to the flag. The devotional was given by Arnold Marshall, principal of the Florence Elementary School. The following chairman were appointed: Membership, Mrs. Ralph Pfalzgraf; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Harold Chute; Publicity, Mrs. Russell Jackson; Program, Mrs. Andrew Jarman; Character and Spiritual, Mrs. Clarence Major; Ways and Means, Mrs. Clarence Aschcraft; Magazine, Mrs. Billie Burkhardt; Citizenship, Mr. Bruce Ferguson. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 27, in the Florence School.

Wiley Announces 4-Point Program

A four-point program has been announced by Charles Wiley, Republican candidate for Boone County judge. They are:

1. Boone County first, politics second. A county administrator must not work for the people, he must work with the people. 2. I propose no new taxes. Taxes are already too burdensome. We will make do with what we have and from what we can rightfully obtain from our state and federal governments. I do not believe we are getting our fair share now. Stretching our tax dollars will take plenty of imagination and ingenuity. But America's greatness was built on imagination and ingenuity, not on burdensome taxation.

3. I propose progress. We will change the "status quo" to "status go." With already-offered help of two able Senators, and an able Congressman after November 3, we shall promote, build, and enrich our county with every proper and justifiable means.

4. I propose leadership. This means action, not prospective action. This means decisions, not hesitations. When jobs are to be done and problems solved, the jobs will be done and the problems will be solved... judiciously, promptly and in the best interests of the county. The commitments of the office will be handled clearly, concisely, and orderly... and with understanding.

Duval at Burlington

Mr. F. E. Duval, a contact representative of the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Servicemen's Board will be present on Wednesday, October 7th, at the Court House in Burlington, Ky., to assist veterans and their families with claims for benefits due them as a result of their military service. He will be present from 9:00 a. m. until 11:00 a. m.

Reading Consultant At All Saints School

Your child may have 20-20 vision or may even wear corrective glasses, he may have adequate mental ability, and have good teachers, but he is still unable to read as well as he should. You know it, his teacher knows it, and above all, your child knows it. You may be able to help your child.

You are invited to a meeting at All Saints School, Walton, Thursday, October 9, at 8:00 p. m., when Dr. Samuel Lee will speak on the subject, "Your Child and Learning."

Dr. Lee is a graduate of the Ohio State University School of Optometry. His post graduate training includes seminars and courses in remedial reading, developmental reading, industrial and school visual skills, the Winter Haven program relating to visual and perceptual maturation, and school achievement, the Optometric Extension program of child guidance, and the Gesell Institute of Child Development visual behavior and development.

He has served as reading consultant to the Atomic Energy Commission, General Electric Co., Central Trust Co., Lodge & Shipley, and Cincinnati Gas & Electric.

At present, Dr. Lee is a lecturer on reading and study skills at Villa Madonna College, and also consultant on visual problems in school achievement at Cincinnati Country Day School. All parents and teachers are invited... no charge.

To Hear State President

The Keno Jaycees will hold their regular monthly meeting on Thursday night, October 1, at Cherokee Bowl, Taylor Mill Road. State President Jack Crump of Owensboro, will be the guest speaker. All members are urged to be present.

UNITED APPEAL LOGIC

United Appeal Logic is as simple as A-B-C. A means accountability for your dollars given.

B means budgeting agencies according to their share of the community dollar.

C means cutting the costs of campaigning by spending less to raise necessary funds through federation.

ABC through United Appeal also stands for A Better Community.

Simon Kenton PTA to Meet

The October 5 meeting of the Simon Kenton PTA will be held in the school cafeteria at 8:00 p. m. Mrs. Wesley Hall, president, and George H. Edmondson, principal, will be host and hostess for the evening. They will present and welcome members of the PTA and the faculty. Come to this meeting and all of them the remainder of the year. Your help and support is needed.

Junior Class Bake Sale

The Junior class of Walton-Verona High School will sponsor a bake sale at the Benton-Bonar Department Store this Saturday, October 3, starting at 9:00 a. m. There will be a nice variety of home-made items. Please buy your Sunday bakery items from this class. Your support will be appreciated.

Beechgrove Homemakers

The Beechgrove Homemakers held their first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. William Andrew, with Mrs. Howard Clark as co-hostess. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Roy Kummer.

The nomination of new officers was on the order of business: Mrs. Stanley Parker, president; Mrs. William Wolsing, vice president; Mrs. Virgil Kelly, treasurer, and Mrs. Raymond McHale, secretary. Chairmen were also appointed by the outgoing president, to carry on the work of the club.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. F. M. Powers.

By leaving early you give the others someone to talk about.

A Look At Education

SMOKING

There is to be no smoking in the school building by employees from the time the first student enters the building until the last student leaves. This means no club activities, play practice, basketball practice, etc. In order to create a good example adults should leave their cigarettes in their car or keep them concealed while performing their duties at school.

LUNCHROOM SUPERVISION

Teachers are to take their group to the lunchroom, supervise them during lunch and take them back to the classroom after lunch is over. If a student or teacher brings his lunch, this must be eaten in the lunchroom. Teachers will be seated with their class and supervise the group during the entire lunch period in the lunchroom and in the halls going to and from lunch. Charges will be kept to a minimum. After charges have accumulated to 10 the principal will be notified and no more charges until the problem has been discussed with the parents.

No food of any type will be carried out of the lunchroom. No food will be sold or eaten in the classroom except at authorized parties.

STUDY HALLS

Study halls are provided for students to do library research and to study. Most assignments and homework can be done here if time is utilized. It is imperative that our study halls and library be no place where there are little or no distractions so people that desire to study can do so. Teachers are requested to supervise these periods very closely and not allow distractions of any kind. Teachers are assigned to keep a study hall are not to use the time for some of their work but have a great responsibility in helping and directing the study habits of students. Sometimes a study hall requires more of a teacher than a class, and the teacher must give of what is required to do a good job.

You can do almost anything automatically these days—even save money

If you want to wash clothes or dishes, nowadays, you just put them in a machine... set it... and forget it. If you want to save money you just join the Payroll Savings Plan. It's just as automatic. And there's no machine to buy.

To start, ask your employer to set up a small amount from your check each payday and put it towards the purchase of a U. S. Savings Bond. Then forget it.

As paydays roll by, your savings build up. No effort. Since you don't even see the money you're saving, you hardly miss it. No pain. Millions of Americans save money this way so you know it works. As well as providing for their own future, their Bond dollars help safeguard America by giving Uncle Sam financial strength to stand up to the enemies of freedom.

You like the things money buys. Why not use this automatic way to get them? Join Payroll Savings—or sign up for a Bond a month at your bank. Soon.

MORNING VIEW

Helen Dance, Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Duncan and children invited Mr. and Mrs. William Dance and Helen to dinner last Sunday evening at their home on Taylor Mill. After a delicious meal all adjourned to chat and play croquet. Later in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Cordell Eldridge and children, Janey and Carmen, and Mr. and Mrs. Laney Duncan played a short but pleasurable visit.

We are proud to report that the M.Y.F. of Morning View church was able to show their first movie on the new projector last Sunday night. As you probably recall, the projector was purchased with the funds raised from the summer festival and ice cream social at the church.

Simon Kenton was the scene of hilarious antics last Friday. You see, it was FFA initiation day. The girls were all dressed up in their fathers' shirts and ties, skirts upside down and wrong side out. On their shirts, the letters FFA were put in red while their hair was tied in numerous pigtails with red and white ribbons. No makeup was to be worn. One shoe was to be a flat with a man's sock and the other a loafer or a tennis shoe with a nylon stocking, while their purses were made up from shopping bags. This concluded the girls' gay apparel but the antics had just begun. Since the senior girls had top priority they had the right to make the new member do numerous stunts, such as hop up and down, clap her hands and sing the school song. Since it is all over now the girls await the time when they become a senior FFA girl so that they can order some other girls to do the same stunts.

Well, the Cincinnati Reds are coming up, up, up. WCKY is now saying it is the home of the "Red Hot Reds". The Phillies seem to be headed toward a tailspin. Maybe I should have criticized the Reds sooner. Since I wrote my last column they took a series from the Phillies and one from the Mets. So, even if they don't win the pennant, I wish to apologize to them for they are certainly working hard enough to get it. Let's get behind them and "Root the Reds Home!"

Thought for the week: The best way to avoid trouble with someone else is to do battle with your self first.

Veterans Administration Questions and Answers

Q-Am I still eligible for a GI loan?

A-All Korean veterans are and some World War II veterans still are. You should write to the VA Regional Office of the state where you live and request VA Form 1880. A determination will be made after you submit this form.

Q-I was discharged from service over one year ago. Can I get dental care from the VA?

A-Only if your dental condition is compensable, or is due to injury in service, or related to being a prisoner of war, or aggravates a service-connected compensable condition, or if you are under the VA Vocational Rehabilitation program. Spanish American War Veterans can get dental care whenever needed.

Q-My service-connected disabilities have gotten worse. Can my compensation be increased?

A-Send a statement from your doctor to the VA and request reconsideration of your claim.

Kenton Elementary PTA

F. D. Caton, principal of the Kenton Elementary School, gave a very interesting and informative talk on "Kenton Elementary Meets A New Year," at the September meeting of the Kenton Elementary PTA.

Mrs. Willard Slade, PTA president, called this first meeting to order and introduced the Executive Board that is to serve the year with her. It was also urged that all parents join and take an active part in PTA work.

The second grade of Mrs. Popp won the attendance award.

County Agent's 1/2 Acre

—by—
Joe Claxon

Don't waste your time and money spraying evergreens for the control of bagworms. It is too late in the season now.

The bagworms live in spindle-shaped bags on juniper, cedar, arbutus, and some shade trees. They are voracious eaters, even through the caterpillars never leave the bags in which they live.

The bagworm is ready now to enter the wintering stage. Females will soon lay several dozen eggs in the spindles. Next spring these will hatch and small caterpillars will start feeding on foliage of the host plants. However, you can control the pest by picking the individual spindle-shaped bags off the trees or shrubs. These should be burned to destroy the eggs.

In early spring, you can use Malathion, Toxaphene, Diazinon or lead arsenate for sprays. County agents have information on rates, etc.

The present generation of bagworms are in the resting or pupa stage.

Beans and peas, dried or stored at home for future use often become infested with weevils. These small insects damage the beans or peas by eating holes in them.

Storing beans or peas in tight containers will prevent weevil infestation during storage. You can use metal canisters, glass jars, plastic bags, or any other container tight enough to keep out the weevils. However, beans and peas often become infested during the drying period and in these cases the weevils will continue to do damage even if the products are stored in tight containers. To kill any weevils that may be present when the beans or peas are stored, put one teaspoon carbon tetrachloride per five pounds of beans or peas into the container with the stored products and seal tightly.

Carbon tetrachloride, a volatile liquid available at any drug store, rapidly turns into a gas. If the container of beans or peas is kept sealed for at least 24 hours, the carbon tetrachloride gas kills any weevils that are present. Carbon tetrachloride will not harm either the food value or the germinating ability of the beans or peas. And, since the gas will escape as soon as the sealed container is opened, beans or peas protected in this way against weevils are quite safe for eating purposes.

TAYLOR MILL PTA

At the initial fall meeting of the Taylor Mill PTA on Monday, Sept. 21, the annual membership campaign was launched. Mrs. Lucile Holler, president, introduced Mrs. Ray Linder, membership chairman, who announced as her co-chairman, Mrs. Bonnie Smith and Mrs. Jean Shetler, teachers. There is to be a room contest for memberships, using the theme, "Get in the Picture with Your PTA". Three awards will be given.

The annual festival was announced for Saturday, October 24, with Mrs. Arthur Bingham, vice-president, as chairman.

Members of the executive board were introduced, and these committee chairmen: Mrs. C. Thomas Wilcoxson, program; Mrs. Joseph Bishop, budget; Mrs. Joseph Wren, character and spiritual; Mrs. Wm. E. Johnson, room representative; Mrs. Ray Linder, membership; Mrs. Clarence McCord, hospitality; Mrs. R. B. Dougherty, social; Mrs. James Dorman, parliamentarian; Mrs. Robert Petty, health; Mrs. Julie Lehman, library; Mrs. Howard Moak, safety; Mrs. Richard Williams, music; Mrs. Robert L. White, magazines; Arthur Bingham and Elmo Thompson, better schools; and Mrs. Malcolm Fletcher, publicity.

Mrs. Richard Williams was elected recording secretary upon the resignation of Mrs. Everett Bolen. Mothers of new students were recognized and invited to attend "Get-Acquainted Breakfast" on Wednesday in the school cafeteria.

Edgar Baker, principal, introduced the faculty and announced the addition of a new music teacher, Mrs. Linda Fugitt.

The room count was won by the fourth grade of Mrs. Rich. Referees were served by the executive board.

OAK RIDGE

Shirley Tallent, Reporter

Congratulations to our local Boy Scout Troop, 766, which is sponsored by the Taylor Mill Boys Club and meets at Oak Ridge Baptist Church. They won a cup as the best overall patrol at the Nipperine District Camporee, held last weekend at the Taylor Mill Swim Club.

We were sorry to lose two good friends last week. Mrs. Rema Ashcraft, a fellow member of Oak Ridge Homemakers Club, died unexpectedly at her home Wednesday. On Thursday, Walter Perry was found dead sitting in a chair on his front porch. We valued the friendship of both these people and will miss them.

Mrs. Alma Yates and Mrs. Chester Tallent attended the North Central Region WMU meeting in Lexington, Thursday. There were over 40 women from this North Bend Association who attended the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Richardson are going to Miami, Fla. this week to attend a convention. They also plan to visit Ted's sister, Joyce Carter, in Melbourne, Fla. Mrs. Mabel Richardson was supposed to go with them but she won't get her foot out of the cast in time.

Miss Sharon Heidel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heidel of Wayman Branch Road, and Mr. Francis (Buddy) Lechmann, will be married Saturday afternoon at

Reclamation: Better Land, More Jobs

PREVIOUSLY UNEMPLOYED fathers of dependent families are clearing and grading land and filling in erosion gullies in preparation for tree-planting and grass seeding next spring in Eastern Kentucky. In left photo is a "catch basin" at the side of the road to collect water draining from abandoned mines on the mountain, preventing road-washing and holding valuable top-soil from going down the mountain. In right photo a gully is filled with large rocks to slow down the flow of water. The reclamation project in Bell and Harlan counties is under the direction of the State Department of Natural Resources and is reclaiming 2,000 acres of strip mine spoil banks. The Department of Economic Security interviews and assigns the workers to the project.

Traillblazers 4-H Club

The Traillblazer 4-H Club held its September meeting at the Independence Christian Church. The meeting was called to order by the president, Carl H. Wicklund.

After the pledge to the American and 4-H flag the secretary's report was given. The treasurer reported on the booth at the County Fair. The president turned over to the treasurer a check for $5.00, our prize money for the candy sale.

The work on the War Memorial I and II in the courthouse yard was discussed. Dr. Neu from the Extension Service met with our members last fall and planned what we should do about the shrubbery. This spring all the old shrubbery was removed and new shrubbery planted. We had to place a fence around the shrubbery to protect it from the dogs. The weeds worked us overtime, and the boys had a watering job also, but it looks very nice. The weather was too hot for our flowers. This fall we are going to plant pumpkins, such as crocus, cyclamths, grape cyclamths, and perhaps some other so they will bloom in the early spring. In the late spring we will plant summer flowers.

Plans were made to try to secure some new members. If there are any youth that would like to work in a 4-H club, we would welcome you as a member. Call Mrs. Casey at 358-5755 or Mrs. Wicklund at 358-4011 or Mrs. Parker at 556-5552. Or come to our next meeting October 5, 7:30 P. M. at the Independence Christian Church basement.

We are proud to announce we have secured a man who is interested in helping, especially the boys, Mr. Charles Casey, come on boys and work with him.

Ann Wicklund—Reporter

Notes of Servicemen

Pfc. Jack E. Hamon, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hamon, 444 S. Oliver Road, Independence, and other members of the Seventh U. S. Army, have been participating in Exercise Fallex 64, an 8-day NATO directed and controlled exercise in Germany, which ended September 28.

An ammunition records clerk in Headquarters Detachment of the 1st Ordnance Battalion, near Heilbronn, Hamon entered the Army in May 1963 and received basic training at Ft. Knox. He arrived overseas in October 1963.

Airman Dennis L. Garnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond R. Garnett, 3029 Richardson Road, Independence, has completed the first phase of his Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB in Texas.

Airman Garnett has been selected for technical training as a communications specialist at the Air Training Command school at Keeler AFB in Mississippi.

Specialist Four Marvin Lovelace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lovelace, 230 Center St., Florence, and other members of the Seventh U. S. Army, participated in Exercise Fallex 64, an 8-day NATO directed and controlled training exercise in Germany, which ended Sept. 28.

Specialist Lovelace is assigned as a teletype operator in Company C of the 460th Signal Battalion, near Kaiserslautern, Germany. He entered the Army in July 1958 and was last stationed in Boeligen, Germany.

Marine Private Woodrow Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Ross, Route 1, Walton, completed four weeks of individual combat training September 18 at the Second Infantry Training Regiment, Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

A/2 Ronald Beach left for Hahn, Germany, September 15, where he will be with the U. S. Air Force for three years. He entered the service in August of 1961 after graduating from Walton-Vernon High School. Mrs. Beach and their two children leave for Germany, Sunday.

Ronald has a brother, Bobby Beach, with the U. S. Army in Africa. He and his family will be there three years.

These two servicemen are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Beach, Walton.

PTA Workshop Is Held

Mrs. Gertrude Henson, membership chairman for the New Haven PTA, recently held a workshop at her home. Plans were made for increasing the membership for the new year.

Mrs. Henson stated that she hoped every parent would not only become a member of the PTA but would attend meetings and participate in the activities.

Others attending the workshop were Mrs. Ruth Johnson, Mrs. Mae Comer, and Mrs. Thelma Martin.

Ryland Heights PTA Meet

The first fall meeting of the Ryland Heights PTA was attended by a full house Sept. 22 in the Ryland Elementary School.

Mrs. Alfred Wilson, president, presided and introduced the executive board. William Barnard gave an inspiring devotion, "Training Our Children." Hayes Wilcox, principal of the school, introduced each teacher.

Mrs. David NeCamp, program director, presented Don Davis, assistant superintendent of Kenton County Schools. He spoke on the importance of regular school attendance.

Miss Alma Cottengim's third grade room received the attendance banner.

Mrs. John Ferguson will direct the Fall Festival sponsored by the PTA. The event will be held on October 16 in the school from 5:00 to 9:30 p. m.

NEW HAVEN PTA MEETS

The New Haven Elementary School PTA held its first meeting of the year in the school cafeteria. Mrs. Kathleen Wiley, president, opened the meeting by leading those present in pledging allegiance to the flag. Mrs. Jo Criss gave the spiritual message. Mrs. Wiley introduced the following officers and chairmen:

First vice president, Mrs. Mary Haines; second vice president, Mrs. Sara Ashcraft; secretary, Mrs. Mary Ann Hatten; treasurer, Mrs. Ora Presser; and by and means, Mrs. Bert Tanner; safety, Mrs. Audrey Guard; room mothers, Mrs. Ruth Johnson; hospitality, Mrs. Jeannette Smith; publicity, Mrs. Thelma Martin; program, Mrs. Mary Haines; procedure and by-laws, Mrs. Ada Horton; poster, Mrs. Martha Baugh; juvenile protection, Beth and Bruce Ferguson; membership, Mrs. Gertrude Henson; cultural arts, Elizabeth Stephenson; eye examination, Mrs. Sara Ashcraft; budget, Mrs. Ora Presser; character and spiritual, Mrs. Jo Criss; congress publications, Mrs. Joyce Tolliver.

H. P. Baker, school principal, introduced the teachers, and each presented a gift. He asked for volunteers to help with the school for trainable children. The classes are held at Union Presbyterian Church. Interested persons are to contact Rev. Hoffman.

Mrs. L. L. Franks, a Boone County woman, who was for 20 years principal of Lincoln Elementary School in Clinton, Mo., provided the most interesting speech. A past president and life member of PTA, she believes the parent-teacher organization is a very necessary one, as it furnishes a link between the school and the home. She further stated that most problems are due to misunderstanding, and parents and teachers working together can help children become better citizens.

Mrs. Sara Ashcraft and Mrs. Thelma Martin were appointed to attend the Boone County PTA Council.

A social hour followed. Hostesses were Mrs. Jeannette Smith, Mrs. Josephine Haynes and Mrs. Gertrude Henson.

Chicken Soup Cookout

Due to rain last Sunday, causing cancellation of the chicken soup cookout given by the Boone County Memorial Veterans of Foreign Wars Post, 6609, the affair is to be scheduled again this Sunday, Oct. 4 (weather permitting) at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Horton in Union.

"Why do I buy U.S. Savings Bonds? One reason is because I figured it was time to stop talking about protecting our way of life and do something about it."

"Then, of course, there's the fact that Savings Bonds are a great place to put away money for emergencies, for retirement—for anything. They're as good as Uncle Sam and that's plenty good enough for me."

"There's something mighty right about buying a Bond. You'll get that feeling, too."

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Letters Into Books

Lesson for October 4, 1964

Background Scriptures: 1 Timothy 1:1-11;
1 Timothy 1:1-2; Titus 1:1-2;
Devotional Reading: Philippians 2:14-24.

"WHAT IN the world were you reading from?" one of the congregation asked the preacher. They had had a service of ordination at which a number of new church officers had been installed, and the preacher had read from the New Testament in a modern (McFadyen) translation. "I was reading from First and Second Timothy," the preacher replied to the man's question.

"Never heard Dr. Foreman anything like it," the questioner went on. "Best thing on church officers I ever heard. I had had no idea what Timothy and Titus were all about."

Who?

The short "Books" we call Timothy, Titus and Philemon, were originally letters. Who wrote them? This may not be the most important question but it is one of the most interesting. We run head-on into long arguments when we ask flatly: who wrote these letters? (There's no problem about Philemon; we shall come to that in time. But Timothy I and II, and Titus, present a problem.) The early Christians who adopted these books into their still growing New Testament (so new it did not have a name) thought that Paul wrote them.

Careful study given by many scholars over many years has shown, however, that in large sections of these books the ideas and the way they are expressed, and—what is most remarkable—the very words used, are distinctly different from the known letters of Paul. We can run up the evidence by saying that there are parts of these letters which read (in Greek, the language in which they of course were written) exactly like Paul and are almost certainly from his pen and mind. There are other sections which do not read like Paul. A conclusion reached by many is that either some one else wrote the letters, quoting extensively from Paul; or that Paul wrote the original letters, and either he or some editor added material from some one else.

What? The what is more important than the Who? What are these letters-to-books concerned with? What problems do they bring out? What answers do they give? What good are these very ancient letters to the living church today? Such questions will be with us for the next three months. We can give a sort of short statement here at the beginning as to what these small books are all about. They deal with leadership in the church.

Why? But why this interest in leaders, all of a sudden? The reason is simple. The earliest Christians had no formal organization. They could not have conceived that they would need one. For Jesus was coming soon, they all thought. Today in the church you may hear the expressions like "our children's children" or "future generations" or the "future of man." The earliest Christians would have thought such expressions nonsense. But as time went on and the church's first leaders grew to be old men, it was clear that there would have to be some thinking done about the future years. Some one had to pass on the Gospel. Some one had to be sure nothing of the good in the early years of enthusiasm should be lost. Some one had to preserve the tradition. Some one had to make certain the teachings of Christ and his apostles were not forgotten nor distorted. Time was passing—had indeed passed—when they could say, "We'll dash off a note to Paul or Peter or some one who knew Jesus and they'll tell us." A new generation was growing up. It was felt then, and it is true today, that Christianity could go to nothing, in one generation, unless wise plans were made. So the usefulness of these "Pastorals" is as new as the continuing need for Christian leaders for every generation.

In the past decade, production of farm products increased 27 per cent, despite sharp reduction in acreage of land and amount of labor used in crop production. The quantity of fertilizer and lime increased about 40 per cent since 1950.

GROWING TOGETHER

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

20 YEARS AGO

OCTOBER 5, 1944

With the Boys in Service: Cpl. Vernon F. Lipscomb, son of Rev. and Mrs. Frank Lipscomb, Morning View, is stationed somewhere in England...this paper has received some interesting stories from him; two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barhorst, Route 1, Independence, are serving with the Navy; a citation has been won by Pvt. Thos. J. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Stewart, Burlington, who is somewhere in France, for extraordinary heroism and bravery in the performance of his duty on the initial assault of Normandy, D-Day, June 6; Cpl. Harlan H. Marsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Marsh, Fowler Creek Road, Independence, was killed in action somewhere in the South Pacific, his parents were advised; Pvt. Jesse McMillan, stationed in Italy, and James F. Armstrong, S. 1c, somewhere in the Pacific, both sons-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Littrell, Verona, have written nice letters this week; S. 1c Dick Bolen is enjoying his leave at home after several months in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wallace accompanied Mrs. Mollie Wallace to Patriot, Ind., Saturday to attend the funeral of Dr. G. A. Mottier. Mrs. Kenneth Johnson gave a delightful dinner party for her son, Kenneth, Jr., Wednesday, in honor of his 16th birthday. Those enjoying the occasion were Misses Anna Lee Coop, Marcella Satchell and Patty Johnson, Jack and Buddy Rouse, Kenneth, Jr., and the hostess' father, Wm. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ransler are enjoying a visit with their son and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Grubbs and family of Miami and Coral Gables, Fla.

Mrs. Edgar Cason returned to her home in Auburndale, Fla., after a visit with her nieces, Pearl Stephenson and Anna Mae Bush, of near Walton. Clyde Chapman, of the U. S. Navy, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chapman, of Concord, over the weekend. His wife and two children of Louisville, came up to be with him.

Miss Melva White entertained Friday evening with a surprise party in honor of Miss Daisy Hill. Guests present were Rev. C. G. Dearing, Rev. B. F. Garrett, Mrs. Georgia Stephenson, Mrs. M. R. Cheesman, Mrs. John Hanks, Mrs. Virginia Gaines, Mrs. Stanley Bush, Mrs. Wilford Rice, Wayne Rice, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Doan, Powers Conrad, Mrs. Cynthia White, Mrs. Mattie Dudgeon, Mrs. Lucy Sanning, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Knox, Mr. and Mrs. Opal Simpson, Vera and Donna Joy Wright, Mrs. Ruth Smith, Mrs. Corinne Markberry, Mrs. Ann Dudgeon, Mrs. Dora Fields, Mrs. Beach, Mrs. Richard Howard, Mrs. Ida Caldwell, Miss Gladys Dudgeon, Mrs. Grace Baker, Miss Grace Hanks, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wilson, Mary Kay Wilson, Paul, Marvin and Ernest Price. All left wishing Daisy many more happy birthdays.

Pvt. Dolly Jean Sedaries, daughter of Mrs. Harold Dickerson, and a member of the Marine Corps, recently completed "boot" training at Camp LeJeune, N. C. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Struve, Route 2, Walton.

Why folks want to sing in the bathtub!

The simple answer is because they're happy.

And they should be! What's more relaxing after a hard day's work than a long, warm soaking in the bathtub. In a few minutes, you feel like a new man (or woman)!

This is only one of the big advantages of having a modern, electric water heater and water system. You'll find that many of your household chores are so much easier...and require a lot less time...when you have all the hot water you want...when you need it.

An electric water heater and system is inexpensive yet it means so much to your family's comfort and happiness.

A Look At
Education—by—
Eugene Robinson

Discipline

Unless an unusual case arises, teachers are expected to handle their own discipline problems. Use good judgment in your decisions and at all times maintain your self control. Good discipline begins on the first day of school and ends when the last bell is rung on the last day of school.

Teachers are not discouraged in the use of the paddle if the case warrants its use. Always keep in mind that physical images can be inflicted upon a student with this form of punishment. Be sure that you use a witness when you paddle a pupil (any other school employee, never another student). Use the paddle when needed, but be careful and always maintain your self-control. If you have lost your temper, do not use the paddle. Try to look upon the use of the paddle as the last resort in disciplinary measures.

The use of the paddle on high school students may be questionable in some cases. If you feel that it will help solve the problem, use it. Very often a high school student, usually a boy, can better be punished by banning him from some activity he enjoys. This is also applicable to girls. It is advised that men teachers do not use the paddle on girls of any age. In any case where the paddle is used, it is advised that the teacher notify the principal of the case and the reason for such punishment. This is requested so that the office may be well grounded with the facts of the situation in the event that a parent should challenge the handling of the case. In cases of parental challenge the teacher will be called in to defend his measure of discipline. The administration will support you 100 percent on all discipline cases. Always be firm, fair and sure. Teachers are expected to maintain discipline whenever and wherever they see a breach of good procedure. This applies not only to school hours, but to school events such as class plays, practice sessions of all kinds, buses, athletic contests, music programs and any other school function. Boys and girls who are prone to pair off and visit constantly should be made to understand that the school is not the place for such things. Here the teacher is responsible.

No teacher will dismiss or put a student out of the class for not doing his assignments. If a student does not do his work then he has failed. Dismissal from class should be made to understand that the school is not the place for such things. Here the teacher is responsible.

No teacher will dismiss or put a student out of the class for not doing his assignments. If a student does not do his work then he has failed. Dismissal from class should be made to understand that the school is not the place for such things. Here the teacher is responsible.

Promotion

In order to be promoted a student is expected to pass 3/4 of his subjects except in the cases where teachers feel exceptions should be made for the child's benefit. In the main elementary students must pass 3/4 of all subjects, Junior high and high school students will pass three of four, four of five, and four of six subjects. Very rarely should exceptions be made on 8th graders going into high school.

Summer School &amp; Correspondence

No student can be permitted to take advanced work in required subjects either by correspondence or in a summer session in another school.

Students who have failed a required subject may be permitted to make up the credit either by correspondence or in a summer session in another school.

All correspondence courses (elective or required) must be taken through a college. This may be a state college or a nearby out-of-state college. Correspondence work from any other school will not be accepted.

To Attend Co-op Meeting

Russell Clinkenbeard of Morning View, will represent Southern States Cooperative members in the Walton area at the cooperative's district election meeting to be held October 15 at the Phoenix Hotel in Lexington.

James H. Lipscomb, Walton, manager of the local Southern States retail outlet is the above area, will also attend.

Bradford Lodge to Meet

Bradford Lodge, 123, F&AM, will hold its regular meeting Thursday evening, October 8, at 7:30 p. m. in the lodge rooms at Independence. William H. Appel, Master, will preside.

All members are urged to give their support, and all visiting members are welcome.

Retarded Children's Worker
Becomes Kentucky Colonel

Rev. Ralph Hoffman, pastor of the Union Presbyterian Church, was commissioned a Kentucky Colonel by Acting Governor James Ware for his work for the mentally retarded children.

Rev. Hoffman became aware of the needs of these children while serving on the Advisory Board of the Boone County Association for Retarded Children. He and members of his church offered a classroom for the private class for the trainable retarded children, which the association opened last January.

The Boone County School Board took over the responsibility of this class in September. It is the first class for trainable retarded children in a public school system in Northern Kentucky.

Now, as president of the local association, Rev. Hoffman is most interested in reaching parents of retarded children in the Walton-Verona area and has called a meeting for this purpose, to be held in the cafeteria of the Walton Public School at 7:30 p. m., Tuesday, October 13.

A local parent, Harold Johns of High Road, presented the Kentucky Colonels Commission to the Rev. Mr. Hoffman.

Democrats Organize At September 28 Meeting

The Democrats of Boone County held an organizational meeting at the Burlington Courthouse, Monday, September 28, for support of John H. Humphrey presidential ticket. This also included county officials to be elected in November. Precinct chairmen and chairwomen were selected, which will be published later.

The following county chairmen and chairwomen were selected: County chairman, Burnan Roberts; county chairwoman, Jean P. Nelson; finance chairman, Wilton Stephens; publicity, Nellie McCarty.

A $10-a-plate fund raising dinner will be held at the Barkley House on October 24, at 7:30 p. m.

The guest speaker will be Congressman Frank Chelf. Former Governor Bert Combs will attend.

The committee in charge of arrangements are Wilton Stephens, Gil Clifton and Mrs. Elizabeth G. Nestor.

Judging Team At Kentucky State Fair

Five boys and their advisor from the Simon Kenton Chapter of the Future Farmers of America represented Simon Kenton High School in dairy judging and seed identification at the State Fair, Sept. 17-18.

Greg Harrison, Jim Osburn, Bob Kamaday and alternate, Randall Hampton, participated in the dairy judging. John Halsey participated in seed identification. Results are not yet known.

"On our trip to Louisville, we traveled the expressways, which are very beautiful this time of the year. Our first stop was at Frankfort, where we had the pleasure of seeing the State Capitol and the big, beautiful flower clock which was very colorful."

"While we were in Louisville, we stayed at the Army, which is just outside the fair grounds. While at the Army we had the opportunity of meeting and being with FFA boys from all over Kentucky. Although we didn't get any sleep, we enjoyed it anyway."

"On our trip home we traveled U. S. 42, where we had a very nice time when we stopped at Markland Dam. We had the pleasure of watching a barge go down the river through the locks. A good time was enjoyed by everyone."

—Bob Kamaday

Carnation Clowns Coming

The Carnation Clowns are coming to Walton, Friday and Saturday. They will have a sound truck and will visit the schools and give free balloons, suckers, pencils, etc. to the children. They will also be at the Walton IGA Market. A visit is sponsored by the Carnation Milk Co.

Kenton County PTA
Council Meets at Y

New officers and chairmen of the Kenton County PTA Council were introduced at the initial session of the 1964-65 season at the Covington YMCA, conducted by the president, Mrs. Frank Palmer, Jr.

Other officers of the council are: Mrs. Vincent Hartje, first vice president; Mrs. James Thomas, second vice president; Mrs. Malcolm Fletcher, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles C. Adams, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Wesley Hall, treasurer.

Chairmen are, Mrs. Wesley Hall, budget; Mrs. W. Mack Head, by-laws; Mrs. R. W. Bachmeyer, character and spiritual education; Mrs. William Lail, civil defense; Mrs. Richard Williams, cultural arts; Mrs. James Thomas, founders' day; Mrs. Joe Magee, hospital; Mrs. Robert Harvard, legislation; Mrs. Charles Adams, May luncheon; Mrs. Walter Ramey, membership; Mrs. W. S. Kliney, parent education; Mrs. Harold Buxton, parliamentary procedure; Mrs. James Feagan, program; Mrs. Howard Frederick, publications; Mrs. Robert Pank, publicity; and Mrs. Raymond Evans, scholarships.

The president, Mrs. Palmer, stressed that a "strong PTA unit is a well-informed unit." She urged PTA members attend the council meetings.

The next council meeting will be held November 16 at the YMCA. The guest speaker will be Edward Reardon, teacher in charge of Child Guidance Home School, Cincinnati. His topic will be, "Emotional Problems Among Children."

Whink Party at Kenton

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Kenton Community Volunteer Fire Department will hold a Whink Party, Wednesday, Oct. 14, at 8:00 p. m., in the Firehouse, Kenton. There will be free lunch and refreshments.

The Auxiliary will also have a skating party at Lloyd's Roller Rink, Thursday night, October 8. All proceeds from these affairs will be used for the benefit of the Fire Department.

Farm Bureau King and Queen Contest, Oct. 9

Mrs. Demaree Murphy, District Chairman of Kentucky Farm Bureau Women, will be presiding at the District King and Queen Contest, Discussion Meet, and Talent Show to be held Friday, October 9 at 7:00 p. m., in Twentyninth Junior High School, Taylor Mill Road.

Gifts of silver will be awarded the winner by one of the large grocery chains.

Paul Kunkel and Charlotte Richardson will be representing Kenton County in the King and Queen contest, and Rhonda LaFollette will be the representative in the Junior Talent show.

The public is invited.

Mobile X-Ray Unit To Be In Boone County

The big white trailer, the Mobile X-Ray Unit, manned by the Kentucky State Department of Health, is a familiar and pleasing sight to Boone countyans. For several years it has come to the Health Department and has welcomed all comers with a free chest x-ray.

The trailer is coming again to Boone County on October 9, and will be located at the Health Department in Florence. Hours of operation will be 10:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon and 1:00 to 3:00 p. m. All persons 18 years of age and over are eligible for this free chest x-ray.

An Open Letter—

To Parents of Retarded Children: Will you please come to the Walton-Verona High School and attend the meeting of the Boone County Council for Retarded Children. The time 7:30, October 13, in the school cafeteria.

The council wants to reach all parents in this area. In order to do this, parents can help best by coming and letting their needs be known.

The council, churches and friends are ready and willing to help but first we, as parents, must welcome this help. I say this because I am a mother of a retarded child and I feel she has been helped so much from church classes and Sunday school which the council sponsored in the spring of 1964, from January 29 to May 28, at Union Presbyterian Church. Parents and friends come out and support this worthy cause.

Record Crowd at Local PTA Meeting

The Walton-Verona PTA had a record-breaking attendance at the first meeting of the year, last Monday night, when over a hundred interested parents and teachers came out to support the school. Rev. William Moore gave a challenging devotional.

Mrs. Maud Webster, president, presided during the business session at which time Mrs. Jan Ryan, treasurer, explained the budget of $1,055.88, which means a lot of work but some worthwhile achievements. The PTA voted to buy four sets of encyclopedias and 30 dictionaries which are needed in the two schools, for the first project of the year. This action showed desire to carry through the theme that the president, Mrs. Webster, expressed when she said, "Progress through Action" will make a bigger and better PTA organization.

Miss Alyce Egan and Harry Sleet gave reports on Girls' State and Boys' State, two fine encampments that the PTA supports each year. There was also a report from the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary in Walton.

Eugene Robinson, superintendent, introduced the teachers and made some announcements. He expressed his appreciation for the fine attendance and support of this organization in the two schools. American Education Week will be observed November 8-15, with open house being planned for one night during that week. This announcement was made by John Shoemaker, principal.

Plans for the Fall Festival were made. Mrs. Mike Ryan will serve as general chairman, and serving on the planning committee with Agriculture and Home Economics Extension Service, Deputy Circuit Clerk of Independence, Deputy County Clerk of Independence, and the Independence Fire Department.

Another project of the PTA, not included in the budget, is the purchase of a piano for the Walton school. This to be done by donating filed stamp books or donations in money. Contact Mrs. John Taylor for more details.

Mrs. Mathis' fifth grade received the prize in the room count with 15 parents present.

The October meeting will be on the 26th at the Verona school. This will be the Fathers' Night and complete plans for the Fall Festival will be announced.

Y-Teen Conference
Set For October 10

The State Y-Teen Conference will be held Saturday, October 10 at the new Danville High School, Danville, Ky.

The theme, "I Dare You," will be presented by the keynote speaker, Dr. Rex Knowles, Dean of the Chapel, Centre College, Danville.

Another important speaker will be Mrs. Lois Gatz, who will also act as a workshop leader. She is presently executive director of the Charleston, West Virginia YWCA and the former director of the National YWCA magazine. She has worked with the international division of YWCA in several countries in Africa.

Registration will begin at 8:30, and the meeting will close at 2:30. Deadline for voting will be 12:30. Also on the agenda will be election of new state officers and their installation service. This program will be of great interest to all active Y-Teens.

Fish Fry Is Planned

IT'S THAT TIME OF THE YEAR

We have endeavored to mail our Rural Fire Protection Plan to every person living around Walton. However, we know there will be omissions, duplications, and wrong addresses. It is almost impossible to keep an up-to-date mailing list. Many people have helped us compile these names and we thank them. If by chance you receive a brochure after paying your protection for 1964-1965, please disregard it, as many firemen are at different times doing the folding, addressing, and mailing. If you own property acquired within the last year and do not receive a brochure, let us know so we can cover you under our Protection Plan.

This is Fire Prevention Week and our message to you is this: Fires are not preventable accidents, but the consequences of neglect and carelessness. And Fire Prevention Week is a time to check defenses against fire in our homes and places of work, to make sure our personal habits are fire safe ones. Remember, fire prevention is YOUR job, too.
